(2016/C 163/01)

INTRODUCTION

Le présent rapport porte sur les activités menées en 2014 et 2015 par l'Union européenne et ses États membres dans le cadre de la mise en œuvre de la position commune 2008/944/PESC du Conseil ([1]). En ce qui concerne les données relatives aux exportations d'armes conventionnelles, le rapport porte sur l'année civile 2014.

En 2014 et 2015, l'Union européenne et ses États membres ont poursuivi la mise en œuvre de la position commune 2008/944/PESC du Conseil définissant des règles communes régissant le contrôle des exportations de technologie et d'équipements militaires, qui a remplacé en 2008 le code de conduite de l'Union européenne en matière d'exportation d'armements qui était en vigueur depuis juin 1998.

L'article 15 de la position commune prévoit que celle-ci soit réexaminée trois ans après son adoption. Sur cette base, le Conseil de l'Union européenne a réalisé, avec le concours du groupe «Exportations d'armes conventionnelles» (COARM) du Conseil, une évaluation approfondie des dispositions et de la mise en œuvre de la position commune. Ainsi que l'a indiqué le Conseil des affaires étrangères dans ses conclusions du 19 novembre 2012, les premiers résultats de cette évaluation ont confirmé que le texte de la position commune permettait d'accentuer encore la convergence des politiques des États membres en matière d'exportation. Le réexamen effectué a permis de relever plusieurs domaines dans lesquels de nouvelles améliorations pouvaient être apportées à la mise en œuvre concrète de la position commune, et des travaux ont été menés en conséquence en 2014 et 2015. Ces développements ainsi que l'entrée en vigueur du traité sur le commerce des armes (TCA) ont été pris en compte dans les conclusions du Conseil des affaires étrangères du 20 juillet 2015 sur les résultats du réexamen.

Les pays tiers mentionnés ci-après se sont officiellement ralliés aux critères et aux principes énoncés dans la position commune 2008/944/PESC: l'Albanie, la Bosnie-Herzégovine, le Canada, l'ancienne République yougoslave de Macédoine, la Géorgie, l'Islande, le Monténégro et la Norvège. Un système spécifique d'échange d'informations entre l'Union européenne et les pays tiers qui se rallient à la position commune est en place depuis 2012.

L'année 2014 a été marquée par la promotion de régimes effectifs de contrôle des exportations d'armements dans des pays tiers ciblés, dans le cadre de la décision 2012/711/PESC du Conseil du 19 novembre 2012 concernant le soutien des activités de l'Union visant à promouvoir, auprès des pays tiers, le contrôle des exportations d'armements et les principes et critères de la position commune 2008/944/PESC ([2]).

L'Union européenne et ses États membres ont participé activement au processus préparatoire du TCA mené en 2014 et 2015, dans le contexte de l'entrée en vigueur du traité intervenue le 24 décembre 2014. Ils ont aussi participé activement à la première conférence des États parties (Cancún, Mexique, du 24 au 27 août 2015) et se sont félicités des résultats positifs et concrets de la conférence, qui a adopté des fondements solides pour le traité. Avec l'adoption de la décision 2013/768/PESC du Conseil ([3]), les activités menées par l'Union européenne en faveur de la mise en œuvre effective et de l'universalisation du traité se sont intensifiées en 2014 et 2015, le nombre de pays partenaires bénéficiaires concernés par la feuille de route est passé à dix, auxquels s'ajoutent plusieurs partenaires ad hoc, et un certain nombre d'actions d'information et de sensibilisation ont été menées avec succès au niveau régional. Le programme de l'Union européenne, mis en œuvre par l'Office fédéral allemand de l'économie et du contrôle des exportations et cofinancé par la République fédérale d'Allemagne, permettra, comme par le passé, d'aider un certain nombre de pays tiers, à leur demande, à renforcer leurs systèmes de contrôle des transferts d'armes, conformément aux exigences du TCA.

