Brussels, 28.08.2001
COM(2001) 491 final

2001/0192 (ACC)

Proposal for a

COUNCIL DECISION

on the conclusion of an Additional Protocol to the Stabilisation and Association Agreement between the European Communities and their Member States, of the one part, and the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, of the other part, to take account of the outcome of the negotiations between the parties on reciprocal preferential concessions for certain wines and spirits, the reciprocal recognition, protection and control of wine names and the reciprocal recognition, protection and control of designations for spirits and aromatised drinks

(presented by the Commission)

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

1. The Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, the other former Yugoslav Republics and Albania (since 2000) benefit from a duty-free access to the EU market for certain wines in the form of a global quota of 545 000 hl. This quota is granted by the European Community by means of an autonomous measure most recently renewed by Council Regulation (EC) No 2007/2000 of 18 September 2000 and as amended by Council Regulation (EC) No 2563/2000 of 20 November 2000. Exports of wine from the European Union to the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia do not benefit from preferential concessions.
2. On 11 March 1998, the Council authorised the Commission to enter into negotiations with the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia on a wine agreement with the following negotiation guidelines for:
 - a bilateral trade agreement on wine providing for reciprocal concessions to distribute the unilateral global quota of 545 000 hl allocated to states which had previously formed part of the former Socialist Federative Republic of Yugoslavia and Albania,
 - an agreement on reciprocal recognition, protection and control of wine names,
 - an agreement on reciprocal recognition, protection and control of designations of spirits and aromatised drinks.
3. On 24 January 2000 the Council authorised the Commission to enter into negotiations for a Stabilisation and Association Agreement with the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia. Article 27(4) of the Stabilisation and Association Agreement, which was initialled on 24 November 2000 and signed by Exchange of Letters in Luxembourg on 9 April 2001, provides that the trade arrangements to apply to wine and spirit products should be defined.
4. Pending the completion of the procedures necessary for the entry into force of the Stabilisation and Association Agreement, the provisions relating to trade and trade related matters have been put into effect by means of an Interim Agreement between the Community and the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, which entered into force on 1 June 2001. Article 14(4) of the Interim Agreement repeats the commitment to a wine and spirits agreement.
5. On 20 June 2001 and in accordance with the directives adopted by the Council the Commission and the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia reached an agreement on a Protocol on wine and spirits regarding the new preferential trade regime and reciprocal protection and control of wine names and spirits designations. It is foreseen that the Protocol, composed of three agreements should enter into force on 1 January 2002. In order to ensure consistency within the overall stabilisation process, the results of these negotiations on wines and spirits should be integrated into the framework of the Stabilisation and Association Agreement and of the Interim Agreement in the form of an Additional Protocol. Regulation (EC) No 2007/2000 of 18 September 2000, as last amended by Regulation (EC) No 2563/2000 of 20 November 2000, will have to be amended accordingly to take account of the yearly quota allocated to the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia.

6. The purpose of this proposal is to ask the Council to approve these agreements with the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia in the form of an Additional Protocol to the Stabilisation and Association Agreement and to the Interim Agreement which entered into force on 1 June 2001.
7. The Council is requested to adopt the proposed Decision.

Proposal for a

COUNCIL DECISION

on the conclusion of an Additional Protocol to the Stabilisation and Association Agreement between the European Communities and their Member States, of the one part, and the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, of the other part, to take account of the outcome of the negotiations between the parties on reciprocal preferential concessions for certain wines and spirits, the reciprocal recognition, protection and control of wine names and the reciprocal recognition, protection and control of designations for spirits and aromatised drinks

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Community, and in particular Article 133, in conjunction with the first sentence of the first subparagraph of Article 300(2), and Article 300(4) thereof,

Having regard to the proposal from the Commission¹,

Whereas:

- (1) The Stabilisation and Association Agreement, establishing an association between the European Communities and their Member States, of the one part, and the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, of the other part, (hereinafter referred to as the Stabilisation and Association Agreement), was initialled on 24 November 2000 and signed by Exchange of Letters in Luxembourg on 9 April 2001. Article 27(4) of the Stabilisation and Association Agreement provides that the trade arrangements to apply to wine and spirit products still ought to be defined.
- (2) In accordance with the Directives adopted by the Council on 11 March 1998, the Commission and the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia reached agreement on 20 June 2001 on new reciprocal trade concessions for certain wines and on the reciprocal recognition, protection and control of wine names and spirits designations. In order to ensure consistency within the overall stabilisation process, the results of these negotiations should be integrated into the framework of the Stabilisation and Association Agreement in the form of a Protocol.

