Proposal for a

DIRECTIVE OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL

on the coordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to undertakings for collective investment in transferable securities (UCITS)

(presented by the Commission)

{SEC(2008) 2263}
{SEC(2008) 2264}
EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

1. GENERAL COMMENTS

The UCITS Directive\(^1\) adopted in 1985 aimed to offer greater business and investment opportunities for both industry and investors by integrating the EU market for investments funds. The Directive has been key to the development of European investment funds. In June 2007, UCITS assets under management amounted to € 6tr. UCITS represent about 75% of the EU investment fund market. Strong in-built investor protection safeguards have also achieved UCITS broad recognition beyond EU borders.

Despite this positive evolution, it became evident over the years that the Directive was excessively constraining and prevented fund managers from fully exploiting their development possibilities. Amendments in 2001 enlarged the investment powers available to UCITS but did not tackle bottlenecks to industry efficiency. Important missed opportunities have been identified. Estimated potential annual savings amount to several billion euros.

In 2005, the Commission Green Paper on investment funds\(^2\) launched a public debate on the need for EU level action (and its scope). One year later, the White Paper on investment funds\(^3\) announced, among other measures, a set of targeted modifications to the UCITS Directive.

This proposal has two objectives. One is to codify the successive changes introduced to the UCITS Directive since 1985. The other is to translate the measures announced in the White Paper into concrete legislative provisions.

2. CONSULTATION OF THE STAKEHOLDERS AND INTERESTED PARTIES

2.1. Consultation of the stakeholders and interested parties

Throughout the whole process of revision of the UCITS framework Commission Services have maintained a regular dialogue with stakeholders. The objective was to gather the views from different sides of the fund market (investors, industry and public authorities) in order to design solutions that would effectively address the concerns and expectations of all interested parties.

That dialogue took place through a variety of channels including two expert groups, three open hearings, two workshops on the simplified prospectus and four public consultations (described in the table below).

2.2. Impact assessment

In 2004, the Expert Group on Asset Management identified a clear need to improve the efficiency of the European market for investment funds. Subsequent work has therefore concentrated on singling out the areas in which EU level action was required and on determining the scope of that action. Extensive consultation with all stakeholders has substantially contributed to the prioritisation and design of the possible solutions.

These solutions have been analysed at two stages. A first impact assessment was carried out in 2006 ahead of the White Paper on investment funds. That first impact assessment identified the areas requiring changes to the UCITS Directive. A second impact assessment has been developed in preparation of the draft legislative proposal.

The impact assessment analyses two types of legislative changes: those aiming to enhance the working of existing provisions (namely in relation to the notification procedure, the management company passport and the simplified prospectus); and those aiming to introduce new single market freedoms (by creating a facilitating framework for fund mergers and asset pooling). The guiding principles of this analysis have been market efficiency and investor protection. Particular attention has been given to the need to reduce administrative burdens.

2.2.1. The Management Company Passport

The Commission recognises the value a Management Company Passport could provide in terms of efficiency and greater flexibility to conduct its business for the European industry. However, the impact assessment work has highlighted certain difficulties in giving effect to the Management Company Passport (possibility for a fund manager to manage/administer a fund domiciled in another Member State). Intensive preparatory work by Commission services on this point has revealed so far that:

- Risks: It is necessary to distinguish the business functions and related rules which should belong in the Member State of the manager and that of the fund. Failure to do so risks creating regulatory conflict, overlap or supervisory gaps which could threaten the interests of funds investors;

- Enforcement: Problems in allocating responsibilities between different supervisors could hamper the effective enforcement of rules, in particular in the case of cross-border management of contractual funds – which account for the majority of funds and the only fund type in many Member States;

– Cost: Multiple reporting lines and accountability to different supervisors/actors risk generating high compliance costs which could outweigh the expected capital savings from the passport.

It is therefore necessary to seek advice from CESR on how best to address the supervisory and risk management issues. CESR will be invited to provide advice that will help the Commission to develop provisions permitting the introduction of a management company passport under conditions that are consistent with high level of investor protection. In that regard CESR will be invited to advise the Commission by 1 November 2008 on the structure and principles which could guide potential future amendments to the UCITS directive which may be needed to give effect to the UCITS management company passport. Following that advice the Commission will come forward with an appropriate proposal in time to allow for its adoption during the current legislature.

2.2.2. Expected benefits

The economic savings to be expected from the proposed measures take the form of both static costs savings for industry and investors and dynamic benefits linked to increased competition and productivity gains. Direct annual benefits amount to several euro billion. Greater flexibility to organise and conduct the fund business and simplified procedures should create new business opportunities and, increase the fund industry's competitiveness. A more integrated investment fund market will also offer the European investor an enlarged choice of better performing funds. Over the long run, these positive effects will contribute to the enhanced economic efficiency and competitiveness and thus give effect to the Lisbon strategy goals in this important sector.

3. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

3.1. Simplification

The proposal forms part of the Commission's simplification rolling programme. It delivers on the commitment made by the Commission to codify the acquis in the area of financial services. Concretely, the proposed amendments have two objectives: a) the introduction of new freedoms in order to improve the efficiency and integration of the UCITS Internal Market and b) to streamline the working of current provisions regarding the cross-border marketing of UCITS and disclosure obligations.

The harmonisation of the merger procedure sought by the new provisions will considerably reduce the administrative burden actually borne by fund promoters wishing to merger funds across borders. It will remove the need to comply with different sets of national requirements and thus lead to a considerable reduction of the delays and costs associated with the merger process. Both fund industry (directly) and investors (indirectly) should benefit from this harmonised procedure. In addition, recommendations in relation to both fund mergers and asset pooling aim at rationalising to a maximum the proposed framework by clearly identifying the respective responsibilities of industry and competent authorities.

As regards, to amendments to existing provisions the table below provides a summarised overview of the main simplification effects.

3.2. Recast and repeal of existing legislation

The proposal takes the form of a recast version of the 1985 Directive and of its subsequent amendments. It follows the 're-casting technique' (Inter-institutional Agreement 2002/C... which enables substantive amendments to existing legislation while codifying other provisions which remain untouched in their substance. Articles or parts of articles which have become obsolete have been deleted. All changes are clearly marked in the text. New and substantial amendments to the UCITS legislative framework are clearly identified as such.

The numerous amendments to 1985 UCITS Directive have considerably increased the complexity of the UCITS legislative framework. The current 'acquis' is made of 9 directives amounting to around 100 pages in the Official Journal.

While facilitating the exercise of their Internal Market freedoms by the UCITS, this acquis imposes several important obligations on them in particular regarding investor disclosure and the type of investments in which the UCITS can engage. The UCITS acquis also imposes significant obligations on the Member States competent authorities, in particular in terms of authorization procedures and on-going supervision of the UCITS. It is therefore crucial that the legislative framework remains up-to-date and easily accessible and understandable by the stakeholders. A recast UCITS Directive will constitute an essential progress in this respect.

4. LEGAL BASIS

The proposal is based on Article 47(2) of the Treaty, which is the legal basis to adopt Community measures aimed at achieving an Internal Market in financial services. The chosen instrument is a Directive as this is the most appropriate legal instrument to achieve the objectives while keeping a certain margin of manoeuvre for Member States. The proposed new provisions do not go beyond what is necessary and proportionate to achieve the objectives pursued.

The Directive confers extended implementing powers on the Commission in line with the Lamfalussy approach which has been extended to the UCITS Directive by Directive 2005/16. The scope of these implementing powers is defined in each relevant article. They will be used to further define the principles set out in this Directive as to enhance harmonisation and supervisory convergence.

In exercising these implementing powers, the Commission will be assisted by the European Securities Committee. The measures to be adopted by the Commission will be subject to the regulatory procedure and to the regulatory procedure with scrutiny laid down in Articles 5, 5(a)(1) to (4), and 7 of Decision 1999/468/EC. They will be developed on the basis of mandates given by the Commission to the Committee of European Securities Regulators (CESR)\textsuperscript{7}.

5. COMMENTS ON THE ARTICLES

The following comments detail the substantial changes introduced by the recast of the UCITS Directive. The following Articles remain substantially unchanged: 1(1), 1(2), 1(3)(a), 1(4) to 1(7), 2(1)(a) to (d), 2(1)(g) to (m), 2(1)(o), 2(1)(p), 2(2) to (7), 3, 5(1), 5(3) to (5), 6 to 15, 16(1) to (4), 16(6), 16(7), 17, 18, 19(2), 19(3)(b), 19(3)(c), 20 to 33, 45(1)(a) to (h), 45(2), 46 to 48, 49(1), 49(2), 50, 51(2) first subparagraph points (a) to (c), 51(2) second subparagraph, 52, 63(2), 65(1), 65(4), 68, 71, 78(1) except 78(1)(b), 78(2)(a) except second indent, 79, 80, 82, 83(1) except 83(1)(b), 83(2), 84 except 84(b), 97 to 99, 100, 101, 102(1), 102(2), 103(2), 104, 106, 107, 108, 109 and Annexes II, III and IV. In order to correct a material error in the English version of the Directive, and taking into account Article 1(3), it is necessary to change all subsequent mentions of 'unit trusts' by mentions of 'common funds'. It is also necessary to correct material errors in the Latvian, Bulgarian, French, Spanish and Italian version of the Directive.

5.1. New rules on mergers

The proposal offers the possibility for UCITS to achieve greater economies of scale by introducing into the UCITS Directive a legal framework for both national and cross-border mergers. Different types of mergers will be possible based on existing national rules and practices including those known in common law Member States (scheme of amalgamation/arrangement).

