Reference for a preliminary ruling — Bundesfinanzhof — Interpretation of Article 31 of the Agreement on the European Economic Area (OJ 1994 L 1, p. 1) — Double taxation convention which provides for taxation of profits made by a branch office in the State where it is established — Deduction from taxable profit of company principal office of branch office losses — No possibility for branch office to carry over fiscal losses to a subsequent period of assessment — Reintegration by State where company principal office established of total deducted losses of branch office

Operative part of the judgment

Article 31 of the Agreement on the European Economic Area of 2 May 1992 does not preclude a national tax system which, after having allowed the taking into account of losses incurred by a permanent establishment situated in a State other than the one in which its principal company is situated, for the purposes of calculating the tax on that company's income, provides for a tax reintegration of those losses at the time when that permanent establishment makes profits, where the State where that same permanent establishment is situated does not confer any right to carry forward losses incurred by a permanent establishment belonging to a company established in another State, and where, under a convention for the prevention of double taxation between the two States concerned, the income of such an entity is exonerated from taxation in the State in which the principal company has its seat.

Reference for a preliminary ruling — Corte suprema di cassazione — Interpretation of Article 9 of the Protocol on the Privileges and Immunities of the European Communities (OJ 1967 152, p. 13) and Rule 6(2) of the Rules of Procedure of the European Parliament (OJ 2005 L 44, p. 1) — Claim for non-pecuniary damages in relation to insulting remarks made by a Member of the European Parliament — Competence of the civil court to rule as to the existence or otherwise of privilege in the absence of a decision of the European Parliament

The Community rules relating to the immunity of Members of the European Parliament must be interpreted as meaning that, in an action for damages brought against a Member of the European Parliament in respect of opinions he has expressed,

- where the national court which has to rule on such an action has received no information regarding a request by that Member to the European Parliament seeking defence of the immunity provided for in Article 9 of the Protocol on the Privileges and Immunities of the European Communities of 8 April 1965, it is not obliged to request the European Parliament to give a decision on whether the conditions for that immunity are met;
- where the national court is informed of the fact that that Member has made a request to the European Parliament for defence of that immunity, within the meaning of Rule 6(3) of the Rules of Procedure of the European Parliament, it must stay the judicial proceedings and request the European Parliament to issue its opinion as soon as possible;
- where the national court considers that that Member enjoys the immunity provided for in Article 9 of the Protocol on the Privileges and Immunities of the European Communities, it is obliged to dismiss the action brought against the Member concerned.
