3. Administración del cupo arancelario

3.1. México administrará el cupo arancelario de acuerdo con uno de los siguientes métodos o cualquier combinación de ellos:

i) método basado en la presentación cronológica de solicitudes (i.e. el método «primero en tiempo, primero en derecho»);

ii) método de distribución en proporción a las cantidades solicitadas en el momento de presentar la solicitud (i.e. el método de «examen simultáneo»);

iii) método basado en la consideración de los patrones tradicionales de comercio (i.e. el método de «importadores tradicionales/nuevos entrantes»).

3.2. Hasta el 31 de diciembre de 2003, México podrá reservar parte del cupo arancelario para los fabricantes establecidos en México que cumplan con las disposiciones del Decreto para el fomento y modernización de la industria automotriz del 11 de diciembre de 1989, reformado el 31 de mayo de 1995, siempre que, por lo menos, una cantidad equivalente al 4 % del total de ventas en México se ofrezca primero a otros operadores.

3.3. No obstante lo dispuesto en el párrafo 3.1, cualquier parte del cupo arancelario reservado para los fabricantes de acuerdo con el párrafo 3.2 será asignado entre todos los fabricantes de manera no discriminatoria, según la cantidad de vehículos listados en el párrafo 5 fabricados por cada uno de ellos en México durante el año anterior.

3.4. Cualquier método o combinación de métodos que se escoja para administrar el cupo arancelario deberá permitir la utilización plena del mismo y evitar cualquier discriminación entre los operadores involucrados.

4. Disposiciones generales

4.1. El Comité conjunto podrá modificar las disposiciones relativas a la administración del cupo arancelario.

4.2. México comunicará a la Comisión Europea las reglas detalladas que se adopten para la administración del cupo arancelario, así como información detallada sobre cada asignación.

4.3. Las Partes sostendrán consultas regularmente, pero al menos una vez al año. A petición de cualquiera de ellas se reunirán inmediatamente.

5. Productos sujetos a la aplicación de esta sección

Artículo 5

Productos suficientemente transformados o elaborados

1. A efectos del artículo 2, se considerará que los productos que no son totalmente obtenidos han sido suficientemente elaborados o transformados cuando cumplan las condiciones establecidas en el apéndice II.

Las condiciones mencionadas anteriormente indican, para todos los productos amparados por esta Decisión, la elaboración o transformación que se ha de llevar a cabo sobre los materiales no originarios utilizados en la fabricación de esos productos, y se aplican únicamente en relación con tales materiales. En consecuencia, se deduce que, si un producto que ha adquirido carácter originario al reunir las condiciones establecidas en el apéndice II para ese producto se utiliza en la fabricación de otro, no aplican las condiciones relativas al producto en el que se incorpora, y no se deberán tener en cuenta los materiales no originarios que se hayan podido utilizar en su fabricación.

2. No obstante lo dispuesto en el párrafo 1, los productos que no sean totalmente obtenidos listados en el apéndice II (a) serán considerados suficientemente elaborados o transformados, para propósitos del artículo 2, cuando cumplan las condiciones establecidas en la lista del apéndice II (a).

Las disposiciones de este párrafo aplicarán por los períodos o a los productos listados en el apéndice II (a).

3. No obstante lo dispuesto en el párrafo 1, los materiales no originarios que, de conformidad con las condiciones establecidas en la lista, no deberían utilizarse en la fabricación de un producto, podrán utilizarse siempre que:

a) su valor total no supere el 10 % del precio franco fábrica del producto;

b) no se supere, por la aplicación del presente párrafo, ninguno de los porcentajes indicados en la lista como valor máximo de los materiales no originarios.

Este párrafo no se aplicará a los productos clasificados en los capítulos 50 a 63 del sistema armonizado. Para esos productos se aplicará lo dispuesto en el apéndice I.

4. Los párrafo 1 a 3 serán aplicados, excepto por lo dispuesto en el artículo 6.

([1]) A efectos de este párrafo, el término «nacionales» incluye las sociedades.

Artículo 6

Operaciones de elaboración o transformación insuficiente

1. No obstante lo dispuesto en el párrafo 2, las operaciones que se indican a continuación se considerarán elaboraciones y transformaciones insuficientes para conferir el carácter de productos originarios, ya sea que se cumplan o no los requisitos del artículo 5:

a) las manipulaciones destinadas a garantizar la conservación de los productos en buen estado durante su transporte y almacenamiento (ventilación, tendido, secado, refrigeración, congelación, inmersión en agua salada, sulfurosa o en otras soluciones acuosas, separación de las partes deterioradas y operaciones similares);

b) la dilución en agua o en otra sustancia que no altere materialmente las características del producto;

c) las operaciones simples de desempolvado, cribado, selección, clasificación, preparación de surtidos (incluso la formación de juegos de artículos), lavado, pintura, descascaramiento, desgrane o cortado;

d) i) los cambios de envase y las divisiones o agrupaciones de bultos, ii) el simple envasado en botellas, frascos, bolsas, estuches y cajas o la colocación sobre cartulinas o tableros, etc., y cualquier otra operación sencilla de envasado;

i) la combinación de dos o más de las operaciones especificadas en los incisos a) a h), y

j) el sacrificio de animales.

2. Todas las operaciones realizadas en la Comunidad o en México sobre un producto determinado se considerarán conjuntamente en el momento de determinar si las elaboraciones o transformaciones efectuadas deben considerarse insuficientes conforme con el significado del párrafo 1.

Artículo 7

Unidad de calificación

1. La unidad de calificación para la aplicación de este anexo será el producto concreto considerado como la unidad básica en el momento de determinar su clasificación de acuerdo con la nomenclatura del sistema armonizado.

Por consiguiente, se considera que:

a) cuando un producto compuesto por un grupo o ensamble de artículos se clasifica en una sola partida del sistema armonizado, la totalidad constituye la unidad de calificación;

b) cuando un envío consista de un número de productos idénticos clasificados bajo la misma partida del sistema armonizado, cada producto será considerado individualmente al aplicar las disposiciones de este anexo.

2. Cuando, con arreglo a la regla general 5 del sistema armonizado, los envases estén incluidos con el producto para su clasificación, serán incluidos para la determinación del origen.

Artículo 8

Separación contable

1. Cuando existan costos considerables involucrados en mantener inventarios separados de materiales originarios y no originarios idénticos e intercambiables, la autoridad gubernamental competente o las autoridades aduaneras podrán, a petición escrita de los interesados, autorizar el uso del método denominado «separación contable» para administrar estos inventarios.

2. Este método debe ser capaz de asegurar que, para un período de referencia específico, el número de productos obtenidos a ser considerados como «originarios» es el mismo que habría sido obtenido si hubiese habido separación física de los inventarios.

3. Este método será registrado y mantenido de acuerdo con los principios de contabilidad generalmente aceptados aplicables en el territorio de la Parte en la cual el producto sea fabricado.

4. La autoridad gubernamental competente o las autoridades aduaneras podrán conceder esta autorización, sujeta a cualquier condición que consideren apropiada.

5. El beneficiario de esta facilidad puede emitir o solicitar pruebas de origen, según sea el caso, para la cantidad de productos que puedan ser considerados como originarios. A petición de la autoridad gubernamental competente o las autoridades aduaneras, los beneficiarios proporcionarán una declaración de cómo han sido manejadas esas cantidades.

6. La autoridad gubernamental competente o las autoridades aduaneras vigilarán el uso de la autorización y podrán retirarla en cualquier momento si el beneficiario hiciere uso inapropiado de ella en cualquier forma o si no cumpliere con cualquiera de las otras condiciones establecidas en este anexo.

Artículo 9

Accesorios, piezas de repuesto y herramientas

Los accesorios, piezas de repuesto y herramientas que se expidan con un material, máquina, aparato o vehículo y sean parte de su equipo normal, y cuyo precio esté incluido en el precio de aquéllos, o no se facture por separado, se considerarán parte integrante del material, máquina, aparato o vehículo correspondiente.

Artículo 10

Surtidos

Los surtidos, según se definen en la regla general 3 del sistema armonizado, se considerarán como originarios cuando todos los productos que entren en su composición sean originarios. Sin embargo, un surtido compuesto de productos originarios y no originarios se considerará como originario en su conjunto siempre que el valor de los productos no originarios no exceda del 15 % del precio franco fábrica del surtido.

Artículo 11

Elementos neutros

Para determinar si un producto es originario, no será necesario establecer el origen de los siguientes elementos que pudieran haberse utilizado en su fabricación:

a) la energía y el combustible;

b) las instalaciones y el equipo, incluidas las mercancías que se utilicen en el mantenimiento de los mismos;

c) las máquinas, las herramientas, los troqueles y moldes, y

d) cualquier otra mercancía que no esté incorporada ni se tenga previsto que se incorpore en la composición final del producto.

TÍTULO III

CONDICIONES DE TERRITORIALIDAD

Artículo 12

Principio de territorialidad

1. Las condiciones enunciadas en el título II relativas a la adquisición del carácter originario deberán cumplirse sin interrupción en México o en la Comunidad.

2. En el caso de que las mercancías originarias exportadas de México o de la Comunidad a otro país sean devueltas, deberán considerarse no originarias, a menos que pueda demostrarse, a satisfacción de las autoridades aduaneras, que:

a) las mercancías devueltas son las mismas que fueron exportadas, y

b) no han sufrido más operaciones de las necesarias para su conservación en buenas condiciones mientras se encontraban en ese país, o al exportarlas.

