Amendment 15

First part: 'Recalls the original objective of the European Semester, which was the coordination of budgetary and economic policies across the Union; regrets, in this regard, the Commission's commitment over the years to continuously expand the original scope of the European Semester in order to drive policy coordination for sustainability and social fairness as well as the integration of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals and the European Pillar of Social Rights;'

Second part: 'regrets that, despite its negative impact on the European economy, industry and competitiveness, the European Green Deal remains a core deliverable for the Commission;'

§ 8

First part: Text as a whole without the words: 'including the European pillar of social rights'

Second part: those words

§ 35

First part: 'Calls on the Commission to initiate discussions on addressing the significant investment gap in the EU and to reduce borrowing costs, strengthen financial stability and enable strategic investments in line with the EU's objectives and for the provision of European public goods, such as defence capabilities to match needs in a context of growing threats and security challenges; calls for full use to be made of the efficiency gains that may stem from the provision of European public goods at EU scale through the effective coordination of investment priorities among Member States;'

Second part: 'believes that this framework, where appropriate, should be strengthened by EU-level investment instruments and tools designed to minimise the cost for EU taxpayers and maximise efficiency in the provision of European public goods;'

Recital E

First part: Text as a whole without the words: 'including the European pillar of social rights'

Second part: those words

Recital N

First part: 'whereas the new Commission has set the goal of being an "investment Commission"; whereas discussions on addressing the significant investment gap and reducing borrowing costs are needed in the EU;'

§ 25

First part: Text as a whole without the words: 'such as privatisation of public healthcare systems, co-payments and lack of coverage; highlights that these deepen poverty, erode health and well-being, and increase social inequalities within and across EU countries;'

Second part: those words

ECR:
Recital D

First part: Text as a whole without the words: 'LGBTI' and 'non-EU born individuals'

Second part: 'LGBTI'

Third part: 'non-EU born individuals'

Recital R

First part: Text as a whole without the words: 'and green' (two occurrences)

Second part: those words

Recital S

First part: 'whereas it is essential to promote mobility within the EU'

Second part: 'and consider attracting skilled workers from third countries, while ensuring respect for and enforcement of labour and social rights and channelling third-country nationals entering the EU through legal migration pathways towards occupations experiencing shortages, supported by an effective integration policy, in full complementarity with harnessing talents from within the Union;'

§ 4

First part: Text as a whole without the words: 'the Gender Equality Strategy 2020-2025, the EU Anti-Racism Action Plan 2020-2025' and the words 'the LGBTI Equality Strategy 2020- 2025'

Second part: those words

§ 12

First part: Text as a whole without the words: 'and environmental'

Second part: those words

§ 14

First part: 'Welcomes the announced European Affordable Housing Plan to support Member States in addressing the housing crisis and soaring rents; calls on the Commission to assess and publish which potential barriers on State aid rules affect housing accessibility; recalls that the Social Climate Fund aims to provide financial aid to Member States from 2026 to support vulnerable households,'

Second part: 'in particular with measures and investments intended to increase the energy efficiency of buildings, decarbonisation of heating and cooling of buildings and the integration in buildings of renewable energy generation and storage;'

First part: Text as a whole without the words: 'non-EU born individuals, LGBTI' and the words 'with binding targets to reduce homelessness'

Second part: 'non-EU born individuals, LGBTI'

Third part: 'with binding targets to reduce homelessness'

§ 53

First part: 'Stresses the need for timely and harmonised data on social policies to improve evidence-based policy-making and targeted social investments;'

Second part: ‘calls for improvements to be made to the Social Scoreboard in order to cover the 20 EPSR principles with the introduction of relevant indicators reflecting trends and causes of inequality, such as quality employment, wealth distribution, access to public services, adequate pensions, the homelessness rate, mental health and unemployment;’

Third part: ‘recalls that the at-risk-of-poverty-or-social-exclusion (AROPE) indicator fails to reveal the causes of complex inequality;’