I. MISE EN ŒUVRE DE LA POSITION COMMUNE 2008/944/PESC DU CONSEIL

1. Mise en œuvre de la position commune 2008/944/PESC

La position commune est une évolution du code de conduite de l'Union européenne en matière d'exportation d'armements, qu'elle a remplacé en décembre 2008. Elle prévoit notamment l'extension des contrôles au courtage, aux opérations de transit et aux transferts intangibles de technologie, ainsi que des procédures renforcées visant à promouvoir la convergence des politiques des États membres en matière d'exportation.

Les États membres transposent les dispositions de la position commune dans leurs régimes nationaux de contrôle des exportations et ont l'obligation de veiller à ce que leurs dispositions législatives ou administratives nationales soient conformes à la position commune. Le tableau C qui figure en annexe fait le point sur la transposition de la position commune dans les régimes nationaux de contrôle des exportations d'armes des États membres.

Notifications de refus et consultations

Les notifications de refus et les consultations bilatérales se poursuivent à un rythme quotidien via COREU, le réseau électronique de l'Union européenne, ce qui assure la transparence entre les États membres à l'égard de pays de destination finale et d'utilisateurs finals déterminés.

Les notifications de refus ainsi que les résultats des consultations bilatérales sont consignés dans une base de données électronique centrale de l'Union européenne dédiée aux refus. Gérée par le Service européen pour l'action extérieure, cette base de données constitue un système dynamique reflétant les politiques des États membres en matière de contrôle des exportations d'armes. Dans un proche avenir, les notifications de refus et les consultations seront gérées sur une plateforme informatique spécifique, plus accessible et plus conviviale.

Le nombre de refus notifiés en 2014 est indiqué à la ligne d) des tableaux figurant dans le tableau AI (voir annexe) pour chaque destination et pour chacune des catégories de la liste des équipements militaires. Le nombre de consultations émises et reçues par chaque État membre ainsi que le nombre de consultations pour chaque destination figurent respectivement dans les tableaux BI et BII.

2. Guide d'utilisation

Le guide d'utilisation est un instrument essentiel qui récapitule les orientations arrêtées en ce qui concerne la mise en œuvre du dispositif de la position commune 2008/944/PESC et l'interprétation des critères qui y sont énoncées. Il est visé à l'article 13 de la position commune.

Ce guide a été élaboré par le groupe COARM du Conseil et fait l'objet de mises à jour lorsque cela est nécessaire. Il a été mis à jour pour la dernière fois en juillet 2015 au terme du réexamen de la position commune 2008/944/PESC. Il s'adresse en premier lieu aux agents chargés de délivrer les autorisations d'exportation, contribuant ainsi largement et de manière pragmatique à la convergence des politiques et des procédures des États membres en matière de contrôle des exportations d'armes. Il s'agit d'un document public disponible sur le site Internet du Service européen pour l'action extérieure ([1]).

Bonnes pratiques concernant l'interprétation des critères

Les bonnes pratiques concernant l'interprétation des critères de la position commune 2008/944/PESC ont été élaborées par le groupe COARM sur la base des bonnes pratiques en vigueur au niveau national et compte tenu des contributions d'autres parties concernées, dont la société civile.

Ces bonnes pratiques visent à assurer une plus grande cohérence entre les États membres dans l'application des critères de la position commune, notamment par le recensement de facteurs à prendre en compte lors de l'évaluation des demandes d'autorisation d'exportation. Elles sont destinées aux agents chargés de délivrer les autorisations d'exportation et à d'autres agents des services et organismes publics compétents. Le processus de prise de décision s'appuie sur l'expertise de ces agents en ce qui concerne les questions régionales, juridiques (par exemple la législation en matière de droits de l'homme, le droit international public) et techniques, ainsi que les questions liées au développement, à la sécurité et au domaine militaire.

3. Réexamen de la position commune 2008/944/PESC

L'article 15 de la position commune prévoit que celle-ci soit réexaminée trois ans après son adoption. Sur cette base, le groupe COARM du Conseil a entrepris en 2012 une évaluation approfondie des dispositions de la position commune. La participation de parties concernées, telles que le Parlement européen et la société civile, a été assurée dans le cadre des réunions habituelles. L'évaluation liée au réexamen a montré que la position commune et les instruments qu'elle fournit continuent de servir de façon adéquate les objectifs fixés par le Conseil en 2008 et constituent toujours une base solide pour la coordination des politiques des États membres en matière d'exportation d'armes.