5.1.1. Principle, authorisation and approval (Chapter VI section 1)

Article 35 provides for the basic principle that all UCITS (and investment compartments thereof), irrespective of their legal form, are entitled to merge. This new merger regime, including its safeguards for investors, will cover both cross-border mergers and domestic mergers (the latter may impact on investors based in other Member States).

Article 36 sets up the principle of prior authorisation of the merger (to be issued within 30 days), by the competent authorities of the merging UCITS (i.e. the entity which ceases to exist), before its presentation to unit-holders. During that process, they will have to assess the potential impact of the merger on the unit-holders of both the merging UCITS and the receiving UCITS. The competent authorities of the receiving UCITS have to be informed of the decision reached in this respect. This should allow them to check whether the required disclosure to investors of the receiving UCITS is made in conformity with the Directive.

If the merger involves more than one merging UCITS and such UCITS are domiciled in different Member States, the competent authorities of each merging UCITS will need to approve the merger, in close cooperation with each other.

Article 37 provides for the obligation to draw up draft terms of merger (including a minimum set of compulsory provisions), in the same terms, for each of the UCITS involved in the merger.

5.1.2. Third party control, information of unit-holders and other unit-holders' rights
(Chapter VI section 2)

Article 38 provides that the depositaries of the merging UCITS and the receiving UCITS should review the common draft terms of merger on their conformity with the relevant provisions of the Directive and their respective constitutional documents. The role of the depositaries is however not to verify whether the proposed merger is in the interest of the investors.

Article 39 provides that an independent auditor should validate the criteria used for valuating the assets and liabilities of the funds involved in the merger and for calculating the exchange ratio.

Article 40 foresees that the merging UCITS should provide appropriate and accurate information on the proposed merger to its/their unit-holders so as to enable them to make an informed decision on the impact of the proposed merger on their investment. Should the competent authorities of the merging UCITS decide that the proposed merger may impact on the unit-holders of the receiving UCITS, the latter will also be requested to provide similar information to its unit-holders. This Article also defines basic principles of investor disclosure to the unit-holders of the merging UCITS and the receiving UCITS; details of which will be developed through implementing measures. For investor protection reasons, a provision specifies the language in which the information is provided to investors situated in the Member States where a UCITS has been notified to market its units.

Article 41 confirms that approval by unit-holders is only required if provided for by national law. If so, a maximum threshold/ceiling of 75% of the votes cast by unit-holders is foreseen.

Article 42 foresees the right of unit-holders (of both the merging UCITS and the receiving UCITS) to redeem units or shares without costs prior to the merger, as from the moment the UCITS have informed them of the proposed merger.

5.1.3. Costs and entry into effect (Chapter VI Section 3)

Article 43 ensures investor protection by clarifying that the responsibility for the costs of the merger should not lie with the unit-holders of the merging and/or receiving UCITS. Such costs should be borne by the manager/fund promoter.

Article 44 provides that a merger takes effect once the transfer of assets and/or liabilities (depending on the merger technique used) and the exchange of units have taken place. It confirms the role and responsibility of the depositaries of both the merging UCITS and the receiving UCITS to carry out the actual transfer of assets/liabilities. Investors and other third parties should then be informed that the merger has taken effect. Completion of the merger is to be publicized.

5.2. New rules on a master/feeder structure (Chapter VIII of the Directive)

The introduction into the UCITS Directive of the possibility to set up master-feeder structures will open new business opportunities for UCITS managers. It will allow them to rationalise and increase the efficiency of their investment policy.

A master-feeder-structure is characterised by the feeder UCITS' investment of all or almost all of its assets in one other UCITS, the master UCITS. Article 53(1) sets a minimum of 85% of the assets to be invested in a master UCITS. It also prevents feeders UCITS from investing in more than one (master) UCITS. The remaining 15% should allow the feeder UCITS to hold ancillary liquid assets. The feeder UCITS may hold no other assets than those mentioned in Article 53(1) and (2).

A master UCITS is a UCITS which pursuant to Article 53(3) has at least one feeder UCITS as investor. To avoid opaque cascade structures, the master UCITS may neither itself be a feeder UCITS nor invest into a feeder UCITS.

Article 54(1) provides that the specific investment policy of a feeder UCITS needs to be approved by the competent authorities of the feeder UCITS' home Member State. The approval is subject to the conditions set out in Chapter VIII. No additional condition or document may be required.

Article 55 requires the feeder UCITS and the master UCITS to enter into a legally binding agreement. Such agreement shall enable the feeder UCITS to accomplish its duties.

If the feeder UCITS and the master UCITS have different depositaries or auditors, Articles 56 and 57 require the latter to enter into an information-sharing agreement.

Article 58 ensures that both the prospectus and the key investor information of the feeder UCITS disclose the fact that the UCITS is a feeder of a given master and explain the specificities of this two-layer investment.

Article 59 sets up the requirements for a conversion of an existing UCITS into a feeder UCITS. To protect unit-holders, converting UCITS have to inform all unit-holders in advance. All unit-holders are entitled to re-purchase or to redeem the units of the feeder UCITS free of charge within 30 days.

Pursuant to Article 60(2) the feeder UCITS must act in the best interests of its investors and therefore has to monitor effectively the master UCITS.

Article 60(3) deals with retrocession arrangements and requires, where applicable, that all kinds of commissions obtained from the master UCITS or its management company is paid into the feeder UCITS' assets.

Article 61(2) prevents the master UCITS from charging the feeder UCITS subscription and redemption fees.

5.3. New rules on Key Investor Information

These new provisions aim at simplifying the content and conditions under which information is given to potential investors in UCITS. The objective is to enable retail investors to take a well-informed investment decision. For that purpose, the Directive replaces the previous obligation to offer a simplified prospectus, free of charge to subscribers before the conclusion of the contract, by the concept of 'key investor information'. To reduce costs, the new provisions also seek to ensure that the key investor information can be used without modifications all across the Internal Market.

8 Pursuant to the UCITS Directive the feeder UCITS and the master UCITS may only have the same depositary if they are established in the same Member State.
5.3.1. Some general improvement on disclosure rules and marketing communications

Articles 64 to 70 set out the rules applicable to the information to be provided at any time, on request, to investors (prospectus, annual and half-yearly reports).

Article 72 sets the principle that the information contained in marketing communications should be fair, clear and not misleading. It should also be consistent with the information contained in the obligatory disclosures (e.g., key investor information) provided for by the UCITS Directive.

5.3.2. Key investor information (Section 3)

Article 73 requires the investment company or the management company (where applicable) to draw up a short document containing key investor information that will be valid in all Member States. Rules regarding the delivery of the key investor information are set by Article 75 (which distinguishes between direct and indirect sales).

Key investor information should provide information about the essential characteristics of the proposed investment and specify how/where investors can obtain additional information on the proposed investment and certain practical elements. More specific rules (e.g., format and content of key investor information) will be adopted through implementing measures.

To effectively assist retail investors in their decision, key investor information should be short and concise, use clear and comprehensible wording, and be presented in an understandable format. It should be fair, clear and not misleading (article 74) and, therefore, consistent with the relevant parts of the prospectus.

Article 74 also clarifies that the key investor information constitutes pre-contractual information only. No civil liability should be attached to any person solely on its basis, unless such information is misleading, inaccurate or inconsistent with the prospectus.

5.4. Simplification and improvement of the rules on notification

5.4.1. Improved market access for UCITS

The current UCITS Directive sets out common rules which allow a UCITS authorised and supervised in one Member State to market its units in any other Member State. Before a UCITS starts marketing its units, it must complete a notification procedure. The current procedure has become burdensome and time consuming for fund promoters. Current delays between the moment of the notification and the actual marketing of the UCITS are a serious disadvantage when compared with other financial products for retail investors, which are often subject to less strict information or investor protection requirements.

To tackle that problem, Article 88 proposes a new streamlined procedure based on a regulator-to-regulator communication. Under the new rules, a UCITS wishing to market its units in another Member State will file a notification letter with its home competent authorities. This letter will have a harmonised content and will mainly describe the arrangements made for marketing the UCITS in the Member State concerned. Several documents will be attached to that letter (fund rules, key investor information). After verification of the completeness of the file, the competent authorities of the home Member State will automatically transmit it to the host Member State authority together with an attestation confirming that the UCITS fulfils its obligations under the Directive. The competent authorities of the host Member State will not be entitled to review, challenge or discuss the merits of the UCITS authorisation granted in the home Member State.

5.4.2. Clarification of responsibilities between the competent authorities

The amendments underline the fundamental principle according to which it is not possible for the host Member State to challenge the exclusive responsibility of the home Member State over the fields governed by the Directive.

In order to facilitate direct and immediate access to the market of another Member State, the control of compliance of the marketing arrangements with the rules applicable in a host Member State will take place on an on-going basis, but only after the UCITS has placed its units on the market of a host Member State. The Directive also seeks to enhance transparency regarding local marketing rules (obligation on Member States to publish on their websites all applicable marketing rules).

5.4.3. Improved communication and co-operation between competent authorities

The new notification procedure requires improved communication between competent authorities in order to be successful. Therefore, electronic transmission of information about UCITS and their marketing arrangements is foreseen. This should allow host authorities to better prepare for on-going monitoring of compliance with marketing rules. UCITS will however be obliged to directly inform the host authorities of any amendments to their marketing arrangements. In this field, several detailed rules will be adopted through implementing measures.

5.4.4. Methods of distribution of obligatory disclosures in the host Member States

Article 89 introduces a new language regime, whereby UCITS must translate only the key investor information in the local language. It is up to the UCITS to decide whether other obligatory disclosures are to be translated into the language of the host Member State or in a language customary in the sphere of international finance. Investors will be aware in which language the prospectus and the annual or half-yearly reports are available because this will be specified in the key investor information. The translation (under the sole responsibility of the UCITS) of documents other than the key investor information into the language of a host Member State will therefore be a market driven decision (in line with the language regime of the Prospectus Directive).