Fourth part: ‘calls on the Commission and the Member States to develop a European data collection framework on social services to monitor the investment in and coverage of social services;’

PPE:
Recital E

First part: Text as a whole without the words: ‘in both the current multiannual financial framework (MFF) and the next one’

Second part: those words

§ 13

First part: Text as a whole without the words: ‘an EU regulatory framework for the housing sector, together with’

Second part: those words

§ 24

First part: Text as a whole without the words: ‘reiterates its call for an increase in the funding of the European Child Guarantee with a dedicated budget of at least EUR 20 billion and for all Member States to allocate at least 5 % of their allocated ESF+ funds to fighting child poverty and promoting children’s well-being;’

Second part: those words

§ 29

First part: ‘Recalls the importance of improving access to social protection for the self-employed and calls on the Commission to monitor the Member States’ national plans for the implementation of the Council Recommendation of 8 November 2019 on access to social protection for workers and the self-employed as part of the country-specific recommendations;’

Second part: ‘recalls, in this regard, as the rate of self-employed professionals in the cultural and creative sectors is more than double that in the general population, the 13 initiatives laid down in the Commission’s 21 February 2024 response to the European Parliament resolution of 21 November 2023 on an EU framework for the social and professional situation of artists and workers in the cultural and creative sectors and calls on the Commission to start implementing them in cooperation with the Member States;’

PfE:

First part: ‘Considers that homelessness is a dramatic social problem in the EU;’

Second part: ‘calls for a single definition of homelessness in the EU, which would enable the systematic comparison and assessment of the extent of homelessness across different EU Member States; calls on the Commission to develop a strategy and work towards ending homelessness in the EU by 2030 by promoting access to affordable and decent housing as well as access to quality social services; urges the Member States to better use the available EU instruments, including the ESF+, in this matter;’

Amendment 6

First part: 'Regrets the ever-increasing role of the unelected Commission in the fiscal affairs of the Member States through mechanisms such as the European Semester and revised fiscal rules; believes this centralisation undermines national democracies and damages the ability of people to put trust in political systems to solve their problems; notes that the Commission has engaged in significant overreach through the European Semester process when it comes to public policy areas that legally fall under the competence of the Member States under the TFEU, such as pensions and the provision of healthcare;'

Second part: 'regrets that the revised economic governance framework fails to enhance social progress and convergence and to foster the ecological transition; regrets further that in order to comply with the revised economic governance rules, governments of Member States have committed in their national fiscal and budgetary plans to reduce public expenditure and to implement structural reforms; deplores that these commitments have already or will in the near future translate into concrete measures deeply affecting the population, such as the reform of the pension system, the reform of the unemployment scheme, lower healthcare reimbursements, and job cuts in public administrations such as public education, leading to the general degradation of public services; warns that these economic policies, aimed at complying with the objectives of the European Semester, will have harmful and long-lasting impacts on the people and on our collective capacity to cope with the ecological crisis, while at the same time failing to achieve the deficit and debt reduction for which they are intended; reiterates that instead of focusing on irrelevant economic indicators and pursuing endless debt and deficit reduction, the EU economic governance should aim at eradicating poverty and inequalities, provide a high level of social protection, high-quality public services, and individual and collective well-being through the fulfilment of the essential needs of all citizens and ecological planning; notes that the involvement of social partners and civil society should be enhanced in the economic governance and the European Semester; insists that the Commission should reinforce its dialogues with the Member States on the implementation of existing recommendations and of the employment guidelines, as well as on current or future policy action to address identified challenges;'

ECR, PPE:
§ 7

First part: 'Welcomes the announcement of a quality jobs roadmap to ensure a just transition for all; calls on the Commission to include in this roadmap considerations for measures linked to the use of AI and algorithmic management in the world of work so that new technologies are harnessed to improve working conditions and productivity while respecting workers' rights and work-life balance as recognised in the JER;'