Artículo 13

Transporte directo

1. El trato preferencial dispuesto en esta Decisión se aplicará exclusivamente a los productos que satisfagan los requisitos del presente anexo y que sean transportados directamente entre el territorio de la Comunidad y el de México. No obstante, los productos que constituyan un único envío podrán ser transportados en tránsito por otros territorios con transbordo o depósito temporal en ellos, si fuera necesario, siempre que los productos hayan permanecido bajo la vigilancia de las autoridades aduaneras del país de tránsito o de depósito y que no hayan sido sometidos a operaciones distintas a las de descarga, carga o cualquier otra destinada a mantenerlos en buen estado.

2. El cumplimiento de las condiciones contempladas en el párrafo 1 se podrá acreditar mediante la presentación a las autoridades aduaneras del país de importación de:

a) un documento único de transporte al amparo del cual se haya efectuado el transporte desde el país de exportación a través del país de tránsito; o

b) un certificado expedido por las autoridades aduaneras del país de tránsito que contenga:

   i) una descripción exacta de los productos,

   ii) la fecha de descarga y carga de las mercancías y, cuando corresponda, los nombres de los barcos u otros medios de transporte utilizados, y

   iii) la certificación de las condiciones en las que permanecieron las mercancías en el país de tránsito, o

c) en ausencia de ello, cualesquier documentos de prueba.

TÍTULO IV

REINTEGRO O EXENCIÓN

Artículo 14

Prohibición de devolución o exención de los aranceles de importación

1. Los materiales no originarios utilizados en la fabricación de productos originarios de la Comunidad o de México en el sentido del presente anexo, para los cuales se haya expedido o elaborado una prueba de origen de conformidad con lo dispuesto en el título V, no se beneficiarán en la Comunidad o en México de la devolución o la exención de los aranceles de importación.

2. Para propósitos de este artículo, el término «aranceles de importación» incluye los aranceles aduaneros, tal y como se definen en el párrafo 8 del artículo 3 de la Decisión, cuotas antidumping y cuotas compensatorias aplicadas de conformidad con el artículo 14 de la Decisión.

3. La prohibición del párrafo 1 se aplica a todas las disposiciones relativas a la devolución, la condonación o la falta de pago parcial o total de los aranceles de importación aplicables en la Comunidad o en México a los materiales utilizados en la fabricación, si esta devolución, condonación o falta de pago se aplica, expresa o efectivamente, cuando los productos obtenidos a partir de esos materiales sean exportados y no cuando sean destinados al consumo nacional ([1]).

4. El exportador de productos amparados por una prueba de origen deberá estar preparado para presentar en cualquier momento, a petición de las autoridades aduaneras, todos los documentos apropiados que demuestren que no se ha obtenido ninguna devolución o reintegro respecto de los materiales no originarios utilizados en la fabricación de los productos de que se trate, y que se han pagado efectivamente todos los aranceles de importación aplicables a esos materiales.

([1]) Las Partes acuerdan que el pago de los aranceles de importación puede ser diferido hasta después que el producto final es exportado, de manera tal que el destino final del producto pueda ser conocido por las autoridades.

5. Lo dispuesto en los párrafos 1 a 3 se aplicará también a los envases, en el sentido de lo dispuesto en el párrafo 2 del artículo 7, accesorios, piezas de repuesto y herramientas, en el sentido de lo dispuesto en el artículo 9, y surtidos, en el sentido de lo dispuesto en el artículo 10, cuando estos artículos no sean originarios.

6. Lo dispuesto en los párrafos 1 a 4 se aplicará únicamente a los productos exportados que se beneficien de cualquier trato arancelario preferencial en la otra Parte. Mas aún, no serán obstáculo para la aplicación de un sistema de restituciones a la exportación para los productos agrícolas.

7. Este artículo se aplicará a partir del 1 de enero de 2003.

TÍTULO V

PRUEBA DE ORIGEN

Artículo 15

Requisitos generales

1. Los productos originarios de la Comunidad, para su importación en México, y los productos originarios de México, para su importación en la Comunidad, se beneficiarán de esta Decisión previa presentación de:

a) un certificado de circulación EUR.1, cuyo modelo figura en el apéndice III, o

b) en los casos contemplados en el apartado 1 del artículo 20, una declaración, cuyo texto figura en el apéndice IV, dada por el exportador en una factura, una orden de entrega o cualquier otro documento comercial que describa los productos de que se trate con el suficiente detalle como para que puedan ser identificados (en lo sucesivo denominada «declaración en factura»).

2. No obstante lo dispuesto en el apartado 1, los productos originarios en el sentido de este anexo, en los casos especificados en el artículo 25, se beneficiarán de esta Decisión sin que sea necesario presentar cualquiera de los documentos antes citados.

Artículo 16

Procedimiento de expedición de certificados de circulación EUR.1

1. Las autoridades aduaneras o la autoridad gubernamental competente del país de exportación expedirán un certificado de circulación EUR.1 a petición escrita del exportador o, bajo su responsabilidad, de su representante autorizado.

2. A tal efecto, el exportador o su representante autorizado llenarán tanto el certificado de circulación EUR.1 como el formulario de solicitud, cuyos modelos figuran en el apéndice III. Esos formularios se llenarán en uno de los idiomas en los que se ha redactado la Decisión y de conformidad con las disposiciones de la legislación del país de exportación. Si se llenan a mano, se harán con tinta y en caracteres de imprenta. La descripción de los productos deberá figurar en la casilla reservada a tal efecto, sin dejar líneas en blanco. En caso de que no se llene por completo la casilla, se deberá trazar una línea horizontal debajo de la última línea de la descripción y una línea cruzada en el espacio que quede en blanco.

3. El exportador que solicite la expedición de un certificado de circulación EUR.1 estará preparado para presentar en cualquier momento, a petición de las autoridades aduaneras o de la autoridad gubernamental competente del país de exportación en el que se expida el certificado de circulación EUR.1, toda la documentación apropiada que demuestre el carácter originario de los productos de que se trate, y que se satisfacen todos los demás requisitos del presente anexo.

4. El certificado de circulación EUR.1 será expedido por las autoridades aduaneras o por la autoridad gubernamental competente cuando los productos de que se trate puedan ser considerados productos originarios de la Comunidad o de México, y cumplan los demás requisitos del presente anexo.

5. A tal efecto, estarán facultadas para solicitar cualquier prueba o llevar a cabo inspecciones de la contabilidad de los exportadores o cualquier otra comprobación que se considere necesaria. Las autoridades aduaneras o la autoridad gubernamental competente que expidan el certificado también garantizarán que se llenen debidamente los formularios mencionados en el párrafo 2. En particular, comprobarán si el espacio reservado para la descripción de los productos ha sido llenado de tal forma que excluye toda posibilidad de adiciones fraudulentas.

6. La fecha de expedición del certificado de circulación EUR.1 se indicará en la casilla 11 del certificado.

7. La autoridad aduanera o la autoridad gubernamental competente que expidan un certificado de circulación EUR.1 lo pondrán a disposición del exportador tan pronto como la exportación real haya sido efectuada o asegurada.

Artículo 17

Expedición posterior de certificados de circulación EUR.1

1. Sin perjuicio de lo dispuesto en el párrafo 7 del artículo 16, con carácter excepcional se podrá expedir un certificado de circulación EUR.1 después de la exportación de los productos a los que se refieren si:

a) no se expidieron en el momento de la exportación por errores u omisiones involuntarias o por circunstancias especiales, o

b) se demuestra a satisfacción de las autoridades aduaneras o de la autoridad gubernamental competente que se expidió un certificado de circulación EUR.1 que no fue aceptado a la importación por motivos técnicos.

2. Para efectos de la aplicación del párrafo 1, el exportador deberá indicar en su solicitud el lugar y la fecha de exportación de los productos a los que se refiere el certificado EUR.1 y las razones de su solicitud.

3. Las autoridades aduaneras o la autoridad gubernamental competente podrán expedir un certificado de circulación EUR.1 con posterioridad a la exportación solamente después de haber comprobado que la información proporcionada en la solicitud del exportador coincide con la que figura en el expediente correspondiente, y será aceptada por las autoridades aduaneras del país de importación, de acuerdo con la legislación de la Parte respectiva, tal y como se establece en el apéndice V.

4. Los certificados de circulación EUR.1 expedidos con posterioridad a la exportación deberán ir acompañados de una de las frases siguientes:

1. En caso de robo, pérdida o destrucción de un certificado de circulación EUR.1, el exportador podrá solicitar un duplicado a las autoridades aduaneras o a la autoridad gubernamental competente que lo hayan expedido. Artículo 19

Expedición de certificados de circulación EUR.1 sobre la base de una prueba de origen expedida o elaborada previamente

1. Será posible en cualquier momento sustituir uno o más certificados de circulación EUR.1 por uno o más certificados distintos, con la condición de que esta sustitución sea efectuada por la aduana o la autoridad gubernamental competente encargada del control de las mercancías.

2. Se considerará que el certificado sustituto constituye un certificado definitivo de circulación EUR.1 para los efectos de la aplicación del presente anexo, incluidas las disposiciones de este artículo.

3. El certificado sustituto se expedirá sobre la base de una solicitud escrita por parte del reexportador, después de que las autoridades respectivas hayan verificado los datos contenidos en la solicitud.

Artículo 20

Condiciones para extender una declaración en factura

1. La declaración en factura contemplada en el inciso b) del párrafo 1 del artículo 15 podrá extenderla:

a) un exportador autorizado según se define en el artículo 21, o

b) cualquier exportador para cualquier envío constituido por uno o varios bultos que contengan productos originarios cuyo valor total no supere 6 000 euros.

