

Reports of Cases

Order of the Court of First Instance (Ninth Chamber) of 17 October 2017 — Andreassons Åkeri and Others v Commission

(Case T-746/16)

(Action for annulment — Social security — Commission decision to close an EU Pilot procedure — Decision to take no further action on a complaint — Refusal of the Commission to bring infringement proceedings — Act not open to challenge — Lack of direct concern — Manifest inadmissibility — Application seeking the issue of an injunction — Manifest lack of jurisdiction)

1. Actions for annulment — Actionable measures — Commission's refusal to bring infringement proceedings — Not included

(Arts 258 TFEU and 263 TFEU)

(see paras 12-18)

2. Actions for annulment — Jurisdiction of the EU judicature — Claim seeking that directions be issued to an institution — Inadmissibility

(Art. 263 TFEU)

(see paras 19-21)

Re:

ACTION pursuant to Article 263 TFEU seeking annulment of the Commission decision contained in the letter of 10 August 2016 concerning the outcome of EU Pilot Procedure 7504/15/EMPL.

Operative part

1. The action is dismissed.
2. Andreassons Åkeri i Veddige AB, Luke Transport AB and Zimit Transportförmedling AB shall pay the costs.