Dans le même temps, il est aussi ressorti du réexamen que des progrès supplémentaires pouvaient être réalisés dans la mise en œuvre effective de la position commune afin de favoriser au mieux la convergence des politiques des États membres en matière d'exportation d'armes. Dans cette optique, des travaux ont été menés en 2014 et 2015 sur des aspects tels que le contenu informatif et le nouveau système informatique dédié au mécanisme de notification des refus de consultation. Certaines sections du guide d'utilisation ont également été mises à jour, notamment à la suite du réexamen et de l'entrée en vigueur du TCA. Les résultats du réexamen ont été enregistrés dans les conclusions du Conseil des affaires étrangères du 20 juillet 2015.

4. Actions d'information et de sensibilisation

L'article 11 de la position commune prévoit que «les États membres font tout ce qui est en leur pouvoir pour encourager les autres États exportateurs de technologie ou d'équipements militaires à appliquer les critères de la […] position commune». Les actions d'information et de sensibilisation menées à la fois par l'Union européenne et les différents États membres se sont poursuivies en 2014, comme indiqué dans le tableau D figurant en annexe. En vertu de la décision 2012/711/PESC du Conseil ([1]) mise en œuvre par l'Office fédéral allemand de l'économie et du contrôle des exportations, un certain nombre d'ateliers, de visites d'étude et d'activités d'assistance adaptées à des besoins spécifiques ont eu lieu au niveau régional. En outre, d'autres actions d'information et de sensibilisation régionales ont été menées au titre de la décision 2013/768/PESC du Conseil, afin de favoriser la mise en œuvre effective et de l'universalisation du TCA.

5. Réunions dans le cadre du dialogue politique

Dans le cadre du dialogue politique, des réunions consacrées aux questions relatives au contrôle des exportations d'armes ont eu lieu en 2014 et 2015, sur une base semestrielle, avec la Norvège, le Canada, l'Ukraine et les États-Unis. Elles ont permis des échanges fructueux sur des questions d'intérêt mutuel telles que les politiques d'exportation vers certaines destinations, le respect des dispositions relatives aux exportations d'armes, les questions liées au contrôle et le processus du traité sur le commerce des armes.

6. Actualisation de la liste commune des équipements militaires de l'Union européenne

En vertu de l'article 12 de la position commune, la liste commune des équipements militaires de l'Union européenne couvre l'éventail minimum des articles militaires que les États membres sont tenus de soumettre au contrôle des exportations. Elle est identique à la liste des produits liés à la défense figurant à l'annexe de la directive 2009/43/CE du Parlement européen et du Conseil du 6 mai 2009 simplifiant les conditions de transferts de produits liés à la défense dans l'Union européenne ([2]).

Le 9 février 2015, le Conseil a adopté une version actualisée de la liste, qui tient compte des modifications que l'Arrangement de Wassenaar est convenu d'apporter à sa liste des munitions lors de son assemblée plénière de 2014. La version actualisée de la liste commune des équipements militaires de l'Union européenne a été publiée par la suite au Journal officiel de l'Union européenne (JO C 107 du 9.4.2014, p. 1).

7. Courtage en armements

En vertu de l'article 5 de la position commune 2003/468/PESC du Conseil du 23 juin 2003 sur le contrôle du courtage en armements ([3]), les États membres ont mis en place des arrangements particuliers pour l'échange d'informations concernant les licences de courtage accordées ou refusées. En outre, les États membres qui exigent des courtiers qu'ils obtiennent une autorisation écrite pour exercer une activité de courtage et/ou qui ont établi un registre des courtiers en armements ont mis en place des arrangements particuliers pour l'échange d'informations utiles concernant les courtiers inscrits au registre. Des informations sur les licences de courtage accordées ou refusées par les États membres de l'Union européenne sont données dans le tableau AIII figurant en annexe.

Le tableau C figurant en annexe donne des précisions sur la mise en œuvre au niveau national de la position commune 2003/468/PESC.

