Call for proposals — EACEA/34/07 (Extension of the deadline and modification of requirements on partnership composition for Lot 12 (Asia 1))

Erasmus Mundus External Cooperation Window

Implementation of mobility actions in the academic year 2008/2009

(2008/C 68/09)

LOT 12: Afghanistan, Bhutan, Nepal, Pakistan and optional countries (Sri Lanka, India, Indonesia, Malaysia, Philippines, Thailand, China, North Korea, Myanmar/Burma and Maldives).

New deadline

The new deadline for submission of proposals under Lot 12 has been extended to 15 April 2008.

Partnership composition

Concerning the participation of the Third-countries institutions, the partnership composition must include at least one university from one of the following four countries: Afghanistan, Bhutan, Nepal and Pakistan. Priority will be given to partnerships which include two or more universities from the four countries initially targeted in the lot (Afghanistan, Bhutan, Nepal and Pakistan).

Minimum number of individual mobility flows

The total minimum number of individual mobility flows for the Lot 295 must be respected. The minimum number of individual mobility flows per each of the targeted countries indicated in the lot (Afghanistan, Bhutan, Nepal and Pakistan) has to be respected, in case that a higher education institution from these countries is included in the partnership.

All other requirements set in the call EACEA/34/07 (OJ C 291, 5.12.2007, p. 12) remain applicable.