- (3) Provisions to adopt the implementing Regulations on preferential trade concessions provided for certain wines, should be made by the Commission, assisted by the Customs Code Committee set up by Article 248a of Council Regulation (EEC) No 2913/92 establishing the Community Customs Code, notwithstanding Article 62 of Council Regulation (EC) No 1493/1999 of 17 May 1999 on the common organisation of the market in wine². The Commission shall make the necessary amendments and technical adaptations to the implementing Regulations which might result from new preferential agreements, protocols, Exchanges of Letters or other acts concluded between the European Community and the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, or which are necessary following the changes to the Combined Nomenclature and Taric codes.
- (4) In order to facilitate the implementation of certain provisions of the Protocol, the Commission should be authorised to approve, on behalf of the Community, decisions establishing or amending the Annexes and Protocols to the Agreement on reciprocal recognition, protection and control of wine names (Annex 2 to the Protocol) and the Agreement on reciprocal recognition, protection and control of designations of spirits and aromatised drinks (Annex 3 to the Protocol). In adopting these acts, the Commission should be assisted by the Management Committee for Wine instituted by Article 74 of Regulation (EC) No 1493/1999, respectively by the Implementation Committee for Spirit Drinks instituted by Article 13 of Council Regulation (EEC) No 1576/89 of 29 May 1989 laying down general rules on the definition, description and presentation of spirit drinks.
- (5) Since the measures necessary for the implementation of this Decision are management measures within the meaning of Article 2 of Council Decision 1999/468/EC of 28 June 1999 laying down the procedures for the exercise of implementing powers conferred on the Commission³, they should be adopted by use of the management procedure provided for in Article 4 of that Decision.

TITLE I

RECIPROCAL PROTECTION OF WINE NAMES

ARTICLE 4

PRINCIPLES

1. Without prejudice to Articles 22 and 23 of the TRIPS Agreement set out in Annex 1C of the Agreement establishing the World Trade Organisation, the Contracting Parties shall take all necessary measures, in accordance with this Annex, to ensure reciprocal protection of the names referred to in Article 5 which are used for the description and presentation of wines originating in the territory of the Contracting Parties. To that end, each Contracting Party shall provide the interested parties with the appropriate legal means to ensure effective protection and prevent geographical indications and traditional expressions from being used to identify wines not covered by the indications or the descriptions concerned.
2. In the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, the protected Community names:
 - (a) are reserved exclusively to the wines originating in the Community to which they apply, and
 - (b) may not be used otherwise than under the conditions laid down in the laws and regulations of the Community.
3. In the Community, the protected names of the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia:
 - (a) are reserved exclusively to the wines originating in the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia to which they apply, and
 - (b) may not be used otherwise than under the conditions laid down in the laws and regulations of the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia.
4. The protection provided for in this Agreement shall prohibit in particular any use of protected names for wines which do not originate in the geographical area indicated or in the place where the expression is traditionally used, and shall apply even when:
 - the true origin of the wine is indicated,
 - the geographical indication in question is used in translation,
 - the name is accompanied by terms such as 'kind', 'type', 'style', 'imitation', 'method' or other expressions of the sort.

5. In the case of homonymous geographical indications:
 - (a) where such indications protected under this Agreement are homonymous, protection shall be granted to each indication, provided it has been used traditionally and consistently and consumers are not misled as to the true origin of the wine;
 - (b) where such indications protected under this Agreement are homonymous with the name of a geographical area outside the territory of the Parties, the latter name may be used to describe and present a wine produced in the geographical area to which the name refers, provided it is traditionally and consistently used, its use for that purpose is regulated by the country of origin and consumers are not misled into believing that the wine originates in the territory of the Party concerned.
6. In the case of homonymous traditional expressions:
 - (a) where such expressions protected under this Agreement are homonymous, protection shall be granted to each expression, provided it has been used traditionally and consistently and consumers are not misled as to the true origin of the wine;
 - (b) where such expressions protected under this Agreement are homonymous with the name used for a wine not originating in the territory of the Parties, the latter name may be used to describe and present a wine, provided it is traditionally and consistently used, its use for that purpose is regulated by the country of origin and consumers are not misled into believing that the wine originates in the territory of the Party concerned.
7. Each of the Contracting Parties shall, where necessary, lay down the practical conditions of use to enable a distinction to be drawn between the homonymous indications or expressions referred to in paragraphs 5 and 6, bearing in mind the need to treat the producers concerned fairly and to ensure that consumers are not misled.
8. The provisions of this Agreement shall in no way prejudice the right of any person to use, in the course of trade, their name or the name of their predecessor in business, except where such name is used in such a manner as to mislead consumers.
9. Nothing in this Agreement shall oblige a Contracting Party to protect a geographical indication or traditional expression of the other Contracting Party which is not or ceases to be protected in its country of origin or which has fallen into disuse in that country.
10. The Contracting Parties hereby waive their right to invoke Article 24(4) to (7) of the TRIPs Agreement in order to refuse to grant protection to a name, from the other Party, for products covered by this agreement.