5.5. Rules aimed at strengthening supervisory cooperation

Successful implementation of the provisions introduced by this proposal cannot compromise on the high level of investor protection offered by the UCITS Directive. Therefore, the proposed adjustments are complemented by measures which enhance the existing mechanisms for supervisory cooperation and provide additional tools for supervisors to allow them to discharge their duties efficiently. These measures are largely inspired by provisions already in force in other financial services directives.
Proposal for a

of […]

on the coordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to undertakings for collective investment in transferable securities (UCITS)

(Text with EEA relevance)

THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Community, and in particular Article 57(2) thereof,

Having regard to the proposal from the Commission,

Acting in accordance with the procedure laid down in Article 251 of the Treaty,

Whereas:

(1) Council Directive of 20 December 1985 on the coordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to undertakings for collective investment in transferable securities (UCITS) has been substantially amended several times. Since further amendments are to be made, it should be recast in the interests of clarity.

(2) Directive 85/611/EEC has largely contributed to the development and success of the European investment funds industry. However, despite the improvements introduced since its adoption and in particular in 2001, it has steadily become clear that changes need to be introduced into the UCITS legal framework in order to adapt it to the 21st century financial markets. The 2005 Commission Green Paper on Investments Funds launched a public debate on the way the Directive should be adapted in order to meet…

9 OJ C , p.
11 See Annex III, Part A,
12 COM (2005) 314 final these new challenges. This intense consultation process led to the largely shared conclusion that substantial amendments are needed.

85/611 Recital 1 (adapted)

The laws of the Member States relating to collective investment undertakings differ appreciably from one state to another, particularly as regards the obligations and controls which are imposed on those undertakings. Those differences distort the conditions of competition between those undertakings and do not ensure equivalent protection for unit-holders.

85/611/EEC Recital 2 and 3 (adapted)

(3) National laws governing collective investment undertakings should be coordinated with a view to approximating the conditions of competition between those undertakings at Community level, while at the same time ensuring more effective and more uniform protection for unit-holders. Such coordination will make it easier for a collective investment undertaking situated in one Member State to market its units in other Member States. The attainment of these objectives will facilitate the removal of the restrictions on the free circulation of movement of the units of UCITS collective investment undertakings in the Community, and such coordination will help to bring about a European capital market.

85/611/EEC Recital 4 (adapted)

(4) Having regard to these objectives, it is desirable to provide for that common basic rules be established for the authorisation, supervision, structure and activities of UCITS collective investment undertakings established situated in the Member States and the information they must publish.

85/611/EEC Recital 5 (adapted)

The application of these common rules is a sufficient guarantee to permit collective investment undertakings situated in Member States, subject to the applicable provisions relating to capital movements, to market their units in other Member States without those Member States' being able to subject those undertakings or their units to any provision whatsoever other than provisions which, in those states, do not fall within the field covered by this Directive. Nevertheless, if a collective investment undertaking situated in one Member State markets its units in a different Member State it must take all necessary steps to ensure that unit-holders in that other Member State can exercise their financial rights there with ease and are provided with the necessary information.
The coordination of the laws of the Member States should be confined initially to UCITS collective investment undertakings other than of the closed-ended type which promote the sale of their units to the public in the Community, and the sole object of which is investment in transferable securities (which are essentially transferable securities officially listed on stock exchanges or similar regulated markets). Regulation of the collective investment undertakings not covered by the Directive poses a variety of problems which must be dealt with by means of other provisions, and such undertakings will accordingly be the subject of coordination at a later stage. Pending such coordination any Member State may, inter alia, prescribe those categories of undertakings for collective investment in transferable securities (UCITS) excluded from this Directive's scope on account of their investment and borrowing policies and lay down those specific rules to which such UCITS are subject in carrying on their business within its territory. Taking into account market developments, it is desirable that the investment objective of UCITS should be permitted as part of their investment objective to be widened in order to permit them to invest in financial instruments, other than transferable securities, which are sufficiently liquid. The financial instruments which are eligible to be investment assets of the portfolio of the UCITS should be listed in this Directive. The selection of investments for a portfolio by means of an index is a management technique.

Authorisation granted to the management company in its home Member State should ensure investor protection and the solvency of management companies, with a view to contributing to the stability of the financial system. The approach adopted is to ensure the essential harmonisation necessary and sufficient to secure the mutual recognition of authorisation and of prudential supervision systems, making possible the grant of a single authorisation valid throughout the Community and the application of the home Member State supervision.

It is necessary, for the protection of investors, to guarantee the internal overview of every management company in particular by means of a two-man management and by adequate internal control mechanisms.
(8) In order to ensure that the management company will be able to fulfil the obligations arising from its activities and thus to ensure its stability, initial capital and an additional amount of own funds are required. To take account of developments, particularly those pertaining to capital charges on operational risk within the Community and other international fora, these requirements, including the use of guarantees, should will have to be reviewed within three years.

(9) By virtue of the principle of home Member State supervision mutual recognition, management companies authorised in their home Member States should be permitted to carry on the services for which they have received authorisation throughout the Community by establishing branches or under the freedom to provide services. The approval of the fund rules of common funds/unit trusts falls within the competence of the management company's home Member State.

(10) With regard to collective portfolio management (management of unit trusts/common funds and investment companies), the authorisation granted to a management company authorised in its home Member State should permit the company to carry on in host Member States the following activities: to distribute the units of the harmonised unit trusts/common funds managed by the company in its home Member State; to distribute the shares of the harmonised investment companies, managed by such a company; to perform all the other functions and tasks included in the activity of collective portfolio management; to manage the assets of investment companies incorporated in Member States other than its home Member State; to perform, on the basis of mandates, on behalf of management companies incorporated in Member States other than its home Member State, the functions included in the activity of collective portfolio management.

(11) The principles of mutual recognition and of home Member State supervision require that the Member States' competent authorities should not grant or withdraw authorisation where factors, such as the content of programmes of operations, the geographical distribution or the activities actually carried on indicate clearly that a management company has opted for the legal system of one Member State for the purpose of evading the stricter standards in force in another Member State within the territory of which it intends to carry on or does carry on the greater part of its activities. For the purpose of this Directive, a management company should be authorised in the Member State in which it has its registered office. In accordance with the principle of the home country control, only the Member State in which the management company has its registered office can be considered competent to approve the fund rules of unit trusts/common funds set up by such a company and the choice of the depositary. In order to prevent supervisory arbitrage and to promote confidence in the effectiveness of supervision by the home Member State authorities, a requirement for authorisation of a UCITS should be that it should not be prevented in any legal way from being marketed in its home Member State. This does not affect the free decision, once the UCITS has been authorised, to choose the Member State(s) where the units of the UCITS are to be marketed in accordance with this Directive.

(12) Directive 85/611/EEC limits the scope of activity of management companies to the sole activity of management of unit trusts/common funds and of investment companies (collective portfolio management). In order to take into account recent developments in national legislation of Member States and to permit such companies to achieve important economies of scale, it is desirable to revise this restriction. It is therefore desirable to permit such companies to carry out also the activity of management of portfolios of investments on a client-by-client basis (individual portfolio management) including the management of pension funds as well as some specific non-core activities linked to the main business. Such an extension of the scope of the activity of the management company would not prejudice the stability of such companies. However, specific rules should be introduced to prevent conflicts of interest when management companies are authorised to carry on both the business of collective and individual portfolio management.

(14) A home Member State may, as a general rule, establish rules stricter than those laid down in this Directive, in particular as regards authorisation conditions, prudential requirements and the rules on reporting and the full prospectus.

(15) It is desirable to lay down rules defining the preconditions under which a management company may delegate, on the basis of mandates, specific tasks and functions to third parties so as to increase the efficiency of the conduct of its business. In order to ensure the correct functioning of the principle of mutual recognition of the authorisation and of the home Member State supervision, Member States permitting such delegations should ensure that the management company to which they granted an authorisation does not delegate globally its functions to one or more third parties, so as to become a letter box entity, and that the existence of mandates does not hinder an effective supervision over the management company. However, the fact that the management company has delegated its own functions should in no case affect the liabilities of that company and of the depositary vis-à-vis the unit holders and the competent authorities.

(16) To safeguard shareholders' interests and to secure a level playing field in the market for harmonised collective investment undertakings, an initial capital is required for investment companies. However, investment companies which have designated a management company will be covered through the management company's additional amount of own funds.

(17) Articles 13 and 14 should always be complied with by authorised investment companies, either by the company directly according to Article 27 or indirectly, due to the fact that if an authorised investment company chooses to designate a management company, that management company should be authorised in accordance with this Directive and thus obliged to comply with Articles 13 and 14.

(18) Despite the need for consolidation between UCITS, mergers of UCITS encounter many legislative and administrative difficulties in the Community. It is therefore necessary, in order to improve the functioning of the Internal Market, to lay down Community provisions facilitating mergers between UCITS (and investment compartments thereof). Although some Member States have authorised only contractual funds, mergers between all types of funds (contractual, corporate and unit trusts) should be allowed and recognised by the laws of each Member State. This Directive covers those merger techniques which are most commonly used in the Member States. It does not prevent UCITS from using other techniques on a domestic or cross-border basis. These will however remain subject to the relevant provisions of national law.