8. Dialogue avec le Parlement européen et les ONG

Le dialogue avec le Parlement européen sur les questions liées au contrôle des exportations d'armes se tient en règle générale chaque année, sous la forme d'une audition d'un fonctionnaire du Service européen pour l'action extérieure (SEAE). En 2014 et 2015, le SEAE a également eu des contacts réguliers avec les membres du Parlement européen au sujet du traité sur le commerce des armes, et il a répondu à un nombre important de questions parlementaires sur les exportations d'armes.

Conformément aux pratiques suivies par le passé, des réunions du groupe COARM avec des organisations non gouvernementales ont été organisées sur une base semestrielle au cours de la période 2014-2015.

II. TRAITÉ SUR LE COMMERCE DES ARMES (TCA)

1. Entrée en vigueur en décembre 2014

Les États membres de l'Union européenne ont contribué, dans une large mesure, à l'entrée en vigueur du TCA, intervenue le 24 décembre 2014; vingt-six ratifications étant à mettre à leur actif sur les cinquante nécessaires à l'entrée en vigueur du traité. À ce jour, ils ont tous signé le TCA et vingt-sept l'ont ratifié. L'Union européenne en tant que telle ne peut être partie au TCA dans la mesure où celui-ci n'est pas ouvert à l'adhésion d'organisations d'intégration régionale mais uniquement à celle d'États membres.

2. Participation au processus préparatoire du TCA et à la première conférence des États parties

Le processus préparatoire du TCA s'est déroulé en 2014 et 2015 sous la présidence de l'ambassadeur du Mexique, M. Jorge Lomónaco, avec l'objectif de préparer les décisions devant être prises par la première conférence des États parties. L'Union européenne et ses États membres y ont contribué activement, deux États membres notamment ayant joué un rôle de facilitateur (la France, pour les questions liées au Secrétariat, et la Suède, pour l'établissement des modèles de rapports) et deux autres États membres (Autriche et Allemagne) ayant accueilli des réunions dans ce cadre (en novembre 2014 à Berlin et en avril 2015 à Vienne). L'Autriche et l'Allemagne ont également fait partie du Groupe des amis de la présidence, soutenant la présidence mexicaine tout au long du processus préparatoire.

L'Union européenne et ses États membres ont activement participé et contribué aux réunions du processus préparatoire organisées en 2014 et 2015 (Mexico/septembre 2014, Berlin/novembre 2014; Port of Spain/février 2015, Vienne/avril 2015 et Genève/juillet 2015). Ils ont aussi participé activement à la première conférence des États parties (Cancún, Mexique, du 24 au 27 août 2015) et se sont félicités de ses résultats positifs et concrets, la conférence ayant adopté des fondements solides pour le traité (en prenant notamment des décisions sur le siège, la taille et la direction du Secrétariat du TCA, le règlement intérieur et le règlement financier, en prenant note des modèles provisoires de rapports présentés et en se prononçant sur la voie à suivre en matière de rapports).

3. Programme d'appui à la mise en œuvre adopté par l'Union européenne en vertu de la décision 2013/768/PESC du Conseil

Dans le droit fil du soutien qu'ils apportent de longue date au TCA, l'Union européenne et ses États membres s'attachent à présent à promouvoir sa mise en œuvre effective et son universalisation. Afin de pouvoir relever ces défis, l'Union européenne a adopté en décembre 2013, en vertu de la décision 2013/768/PESC du Conseil, un programme ambitieux et concret d'appui à la mise en œuvre pour les pays tiers.

Mis en œuvre par l'Office fédéral allemand de l'économie et du contrôle des exportations, ce programme permet d'aider un certain nombre de pays tiers, à leur demande, à renforcer leurs systèmes de contrôle des transferts d'armes, conformément aux exigences du traité. Des efforts soutenus sont en outre entrepris pour sensibiliser au traité les pays qui n'y sont pas encore parties. Des précisions sur les activités menées au titre du programme de l'Union européenne sont données dans le tableau D figurant en annexe.

