

New national side of euro coins intended for circulation

(2016/C 153/05)

National side of the new commemorative 2-euro coin intended for circulation and issued by the Republic of San Marino

Euro coins intended for circulation have legal tender status throughout the euro area. For the purpose of informing the public and all parties who handle the coins, the Commission publishes a description of the designs of all new coins <sup>(1)</sup>. In accordance with the Council conclusions of 10 February 2009 <sup>(2)</sup>, euro-area Member States and countries that have concluded a monetary agreement with the European Union providing for the issuance of euro coins are authorised to issue commemorative euro coins intended for circulation, provided that certain conditions are met, one of these being that only the 2-euro denomination is used. These coins have the same technical characteristics as other 2-euro coins, but their national face features a commemorative design that is highly symbolic in national or European terms.

Issuing country: The Republic of San Marino

Subject of commemoration: 400th anniversary of the death of William Shakespeare

Description of the design: The design depicts a portrait of the poet. On the right, in a semi-circle, the dates '1616-2016' and the name of the issuing country 'San Marino'; on the bottom right, the initials of the artist 'MB'. On the left, in a semi-circle, the inscription 'William Shakespeare'; on the bottom left, the mintmark 'R'.

The coin's outer ring depicts the 12 stars of the European flag.

Number of coins to be issued: 85 000

Date of issue: September 2016