ARTICLE 5

PROTECTED NAMES

The following names shall be protected with regard to wines:

- (a) originating in the Community:
 - references to the name of the Member State in which the wine originates,
 - the geographical indications and traditional expressions appearing in the Annex;
- (b) originating in the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia:
 - the name “the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia” or any other name designating that country,
 - the geographical indications and traditional expressions appearing in the Annex.

ARTICLE 6

TRADEMARKS

1. The registration of a trade mark for a wine which contains or consists of a protected name under this Agreement shall be refused or, at the request of the party concerned, invalidated if:
 - the wine in question does not originate in the place to which the geographical indication refers
 - or, as the case may be,
 - the wine in question is not one to which the traditional expression is reserved.
2. However, a trade mark registered in good faith no later than 31 December 1995 may be used until 31 December 2005, provided it has actually been in continuous use since being registered.

ARTICLE 7

EXPORTS

The Contracting Parties shall take all measures necessary to ensure that in cases where wines originating in the Contracting Parties are exported and marketed outside of their territories, the protected names of one Contracting Party referred to in article 5 are not used to describe and present a wine originating in the other Contracting Party.

ARTICLE 8

EXTENSION OF PROTECTION

In so far as the relevant legislation of the Contracting Parties permits, the benefit of the protection afforded by this Agreement shall extend to natural and legal persons, federations, associations and organisations of producers, traders or consumers whose head offices are located in the territory of the other Contracting Party.

ARTICLE 9

ENFORCEMENT

1. If the appropriate competent authority, designated in accordance with Article 11, becomes aware that the description or presentation of a wine, in particular on the labelling, in official or commercial documents or in advertising, is in breach of this Agreement, the Contracting Parties shall apply the necessary administrative measures and/or shall initiate legal proceedings with a view to combating unfair competition or preventing the wrongful use of the protected name in any other way.
2. The measures and proceedings referred to in paragraph 1 shall be taken in particular in the following cases:
 - (a) where the translation of descriptions provided for by Community or the Former Yugoslav of Macedonian legislation into the language or languages of the other Contracting Party results in the appearance of a word which is liable to be misleading as to the origin, nature or quality of the wine thus described or presented;
 - (b) where descriptions, trade marks, names, inscriptions or illustrations which directly or indirectly give false or misleading information as to the provenance, origin, nature, vine variety or material qualities of the wine appear on containers or packaging, in advertising or in official or commercial documents relating to wines whose names are protected under this Agreement;
 - (c) where, for packaging, containers are used which are misleading as to the origin of the wine.
3. The application of paragraphs 1 and 2 shall not prejudice the possibilities of the persons and entities referred to in Article 8 to take appropriate actions in the Contracting Parties, including recourse to the courts.

ARTICLE 10

OTHER INTERNAL LEGISLATION AND INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENTS

Unless otherwise agreed by the Contracting Parties, this Agreement shall not preclude any more extensive protection afforded, now or in the future, to names protected by this Agreement, by the Contracting Parties under their internal legislation or other international agreements.

TITLE II

ARTICLE 11

ENFORCEMENT AUTHORITIES

1. Each Contracting Party shall designate the authorities to be responsible for the application of this Agreement. Where a Contracting Party designates more than one competent authority, it shall ensure the co-ordination of the work of these authorities. For this purpose, a single authority shall be designated.
2. The Contracting Parties shall inform one another of the names and addresses of these authorities not later than two months after this Agreement comes into force. There shall be close and direct co-operation between these authorities.

 - (b) this non-compliance is of particular interest to the other Contracting Party and could result in administrative measures and/or legal proceedings being taken,it shall immediately inform the Commission and the relevant authority or authorities of the other Party.
2. 4. If, following the consultations provided for in paragraphs 1 and 3, the Contracting Parties have not reached agreement, the Party which requested the consultations or which took the measures referred to in paragraph 3 may take appropriate protective measures so as to permit the proper application of this Agreement.