Second part: 'calls on the Commission to propose a directive on the use of AI in the workplace that ensures that workers' rights are protected and respected;'

First part: 'Calls on the Member States to design national homelessness strategies centred around housing-based solutions; welcomes the intention to deliver a Council recommendation on homelessness;' without the words: 'centred around housing-based solutions'

Second part: those words

Third part: 'urges the Commission to further increase the ambition of the European Platform on Combating Homelessness,'

Fourth part: 'in particular by providing it with a dedicated budget;'

§ 19

First part: Text as a whole without the words: 'and to complement it with a directive on psychosocial risks in the workplace'

Second part: those words

§ 33

First part: 'Is concerned that, despite improvements, several population groups are still significantly under-represented in the EU labour market, including women, older people, low- and medium-qualified people, persons with disabilities'

Second part: 'and people with a migrant or minority background;'

Third part: 'warns that educational inequalities have deepened, further exacerbating the vulnerabilities of students from disadvantaged and migrant backgrounds;'

Fourth part: 'points out that, according to the JER, people with migrant or minority backgrounds can significantly benefit from targeted measures in order to address skills mismatches, improve language proficiency, combat discrimination and receive tailored and integrated support services; stresses the importance of strengthening efforts in the implementation of the 2021-27 Action Plan on Integration and Inclusion, which provides a common policy framework to support the Member States in developing national migrant integration policies;' without the words: 'and receive tailored and integrated support services'

Fifth part: those words

ECR, PPE, PfE:
§ 23

First part: 'Is concerned that, in 2023, 94.6 million people in the EU were still at risk of poverty or social exclusion; stresses that without a paradigm shift in the approach to combating poverty, the European Union and its Member States will not achieve their poverty reduction objectives; believes that the announcement of the first-ever EU Anti-Poverty Strategy is a step in the right direction towards reversing the trend, but must provide a comprehensive approach to tackling the multidimensional aspects of poverty and social exclusion with concrete actions, strong implementation and monitoring; calls for this Strategy to encompass everybody experiencing poverty and social exclusion, first and foremost the most disadvantaged, but also specific measures for different groups such as persons experiencing in-work poverty, homeless people, people with disabilities, single-parent families and, above all, children in order to sustainably break the cycle of poverty; stresses that the transposition of the Minimum Wage Directive will be key to preventing and fighting poverty risks among workers, while reinforcing incentives to work, and welcomes the fact that several Member States have amended or plan to amend their minimum wage frameworks; is concerned about the rise of non-standard forms of employment where workers are more likely to face in-work poverty and find themselves without adequate legal protections;'

Second part: 'stresses that an EU framework directive on adequate minimum income and active inclusion, in compliance with the subsidiarity principle, would contribute to the goals of reducing poverty and fostering the integration of people absent from the labour market;'

First part: 'Calls for the implementation of policies that promote work-life balance and the right to disconnect, with the aim of improving the quality of life for all families and workers, for ensuring the implementation of the Work-Life Balance Directive and of the European Care Strategy;'

Second part: 'calls on the Commission to put forward a'

Third part: 'legislative'

Fourth part: 'proposal to address teleworking and the right to disconnect;'

Fifth part: 'as well as a proposal for the creation of a European card for all types of large families and a European action plan for single parents, offering educational and social advantages; calls, ultimately, for initiatives to combat workforce exclusion as a consequence of longer periods of sick leave, to adapt the workplace and to promote flexible working conditions and to develop strategies to support workers' return after longer periods of absence;' without the words: 'all types of'

Sixth part: 'all types of'