2. Podrá extenderse una declaración en factura si los productos de que se trata se califican como productos originarios de México o de la Comunidad y cumplen las demás condiciones previstas en el presente anexo.

3. El exportador que extienda una declaración en factura deberá estar preparado para presentar en todo momento, a petición de las autoridades aduaneras o de la autoridad gubernamental competente del país de exportación, todos los documentos apropiados que demuestren el carácter originario de los productos de que se trate y que se cumplen las demás condiciones previstas en el presente anexo.

4. El exportador extenderá la declaración en factura escribiendo a máquina, estampando o imprimiendo sobre la factura, la orden de entrega o cualquier otro documento comercial la declaración cuyo texto figura en el apéndice IV, utilizando una de las versiones lingüísticas de dicho apéndice, de conformidad con lo dispuesto en la legislación del país de exportación. Si la declaración se extiende a mano, se escribirá con tinta y en caracteres de imprenta.

5. Las declaraciones en factura llevarán la firma original manuscrita del exportador. Sin embargo, un exportador autorizado según se define en el artículo 21 no tendrá la obligación de firmar las declaraciones, a condición de que presente a las autoridades aduaneras o a la autoridad gubernamental competente del país de exportación un compromiso por escrito de que acepta la completa responsabilidad de aquellas declaraciones en factura que le identifiquen como si las hubiera firmado a mano.

6. El exportador podrá extender la declaración en factura cuando se exporten los productos a los que se refiera, o tras su exportación, siempre que se presente a la autoridad aduanera del país de importación no más allá del período establecido en la legislación de cada Parte, tal como está determinado en el apéndice V.

Exportador autorizado

1. Las autoridades aduaneras o la autoridad gubernamental competente del país de exportación podrán autorizar a todo exportador que efectúe exportaciones frecuentes de productos al amparo de esta Decisión a extender declaraciones en factura independientemente del valor de los productos de que se trate. Los exportadores que soliciten estas autorizaciones deberán ofrecer, a satisfacción de las autoridades aduaneras o de la autoridad gubernamental competente, todas las garantías necesarias para verificar el carácter originario de los productos, así como el cumplimiento de las demás condiciones del presente anexo.

2. Las autoridades aduaneras o la autoridad gubernamental competente podrán subordinar la concesión del carácter de exportador autorizado a las condiciones que consideren apropiadas.

3. Las autoridades aduaneras o la autoridad gubernamental competente otorgarán al exportador autorizado un número de autorización, el cual aparecerá en la declaración en factura.

4. Las autoridades aduaneras o la autoridad gubernamental competente controlarán el uso de la autorización que haga el exportador autorizado.

5. Las autoridades aduaneras o la autoridad gubernamental competente podrán revocar la autorización en todo momento. Deberán hacerlo cuando el exportador autorizado no ofrezca ya las garantías contempladas en el párrafo 1, no cumpla las condiciones contempladas en el párrafo 2 o haga uso indebido de la autorización.

Artículo 22

Validez de la prueba de origen

1. Las pruebas de origen tendrán una validez de diez meses a partir de la fecha de expedición en el país de exportación y deberán enviarse en el plazo mencionado a las autoridades aduaneras del país de importación.

2. Las pruebas de origen que se presenten a las autoridades aduaneras del país de importación después de transcurrido el plazo de presentación fijado en el párrafo 1 podrán ser admitidas para los efectos de la aplicación del régimen preferencial cuando la inobservancia del plazo se deba a circunstancias excepcionales.

3. En otros casos de presentación tardía, las autoridades aduaneras del país de importación podrán admitir las pruebas de origen cuando los productos hayan sido presentados antes de la expiración de ese plazo.

Artículo 23

Presentación de la prueba de origen

Las pruebas de origen se presentarán a las autoridades aduaneras del país de importación de acuerdo con los procedimientos establecidos en el mismo. Tales autoridades podrán exigir una traducción de la prueba de origen y podrán exigir que la declaración de importación vaya acompañada de una declaración del importador en la que haga constar que los productos cumplen las condiciones requeridas para la aplicación de este anexo.

Artículo 24

Importación fraccionada

Cuando, a instancia del importador y en las condiciones establecidas por las autoridades aduaneras del país de importación, se importen fraccionadamente productos desensamblados o sin ensamblar con arreglo a lo dispuesto en la regla general 2 (a) del sistema armonizado, clasificados en las secciones XVI y XVII o en las partidas 7308 y 9406 del sistema armonizado, se deberá presentar una sola prueba de origen para tales productos a las autoridades aduaneras en el momento de la importación del primer envío parcial.

Exenciones de la prueba de origen

1. Los productos enviados a particulares por otros particulares en paquetes pequeños o que formen parte del equipaje personal de los viajeros serán admitidos como productos originarios sin que sea necesario presentar una prueba de origen, siempre que esos productos no se importen con carácter comercial, se haya declarado que cumplen las condiciones exigidas para la aplicación del presente anexo y no exista ninguna duda acerca de la veracidad de dicha declaración. En el caso de los productos enviados por correo, esta declaración podrá realizarse en la declaración aduanera CN22/CN23 o en una hoja de papel anexa a este documento.

2. Las importaciones ocasionales y que consistan exclusivamente en productos para el uso personal de sus destinatarios o de los viajeros o sus familias no se considerarán importaciones de carácter comercial si, por su naturaleza y cantidad, resulta evidente que no se piensa dar una finalidad comercial a estos productos.

3. Además, el valor total de estos productos no podrá ser superior a 500 euros cuando se trate de paquetes pequeños, o a 1 200 euros, si se trata de productos que formen parte del equipaje personal de viajeros.

Artículo 26

Documentos justificativos

Los documentos a que se hace referencia en el párrafo 3 del artículo 16 y en el párrafo 3 del artículo 20, que sirven como justificación de que los productos amparados por un certificado EUR.1 o una declaración en factura pueden considerarse como productos originarios de la Comunidad o de México y satisfacen las demás condiciones del presente anexo, pueden consistir, inter alia, en:

a) una prueba directa de las operaciones efectuadas por el exportador o el proveedor para obtener las mercancías de que se trate, contenida, por ejemplo, en sus cuentas o en su contabilidad interna;

b) documentos que prueben el carácter originario de los materiales utilizados, expedidos o extendidos en México o en la Comunidad, donde estos documentos se utilizan, según lo establezca su legislación interna;

c) documentos que justifiquen la elaboración o la transformación de los materiales en México o en la Comunidad, expedidos o extendidos en México o en la Comunidad, donde estos documentos se utilizan, según lo establezca su legislación interna, o

d) certificados de circulación EUR.1 o declaraciones en factura que justifiquen el carácter originario de los materiales utilizados, expedidos o extendidos en México o en la Comunidad de conformidad con el presente anexo.

Artículo 27

Conservación de la prueba de origen y los documentos justificativos

1. El exportador que solicite la expedición de un certificado de circulación EUR.1 conservará durante tres años, como mínimo, los documentos contemplados en el párrafo 3 del artículo 16.

2. El exportador que extienda una declaración en factura conservará durante tres años, como mínimo, la copia de la mencionada declaración en factura, así como los documentos contemplados en el párrafo 3 del artículo 20.

3. Las autoridades aduaneras o la autoridad gubernamental competente del país de exportación que expidan un certificado de circulación EUR.1 conservarán durante tres años, como mínimo, el formulario de solicitud contemplado en el párrafo 2 del artículo 16.

4. Las autoridades aduaneras del país de importación conservarán durante tres años, como mínimo, los certificados de circulación de mercancías EUR.1 y las declaraciones en factura que les hayan presentado.

Artículo 28

Discordancias y errores de forma

1. La existencia de discordancias menores entre las declaraciones hechas en la prueba de origen y las realizadas en los documentos presentados en la aduana con objeto de dar cumplimiento a las formalidades necesarias para la importación de los productos no resultarán ipso facto en la invalidez de la prueba de origen, si se comprueba debidamente que este último corresponde a los productos presentados.

2. Los errores de forma evidentes, tales como errores de mecanografía en una prueba de origen, no serán causa suficiente para que sea rechazado este documento, si no se trata de errores que puedan generar dudas sobre la exactitud de las declaraciones realizadas en el mismo.

Artículo 29

Importes expresados en euros

1. Los importes en moneda nacional del país de exportación equivalentes a los importes expresados en euros en este anexo serán fijados por el país de exportación y comunicados a los países de importación a través de la Comisión Europea.

2. Cuando estos importes sean superiores a los importes correspondientes establecidos por el país de importación, este último los aceptará si los productos están facturados en la moneda del país de exportación. Si los productos están facturados en la moneda de otro Estado miembro de la Comunidad o de México, el país de importación reconocerá el importe notificado por el país de que se trate.

3. Los importes que se habrán de utilizar en una moneda nacional determinada serán los equivalentes en esa moneda nacional de los importes expresados en euros el primer día hábil de junio de 2000.

4. Los importes expresados en euros en este anexo y sus equivalentes en las monedas nacionales de los Estados miembros de la Comunidad y de México serán revisados por el Comité conjunto a petición de México o de la Comunidad. En el curso de esta revisión, el Comité conjunto garantizará que no se disminuyan los importes que se han de utilizar en cualquiera de las monedas nacionales y, además, considerará la conveniencia de preservar los efectos de los límites de que se trate en términos reales. A tal efecto, podrá tomar la determinación de modificar los importes expresados en euros en este anexo.