III. ORIENTATIONS PRIORITAIRES À L'INTENTION DU GROUPE COARM POUR LE PROCHE AVENIR

L'adoption de la position commune 2008/944/PESC, qui est juridiquement contraignante, a permis de mettre en place les éléments fondamentaux d'une approche commune en matière de contrôle des exportations d'armes conventionnelles par les États membres. En dépit de l'avancée que constitue cette adoption, les travaux doivent se poursuivre, notamment au niveau de la mise en œuvre de la position commune, comme cela a été indiqué lors du réexamen dont elle a fait l'objet. Dans le prolongement des conclusions du Conseil du 19 novembre 2012 et du 20 juillet 2015, des améliorations utiles pour la mise en œuvre de la position commune font actuellement l'objet d'une mise au point au niveau du groupe COARM.

Les orientations prioritaires pour le proche avenir sont les suivantes:

1. poursuivre et éventuellement intensifier les échanges, entre les États membres, d'informations pertinentes sur les politiques en matière de contrôle des exportations d'armes vers certaines destinations;
2. finaliser la mise en place de la nouvelle plateforme informatique dédiée au mécanisme de notification des refus et de consultation;
3. veiller à ce que les États membres qui ne l'ont pas encore fait adoptent les dispositions réglementaires ou administratives nationales qui permettront de mettre pleinement en œuvre:
   — la position commune 2003/468/PESC sur le contrôle du courtage en armements,
   — la position commune 2008/944/PESC définissant des règles communes régissant le contrôle des exportations de technologie et d'équipements militaires;
4. favoriser la mise en œuvre effective et l'universalisation du traité sur le commerce des armes, notamment au moyen du programme ad hoc d'appui à la mise en œuvre pour les pays tiers, adopté par l'Union européenne en vertu de la décision 2013/768/PESC du Conseil;
5. soutenir les États membres pour contribuer au bon déroulement de la mise en place du régime institué par le TCA, notamment en ce qui concerne le démarrage des activités du Secrétariat et les efforts visant à accroître la transparence;
6. continuer à développer les échanges d'informations et de bonnes pratiques avec les pays tiers qui se sont ralliés à la position commune 2008/944/PESC;
7. continuer à encourager les autres États exportateurs d'armes à appliquer les critères de la position commune;
8. poursuivre le dialogue avec le Parlement européen et continuer à développer les relations avec la société civile et le secteur concerné;
9. veiller à la mise au point et à la publication rapides du dix-huitième rapport annuel de l'Union européenne sur les exportations d'armes.

TABLE A.I

Figures of Table A.I are broken down per Member State, and where possible per EU Common Military List category where (a) = number of licences issued; (b) = value of licences issued in euros; (c) = value of arms exports in euros (if available). ([1])

Total EU licence refusals to each destination, region and worldwide are provided, broken down by EU Common Military List category; (d) = number of licence refusals (small discrepancies may appear between breakdowns and totals due to refusals concerning more than one ML item or refusals for items other than those appearing in the ML ([2]); (e) = criteria numbers on which refusals are based (the approximate number of times each criterion is invoked is indicated in brackets).

NB: Statistics are compiled differently by each Member State: no uniform standard is used. Consequently, owing to current procedures regarding arms export reporting or data protection legislation, not all countries have been able to submit the same information ([3]):

— The EU User's Guide stipulates that just the value of actual exports to each destination needs only to be provided where it is available. With regard to actual exports authorised by EU Member States (row c)), it is important to note that Belgium, Denmark, Germany, Poland, Greece, Ireland and the United Kingdom could not provide these data while France and Italy have reported total values only. No aggregation is therefore reported at the EU level.

— With regard to the use of global and general licences notably applied to intraEU transfers pursuant to Directive 2009/43/EC, it is important to note that the actual value of arms transfers and exports under global and general licences is generally reported by EU Member States. This is however dependant on the Member States' ability to report on actual values (row c)) as described above and to possible additional national specificities as explained in footnote n°3.

([1]) To make the table more readable, nil values and/or the mention 'not available' are omitted, and empty rows deleted

([2]) Concerning refusals (row (d)), totals do not always correspond to the sum of the refusals shown per military list item; this is because in some instances one refusal concerns more than one military list item, and in some instances refusals which have been issued in accordance with the Common Position for items which do not appear on the military list (for example dual use items for military end-use) are included in the total.