(19) In order to safeguard investors' interests, Member States should require proposed mergers between UCITS either within their jurisdiction or on a cross-border basis to be subject to authorisation by their competent authorities. For cross-border mergers, the competent authorities of the home Member State of the UCITS that will cease to exist (the merging UCITS) should approve the merger so as to ensure that the interests of the unit-holders who effectively change funds are duly protected. If the merger involves more than one merging UCITS and such UCITS are domiciled in different Member States, the competent authorities of each merging UCITS will need to approve the merger, in close cooperation with each other. Since the interests of the unit-holders of the UCITS which continues to exist after the merger (the receiving UCITS) also need to be adequately safeguarded, they should be taken into account by the competent authorities of the merging UCITS' home Member State when approving a cross-border merger.

(20) It is necessary to ensure additional third-party control of mergers. The depositaries of each of the UCITS involved in the merger should verify the conformity of the common draft terms of the merger with the relevant provisions of this Directive and of the UCITS fund rules. An independent auditor should draw-up a report on behalf of all the UCITS involved in the merger validating the valuation methods of the assets and liabilities of such UCITS and the calculation method of the exchange ratio as set forth by the management and/or administrative body of such UCITS in the common draft terms of merger. In order to limit costs connected with cross-border mergers, it should be possible to draw up a single report for all UCITS involved and the statutory auditor of the merging UCITS and/or the receiving UCITS should be enabled to do so. For investor protection reasons, unit-holders should be offered the possibility to obtain a copy of such report free of charge.

(21) It is particularly important that the unit-holders are adequately informed about the proposed merger and that their rights are sufficiently protected. Although unit-holders of the merging UCITS are most concerned, the interests of the unit-holders of the receiving UCITS should also be safeguarded in such situations where the proposed merger could have a substantial impact on their investment.

(22) The provisions on mergers laid down in this Directive are without prejudice to the application of the legislation on control of concentrations between undertakings, in particular Council Regulation (EC) No 139/2004 of 20 January 2004 on the control of concentrations between undertakings (the EC Merger Regulation).

(23) The free marketing of the units issued by UCITS authorised to invest up to 100% of their assets in transferable securities issued by the same body (State, local authority, etc.) may not have the direct or indirect effect of disturbing the functioning of the capital market or the financing of the Member States or of creating economic situations similar to those which Article 68(3) of the Treaty seeks to prevent.

(24) The definition of transferable securities included in this Directive is valid only for this Directive and in no way affects the various definitions used in national legislation for other purposes such as taxation. Consequently, shares and other securities equivalent to shares issued by bodies such as building societies and industrial and provident societies, the ownership of which cannot in practice be transferred except by the issuing body buying them back, are not covered by this definition.

(25) Money market instruments cover those transferable instruments which are normally not traded on regulated markets but dealt in on the money market, for example treasury and local authority bills, certificates of deposit, commercial papers, medium-term notes and bankers' acceptances.

(27) It is desirable to permit a UCITS to invest its assets in units of UCITS and other collective investment undertakings of the open-ended type which also invest in liquid financial assets mentioned in this Directive and which operate on the principle of risk spreading. It is necessary that UCITS or other collective investment undertakings in which a UCITS invests be subject to effective supervision.

(28) The development of opportunities for a UCITS to invest in UCITS and in other collective investment undertakings should be facilitated. It is therefore essential to ensure that such investment activity does not diminish investor protection. Owing to the enhanced possibilities for UCITS to invest in the units of other UCITS and collective investment undertakings, it is necessary to lay down certain rules on quantitative limits, the disclosure of information and prevention of the cascade phenomenon.

(29) To take market developments into account and in consideration of the completion of economic and monetary union it is desirable to permit UCITS to invest in bank deposits. To ensure adequate liquidity of investments in deposits, these deposits are to be repayable on demand or have the right to be withdrawn. If the deposits are made with a credit institution the registered office of which is located in a third country non-Member State, the credit institution should be subject to prudential rules equivalent to those laid down in Community legislation.

(30) In addition to the case in which a UCITS invests in bank deposits according to its fund rules or instruments of incorporation, it may be necessary to allow all UCITS to hold ancillary liquid assets, such as bank deposits at sight. The holding of such ancillary liquid assets may be justified, for example, in the following cases: in order to cover current or exceptional payments; in the case of sales, for the time necessary to reinvest in transferable securities, money market instruments and/or in other financial assets provided for in this Directive; for a period of time strictly necessary when, because of unfavourable market conditions, the investment in transferable securities, money market instruments and in other financial assets must be suspended.

(31) For prudential reasons it is necessary to avoid excessive concentration by a UCITS in investments which expose it to counterparty risk to the same entity or to entities belonging to the same group.
(32) UCITS should be explicitly permitted, as part of their general investment policy and/or for hedging purposes in order to reach a set financial target or the risk profile indicated in the prospectus, to invest in financial derivative instruments. In order to ensure investor protection, it is necessary to limit the maximum potential exposure relating to derivative instruments so that it does not exceed the total net value of the UCITS's portfolio. In order to ensure constant awareness of the risks and commitments arising from derivative transactions and to check compliance with investment limits, these risks and commitments will have to be measured and monitored on an ongoing basis. Finally, in order to ensure investor protection through disclosure, UCITS should describe their strategies, techniques and investment limits governing their derivative operations.

(33) With regard to over-the-counter (OTC) derivatives, additional requirements should be set in terms of the eligibility of counterparties and instruments, liquidity and ongoing assessment of the position. The purpose of such additional requirements is to ensure an adequate level of investor protection, close to that which they obtain when they acquire derivatives dealt in on regulated markets.

(34) Operations in derivatives may never be used to circumvent the principles and rules set out in this Directive. With regard to OTC derivatives, additional risk-spreading rules should apply to exposures to a single counterparty or group of counterparties.

(35) Some portfolio management techniques for collective investment undertakings investing primarily in shares and/or debt securities are based on the replication of stock indices and/or debt-security indices. It is desirable to permit UCITS to replicate well-known and recognised stock indices and/or debt-security indices. It may therefore be necessary to introduce more flexible risk-spreading rules for UCITS investing in shares and/or debt securities to this end.

(36) Collective investment undertakings falling within the scope of this Directive should not be used for purposes other than the collective investment of the money raised from the public according to the rules laid down in this Directive. In the cases identified by this Directive a UCITS may have subsidiaries only when necessary to carry out effectively on behalf of that UCITS certain activities, also defined in this Directive. It is necessary to ensure an effective supervision of UCITS. Therefore the establishment of a subsidiary of a UCITS in a third country should be permitted only in the cases and under the conditions identified in the this Directivé. The general obligation to act solely in the interests of unit-holders and, in particular, the objective of increasing cost efficiencies, never justify a UCITS undertaking measures which may hinder the competent authorities from exercising effectively their supervisory functions.

88/220/EEC Recitals 4 and 5

Article 22(3) of Directive 85/611/EEC derogates from paragraphs 1 and 2 of that Article. The original version of Directive 85/611/EEC contained a derogation from the restriction on the percentage of its assets that a UCITS can invest in transferable securities issued by the same body, which applied in the case of bonds issued or guaranteed by a Member State. This derogation and authorised allowed UCITS to invest in particular up to 35% of their assets in such bonds. A similar derogation, but of a more limited extent is justified with regard to private sector bonds which, even in the absence of a State guarantee, nevertheless offer special guarantees to the investor under the specific rules applicable thereto. It is necessary therefore to extend such a derogation to the totality of such bonds which fulfil jointly fixed criteria, while leaving it to the Member States to draw up the list of bonds to which they intend, where appropriate, to grant a derogation. and providing for a procedure for informing the other Member States identical to that provided for in Article 20 of Directive 85/611/EEC.

Several Member States have enacted provisions that enable non-coordinated collective investment undertakings to pool their assets in one so-called master fund. In order to allow UCITS to make use of these structures, it is necessary to exempt "feeder UCITS" wishing to pool their assets in a "master UCITS", from the prohibition to invest more than 10% or, as the case may be 20% in one investment fund. This exemption is justified as the feeder UCITS invests all or almost all of its assets into the diversified portfolio of the master UCITS which itself is subject to UCITS diversification rules.

In order to facilitate the effective operation of the Internal Market and to ensure the same level of investor protection throughout the Community, both master-feeder-structures where the master and the feeder are established in the same Member State and where they are established in different Member States should be allowed. In order to allow investors to better understand master-feeder-structures and regulators to supervise them more easily, notably in a cross-border context, no feeder UCITS should be able to invest into more than one master. In order to ensure the same level of investor protection throughout the Community the master should be itself an authorised UCITS.
In order to protect the feeder UCITS' investors, the feeder UCITS' investment into the master UCITS should be subject to prior approval of the competent authorities of the feeder UCITS' home Member State.

In order to allow the feeder UCITS to act in the best interests of its unit-holders and notably place it in a position to obtain from the master UCITS all information and documents necessary to perform its obligations, the feeder UCITS and the master UCITS should enter into a binding and enforceable agreement. In a similar way the information-sharing agreement between the depositaries or, respectively, the auditors of the feeder UCITS and the master UCITS should ensure the flow of information and documents that is needed for the feeder UCITS' depositary or auditor to fulfil its duties.

In order to ensure a high level of protection of the interests of the feeder UCITS' investors, the prospectus, the key investor information as referred to in Article 73, as well as all marketing communications should be adapted to the specificities of master-feeder-structures.

The prohibition that master UCITS may not charge feeder UCITS subscription and redemption fees should protect unit-holders from unjustified additional costs.

The conversion rules should enable an existing UCITS to convert into a feeder UCITS. At the same time they should sufficiently protect unit-holders. As such a conversion is a fundamental change of the investment policy, the converting feeder UCITS should be required to provide its unit-holders with sufficient information as to enable them to decide whether to maintain their investment or not.

Member States should make a clear distinction between marketing communications and obligatory investor disclosures provided for under this Directive. Obligatory investor disclosures include key investor information, prospectus and annual and half-yearly reports.

