4. Is it compatible with Article 11(3)(e) of Regulation (EC) No 883/2004 for a citizen of the European Union who exercises his right to freedom of movement to be placed in a situation in which he is denied the right to receive public health care services financed by the State in all the Member States concerned in the case?

5. Is it compatible with Articles 18, 20(1) and 21 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union for a citizen of the European Union who exercises his right to freedom of movement to be placed in a situation in which he is denied the right to receive public health care services financed by the State in all the Member States concerned in the case?

6. Should legality of residence, as provided for in Article 7(1)(b) of Directive 2004/38, be understood as giving a person a right of access to the social security system and also as being capable of constituting a reason to exclude him from social security? In particular, in the present case, must the fact that the applicant has comprehensive sickness insurance cover, which constitutes one of the prerequisites for legality of residence under Directive 2004/38, be regarded as capable of justifying the refusal to include him within the health care system financed by the State?