6. Continuing the unwavering EU support for Ukraine, after three years of Russia's war of aggression

§ 5

First part:	'Expresses deep concern over the apparent shift in the United States' stance on Russia's war of aggression, which has included openly blaming Ukraine for the ongoing war, suspending US military aid, and attempting to coerce Ukraine into relinquishing its legitimate right to self-defence and into making territorial concessions;'
Second part:	'stresses that, in light of this change, the EU and its Member States are now Ukraine's primary strategic allies and must maintain their role as the largest donor to Ukraine and significantly increase the much-needed assistance they provide to uphold Ukraine's right to self-defence and step in, as far as possible, to replace suspended USAID funding, while ensuring long-term aid for reconstruction and recovery;' without the words: 'in light of this change'; 'now'; 'as the largest donor to Ukraine' and 'to replace suspended USAID funding,'
Third part:	The words 'in light of this change'; 'now'; 'as the largest donor to Ukraine' and 'to replace suspended USAID funding,'

§ 23

First part:	'Points to the estimate of the latest Rapid Damage and Needs Assessment that at least EUR 506 billion will be required over the next decade for Ukraine's recovery and reconstruction; welcomes the EU's Ukraine Facility, which has a budget of almost EUR 50 billion, and the EU's Ukraine Loan Cooperation Mechanism, which, in cooperation with the G7, offers loans to Ukraine of up to EUR 45 billion; nevertheless, urges the EU to prepare for Ukraine's reconstruction by dedicating and securing new resources; Calls for the EU, the Member States and like-minded partners to provide comprehensive and coordinated political, economic, technical and humanitarian assistance to support the sustainable and inclusive post-war reconstruction and recovery of Ukraine; reaffirms the EU's commitment to sustainable and long-term financial and economic support to Ukraine, including macro-financial assistance, support for reconstruction and economic and social recovery and measures to ensure the resilience of Ukraine's economy and critical infrastructure; reiterates its firm conviction that Russia must pay for the massive damage caused in Ukraine'
Second part:	and therefore calls for the Russian sovereign assets immobilised under EU sanctions to be confiscated for the purpose of supporting Ukraine's defence and reconstruction;

PfE:

§ 3

First part:	Text as a whole without the words: 'and that in response this calls for bold, brave and comprehensive political, security and financial decisions by the EU'
Second part:	those words

§ 19

First part: 'Welcomes the European Council's decision to open accession negotiations with Ukraine once the Commission's recommendations are met; Reaffirms that Ukraine's future lies in the EU;'

Second part: 'welcomes progress on accession-related reforms despite wartime conditions;'

Third part: 'calls for the acceleration of accession talks, recognising Ukraine's EU integration as a strategic priority;'

Fourth part: 'underscores the importance of continued EU financial assistance, linked to concrete reform, as a key instrument to sustain and accelerate Ukraine's transformation in line with European standards; underlines that the Copenhagen criteria and the required reforms, in particular concerning the rule of law, democracy, fundamental freedoms and human rights, are fundamental to the merit-based process of accession;'

Fifth part: 'believes that Ukraine's membership of the EU represents a geostrategic investment in a united and strong Europe and that it equates to showing leadership, resolve and vision;'

§ 24

First part: Text as a whole without the words: 'calls for a ban or targeted tariffs on Russian imports to the EU with the aim of fully closing the flow of grain, potash and fertilisers as well as raw materials including steel, uranium, titanium, nickel, wood and wood products, and all types of oil and gas;'

Second part: those words

ECR, PPE, PfE:
§ 6

First part: 'Reiterates its call on the Member States, in the light of the regrettable decision of the US administration to cease all military assistance to Ukraine, along with intelligence sharing and access to satellite imagery, to substantially increase and accelerate their military support, in particular the provision of weapons and ammunition, as well as training, in response to pressing needs (inter alia long range weapons systems, air defence systems, artillery systems, electronic warfare systems, anti-drone capabilities and engineering equipment);' without the words: 'in the light of the regrettable decision of the US administration to cease all military assistance to Ukraine, along with intelligence sharing and access to satellite imagery,'

Second part: 'in the light of the regrettable decision of the US administration to cease all military assistance to Ukraine, along with intelligence sharing and access to satellite imagery,'

