

Operative part of the judgment

The Tribunal:

1. Annuls the decisions by which the European Parliament refused to award a third merit point to Mr Schönberger under the 2003 appraisal procedure;
2. Orders the European Parliament to pay the costs.

(¹) OJ C 64, 8.3.2008, p. 69.

Order of the Civil Service Tribunal (Third Chamber) of 12 November 2008 — Domínguez González v Commission

(Case F-88/07) (¹)

(Staff case — Technical assistant — Plea of lack of jurisdiction — Plea of inadmissibility — Lack of jurisdiction of the Tribunal)

(2009/C 102/59)

Language of the case: Spanish

Parties

Applicant: Juan Luís Domínguez González (Gerona, Spain) (represented by: R. Nicolazzi Angelats initially, then by R. Nicolazzi Angelats and M.-C. Oller Gil, lawyers)

Defendant: Commission of the European Communities (represented by: J. Currall and L. Lozano Palacios, Agents)

Re:

Application for compensation for the loss allegedly suffered by the applicant because of the termination of his employment contract with ECHO following the result of the medical check up.

Operative part of the order

1. The Tribunal does not have jurisdiction as regards the action.
2. The parties are to bear their own costs.

(¹) OJ C 37, 9.2.2008, p. 34