TÍTULO VI

DISPOSICIONES DE COOPERACIÓN ADMINISTRATIVA

Artículo 30

Asistencia mutua

1. Las autoridades aduaneras de México y de los Estados miembros de la Comunidad o la autoridad gubernamental competente de México se comunicarán mutuamente a través de la Comisión Europea los modelos de sellos utilizados para la expedición de los certificados de circulación EUR.1, así como las direcciones de las autoridades aduaneras o de la autoridad gubernamental competente responsables de la verificación de estos certificados así como de las declaraciones en factura.

2. Para garantizar la correcta aplicación del presente anexo, México y la Comunidad se prestarán asistencia mutua, a través de sus respectivas administraciones, para verificar la autenticidad de los certificados de circulación EUR.1 o las declaraciones en factura y la exactitud de la información recogida en dichos documentos.

Artículo 31

Verificación de las pruebas de origen

1. La verificación de las pruebas de origen se efectuará al azar o cuando las autoridades aduaneras del país de importación tengan dudas razonables de la autenticidad de dichos documentos, del carácter originario de los productos de que se trate o de la observancia de los demás requisitos del presente anexo.

2. A efectos de la aplicación de las disposiciones del párrafo 1, las autoridades aduaneras del país de importación devolverán el certificado de circulación EUR.1 y la factura, si se ha presentado, la declaración en factura, o una copia de estos documentos, a las autoridades aduaneras o a la autoridad gubernamental competente del país de exportación, e indicarán, en su caso, los motivos que justifican una investigación. Todos los documentos y la información obtenida que sugieran que los datos recogidos en la prueba de origen son incorrectos acompañarán a la solicitud de verificación.

3. Las autoridades aduaneras o la autoridad gubernamental competente del país de exportación serán las encargadas de llevar a cabo la verificación. A tal efecto, estarán facultadas para exigir cualquier tipo de prueba e inspeccionar la contabilidad del exportador o llevar a cabo cualquier otra comprobación que se considere necesaria.

4. Si las autoridades aduaneras deciden suspender el trato preferencial a los productos que corresponda en espera de los resultados de la verificación, se ofrecerá al importador la liberación de las mercancías condicionado a cualesquier medidas precautorias que consideren necesarias.

5. Se informará lo antes posible de los resultados de la verificación a las autoridades aduaneras que la hayan solicitado. Estos resultados deberán indicar con claridad si los documentos son auténticos y si los productos en cuestión pueden ser considerados como originarios de México o de la Comunidad y reúnen los demás requisitos del presente anexo.

6. Si, en caso de dudas razonables, no se recibe una respuesta en el plazo de diez meses a partir de la fecha de solicitud de verificación o si la respuesta no contiene información suficiente para determinar la autenticidad del documento de que se trate o el origen real de los productos, las autoridades aduaneras solicitantes podrán negar, salvo en circunstancias excepcionales, todo beneficio del régimen preferencial.

Artículo 32

Solución de controversias

1. En caso de que se produzcan controversias en relación con los procedimientos de verificación del artículo 31 que no puedan resolverse entre las autoridades aduaneras que soliciten una verificación y las autoridades aduaneras o la autoridad gubernamental competente encargadas de llevarla a cabo esta verificación, o cuando se planteen interrogantes en relación con la interpretación del presente anexo, se deberá recurrir al Comité especial de cooperación aduanera y de reglas de origen.

2. Las controversias entre el importador y las autoridades aduaneras del país de importación se resolverán con arreglo a la legislación de ese país.

Artículo 33

Confidencialidad

Toda la información que sea de naturaleza confidencial o la que sea proporcionada en forma confidencial será protegida, de acuerdo a la legislación de cada Parte, por la obligación del secreto profesional. No será revelada por las autoridades aduaneras o por la autoridad gubernamental competente sin el permiso expreso de la persona o la autoridad que la proporciona. Se permitirá comunicar la información si las autoridades aduaneras o la autoridad gubernamental competente pueden ser obligadas o autorizadas a hacerlo en cumplimiento de los requerimientos en vigor, particularmente con respecto a la protección de datos o con relación a procedimientos legales.

Artículo 34

Sanciones

Se impondrán sanciones a toda persona que redacte o haga redactar un documento que contenga información incorrecta con objeto de conseguir que los productos se beneficien de un trato arancelario preferencial.

Artículo 35

Zonas francas

1. México y la Comunidad tomarán todas las medidas necesarias para asegurarse de que los productos con los que se comercie al amparo de una prueba de origen y que permanezcan durante su transporte en una zona franca situada en su territorio no sean sustituidos por otras mercancías ni sean objeto de más manipulaciones que las operaciones normales encaminadas a prevenir su deterioro.

2. Mediante una exención de las disposiciones del párrafo 1, cuando productos originarios de México o de la Comunidad importados en una zona franca al amparo de una prueba de origen sean objeto de tratamiento o transformación, las autoridades correspondientes expedirán un nuevo certificado EUR.1 a petición del exportador, si el tratamiento o la transformación de que se trate está en conformidad con las disposiciones del presente anexo.

TÍTULO VII

CEUTA Y MELILLA

Artículo 36

Aplicación del anexo

1. El término «Comunidad» utilizado en el artículo 2 no incluye a Ceuta y Melilla.

2. Los productos originarios de México, cuando sean importados en Ceuta y Melilla, disfrutarán en todos aspectos del mismo régimen aduanero que es aplicado a los productos originarios del territorio aduanero de la Comunidad conforme al Protocolo 2 del Acta de adhesión del Reino de España y de la República Portuguesa a las Comunidades Europeas. México otorgará a las importaciones de productos amparados por la Decisión originarios de Ceuta y Melilla el mismo régimen aduanero que se aplica a las productos importados originarios de la Comunidad.

3. El presente anexo se aplicará mutatis mutandis a los productos originarios de Ceuta y Melilla, sujeto a las condiciones especiales establecidas en el artículo 37.

Artículo 37

Condiciones especiales

1. Siempre que hayan sido transportados directamente de conformidad con lo dispuesto en el artículo 13, serán considerados como:

1) productos originarios de Ceuta y Melilla:

a) los productos totalmente obtenidos en Ceuta y Melilla;

b) los productos obtenidos en Ceuta y Melilla en cuya fabricación se hayan utilizado productos distintos de los mencionados en el inciso a), siempre que:

i) estos productos hayan sido suficientemente elaborados o transformados conforme al artículo 5, o

ii) estos productos sean originarios de México o de la Comunidad, de acuerdo con el presente anexo, a condición de que hayan sido objeto de elaboraciones o transformaciones que vayan más allá de las elaboraciones o transformaciones insuficientes contempladas en el párrafo 1 del artículo 6;

2) productos originarios de México:

a) los productos totalmente obtenidos en México;

b) los productos obtenidos en México en cuya fabricación se hayan utilizado productos distintos de los mencionados en el inciso a), siempre que:

i) estos productos hayan sido suficientemente elaborados o transformados en el sentido del artículo 5, o

ii) estos productos sean originarios de Ceuta y Melilla o de la Comunidad, de acuerdo con el presente anexo, a condición de que hayan sido objeto de elaboraciones o transformaciones que vayan más allá de las elaboraciones o transformaciones insuficientes contempladas en el párrafo 1 del artículo 6.

2. Ceuta y Melilla serán consideradas un solo territorio.

3. El exportador o su representante autorizado consignarán «México» y «Ceuta y Melilla» en la casilla 2 de los certificados de circulación EUR.1 o en las declaraciones en factura. Además, en el caso de los productos originarios de Ceuta y Melilla, su carácter originario deberá indicarse en la casilla 4 de los certificados EUR.1 o en las declaraciones en factura.

4. Las autoridades aduaneras españolas serán responsables de la aplicación del presente anexo en Ceuta y Melilla.

TÍTULO VIII

DISPOSICIONES FINALES

Artículo 38

Modificaciones al anexo

El Comité conjunto podrá decidir modificar las disposiciones de este anexo.

Artículo 39

Notas explicativas

1. Las Partes acordarán unas «Notas explicativas» con relación a la interpretación, aplicación y administración de este anexo en el Comité especial de cooperación aduanera y reglas de origen.

2. Las Partes implementarán simultáneamente las notas explicativas acordadas, de conformidad con sus respectivos procedimientos.

Artículo 40

Mercancías en tránsito o depósito

Las disposiciones de esta Decisión podrán ser aplicadas a las mercancías que cumplan con las disposiciones de este anexo y que, a la fecha de entrada en vigor de esta Decisión, se encuentren en tránsito o dentro de la Comunidad o de México o almacenadas temporalmente en depósito fiscal o zonas francas, sujeto a la presentación a las autoridades aduaneras del país de importación, dentro de los cuatro meses siguientes a esta fecha, de un certificado EUR.1 expedido con posterioridad por las autoridades aduaneras o la autoridad gubernamental competente del país de exportación, junto con los documentos que demuestren que las mercancías han sido transportadas directamente.

Apéndice I

NOTAS INTRODUCTORIAS A LA LISTA DE LOS APÉNDICES II Y II (A)

Nota 1

La lista establece las condiciones que deben cumplir todos los productos para considerarse que han sufrido una fabricación o transformación suficiente en el sentido del artículo 5 del anexo III.

Nota 2

2.1. Las dos primeras columnas de la lista describen el producto obtenido. La primera columna indica el número de la partida o del capítulo utilizado en el sistema armonizado, y la segunda, la descripción de las mercancías que figuran en dicha partida o capítulo de este sistema. Para cada una de las inscripciones que figuran en estas dos primeras columnas, se expone una norma en las columnas 3 o 4. Cuando, en algunos casos, el número de la primera columna vaya precedida de la mención «ex», ello significa que la norma que figura en las columnas 3 o 4 sólo se aplicará a la parte de la partida descrita en la columna 2.