Key investor information should be provided to investors, at a pre-contractual stage, in order to help them to reach informed investment decisions. It should contain only the essential elements for making such decisions. The nature of the information to be found in the key investor information should be harmonised to the highest extent so as to ensure adequate investor protection and comparability. Key investor information should be presented in a short format. A single document of limited length presenting the information in a specified order is the most appropriate way to achieve the clarity and simplicity of presentation that is required by retail investors, and should allow for useful comparisons.

Key investor information should be produced for all UCITS. Management companies or, where applicable, investment companies should deliver the key investor information to the relevant entities, depending on the distribution method used (direct sales or intermediated sales). Regulation on how the key investor information is used by intermediaries at the point of sale is to be left to the relevant legislation covering such intermediaries, such as Directive 2004/39/EC.

The right for UCITS to sell their units in other Member States should be subject to a notification procedure based on improved communication between the competent authorities of the Member States. Following transmission of a complete notification file by the competent authorities of the UCITS home Member State, the UCITS host Member State should not be in the position to oppose access to its market by a UCITS established in another Member State or challenge the authorisation given by that other Member State.

(49) In order to facilitate cross-border marketing of units of UCITS, control of compliance of arrangements made for marketing of units of UCITS with laws regulations and administrative procedures applicable in the UCITS host Member State, should be performed on a on-going basis after the UCITS has started marketing its units in that Member State. This control can cover, in particular, the obligation for marketing communications to be presented in a fair, clear and not-misleading way.

(50) For the purpose of legal certainty there is a need to ensure that a UCITS which markets its units on a cross-border basis has an easy access, in the form of an electronic publication, to complete information on the laws, regulations and administrative provisions applicable in the UCITS host Member State and related to the marketing of UCITS.

(51) To facilitate cross-border marketing of units of UCITS, a UCITS should be required to translate only the key investor information into the official language or one of the official languages of a UCITS host Member State or a language approved by its competent authority. Key investor information should specify the language(s) in which other obligatory disclosure documents and additional information are available.

(52) It is necessary to enhance convergence of powers at the disposal of competent authorities so as to bring about an equal enforcement of the Directive throughout the Member States. A common minimum set of powers, consistent with those conferred upon competent authorities by other Community financial services legislation should guarantee supervisory effectiveness.

(53) It is necessary to reinforce provisions on exchange of information between national competent authorities and to strengthen the duties of assistance and cooperation between them.

(54) The reference to the supervisory authorities' effective exercise of their supervisory functions covers supervision on a consolidated basis which must be exercised over a UCITS undertaking for collective investment in transferable securities (Ucits) or an undertaking contributing towards its business activity where the provisions of Community law so provide. In such cases, the authorities applied to for authorisation must be able to identify the authorities competent to exercise supervision on a consolidated basis over that UCITS undertaking for collective investment in transferable securities (Ucits) or an undertaking contributing towards its business activity.
(55) The principles of mutual recognition and of home Member State supervision requires that the competent authorities should not grant or should withdraw authorisation where factors such as the content of programmes of operations, the geographical distribution of the activities actually carried on indicate clearly that a UCITS undertaking for collective investment in transferable securities (Ucits) or an undertaking contributing towards its business activity has opted for the legal system of one Member State for the purpose of evading the stricter standards in force in another Member State within whose territory it carries on or intends to carry on the greater part of its activities. A UCITS undertaking for collective investment in transferable securities (Ucits) or an undertaking contributing towards its business activity which is a legal person must be authorised in the Member State in which it has its registered office. A UCITS undertaking for collective investment in transferable securities (Ucits) or an undertaking contributing towards its business activity which is not a legal person must have its head office in the Member State in which it has been authorised. In addition, Member States must require that a UCITS' head office or a head office of an undertaking contributing towards its business activity always be established in its home Member State and that it actually operates there.

(56) It is appropriate to provide for the possibility of exchanges of information between the competent authorities and authorities or bodies which, by virtue of their function, help to strengthen the stability of the financial system. In order to preserve the confidential nature of the information forwarded, the list of addressees must remain within strict limits.

(57) Certain behaviour, such as fraud and insider offenses, is liable to affect the stability, including integrity, of the financial system, even when involving undertakings other than UCITS or undertakings contributing towards their business activity.

(58) It is necessary to specify the conditions under which such exchanges of information are authorised.
Where it is stipulated that information may be disclosed only with the express agreement of the competent authorities, these may, where appropriate, make their agreement subject to compliance with strict conditions.

Exchanges of information between, on the one hand, the competent authorities and, on the other, central banks and other bodies with a similar function in their capacity as monetary authorities and, where appropriate, other public authorities responsible for supervising payment systems should also be authorised.

The same obligation of professional secrecy on the authorities responsible for authorising and supervising UCITS and the undertakings that take part in those activities and the same possibilities for exchanging information as those granted to the authorities responsible for authorising and supervising credit institutions, investment firms and insurance undertakings, should be included in this Directive 85/611/EEC.

For the purpose of strengthening the prudential supervision of UCITS undertakings for collective investment in transferable securities (UCITS) or of undertakings contributing towards their business activity, and protection of clients of UCITS undertakings for collective investment in transferable securities (UCITS) or of undertakings contributing towards their business activity, it should be stipulated that an auditor must have a duty to report promptly to the competent authorities, wherever, as provided for by this Directive, he becomes aware, while carrying out his tasks, of certain facts which are liable to have a serious effect on the financial situation or the administrative and accounting organisation of a UCITS undertaking for collective investment in transferable securities (UCITS) or an undertaking contributing towards its business activity.

Having regard to the aim in view, it is desirable for Member States to provide that such a duty should apply in all circumstances where such facts are discovered by an auditor during the performance of his tasks in an undertaking which has close links with a UCITS undertaking for collective investment in transferable securities (UCITS) or an undertaking contributing towards its business activity.
(64) The duty of auditors to communicate, where appropriate, to the competent authorities certain facts and decisions concerning a UCITS undertaking for collective investment in transferable securities (UCITS) or an undertaking contributing towards its business activity which they discover during the performance of their tasks in an entity which is neither a UCITS undertaking for collective investment in transferable securities (UCITS) nor an undertaking contributing towards the business activity of a UCITS does not in itself change the nature of their tasks in that undertaking nor the manner in which they must perform those tasks in that undertaking.

(65) The Commission should be empowered to adopt the measures necessary for the implementation of this Directive. Concerning mergers, those measures are designed to specify detailed content and way to provide information to unit-holders. Concerning master-feeder structures, those measures are designed to specify the particulars to be included in the agreement between master and feeder, their depositaries and their auditors, the definition of measures appropriate to prevent late trading risks, the impact of the merger of the master on the authorisation of the feeder, the type of irregularities originating from the master to be reported to the feeder, the way and format of the information to be provided to unit-holders in case of conversion from a UCITS to a feeder UCITS, the procedure for valuating and auditing the transfer of assets from a feeder to a master and the role of the depository of the feeder in this process. Concerning the provisions on disclosure, those measures are designed to specify the specific conditions to be met when the prospectus is provided in a durable medium other than paper and by means of a website which does not constitute a durable medium, the detailed content, form and presentation of the key investor information taking into account the different nature or components of the UCITS concerned, and the specific conditions for delivering key investor information in a durable medium other than paper and by means of a website which does not constitute a durable medium. Concerning notification, those measures are designed to specify the format and scope of the information on the applicable local rules to be published by host authorities, the application of the notification procedure to the marketing of compartments of UCITS and new share classes, and the technical details on access by host authorities to updated fund documents stored by home authorities. Those measures are also designed to clarify definitions and to align terminology and framing definitions in accordance with subsequent acts on UCITS and related matters. Since those measures are of general scope and are designed to amend non-essential elements of this Directive, by supplementing it with new non-essential elements, they must be adopted in accordance with the regulatory procedure with scrutiny provided for in Article 5a of Decision 1999/468/EC. Powers not falling under the above category should be subject to the regulatory procedure provided in Article 5 of the same

Decision. Those measures are designed to specify the form and content of the standardised notification letter, the standard model of attestation and the procedure for the exchange of information and the use of electronic communication during the notification process. They are also designed to detail the procedures for on-the-spot verifications and investigations exchange of information between competent authorities.

95/26/EC Recital 18 (adapted)

Since the objectives of the action to be taken cannot be sufficiently achieved by the Member States in so far they involve the adoption of rules with common features applicable at transnational level and can therefore, by reason of the scale and effects of the action, be better achieved at Community level, the Community may adopt measures, in accordance with the principle of subsidiarity as set out in Article 5 of the Treaty. In accordance with the principle of proportionality, as set out in that Article, this Directive does not go beyond what is necessary to achieve those objectives. Adopting this Directive is the most appropriate means of achieving the objectives in view, and in particular of reinforcing the powers of the competent authorities. This Directive restricts itself to the minimum required to achieve those objectives and does not go beyond what is necessary for that purpose.

The obligation to transpose this Directive into national law should be confined to those provisions which represent a substantive change as compared with the earlier Directive. The obligation to transpose the provisions which are unchanged arises under the earlier Directives.

This Directive should be without prejudice to the obligations of the Member States relating to the time-limits for transposition into national law and application of the Directives set out in Annex III, Part B.

CHAPTER Section I

General provisions and scope

Article 1

1. The Member States shall apply this Directive to undertakings for collective investment in transferable securities (hereinafter referred to as UCITS) established situated within their territories.