([3]) (i) Concerning Austria: with regard to items covered by the EU Common Military List, the Austrian law distinguishes between 'war material' (as stipulated in the Austrian War Material Act and Regulation) and 'equipment on the Common Military List not listed as war material' covered by the Austrian Foreign Trade Act. As to category c) value of actual exports by Military List Category, figures may be inaccurate in particular as such data regarding equipment of the Common Military List not listed as war material is available to the competent authorities only after expiration or full utilization of the individual export license.

(ii) Concerning the Czech Republic: In rows a) and b) are not included General transfer licences and Global transfer licences pursuant to Directive 2009/43/EC, which could cover goods of more than only one ML Category and allow exports to more than only one Member State. In addition to that, some other licenses issued cover goods of more than only one ML Category and their value is the total value of all covered goods. Due to this fact, in rows b) are not included these types of licences. The sums in rows c) are based on information provided by exporters and also contain actual exports made in 2014 based on licences issued in a previous year.

(iii) Concerning Germany: some licenses issued cover goods of more than one ML Category (e.g. one license for the export of rifles and their ammunition). In reporting in table A.I., each time a license concerns a MLcategory, it is counted as one single license, so the sums in rows a) and column 'Total per destination' do not always reflect the actual numbers of licenses granted, but a slightly higher figure (i.e. the number of times a ML category has been affected by a license for that destination).

(iv) Concerning France: Export data provided by France for 2014 indicate a large increase, which actually corresponds to the complete scope of licences granted and not to actual exports (row c). This is due to:

— France substantially overhauled its export control system in June 2014 in notably shifting from a two-step control system (prior agreement and actual export authorisation) to a single licence-based system. This shift has entailed the addition of the values of both the prior agreements granted and the export authorisations, which has therefore inflated the overall value of licences reported. Furthermore, the implementation of this change in the licensing system has driven a large number of exporters to request that their prior agreements already granted be converted into single licences. Comparison between 2014 data and earlier data is therefore irrelevant due to this change in the reporting.

— French authorities now require exporters to apply for licences in the earliest phase of market prospection and to inform in this regard on achievement potential. As early as the negotiation phase, operations such as disseminating documentation, demonstrations, participation in call for tenders require a licence. Such comprehensive control and transparency approach entails a large value of licences granted and reported which does not reflect the value of actual orders finally made.

(v) Concerning the Netherlands: As values of global licences cannot always be attributed to individual military list categories or individual countries, quoted total values indicated are higher than the sum of the values per ML category or per destination. The figures on actual exports reported by the Netherlands are based on information provided by the exporters in 2014, and may reflect exports based on a licence issued in a previous year. Although much care has been given to the collection of the data on actual exports, the actual exports figures for 2014 may be higher than the values quoted in this report.

(vi) Concerning Hungary: data provided includes figures of general, global and individual export licences. Transfers of military equipment to the Hungarian Forces deployed in various missions (table AII) are not considered regular foreign trade transactions, because there is no actual payment taking place.

(vii) Concerning Sweden: The Swedish currency (SEK) is converted to (EUR) using the average exchange rate for 2014 (9,14). Rows a, b and c covers transfers/exports according to Regulation (EU) 258/2012 when also covered by Swedish Act (1992:1300) on War Material. Since some licenses cover goods of more than one ML category, each time a license concerns an ML category, it is counted as one single license. As value of Global licenses not always are visible ('Unlimited value') figures will occur only in row a and not b. I this case as more than one country of destination normally are covered for the same ML, it is counted as one single license for each country of destination.

— data are reported in Euros and accordingly converted from national currencies for Member States not having the Euro as national currency. Please bear in mind the possible exchange rate fluctuations between the data collection at national level, the date of reporting to the EU level and the date of consultation of the data.

It is important to bear in mind that exports to destinations subject to EU arms embargoes comply with the terms, conditions and possible exceptions set out in the decisions imposing such embargoes. The full list and details of embargoes are available at: http://eeas.europa.eu/cfsp/sanctions/docs/measures_en.pdf.

Exports to UN mandated or other international missions are further reported in table AII.