2.2. Cuando se agrupen varias partidas o se mencione un capítulo en la columna 1, y se describan en consecuencia en términos generales los productos que figuran en la columna 2, la norma correspondiente enunciada en las columnas 3 o 4 se aplicará a todos los productos que, en el marco del sistema armonizado, estén clasificados en las diferentes partidas del capítulo correspondiente o en las partidas agrupadas en la columna 1.

2.3. Cuando en la lista haya diferentes normas aplicables a diferentes productos de una misma partida, cada guión incluirá la descripción de la parte de la partida a la que se aplicarán las normas correspondientes de las columnas 3 o 4.

2.4. Cuando para una inscripción en las primeras dos columnas se establezca una norma en las columnas 3 y 4, el exportador podrá optar por aplicar la norma establecida en la columna 3 o la de la columna 4. Si en la columna 4 no aparece ninguna norma de origen, deberá aplicarse la norma de la columna 3.

Nota 3

3.1. Se aplicarán las disposiciones del artículo 5 del anexo III relativas a los productos que han adquirido el carácter de originario y que se utilizan en la fabricación de otros productos, independientemente de que este carácter se haya adquirido en la fábrica donde se utilizan estos productos o en otra fábrica de México o de la Comunidad.

Ejemplo:

Un motor de la partida 8407, cuya norma establece que el valor de los materiales no originarios utilizados en su fabricación no podrá ser superior al 40 % [1] del precio franco fábrica del producto, se fabrica con «aceros aleados forjados» de la partida ex 7224.

Si la pieza se forja en la Comunidad a partir de un lingote no originario, el forjado adquiere entonces el carácter de originario en virtud de la norma de la lista para la partida ex 7224. Esa pieza podrá considerarse en consecuencia producto originario en el cálculo del valor del motor, con independencia de que se haya fabricado en México o en la Comunidad. El valor del lingote no originario no se tendrá, pues, en cuenta cuando se sumen los valores de los materiales no originarios utilizados.

3.2. La norma que figura en la lista establece el nivel mínimo de elaboración o transformación requerida y las elaboraciones o transformaciones que sobrepasen ese nivel confieren también el carácter de originario; por el contrario, las elaboraciones o transformaciones inferiores a ese nivel no confieren el origen. Por lo tanto, si una norma establece que puede utilizarse un material no originario en una fase de fabricación determinada, también se autoriza la utilización de ese material en una fase anterior pero no en una fase posterior.

3.3. No obstante lo dispuesto en la nota 3.2, cuando una norma indique que pueden utilizarse «materiales de cualquier partida», podrán utilizarse materiales de la misma partida que el producto, a reserva, sin embargo, de aquellas restricciones especiales que puedan enunciarse en la norma. Sin embargo, la expresión «fabricación a partir de materiales de cualquier partida, comprendidos otros materiales de la partida …» significa que sólo pueden utilizarse los materiales clasificados en la misma partida que el producto cuya designación sea diferente a la del producto tal como aparece en la columna 2 de la lista.

[1] Véase la nota 11 del apéndice II (a).

3.4. La unidad de calificación para la determinación del origen es el producto particular clasificado bajo la nomenclatura del sistema armonizado. Se considera que los envases clasificados con las mercancías, por ejemplo las cajas en las cuales un producto es empacado para su presentación a la venta al menudeo, deben ser incluidos como parte del producto al determinar el origen del producto. Los empaques diseñados sólo para la transportación de las mercancías a la Parte de importación no serán considerados.

Ejemplo:

Las computadoras de la partida 8471 tienen una norma conforme a la cual el valor de los materiales no originarios utilizados no excede del 40 % del precio franco fábrica. Están empacadas en cajas para venta al menudeo y son exportadas en contenedores de madera con diez computadoras en cada contenedor. Con el fin de determinar si las computadoras cumplen con el porcentaje pedido para el producto, el valor de los contenedores de madera no debe ser considerado. Sin embargo, el valor del empaque individual será incluido.

3.5. Cuando una norma de la lista precise que un producto puede fabricarse a partir de más de un material, ello significa que podrán utilizarse uno o varios materiales, sin que sea necesario que se utilicen todos.

Ejemplo:

La norma aplicable a los tejidos de las partidas 5208 a 5212 establece que pueden utilizarse fibras naturales y también, entre otros, productos químicos. Esta norma no implica que deban utilizarse ambas cosas; podrá utilizarse uno u otro material o ambos.

3.6. Cuando una norma de la lista establezca que un producto debe fabricarse a partir de un material determinado, esta condición no impedirá evidentemente la utilización de otros materiales que, por su misma naturaleza, no pueden cumplir la norma (véase también la nota 6.2 relativa a los materiales textiles).

Sin embargo, esto no se aplica a los productos que, si bien no pueden fabricarse a partir del material concreto especificado en la lista, pueden producirse a partir de un material de la misma naturaleza en una fase anterior de fabricación.

Ejemplo:

La norma correspondiente a las preparaciones alimenticias de la partida 1904, que excluye de forma expresa la utilización de cereales y sus derivados, no prohíbe el empleo de sales minerales, productos químicos u otros aditivos que no se obtengan a partir de cereales.

Ejemplo:

En el caso de una prenda de vestir del ex capítulo 62 ([1]) fabricada de materiales no tejidos, si solamente se permite la utilización de hilados no originarios para esta clase de artículo, no se puede partir de telas no tejidas, aunque éstas no se hacen normalmente con hilados. El material de partida se hallará entonces en una fase anterior al hilado, a saber, la fibra.

3.7. Si en una norma de la lista se establecen dos porcentajes para el valor máximo de los materiales no originarios que puede utilizarse, esos porcentajes no podrán sumarse. En otras palabras, el valor máximo de todos los materiales no originarios utilizados nunca podrá ser superior al mayor de los porcentajes dados. Además, los porcentajes específicos no deberán ser superados en los materiales particulares a los que se apliquen.

4.1. El término «fibras naturales» se utiliza en la lista para designar las fibras distintas de las fibras artificiales o sintéticas. Se limita a las fases anteriores al hilado, e incluye los desperdicios y, a menos que se especifique otra cosa, abarca a las fibras que hayan sido cardadas, peinadas o transformadas de otra forma, pero sin hilar.

4.2. El término «fibras naturales» incluye la crin de la partida 0503, la seda de las partidas 5002 y 5003, así como la lana, los pelos finos y los pelos ordinarios de las partidas 5101 a 5105, las fibras de «algodón» de las partidas 5201 a 5203 y las demás fibras de origen vegetal de las partidas 5301 a 5305.

([1]) Véase la nota 6 del apéndice II (a).

4.3. Los términos «pulpa textil», «materiales químicos» y «materiales destinados a la fabricación de papel» se utilizan en la lista para designar los materiales que no se clasifican en los capítulos 50 a 63 y que pueden utilizarse para la fabricación de fibras o hilados sintéticos, artificiales o de papel.

4.4. El término «fibras sintéticas o artificiales discontinuas» utilizado en la lista incluye los hilados de filamentos, las fibras discontinuas y los desperdicios de fibras sintéticas o artificiales discontinuas de las partidas 5501 a 5507.

Nota 5

5.1. Cuando para determinado producto de la lista se haga referencia a la presente nota, no se aplicarán las condiciones expuestas en la columna 3 a ningún material textil básico utilizado en su fabricación cuando, consideradas globalmente, representen el 8 % o menos del peso total de todos los materiales textiles utilizados (véanse también las notas 5.3 y 5.4, a continuación).

5.2. Sin embargo, la tolerancia citada en la nota 5.1 se aplicará sólo a los productos mezclados que hayan sido hechos a partir de dos o más materiales textiles básicos.

Los materiales textiles básicos son los siguientes:

— seda,

— lana,

— pelos ordinarios,

— pelos finos,

— crines,

— algodón,

— materiales para la fabricación de papel y papel,

— lino,

— cáñamo,

— yute y demás fibras bastas,

— sisal y demás fibras textiles del género Agave,

— coco, abacá, ramio y demás fibras textiles vegetales,

— filamentos sintéticos,

— filamentos artificiales, — filamentos conductores de corriente,

— fibras sintéticas discontinuas de polipropileno,

— fibras sintéticas discontinuas de poliéster,

— fibras sintéticas discontinuas de poliamida,

— fibras sintéticas discontinuas poliacrilonitrílicas,

— fibras sintéticas discontinuas de poliimida,

— fibras sintéticas discontinuas de politetrafluoroetileno, — fibras sintéticas discontinuas de polisulfuro de fenileno, — fibras sintéticas discontinuas de policloruro de vinilo,

— las demás fibras sintéticas discontinuas,

— fibras artificiales discontinuas de viscosa,

— las demás fibras artificiales discontinuas,

— hilados de poliuretano segmentados con segmentos flexibles de poliéster, incluso entorchados,

— hilados de poliuretano segmentados con segmentos flexibles de poliéster, incluso entorchados, — productos de la partida 5605 (hilados metálicos e hilados metalizados) que incorporen una banda consistente de un núcleo de papel de aluminio o de película de material plástico cubierto o no de polvo de aluminio, de una anchura no superior a 5 mm, insertada con adhesivo transparente o de color entre dos películas de materiales plásticos, — los demás productos de la partida 5605.