2. For the purposes of this Directive, and subject to Article 3, UCITS shall be undertakings:

   (a) the sole object of which is the collective investment in transferable securities and/or in other liquid financial assets referred to in Article 45(1) of capital raised from the public and which operates on the principle of risk-spreading,

   and

   (b) the units of which are, at the request of holders, re-purchased or redeemed, directly or indirectly, out of those undertakings' assets. Action taken by a UCITS to ensure that the stock exchange value of its units does not significantly vary from their net asset value shall be regarded as equivalent to such re-purchase or redemption.

3. Such undertakings may be constituted according to law, either under the law of contract (as common funds managed by management companies) or trust law (as unit trusts) or under statute (as investment companies).

For the purposes of this Directive:

(a) «common funds» shall also include unit trusts;

(b) "units" of UCITS shall also include shares of UCITS.
4. Investment companies the assets of which are invested through the intermediary of subsidiary companies mainly otherwise than in transferable securities shall not, however, be subject to this Directive.

5. The Member States shall prohibit UCITS which are subject to this Directive from transforming themselves into collective investment undertakings which are not covered by this Directive.

6. Subject to the provisions governing capital movements and to Articles 86, 87 and 103(1), subparagraph 2, 44, 45 and 52(2), no Member State may apply any other provisions whatsoever in the field covered by this Directive to UCITS established situated in another Member State or to the units issued by such UCITS, where they market their units within its territory.

7. With exception of Articles 1 to 4 and without prejudice to paragraph 6, a Member State may apply to UCITS established situated within its territory requirements which are stricter than or additional to those laid down in Article 4 et seq of this Directive, provided that they are of general application and do not conflict with the provisions of this Directive.

Article 2

1. For the purposes of this Directive the following definitions shall apply:

   (a) "depositary" shall mean any institution entrusted with the duties mentioned in Articles 19 and 29 and subject to the other provisions laid down in Chapter IV and Section 3 of Chapter V Sections IIIa and IVa.

   (b) "management company" shall mean any company, the regular business of which is the management of UCITS in the form of unit trusts/common funds and/or of investment companies (collective portfolio management of UCITS); this includes the functions mentioned in Annex II;

   (c) a "management company's home Member State" shall mean the Member State in which the management company has its registered office is situated;
(d) "management company's host Member State" means the Member State, other than the home Member State, within the territory of which a management company has a branch or provides services;

(e) "UCITS home Member State" shall mean:

(a) with regard to a UCITS constituted as unit trust/common fund, the Member State in which the management company's registered office is situated;

(b) with regard to a UCITS constituted as an investment company, the Member State in which the investment company's registered office is situated and the Member State in which the UCITS is authorised pursuant to Article 5;

(f) "investment company's home Member State" means the Member State in which the investment company has its registered office;

(g) "UCITS host Member State" means the Member State, other than the UCITS home Member State, in which the units of the common fund/unit trust or of the investment company are marketed;

(h) "branch" means a place of business which is a part of the management company, which has no legal personality and which provides the services for which the management company has been authorised; all the places of business set up in the same Member State by a management company with headquarters in another Member State shall be regarded as a single branch;

(i) "competent authorities" means the authorities which each Member State designates under Article 92 of this Directive;

(j) "close links" means a situation as defined in Article 2(1) of Directive 95/26/EC, in which two or more natural or legal persons are linked by either of the following:

(i) "participation", which means the ownership, direct or by way of control, of 20% or more of the voting rights or capital of an undertaking;

(ii) "control", which means the relationship between a “parent undertaking” and a “subsidiary” as defined in Articles 1 and 2 of Council Directive 83/349/EEC and in all the cases referred to in Article 1 (1) and (2) of Directive 83/349/EEC.

18 OJ L 168, 18.7.1995, p. 7
or a similar relationship between any natural or legal person and an undertaking:

(10) (k) "qualifying holdings" shall mean any direct or indirect holding in a management company which represents 10% or more of the capital or of the voting rights or which makes it possible to exercise a significant influence over the management of the management company in which that holding subsists.

For the purpose of this definition, the voting rights referred to in Article 2 of Directive 88/627/EEC shall be taken into account;

12 «parent undertaking» shall mean a parent undertaking as defined in Articles 1 and 2 of Directive 83/349/EEC;

13 «subsidiary» shall mean a subsidiary undertaking as defined in Articles 1 and 2 of Directive 83/349/EEC; any subsidiary of a subsidiary undertaking shall also be regarded as a subsidiary of the parent undertaking which is the ultimate parent of those undertakings;

SECTION 1

CONDITIONS FOR TAKING UP BUSINESS

Article 6

1. Access to the business of management companies shall be subject to prior official authorisation to be granted by the competent authorities of the UCITS home Member State's competent authorities. 2. No management company may engage in activities other than the management of UCITS authorised according to this Directive except the additional management of other collective investment undertakings which are not covered by this Directive and for which the management company is subject to prudential supervision but which cannot be marketed in other Member States under this Directive.

The activity of management of unit trusts/common funds and of investment companies shall include, for the purpose of this Directive, the functions mentioned in Annex II, which are not exhaustive.

3. By way of derogation from paragraph 2, Member States may authorise management companies to provide, in addition to the management of unit trusts/common funds and of investment companies, the following services:

(a) management of portfolios of investments, including those owned by pension funds, in accordance with mandates given by investors on a discretionary, client-by-client basis, where such portfolios include one or more of the instruments listed in Annex I, Section C to Directive 2004/39/EC Section B of the Annex to the ISD;

This additional amount of own funds shall be equal to 0.02 % of the amount by which the value of the portfolios of the management company exceeds EUR 250 000 000. The required total of the initial capital and the additional amount shall not, however, exceed EUR 10 000 000;

To that end, the names of these persons and of every person succeeding them in office must be communicated forthwith to the competent authorities. The conduct of a management company’s business must be decided by at least two persons meeting such conditions;

(c) The application for authorisation is accompanied by a programme of activity setting out, at least, the organisational structure of the management company;

(d) both the head office and the registered office of the management company are located in the same Member State.

2. Where close links exist between the management company and other natural or legal persons, the competent authorities shall grant authorisation only if those close links do not prevent the effective exercise of their supervisory functions.

The competent authorities shall also refuse authorisation if the laws, regulations or administrative provisions of a third non-member country governing one or more natural or legal persons with which the management company has close links, or difficulties involved in their enforcement, prevent the effective exercise of their supervisory functions.

The competent authorities shall require management companies to provide them with the information they require to monitor compliance with the conditions referred to in this paragraph on a continuous basis.

3. An applicant shall be informed, within six months of the submission of a complete application, whether or not authorisation has been granted. Reasons shall be given whenever an authorisation is refused.

The competent authorities shall not grant authorisation to take up the business of management companies until they have been informed of the identities of the shareholders or members, whether direct or indirect, natural or legal persons, that have qualifying holdings and of the amounts of those holdings.

The competent authorities shall refuse authorisation if, taking into account the need to ensure the sound and prudent management of a management company, they are not satisfied as to the suitability of the aforementioned shareholders or members.

2. In the case of branches of management companies that have registered offices outside the European Union and are starting or carrying on business, the Member States shall not apply provisions that result in treatment more favourable than that accorded to branches of management companies that have registered offices in Member States.

It shall communicate to the competent authorities regularly and in accordance with the detailed rules they shall define, the types of derivative instruments, the underlying risks, the quantitative limits and the methods which are chosen in order to estimate the risks associated with transactions in derivative instruments regarding each managed UCITS.

2. The Member States may authorise UCITS to employ techniques and instruments relating to transferable securities and money market instruments under the conditions and within the limits which they lay down provided that such techniques and instruments are used for the purpose of efficient portfolio management.

When these operations concern the use of derivative instruments, these conditions and limits shall conform to the provisions laid down in this Directive.

3. A UCITS shall ensure that its global exposure relating to derivative instruments does not exceed the total net value of its portfolio.

The exposure is calculated taking into account the current value of the underlying assets, the counterparty risk, future market movements and the time available to liquidate the positions. This shall also apply to the following the third and fourth subparagraphs.

A UCITS may invest, as a part of its investment policy and within the limit laid down in Article 1 pt. 47 (5), in financial derivative instruments provided that the exposure to the underlying assets does not exceed in aggregate the investment limits laid down in Article 1 pt. 47 .    (a) 10% of its assets when the counterparty is a credit institution referred to in Article 45(1)(f);

   (b) 5% of its assets, in other cases.

2. Member States may raise the 5% limit laid down in the first sentence of paragraph 1 to a maximum of 10%. However, the total value of the transferable securities and the money market instruments held by the UCITS in the issuing bodies in each of which it invests more than 5% of its assets must not then exceed 40% of the value of its assets. This limitation shall not apply to deposits and OTC derivative transactions made with financial institutions subject to prudential supervision.

   Notwithstanding the individual limits laid down in paragraph 1, a UCITS may not combine:

   (a) investments in transferable securities or money market instruments issued by that body;

   (b) deposits made with that body;

   (c) exposures arising from OTC derivative transactions undertaken with that body.

In particular, sums deriving from the issue of these bonds shall must be invested in conformity with the law in assets which, during the whole period of validity of the bonds, are capable of covering claims attaching to the bonds and which, in the event of failure of the issuer, would be used on a priority basis for the reimbursement of the principal and payment of the accrued interest.
When a UCITS invests more than 5% of its assets in the bonds referred to in the first subparagraph and issued by one issuer, the total value of these investments may not exceed 80% of the value of the assets of the UCITS.

The Member States shall send the Commission a list of the aforementioned categories of bonds referred to in the first subparagraph together with the categories of issuers authorised, in accordance with the laws and supervisory arrangements mentioned in that subparagraph, to issue bonds complying with the criteria set out above. A notice specifying the status of the guarantees offered shall be attached to these lists. The Commission shall immediately forward that information to the other Member States together with any comments which it considers appropriate, and shall make the information available to the public. Such communications may be the subject of exchanges of views within the European Securities Committee.

