

New national side of euro coins intended for circulation

(2013/C 272/05)

National side of the new commemorative 2-euro coin intended for circulation and issued by the Hellenic Republic

Euro coins intended for circulation have legal tender status throughout the euro area. For the purpose of informing the public and all parties who handle the coins, the Commission publishes a description of the designs of all new coins ⁽¹⁾. In accordance with the Council conclusions of 10 February 2009 ⁽²⁾, euro-area Member States and countries that have concluded a monetary agreement with the European Union providing for the issuing of euro coins are allowed to issue commemorative euro coins intended for circulation, provided that certain conditions are met, particularly that only the 2-euro denomination is used. These coins have the same technical characteristics as other 2-euro coins, but their national face features a commemorative design that is highly symbolic in national or European terms.

Issuing country: The Hellenic Republic

Subject of commemoration: 2 400th Anniversary of the founding of Plato's Academy

Description of the design:

Portrait of Plato (in profile). On the left: the words '2 400 years since the founding of Plato's Academy' and 'Hellenic Republic' in ancient Greek lettering. On the right: '2013' and the monogram of the Greek Mint. In exergue, 'ΣΤΑΜ' (monogram of the author G. Stamatopoulos).

The coin's outer ring depicts the 12 stars of the European flag.