Ejemplo:

Un hilo de la partida 5205 obtenido a partir de fibras de algodón de la partida 5203 y de fibras sintéticas discontinuas de la partida 5506 es un hilo mezclado. Por consiguiente, las fibras sintéticas discontinuas no originarias que no cumplan las normas de origen (que deban fabricarse a partir de materiales químicos o pastas textiles) podrán utilizarse hasta el 8 % del peso del hilo.

Ejemplo:

Un tejido de lana de la partida 5112 obtenido a partir de hilados de lana de la partida 5107 y de fibras sintéticas discontinuas de la partida 5509 es un tejido mezclado. Por consiguiente, se podrán utilizar hilados sintéticos que no cumplan las normas de origen (que deban fabricarse a partir de materiales químicos o pastas textiles) o hilados de lana que tampoco las cumplan (que deban fabricarse a partir de fibras naturales, no cardadas, peinadas o preparadas de otro modo para el hilado) o una combinación de ambos, siempre que su peso total no exceda del 8 % del peso del tejido.

Ejemplo:

Un tejido con bucles de la partida 5802 obtenido a partir de hilado de algodón de la partida 5205 y de tejido de algodón de la partida 5210 sólo se considerará que es un producto mezclado si el tejido de algodón también es un tejido mezclado fabricado a partir de hilados clasificados en dos partidas distintas o si los hilados de algodón utilizados están también mezclados.

Ejemplo:

Si el mismo tejido con bucles se fabrica a partir de hilados de algodón de la partida 5205 y de tejido sintético de la partida 5407, será entonces evidente que se han utilizado dos materiales textiles distintos y que la superficie textil confeccionada es, por lo tanto, un producto mezclado.

5.3. En el caso de los productos que incorporen «hilados de poliuretano segmentado con segmentos flexibles de poliéster, incluso entorchados», esta tolerancia será del 8 % respecto a estos hilados.

5.4. En el caso de los tejidos que incorporen «una banda consistente en un núcleo de papel de aluminio o de película de material plástico, cubierto o no de polvo de aluminio, de una anchura no superior a 5 mm, insertado por adhesivo entre dos películas de material plástico», esa tolerancia se cifrará en el 30 % respecto a esta banda.

Nota 6

6.1. En el caso de los productos textiles señalados en la lista con una nota a pie de página que remite a la presente nota, los materiales textiles, a excepción de los forros y entretelas, que no cumplan la norma enunciada en la columna 3 para los productos fabricados de que se trate podrán utilizarse siempre y cuando estén clasificados en una partida distinta de la del producto y su valor no sea superior al 8 % del precio franco fábrica de este último.

6.2. Sin prejuicio de la nota 6.3, los materiales que no estén clasificados en los capítulos 50 a 63 podrán ser utilizados libremente en la fabricación de productos textiles, contengan materiales textiles o no.

Ejemplo:

Si una norma de la lista dispone para un artículo textil concreto, por ejemplo, un pantalón, que deberán utilizarse hilados, ello no impide la utilización de artículos de metal, como botones, ya que estos últimos no están clasificados en los capítulos 50 a 63. Por la misma razón, no impide la utilización de cremalleras aun cuando éstas contienen normalmente textiles.

6.3. Cuando se aplique una norma de porcentaje, el valor de los materiales no clasificados en los capítulos 50 a 63 deberá tenerse en cuenta al calcular el valor de los materiales no originarios incorporados.

Nota 7

7.1. A efectos de las partidas ex 2707, 2713 a 2715, ex 2901, ex 2902 y ex 3403, los «procesos específicos» serán los siguientes:

e) la extracción con disolventes selectivos;

f) el tratamiento que comprenda el conjunto de las operaciones siguientes: tratamiento con ácido sulfúrico concentrado, con óleum o con anhídrido sulfúrico, neutralización con agentes alcalinos, decoloración y purificación con tierra activa natural, con tierra activada, con carbón activado o con bauxita;

g) la polimerización;

h) la alquilación;

i) la isomerización.

7.2. A efectos de las partidas 2710, 2711 y 2712, los «procesos específicos» serán los siguientes:

c) el craqueo;

d) el reformado;

e) la extracción con disolventes selectivos;

f) el tratamiento que comprenda el conjunto de las operaciones siguientes: tratamiento con ácido sulfúrico concentrado, con óleum o con anhídrido sulfúrico, neutralización con agentes alcalinos, decoloración y purificación con tierra activa natural, con tierra activada, con carbón activado o con bauxita;

g) la polimerización;

h) la alquilación;

i) la isomerización;

k) en relación con los aceites pesados de la partida ex 2710 únicamente, la desulfurización mediante hidrógeno que alcance una reducción de al menos el 85 % del contenido de azufre de los productos tratados (norma ASTM D 1266-59 T);

([1]) Véase la nota introductoria 7.4.

l) en relación con los productos de la partida 2710 únicamente, el desparafinado por un procedimiento distinto de la filtración;

m) en relación con los aceites pesados de la partida ex 2710 únicamente, el tratamiento con hidrógeno, distinto de la desulfurización, en el que el hidrógeno participe activamente en una reacción química que se realice a una presión superior a 20 bares y a una temperatura superior a 250 °C con un catalizador. Los tratamientos de acabado con hidrógeno de los aceites lubricantes de la partida ex 2710, cuyo fin principal sea mejorar el color o la estabilidad (por ejemplo: hydrofinishing o decoloración) no se considerarán procedimientos específicos;

n) en relación con el aceite combustible de la partida ex 2710 únicamente, la destilación atmosférica, siempre que menos del 30 % de estos productos destilen, en volumen, incluidas las pérdidas, a 300 °C según la norma ASTM D 86;

o) en relación con los aceites pesados distintos de los gasóleos y los aceites combustibles de la partida ex 2710 únicamente, tratamiento por descargas eléctricas de alta frecuencia.

7.3. A efectos de las partidas ex 2707, 2713 a 2715, ex 2901, ex 2902 y ex 3403, no conferirán carácter originario las operaciones simples tales como la limpieza, la decantación, la desalinización, la separación sólido-agua, el filtrado, la coloración, el marcado, la obtención de un contenido de azufre como resultado de mezclar productos con diferentes contenidos de azufre, cualquier combinación de estas operaciones u operaciones similares.

7.4. Se entenderá por «redestilación mediante un procedimiento extremado de fraccionamiento» el proceso de destilación (excepto la destilación atmosférica topping) aplicado en instalaciones industriales de ciclo continuo o discontinuo que empleen destilados de las subpartidas 2710 00, 2711 11, 2711 12 a 2711 19, 2711 21 y 2711 29 (excepto el propano de pureza igual o superior al 99 %) para obtener:

1) hidrocarburos aislados de un grado de pureza elevado (90 % o más para las olefinas y 95 % o más para los demás hidrocarburos), debiendo considerarse las mezclas de isómeros de un mismo compuesto orgánico como hidrocarburos aislados.

   Sólo se admiten tratamientos por los cuales se obtengan, por lo menos, tres productos diferentes, restricción que no se aplica cada vez que el tratamiento implique una separación de isómeros. A este respecto, en relación con los xilenos, el etilbenceno se considera un isómero;

2) productos de las subpartidas 2707 10 a 2707 30, 2707 50 y 2710 00:

   a) en los que no se admite un solapado del punto final de ebullición de un corte con el punto inicial de ebullición del corte siguiente, cuyos intervalos de temperatura entre los puntos de destilación en volumen 5 % y 90 % (incluidas las pérdidas) sean iguales o inferiores a 60 °C, según la norma ASTM D 86-67 (revisada en 1972);

   b) en los que se admite un solapado del punto final de ebullición de un corte con el punto inicial de ebullición del corte siguiente, cuyos intervalos de temperatura entre los puntos de destilación en volumen 5 % y 90 % (incluidas las pérdidas) sean iguales o inferiores a 30 °C, según la norma ASTM D 86-67 (revisada en 1972).

5. México se asegurará de que, después del 31 de diciembre del cuarto año posterior a la entrada en vigor de este título, Pemex y CFE realicen todos los esfuerzos razonables para asegurar que el valor total de los contratos de compra dentro de una misma clase del FSC (u otro sistema de clasificación acordado por las Partes), que sean reservados por Pemex o CFE de conformidad con los párrafos 1 y 2 para cualquier año, no exceda de 50 % del valor de todos los contratos de compra de Pemex o CFE dentro de esa clase del FSC (u otro sistema de clasificación acordado por las Partes) para ese año.

7. A partir de un año después de la entrada en vigor de este título, los valores en términos del dólar de Estados Unidos a los que se refiere el párrafo 6 se ajustarán anualmente a la inflación acumulada desde la fecha de entrada en vigor de este título, tomando como base el deflactor implícito de precios para el producto interno bruto (PIB) de Estados Unidos o cualquier índice sucesor publicado por el Council of Economic Advisors en el Economic Indicators.

11. En caso de que México exceda en un año determinado el valor total de los contratos que pueda reservar para ese año de conformidad con el párrafo 6 o los párrafos 1, 2 y 4 de la sección 1, México consultará con la Comunidad con objeto de llegar a un acuerdo sobre la posibilidad de compensar mediante oportunidades adicionales de compras durante el siguiente año. Esas consultas se realizarán sin prejuicio de los derechos de cualquier Parte de conformidad con el título VI.

ANEXO XV

(Referido en el artículo 39)

CAPÍTULO I

DISPOSICIONES GENERALES

Artículo 1

Objetivos

1. Las Partes se comprometen a aplicar sus respectivas leyes en materia de competencia de modo que se evite que los beneficios de la Decisión sean disminuidos o anulados por actividades anticompetitivas.