Without prejudice to the limits laid down in Article 25 51, the Member States may raise the limits laid down in Article 47 to a maximum of 20% for investment in shares and/or debt securities issued by the same body when, according to the fund rules or instruments of incorporation, the aim of the UCITS’ investment policy is to replicate the composition of a certain stock or debt securities index which is recognised by the competent authorities, on the following basis:

- (a) its composition is sufficiently diversified;
- (b) the index represents an adequate benchmark for the market to which it refers;
- (c) it is published in an appropriate manner.

2. Member States may raise the limit laid down in paragraph 1 to a maximum of 35% where that proves to be justified by exceptional market conditions in particular in regulated markets where certain transferable securities or money market instruments are highly dominant. The investment up to this limit shall be permitted for a single issuer.

Article 49 23

1. By way of derogation from Article 47 and without prejudice to Article 68(3) of the Treaty, the Member States may authorise UCITS to invest in accordance with the principle of risk-spreading up to 100% of their assets in different transferable securities and money market instruments issued or guaranteed by any Member State, its local authorities, a third country non-Member State or public international bodies of which one or more Member States are members.

The competent authorities shall grant such a derogation only if they consider that unit-holders in the UCITS have protection equivalent to that of unit-holders in UCITS complying with the limits laid down in Article 47.

Such a UCITS shall hold securities from at least six different issues, but securities from any one issue may not account for more than 30% of its total assets.
2. The UCITS referred to in paragraph 1 shall must make express mention in the fund rules or in the instruments of incorporation of the Member States, local authorities or public international bodies issuing or guaranteeing securities in which they intend to invest more than 35 % of their assets.

Such fund rules or instruments of incorporation shall be approved by the competent authorities.

3. In addition, each such UCITS referred to in paragraph 1 shall must include a prominent statement in its prospectus and any promotional literature marketing communications drawing attention to such authorisation and indicating the Member States, local authorities and/or public international bodies in the securities of which it intends to invest or has invested more than 35 % of its assets.

Article 50

1. A UCITS may acquire the units of UCITS and/or other collective investment undertakings referred to in Article 45 (1)(e), provided that no more than 10 % of its assets are invested in units of a single UCITS or other collective investment undertaking. The Member States may raise the limit to a maximum of 20 %.

2. Investments made in units of collective investment undertakings other than UCITS may not exceed, in aggregate, 30 % of the assets of the UCITS.

The Member States may allow that, when a UCITS has acquired units of UCITS and/or other collective investment undertakings, the assets of the respective UCITS or other collective investment undertakings do not have to be combined for the purposes of the limits laid down in Article 47.

3. When a UCITS invests in the units of other UCITS and/or other collective investment undertakings that are managed, directly or by delegation, by the same management company or by any other company with which the management company is linked by common management or control, or by a substantial direct or indirect holding, that management company or other company may not charge subscription or redemption fees on account of the UCITS's investment in the units of such other UCITS and/or collective investment undertakings.
A UCITS that invests a substantial proportion of its assets in other UCITS and/or collective investment undertakings shall disclose in its prospectus the maximum level of the management fees that may be charged both to the UCITS itself and to the other UCITS and/or collective investment undertakings in which it intends to invest. In its annual report it shall indicate the maximum proportion of management fees charged both to the UCITS itself and to the UCITS and/or other collective investment undertaking in which it invests.

Article 51

1. An investment company or a management company acting in connection with all of the unit trusts common funds which it manages and which fall within the scope of this Directive shall not acquire any shares carrying voting rights which would enable it to exercise significant influence over the management of an issuing body.

Pending further coordination, the Member States shall take account of existing rules defining the principle stated in the first subparagraph under other Member States' legislation.

2. Moreover, an investment company or unit trust common fund may acquire no more than:

- (a) 10 % of the non-voting shares of any single issuing body;
- (b) 10 % of the debt securities of any single issuing body;
- (c) 25 % of the units of any single UCITS and/or other collective investment undertaking within the meaning of points (a) and (b) the first and second indent of Article 1(2)
- (d) 10 % of the money market instruments of any single issuing body.

The limits laid down in the second, third and fourth indents may be disregarded at the time of acquisition if at that time the gross amount of the debt securities or of the money market instruments, or the net amount of the securities in issue, cannot be calculated.
3. A Member State may waive application of paragraphs 1 and 2 as regards:

(a) transferable securities [1] and money market instruments [2] issued or guaranteed by a Member State or its local authorities;

(b) transferable securities [1] and money market instruments [2] issued or guaranteed by a third country non-Member State;

(c) transferable securities [1] and money market instruments [2] issued by public international bodies of which one or more Member States are members;

(d) shares held by a UCITS in the capital of a company incorporated in a third country non-Member State investing its assets mainly in the securities of issuing bodies having their registered offices in that country State, where under the legislation of that country State such a holding represents the only way in which the UCITS can invest in the securities of issuing bodies of that country State. This derogation, however, shall apply only if in its investment policy the company from the third country non-Member State complies with the limits laid down in Articles 47 and 50 and in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article 22, 24 and 25(1) and (2). Where the limits set in Articles 47 and 50 are exceeded, Article 52 shall apply mutatis mutandis;

(e) shares held by an investment company or investment companies in the capital of subsidiary companies carrying on only the business of management, advice or marketing in the country where the subsidiary is established located, in regard to the repurchase of units at unit-holders' request exclusively on its or their behalf.
1. UCITS need not comply with the limits laid down in this Chapter when exercising subscription rights attaching to transferable securities or money market instruments which form part of their assets.

While ensuring observance of the principle of risk spreading, the Member States may allow recently authorised UCITS to derogate from Articles 47 to 50 for six months following the date of their authorisation.

2. If the limits referred to in paragraph 1 are exceeded for reasons beyond the control of a UCITS or as a result of the exercise of subscription rights, that UCITS shall adopt as a priority objective for its sales transactions the remedying of that situation, taking due account of the interests of its unit-holders.

Master-feeder structures

SECTION 1

SCOPE AND APPROVAL

Article 53

1. A feeder UCITS is a UCITS which invests, by way of derogation from Article 1(2)(a), Article 45, Article 47, Article 50 and Article 51(2)(c), at least 85 % of its assets in units of another UCITS ("the master UCITS") or an investment compartment thereof.

2. A feeder UCITS may hold up to 15 % of its assets in one or more of the following:

   (a) ancillary liquid assets in accordance with Article 45(3),
(b) financial derivative instruments in accordance with Article 45(1)(g) and Article 46(2) and (3).

c) movable and immovable property which is essential for the direct pursuit of the business, if the feeder UCITS is an investment company.

For the purposes of point (b) of the first subparagraph, the exposure of the feeder UCITS to the underlying assets as referred to in the third subparagraph of Article 46(3) shall be calculated by also taking into account the investments of the master UCITS, including the investments of the master UCITS into financial derivative instruments and their underlyings, in proportion to the feeder UCITS investment into the master UCITS.

3. A master UCITS is a UCITS which:

(a) must have at least one feeder UCITS as unit-holder;

(b) must not itself be a feeder UCITS;

(c) must not hold units of a feeder UCITS.

4. By way of derogation from Article 1(2) point (a) and Article 3 point (b), if a master UCITS has at least two feeder UCITS as unit-holders, it shall not be obliged to raise capital from other investors.

If a master UCITS raises capital only from one or more feeder UCITS in a Member State other than that in which it is established, Chapter XI and Article 103(1) shall not apply.

Article 54

1. Member States shall ensure that the investment of a feeder UCITS into a given master UCITS be subject to prior approval by the competent authorities of the feeder UCITS' home Member State.

2. If the feeder UCITS already carried on activities as a UCITS, including as a feeder UCITS of a different master UCITS, the feeder UCITS shall be informed within at the latest 15 working days following the submission of a complete file, whether or not the competent authorities approved the feeder UCITS' investment into the master UCITS.

3. In the event that the feeder UCITS and the master UCITS are established in the same Member State, the competent authorities of that Member State shall grant approval if the feeder UCITS, its depositary and its auditor, as well as the master UCITS, comply with all the requirements set out in this Chapter. For such purpose, the feeder UCITS shall provide to the competent authorities of its home Member State the following documents:

(a) the fund rules or instruments of incorporation of the feeder UCITS and the master UCITS;

(b) the prospectus and the key investor information referred to in Article 73 of the feeder UCITS and the master UCITS;

(e) a declaration of the master UCITS to the effect that it does not hold any units of a feeder UCITS;

(f) in the event that the master UCITS and the feeder UCITS have different depositaries, the information-sharing agreement referred to in Article 56(1) between their respective depositaries;

(g) in the event that the master UCITS and the feeder UCITS have different auditors, the information-sharing agreement referred to in Article 57(1) between their respective auditors.

4. When the feeder UCITS is established in another Member State than the master UCITS, the competent authorities of the feeder UCITS' home Member State shall grant approval provided the following conditions are met:

(a) the feeder UCITS, its depositary and its auditor comply with all the requirements set out in this Chapter and the feeder UCITS for such purpose submits the documents referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article;

(b) the feeder UCITS demonstrates that the master UCITS is duly authorised as a UCITS, that it is not itself a feeder UCITS and does not hold any units of a feeder UCITS.

The competent authorities of the feeder UCITS' home Member State shall immediately inform those of the master UCITS, if the approval is granted or withdrawn.

