Judgment of the General Court of 10 January 2024 — VN v Commission

(Case T-159/23) [1]

(Civil service — Officials — Sick leave — Unjustified absence — Salary deduction — Principle of impartiality — Obligation to state reasons — Manifest error of assessment — Force majeure — Duty to have regard for the welfare of officials)

(C/2024/2026)

Language of the case: French

Parties

Applicant: VN (represented by: A. Champetier and S. Rodrigues, lawyers)

Defendant: European Commission (represented by: T. Bohr and L. Vernier, acting as Agents)

Re:

By his action under Article 270 TFEU, the applicant seeks, first, the annulment of the decision of the European Commission of 6 July 2022 that declared him absent from work without justification on 10 June 2022, thus leading to a deduction from his salary of one day and, secondly, compensation in respect of the damage he claims to have suffered.

Operative part of the judgment

The Court:

1. Dismisses the action;

2. Orders VN to pay the costs.