2. Los objetivos de este mecanismo son:

a) promover la cooperación y coordinación entre las Partes en relación con la aplicación de sus leyes de competencia en sus respectivos territorios y proveerse asistencia mutua en cualquier campo de la competencia que consideren necesario;

b) eliminar actividades anticompetitivas por medio de la aplicación de la legislación apropiada, con el fin de evitar efectos negativos sobre el comercio y el desarrollo económico, así como los posibles efectos adversos que esas restricciones puedan tener para los intereses de la otra Parte, y

c) promover la cooperación a fin de aclarar cualquier diferencia en la aplicación de sus respectivas leyes de competencia.

3. Con el fin de prevenir distorsiones o restricciones a la competencia que puedan afectar el comercio entre México y la Comunidad, las Partes prestarán particular atención a los siguientes aspectos al aplicar este mecanismo:

a) para la Comunidad: los acuerdos entre empresas, las decisiones para formar una asociación entre empresas y las prácticas concertadas entre empresas, el abuso de una posición dominante y las concentraciones; y

b) para México: las prácticas monopólicas absolutas o relativas y las concentraciones.

Artículo 2

Definiciones

A efectos de este anexo:

a) «leyes de competencia» incluye:

   i) respecto de la Comunidad, los artículos 81, 82, 85 y 86 del Tratado constitutivo de la Comunidad Europea, el Reglamento (CEE) nº 4064/89 del Consejo sobre el control de las operaciones de concentración entre empresas, los artículos 65 y 66 del Tratado constitutivo de la Comunidad Europea del Carbón y del Acero (CECA) y los reglamentos para su aplicación, incluida la Decisión de Alta Autoridad nº 24/54, ii) respecto de México, la Ley Federal de Competencia Económica del 24 de diciembre de 1992, el Reglamento Interior de la Comisión Federal de Competencia del 28 de agosto de 1998 y el Reglamento de la Ley Federal de Competencia Económica del 4 de marzo de 1998 y

   iii) cualquier reforma que las leyes antes mencionadas puedan sufrir, y

   iv) puede también incluir legislación adicional, en la medida que pueda tener efectos en la competencia en los términos de este mecanismo;

b) «autoridad de competencia» significa:

   i) para la Comunidad Europea, la Comisión de las Comunidades Europeas, y

   ii) para México, la Comisión Federal de Competencia;

c) «actividades de aplicación de la ley» significa cualquier acción a aplicar las leyes de competencia mediante investigaciones o procedimientos efectuados por las autoridades de competencia de una Parte, que pueda resultar en sanciones o medidas correctivas, y

d) «actividades anticompetitivas» y «conductas o prácticas que restringen la competencia» significa cualquier conducta, operación o acto, según lo definan las leyes de competencia de una Parte, sujetos a sanciones y medidas correctivas.

CAPÍTULO II

COOPERACIÓN Y COORDINACIÓN

Artículo 3

Notificación

1. Cada autoridad de competencia notificará a la autoridad de competencia de la otra Parte una actividad de aplicación de la ley si:

a) es pertinente para las actividades de aplicación de la ley de la otra Parte;

b) puede afectar intereses importantes de la otra Parte;

c) se refiere a restricciones a la competencia que puedan afectar el territorio de la otra Parte, y

d) puede llevar a adoptar decisiones que condicionen o prohíban acciones en el territorio de la otra Parte.

2. En la medida de lo posible, siempre que no sea contrario a las leyes de competencia de las Partes y no afecte adversamente a una investigación que se esté llevando a cabo, la notificación se realizará durante la fase inicial del procedimiento, a fin de permitir que la autoridad de competencia notificada manifieste su opinión. Las opiniones recibidas podrán ser tomadas en consideración por la autoridad de competencia de la otra Parte en su toma de decisiones.

3. La notificación prevista en el párrafo 1 será lo suficientemente detallada para permitir una evaluación a la luz de los intereses de la otra Parte. Las notificaciones incluirán, entre otra, la información siguiente:

a) una descripción de los efectos restrictivos de la transacción en la competencia y el fundamento legal aplicable;

b) el mercado relevante del producto o servicio y su ámbito geográfico, las características del sector económico implicado y los datos de los agentes económicos involucrados en la transacción, y

c) los plazos estimados de resolución, en los casos en que el procedimiento haya sido iniciado y, en la medida de lo posible, una indicación sobre el posible resultado así como las medidas que puedan ser adoptadas o contempladas.

4. Considerando lo dispuesto en el párrafo 1, cada autoridad de competencia notificará a la autoridad de competencia de la otra Parte, tan pronto como sea posible, la existencia de medidas distintas a las actividades de aplicación de sus leyes, que puedan afectar los intereses importantes de la otra Parte. En particular, lo harán en los casos siguientes:

a) procedimientos administrativos o judiciales, y

b) medidas adoptadas por otras dependencias del gobierno, incluidas órganos reguladores existentes o futuros, que puedan tener un impacto en la competencia en sectores sujetos a una regulación específica.

Artículo 4

Intercambio de información

1. Con miras a facilitar la aplicación efectiva de sus leyes de competencia y promover un mejor entendimiento de sus respectivos marcos jurídicos, las autoridades de competencia intercambiarán la información siguiente:

a) en la medida que sea factible, textos de doctrina jurídica, jurisprudencia o estudios públicos de mercado o, a falta de tales documentos, datos o resúmenes no confidenciales;

b) información relacionada con la aplicación de la legislación de competencia, siempre que no afecte adversamente a la persona que suministre tal información y con el único propósito de ayudar a resolver el procedimiento, y

c) información sobre cualquier actividad anticompetitiva de que se tenga conocimiento, así como sobre cualesquier reformas a sus respectivos sistemas jurídicos con el propósito de mejorar la aplicación de sus leyes de competencia.

2. Si las circunstancias lo requieren, las autoridades de competencia se ayudarán para recopilar otro tipo de información en sus respectivos territorios.

3. Los representantes de las autoridades de competencia efectuarán reuniones con el fin de promover el conocimiento de sus respectivas leyes y políticas de competencia, y para evaluar los resultados del mecanismo de cooperación. Podrán reunirse informalmente, así como en reuniones institucionales en el contexto multilateral, cuando las circunstancias lo permitan.

Artículo 5

Coordinación de las actividades de aplicación de la ley

1. Una autoridad de competencia podrá notificar su disposición para coordinar actividades de aplicación de la ley relativas a un caso específico. Esta coordinación no impedirá que las Partes tomen decisiones autónomas.

2. Al determinar el alcance de la coordinación, las Partes considerarán:

a) los resultados efectivos que la coordinación produciría;

b) la información adicional a ser obtenida;

c) la reducción en los costos para las autoridades de competencia y los agentes involucrados, y

d) los términos aplicables de acuerdo con sus respectivas legislaciones.

Artículo 6

Consultas cuando intereses importantes de una de las Partes se vean afectados adversamente en el territorio de la otra Parte

1. Cuando una autoridad de competencia considere que una investigación o un procedimiento que la otra autoridad de competencia de la otra Parte lleve a cabo pueda afectar sus intereses importantes enviará su opinión sobre el asunto a la otra autoridad de competencia o le solicitará consultas. Sin perjuicio de continuar con cualquier acción conforme a su ley de competencia y a su total autonomía en cuanto a la resolución final, la autoridad de competencia receptora de la solicitud mencionada debería considerar de manera plena y favorable las opiniones de la autoridad de competencia solicitante y, en particular, cualquier sugerencia sobre un medio alternativo para cumplir con sus necesidades o lograr los objetivos de la investigación o procedimientos en materia de competencia.

2. La autoridad de competencia receptora debería considerar plena y favorablemente las opiniones y el sustento fáctico presentados por la autoridad de competencia solicitante y, en particular, la naturaleza de las prácticas anticompetitivas en cuestión, las empresas involucradas y los supuestos efectos perjudiciales sobre los intereses de la autoridad investigadora solicitante.

No podrá ser suministrada sin el expreso consentimiento de quien la suministra, la información confidencial cuya divulgación esté expresamente prohibida o que, de divulgarse, pudiere afectar adversamente a las Partes. Cada autoridad de competencia mantendrá la confidencialidad de cualquier información que la otra autoridad de competencia le suministre en confidencia conforme a este mecanismo, y se opondrá a cualquier solicitud para revelar esa información, de una tercera parte no autorizada por la autoridad de competencia que la suministró.

4. Las Partes reconocen que los avances en los sistemas de comunicación y de computación son pertinentes a las actividades que desean desarrollar y que deberían ser utilizados para fomentar la comunicación y facilitar el acceso a la información sobre políticas de competencia, tanto como sea posible. A tal fin, buscarán:

a) ampliar sus páginas en Internet, para suministrar información sobre los desarrollos de sus actividades;

b) promover la difusión de temas relacionados con estudios sobre competencia a través de publicaciones como el Boletín Latinoamericano de Competencia, la Competition Policy Newsletter de la Dirección General de Competencia de la Comunidad Europea, los informes anuales y la Gaceta de Competencia Económica publicados por la Comisión Federal de Competencia de México, y

«Parte» significa una Parte del Acuerdo;

«personal», respecto de un árbitro, significa las personas, distintas de los asistentes, que estén bajo su dirección y control, y «procedimiento», salvo disposición en contrario, significa un procedimiento ante un panel arbitral desarrollado de conformidad con este título.

B. Cualquier referencia en este código de conducta a un párrafo o título, se entiende al párrafo, anexo o título correspondiente en materia de solución de controversias de esta Decisión.