SECTION 2

COMMON PROVISIONS FOR FEEDER UCITS AND MASTER UCITS

Article 55

1. Member States shall require the feeder UCITS to enter into an agreement with the master UCITS concerned in order to enable the feeder UCITS to meet the requirements laid down in this Directive;

3. If a master UCITS temporarily suspends the re-purchase or redemption of its units, whether at its own initiative or at the request of its competent authorities, each of its feeder UCITS is entitled to suspend the re-purchase or redemption of its units notwithstanding the conditions laid down in Article 79(2) within the same period of time as the master UCITS.

(a) the investment of at least 85% of the assets of the feeder UCITS in units of another master UCITS; or

(b) the amendment of its fund rules or instruments of incorporation in order to enable the feeder UCITS to convert into a UCITS which is not a feeder UCITS.

A master UCITS may only be liquidated three months after the master UCITS informed all of its feeder UCITS and the competent authorities of these feeder UCITS' home Member States of the binding decision to liquidate.

5. If a master UCITS merges with another UCITS or is divided into two or more UCITS, the feeder UCITS shall be liquidated, unless the competent authorities of the feeder UCITS' home Member State approve that the feeder UCITS:

(a) continues to be a feeder UCITS resulting from the merger or division; or

(b) invests at least 85% of its assets in units of another master UCITS not resulting from the merger or the division; or

(c) amends its fund rules or its instruments of incorporation in order to convert into a UCITS which is not a feeder UCITS.

No merger or division of a master UCITS shall become effective, unless the master UCITS provided all of its feeder UCITS and the competent authorities of these feeder UCITS' home Member States with the information referred to in or comparable with Article 40 no later than 60 days before the proposed effective date.
Unless the competent authorities of the feeder UCITS' home Member State had granted approval pursuant to point (a) of the first subparagraph, the feeder UCITS shall re-purchase or redeem all units in the master UCITS before the merger or division of the master UCITS becomes effective.

(a) the particulars that need to be included in the agreement referred to in the first subparagraph of paragraph 1;

(b) which measures referred to in paragraph 2 are deemed appropriate and;

(c) the procedures for the required approvals pursuant to paragraphs 4 and 5 in case of a liquidation, merger or division of a master UCITS.

Those measures, designed to amend this Directive by supplementing it, shall be adopted in accordance with the regulatory procedure with scrutiny referred to in Article 107(2).

SECTION 3

2. In its audit report, the auditor of the feeder UCITS shall take into account the audit report of the master UCITS.

The auditor shall in particular report on any irregularities revealed in the audit report of the master UCITS and on their impact on the feeder UCITS.

SECTION 6

OBLIGATIONS AND COMPETENT AUTHORITIES

Article 60

2. The feeder UCITS and, where applicable, its management company, remain obliged to act in the best interest of the unit-holders of the feeder UCITS and in doing so, shall monitor effectively the activity of the master UCITS. In performing this obligation, the feeder UCITS and, where applicable, its management company, may rely on information and documents received from the master UCITS or, where applicable, its management company, depositary and auditor, unless there is reason to doubt their accuracy.

3. Where, by virtue of an investment in the units of the master UCITS, a commission is received by the feeder UCITS, the management company of the feeder UCITS or any person acting on behalf of either the feeder UCITS or the management company of the feeder UCITS, the commission shall be paid into the assets of the feeder UCITS.

Article 61

1. The master UCITS shall immediately inform the competent authorities of its home Member State of the identity of each feeder UCITS which invests in its units. If the master UCITS and the feeder UCITS are established in different Member States, the competent authorities of the master UCITS' home Member State shall immediately inform those of the feeder UCITS' home Member State of such investment.

2. Where a UCITS invests principally in any category of assets defined in Article 19 other than transferable securities and money market instruments or replicates a stock or debt securities index in accordance with Article 22a, its prospectus and, where necessary, any other promotional literature must include a prominent statement drawing attention to the investment policy.

3. 2. Those measures, designed to amend non-essential elements of this Directive, shall be adopted in accordance with the regulatory procedure with scrutiny referred to in Article 107(2).

SECTION 2

B. PUBLICATION OF OTHER INFORMATION

Article 71

A UCITS shall make public in an appropriate manner the issue, sale, re-purchase or redemption price of its units each time it issues, sells, re-purchases or redeems them, and at least twice a month.

The competent authorities may, however, permit a UCITS to reduce the frequency to once a month on condition that such a derogation does not prejudice the interests of the unit-holders.
Article 7235

All publicity comprising an invitation to purchase the units of UCITS must indicate that prospectuses exist and the places where they may be obtained by the public or how the public may have access to them.

All marketing communications to investors shall be clearly identifiable as such. They shall be fair, clear and not misleading and the information contained therein shall be consistent with the information contained in the prospectus and the key investor information referred to in Article 73. They shall indicate that a prospectus exists and that the key investor information referred to in Article 73 is available and specify where and in which language such information or documents may be obtained by investors or potential investors or how they may have access to them.

1. Member States shall require that an investment company and, for each of the common funds it manages, a management company draw up a short document containing key investor information.

2. Key investor information shall include appropriate product information about the essential characteristics of the UCITS concerned, which is to be provided to investors so that they are reasonably able to understand the nature and the risks of the investment product that is being offered to them and, consequently, to take investment decisions on an informed basis.

3. Key investor information shall include information on at least the following essential elements in respect of the UCITS concerned:

5. Key investor information shall be written in a brief manner and in non-technical language. It shall be drawn up in a common format, allowing for comparison, and shall be presented in a way that is likely to be understood by retail investors.

6. Key investor information shall be used without alterations, except translation, in all Member States where the UCITS is notified to market its units in accordance with Article 88.

7. The Commission may adopt implementing measures which define the following:

The Member States shall provide that decisions taken in respect of a UCITS pursuant to laws, regulations and administrative provisions adopted in accordance with this Directive are subject to the right to apply to the courts; the same shall apply if no decision is taken within six months of the submission of an authorisation application made by a UCITS which includes all the information required under the provisions in force.

3. Member States shall provide that one or more of the following bodies, as determined by national law, may, in the interests of consumers and in accordance with national law, take action before the courts or competent administrative bodies to ensure that the national provisions for the implementation of this Directive are applied:

(a) public bodies or their representatives;

(b) consumer organisations having a legitimate interest in protecting consumers;

(c) professional organisations having a legitimate interest in acting to protect their members.

Article 103

1. Only the authorities of the UCITS home Member State in which a UCITS is situated shall have the power to take action against it if it infringes any law, regulation or administrative provision or any regulation laid down in the fund rules or in the investment company’s instruments of incorporation of the investment company.

2. Nevertheless, the authorities of the UCITS host Member State in which the units of a UCITS are marketed may take action against it if it infringes the laws, regulations and administrative provisions referred to in Section VIII in force on their territory and falling outside the field governed by the Directive or the requirements set out in Articles 87 and 89.

2. Any decision to withdraw authorisation, or any other serious measure taken against a UCITS, or any suspension of re-purchase or redemption imposed upon it, shall be communicated without delay by the authorities of the UCITS home Member State in which the UCITS in question is situated to the authorities of the other UCITS host Member States in which its units are marketed.

3. If the competent authorities of the UCITS host Member State have clear and demonstrable grounds for believing that a UCITS whose units are marketed within their territory is in breach of the obligations arising from the provisions adopted pursuant to this Directive which do not confer powers on the competent authorities of the UCITS host Member State, they shall refer those findings to the competent authorities of the UCITS home Member State, which shall take the appropriate measures.

4. If, despite the measures taken by the competent authorities of the UCITS home Member State or because such measures prove inadequate, or because the UCITS home Member State fails to act within a reasonable timeframe, the UCITS persists in acting in a manner that is clearly prejudicial to the interests of the UCITS host Member State's investors, the competent authorities of the UCITS host Member State, may take either of the following actions:

(a) after informing the competent authorities of the UCITS home Member State, take all the appropriate measures needed in order to protect investors, including the possibility of preventing the UCITS concerned from carrying on any further marketing of its units within their territory;

(b) bring the matter to the attention of the Committee of European Securities Regulators.

The Commission shall be informed without delay of any measure taken pursuant to point (a) of the first subparagraph.

5. Member States shall ensure that within their territories it is possible to serve the legal documents necessary for the measures which may be taken by the UCITS host Member State on UCITS pursuant to paragraphs 2 to 4.

Article 104

1. Where, through the provision of services or by the establishment of branches, a management company operates in one or more management company's host Member States, the competent authorities of all the Member States concerned shall collaborate closely.
They shall supply one another on request with all the information concerning the management and ownership of such management companies that is likely to facilitate their supervision and all information likely to facilitate the monitoring of such companies. In particular, the authorities of the management company's home Member State shall cooperate to ensure that the authorities of the management company's host Member State collect the particulars referred to in Article 18 (2).

2. Insofar as it is necessary for the purpose of exercising their powers of supervision, the competent authorities of the management company's home Member State shall be informed by the competent authorities of the management company's host Member State of any measures taken by the management company's host Member State pursuant to Article 6c (6) which involve penalties imposed on a management company or restrictions on a management company's activities.

Article 105

1. Each management company's host Member State shall ensure that, where a management company authorised in another Member State carries on business within its territory through a branch, the competent authorities of the management company's home Member State may, after informing the competent authorities of the management company's host Member State, themselves or through the intermediary of persons they instruct for the purpose, carry out on-the-spot verification of the information referred to in Article 52a.

2. The competent authorities of the management company's home Member State may also ask the competent authorities of the management company's host Member State to have such verification carried out. Authorities which receive such requests must, within the framework of their powers, act upon them by carrying out the verifications themselves, by allowing the authorities who have requested them to carry them out or by allowing auditors or experts to do so.

3. This Article Paragraph 1 shall not affect the right of the competent authorities of the management company's host Member State, in discharging their responsibilities under this Directive, to carry out on-the-spot verifications of branches established within their territory.