TITLE I

RECIPROCAL PROTECTION OF DESIGNATIONS OF SPIRITS AND AROMATISED DRINKS

ARTICLE 4

PRINCIPLES

1. Without prejudice to Articles 22 and 23 of the Agreement on Trade-Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights set out in Annex 1C of the Agreement establishing the World Trade Organisation (hereinafter called "the TRIPS Agreement"), the Parties shall take all the necessary measures, in accordance with this Annex, to ensure reciprocal protection of the designations referred to in Article 5 and used to describe spirits and aromatised drinks originating in the territory of the Parties. To that end, each Party shall provide the interested parties with the appropriate legal means for preventing the use of a designation to identify spirit or aromatised drinks not originating in the place indicated by the designation in question or in the place where the designation in question is traditionally used.
2. In the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, the protected Community designations:
 - may not be used otherwise than under the conditions laid down in the laws and regulations of the Community, and
 - shall be reserved exclusively for the spirits and aromatised drinks originating in the Community to which they apply.
3. In the Community, the protected Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonian designations:
 - may not be used otherwise than under the conditions laid down in the laws and regulations of the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, and
 - shall be reserved exclusively for the spirits and aromatised drinks originating in the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia to which they apply.
4. The protection provided for in this Agreement shall prohibit in particular any use of protected designations for spirits and aromatised drinks which do not originate in the geographical area indicated or in the place where the designation is traditionally used, and shall apply even when:
 - the true origin of the spirits and aromatised drinks is indicated,
 - the geographical indication in question is used in translation,
 - the name is accompanied by terms such as 'kind', 'type', 'style', 'imitation', 'method' or other expressions of the sort.

5. In cases of homonymous designations for spirits and aromatised drinks, protection shall be accorded to each designation. The Parties shall lay down the practical conditions under which the homonymous designations in question are to be differentiated from each other, taking into account the need to treat the producers concerned fairly and to avoid misleading the consumer.
6. The provisions of this Agreement shall in no way prejudice the right of any person to use, for trade purposes, their own name or the name of the person whose business they have taken over, provided that such names are not used in a way that misleads consumers.
7. Nothing in this Agreement shall oblige a Party to protect any designation of the other Party which is not protected or ceases to be protected in its country of origin or which has fallen into disuse in that country.
8. The Contracting Parties hereby waive their right to invoke Article 24 (4) to (7) of the TRIPS Agreement in order to refuse to grant protection to designations from the other Party.

ARTICLE 5

PROTECTED DESIGNATIONS

The following designations shall be protected:

- (a) as regards spirit drinks originating in the Community, the designations listed in Annex 1;
- (b) as regards spirit drinks originating in the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, the designations listed in Annex 2;
- (c) as regards aromatised drinks originating in the Community, the designations listed in Annex 3;
- (d) as regards aromatised drinks originating in the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, the designations listed in Annex 4.

ARTICLE 6

TRADEMARKS

1. The registration of a trade mark for a spirit or aromatised drink which contains or consists of a designation as referred to in Article 5 shall be refused or, at the request of an interested party, be invalidated, with respect to such spirits not originating in the place indicated by the designation.
2. Notwithstanding paragraph 1, a trade mark registered in good faith by 31 December 1995 at latest, may be used until 31 December 2005, provided it has been used effectively without interruption since its registration.

ARTICLE 7

EXPORTS

The Parties shall take all measures necessary to ensure that, in cases where spirit or aromatised drinks originating in the territory of the Parties are exported and marketed outside their territory, the designations of one Party protected under this Agreement are not used to designate and present spirit or aromatised drinks originating in the other Party.

ARTICLE 8

EXTENSION OF PROTECTION

To the extent that the relevant legislation of the Parties allows, the benefit of the protection afforded by this Agreement shall cover natural and legal persons and federations, associations and organisations of producers, traders and consumers whose head offices are located in the territory of the other Party.

ARTICLE 9

ENFORCEMENT

1. If the appropriate competent authority, designated in accordance with Article 11, becomes aware that the description or presentation of a spirit or aromatised drink, in particular on the labelling, in official or commercial documents or in advertising, is in breach of this Agreement, the Parties shall apply the necessary administrative measures and/or shall initiate suitable legal proceedings with a view to combating unfair competition or preventing the wrongful use of the protected designation in any other way.
2. The measures and proceedings referred to in paragraph 1 shall be taken in particular in the following cases:
 - (a) where the translation of designations provided for by Community or the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonian legislation into the language or languages of the other Contracting Party results in the appearance of a word which is liable to be misleading as to the origin, nature or quality of the spirit or aromatised drinks thus identified;
 - (b) where descriptions, trade marks, words, inscriptions or illustrations which directly or indirectly give false or misleading information as to the origin, nature, material qualities of the spirit or aromatised drink appear on containers or packaging, in advertising or in official or commercial documents relating to designations protected under this Agreement;
 - (c) where, for packaging, containers are used which are misleading as to the origin of the spirit or aromatised drink.
3. The application of paragraphs 1 and 2 shall not prejudice the possibilities of the persons and entities referred to in Article 8 to take appropriate actions in the Contracting Parties, including recourse to the courts.

ARTICLE 10

OTHER INTERNAL LEGISLATION AND INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENTS

Unless otherwise agreed by the Contracting Parties, this Agreement shall not preclude any more extensive protection afforded, now or in the future, to designations protected by this Agreement by the Contracting Parties under their internal legislation or other international agreements.

ARTICLE 11