I. Responsabilidades respecto del sistema de solución de controversias

Todo candidato, árbitro y ex-árbitro evitará ser deshonesto y parecer ser deshonesto, y guardará un alto nivel de conducta, de tal manera que sean preservadas la integridad e imparcialidad del sistema de solución de controversias.

II. Obligaciones de declaración

Nota introductoria:

El principio fundamental de este Código de conducta consiste en que todo candidato o árbitro debe revelar la existencia de cualquier interés, relación o asunto que pudiere afectar su independencia o imparcialidad o que pudiere razonablemente crear una apariencia de deshonestidad o de parcialidad. Existe apariencia de deshonestidad o de parcialidad cuando una persona razonable, con conocimiento de todas la circunstancias pertinentes que una investigación razonable podría arrojar, concluiría que se encuentra menoscabada la capacidad del candidato o árbitro para llevar a cabo sus deberes con integridad, imparcialidad y de manera competente.

Sin embargo, este principio no debe ser interpretado de tal manera que la carga de efectuar revelaciones detalladas haga imposible a los juristas o las personas del medio empresarial aceptar fungir como árbitros, privando así a las Partes y los participantes de quienes puedan ser los mejores árbitros. Consecuentemente, no debe requerirse a los candidatos y árbitros revelar intereses, relaciones o asuntos que tengan una influencia trivial sobre el procedimiento.

Los candidatos y árbitros tienen la obligación continua de revelar, durante todo el procedimiento, los intereses, relaciones y asuntos que puedan estar vinculados con la integridad o imparcialidad del sistema de solución de controversias.

Este Código de conducta no determina si, con base en las revelaciones realizadas, las Partes recusarán o destituirán a un candidato o árbitro de un panel o comité, o en qué circunstancias lo harían.

A. Todo candidato revelará cualquier interés, relación o asunto que pudiera afectar su independencia o imparcialidad o que pudiera razonablemente crear una apariencia de deshonestidad o de parcialidad en el procedimiento. Para tal efecto, los candidatos realizarán todo esfuerzo razonable para enterarse de cualesquiera de tales intereses, relaciones y asuntos.

Los candidatos revelarán tales intereses, relaciones y asuntos completando la Declaración inicial que les será proporcionada por el Comité conjunto, y enviándola a este último.

Sin limitar la generalidad de lo anterior, todo candidato revelará los siguientes intereses, relaciones y asuntos:

1) cualquier interés financiero del candidato:

   a) en el procedimiento o en su resultado, y

   b) en un procedimiento administrativo, un procedimiento judicial interno u otro procedimiento ante un panel arbitral o comité, que involucre cuestiones que puedan ser decididas en el procedimiento para el cual el candidato esté siendo considerado;

2) cualquier interés financiero del patrón, socio, asociado o árbitro de la familia del candidato:

   a) en el procedimiento o en su resultado, y

   b) en un procedimiento administrativo, un procedimiento judicial interno u otro procedimiento ante un panel arbitral o comité, que involucre cuestiones que puedan ser decididas en el procedimiento para el cual el candidato esté siendo considerado;

3) cualquier relación, presente o pasada, de carácter financiero, comercial, profesional, familiar o social con cualesquiera partes interesadas en el procedimiento, o con sus asesores, o cualquier relación de ese carácter que tenga el patrón, socio, asociado o árbitro de la familia del candidato, y

4) cualquier prestación de servicios como defensor de oficio, o como representante jurídico, o de otro tipo, relativa a alguna cuestión controvertida en el procedimiento o que involucre los mismos bienes.

B. Una vez designados, los árbitros continuarán realizando todo esfuerzo razonable para enterarse de cualesquier intereses, relaciones o asuntos a los que se refiere la sección A, y deberán revelarlos. La obligación de revelar es permanente y requiere que todo árbitro revele cualesquiera de tales intereses, relaciones y asuntos que pudieren surgir en cualquier fase del procedimiento.

Todo árbitro revelará tales intereses, relaciones y asuntos comunicándolos por escrito al Comité conjunto, para consideración de las Partes.

III. Desempeño de las funciones de los candidatos y árbitros

A. Todo candidato que acepte ser designado como árbitro deberá estar disponible para desempeñar, y desempeñará, los deberes de un árbitro de manera completa y expedita durante todo el procedimiento.

B. Todo árbitro cumplirá sus deberes de manera justa y diligente.

C. Todo árbitro cumplirá con las disposiciones de este título y con las Reglas modelo de procedimiento establecidas en el anexo XVI o cualesquier otras.

D. Ningún árbitro privará a los demás árbitros del derecho de participar en todos los aspectos del procedimiento.

E. Todo árbitro sólo considerará las cuestiones controvertidas que hayan surgido en el procedimiento y necesarias para tomar una decisión. Salvo disposición en contrario de las Reglas modelo de procedimiento establecidas en el anexo XVI u otras reglas aplicables, ningún árbitro delegará en otra persona el deber de decidir.

F. Todo árbitro tomará todas las providencias razonables para asegurar que sus asistentes y personal cumplan con las partes I, II y VI de este Código de conducta.

G. Ningún árbitro establecerá contactos ex parte en el procedimiento.

H. Ningún candidato o árbitro divulgará aspectos relacionados con violaciones o con violaciones potenciales a este Código de conducta, a menos que lo haga al Comité conjunto o que sea necesario para averiguar si el candidato o árbitro ha violado o podría violar el Código.

IV. Independencia e imparcialidad de los árbitros

A. Todo árbitro será independiente e imparcial. Todo árbitro actuará de manera justa y evitará crear una apariencia de deshonestidad o de parcialidad.

B. Ningún árbitro podrá ser influenciado por intereses propios, presiones externas, consideraciones políticas, presión pública, lealtad a una Parte o temor a la crítica.

C. Ningún árbitro podrá, directa o indirectamente, adquirir alguna obligación o aceptar algún beneficio que de alguna manera pudiera interferir, o parecer interferir, con el cumplimiento de sus deberes.

D. Ningún árbitro usará su posición en el panel arbitral o comité en beneficio personal o privado. Todo árbitro evitará tomar acciones que puedan crear la impresión de que otras personas están en una posición especial para influenciarlo. Todo árbitro realizará todo su esfuerzo para prevenir o desalentar que otras personas ostenten que están en tal posición.

E. Ningún árbitro permitirá que su juicio o conducta sean influenciados por relaciones o responsabilidades, presentes o pasadas, de carácter financiero, comercial, profesional, familiar o social.

F. Todo árbitro evitará establecer cualquier relación o adquirir cualquier interés, de carácter financiero, que sea susceptible de influenciar su imparcialidad o que pudiere razonablemente crear una apariencia de deshonestidad o de parcialidad.

V. Obligaciones específicas

Todo ex-árbitro evitará crear la apariencia de haber sido parcial en el desempeño de sus funciones como árbitro o de que podría beneficiarse de la decisión del panel arbitral o comité.

VI. Confidencialidad

A. Los árbitros o ex-árbitros nunca revelarán ni utilizarán información relacionada con el procedimiento o adquirida durante el mismo, que no sea del dominio público, excepto para propósitos del procedimiento. En ningún caso, los árbitros o ex-árbitros revelarán o utilizarán dicha información para beneficiarse, para beneficiar a otros o para afectar desfavorablemente los intereses de otros.

B. Ningún árbitro revelará un informe de un panel arbitral emitido de conformidad con este título antes de su publicación por el Comité conjunto. Los árbitros o ex-árbitros nunca revelarán la identidad de los árbitros asociados con las opiniones de la mayoría o la minoría en un procedimiento desarrollado de conformidad con este título.

C. Los árbitros o ex-árbitros nunca revelarán las deliberaciones de un panel arbitral o comité, o cualquier opinión de un árbitro, excepto cuando una ley lo requiera.

VII. Responsabilidades de los asistentes y del personal

Las partes I (Responsabilidades respecto del sistema de solución de controversias), II (Obligaciones de declaración) y VI (Confidencialidad) del presente Código de conducta se aplican también a los asistentes y al personal.

Para las partidas 6402, 6403 y 6404, el Comité conjunto revisará, en el año 2004, las condiciones establecidas en la nota 9 del apéndice II (a) para ajustarlas, considerando la experiencia en la administración del cupo arancelario con miras a permitir la utilización efectiva de las oportunidades comerciales ofrecidas.

DECLARACIÓN CONJUNTA X

relativa al apéndice II y apéndice II (a) al anexo III

Las Partes acuerdan que la administración del sistema de subasta sólo requerirá el pago de la cantidad ofrecida, si la suma total de todas las cuotas ofrecidas por cada postor excede la cantidad total de la cuota («sistema de precio mínimo ganador»).

DECLARACIÓN CONJUNTA XI

relativa a la nota 12.1 del apéndice II (a) al anexo III para las partidas ex 8701, 8702 y 8704

Las Partes revisarán, en cualquier momento después del 31 de diciembre de 2002, la norma establecida en la nota 12.1 del apéndice II (a), si el Comité conjunto determina que el semieje o eje de dirección (motor, transmisión, etc.) no está siendo producido en la Comunidad ni México, o cuando haya sido iniciada una investigación relativa a prácticas anticompetitivas en una de las Partes a petición de los fabricantes de vehículos de esas partidas. En este caso, por un período de tiempo a ser determinado por el Comité conjunto, la norma estipulada en la nota 12.1 del apéndice II (a) continuará aplicándose como estaba establecida para los años 2000 a 2002. Con tal propósito, los fabricantes de vehículos de esas partidas proporcionarán la información necesaria al Comité conjunto.