Third part: 'urges Member States and their defence industries to invest in and partner with the Ukrainian defence industry in order to maximise the full potential of its production capabilities to produce critical equipment in the most efficient manner following the Danish and Dutch examples;'

Fourth part: 'reiterates its position that all EU Member States and NATO allies should collectively and individually commit to supporting Ukraine militarily, with no less than 0.25% of their GDP annually;'

Fifth part: 'calls on the EU and its Member States to utilise their satellite imagery infrastructure for Ukraine; recalls that the military support to Ukraine must be sufficient to ultimately stop Russia's war of aggression and allow Ukraine to liberate all its people, re-establish full control over its entire territory within its internationally recognised borders and deter any further aggression by Russia;'

Sixth part: 'notes in this context that a number of EU Member States are non-aligned and urges them to increase their support for Ukraine in line with their constitutions;'

ECR, PfE:
§ 18

First part: 'Emphasises its full support for the ongoing investigation by the Prosecutor of the ICC into the situation in Ukraine based on alleged war crimes, crimes against humanity and genocide; welcomes Ukraine's ratification of the Rome Statute of the ICC, which allowed it to become a state party to it as of January 2025; in this context, expresses its utmost concern about the US sanctions against the ICC, its prosecutors, judges and staff, which constitute a serious attack on the international justice system; calls on the Commission to urgently activate the Blocking Statute' without the words: 'in this context, expresses its utmost concern about the US sanctions against the ICC, its prosecutors, judges and staff, which constitute a serious attack on the international justice system;'

Second part: 'in this context, expresses its utmost concern about the US sanctions against the ICC, its prosecutors, judges and staff, which constitute a serious attack on the international justice system;'

Third part: 'and on the Member States to urgently increase their diplomatic efforts in order to protect and safeguard the ICC as an indispensable cornerstone of the international justice system;'

ECR, PPE:
§ 33

First part: 'Calls on the EU and its Member States to strengthen EU strategic communication, particularly to publicly set the record straight about the EU's leading support to Ukraine, especially in light of claims that seek to diminish its contribution, to counter hybrid threats and grey zone activities, and to prevent Russian interference in political, electoral, and other democratic processes in Ukraine and Europe; urges proactive communication on EU enlargement benefits to enhance public understanding and support for Ukraine's accession in both Ukraine and the Member States; underlines that Ukraine's EU integration is an opportunity for the development of both bordering regions and the Member States; calls strongly for the EU and the Member States to combat Russian disinformation about the war, by strengthening digital literacy, promoting fact-based narratives'

Second part: 'and holding social media platforms accountable for spreading harmful content'

Third part: 'by strictly enforcing the Digital Services Act;'

Miscellaneous
Michael Gahler had moved the following oral amendment after paragraph 13:
'Welcomes the joint statement by Ukraine and the United States following their meeting in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia on 11 March 2025, including the resumption of US military assistance and intelligence sharing as well as a proposal for a 30-day ceasefire agreement; recalls that a ceasefire can be an effective tool for suspension of hostilities, only if the aggressor fully adheres to it; expects therefore Russia to agree to it and follow it by ceasing all attacks on Ukraine, its military positions, civilian population, infrastructure and territory;'

§ 18

First part:	'Praises the "Danish model" for support for Ukraine, which consists of procuring defence capabilities produced directly in Ukraine;'
Second part:	'urges the EU and its Member States to strongly support this model and to make full use of its potential, as there is an underutilisation of Ukraine's defence industrial capacity, estimated at around 50 %, and it brings many advantages to both sides, such as cheaper equipment, speedier and safer logistics, and greater ease of training and maintenance;'

§ 70

First part:	'Welcomes the proposals made in the recent Niinistö report as regards the financing of European defence; supports the establishment of a defending Europe facility and a securing Europe facility; equally welcomes and supports the proposal to establish an investment guarantee programme based on the model of InvestEU with open architecture to trigger private sector investment'
Second part:	'and to issue a "European preparedness bond standard";'

§ 71

First part:	'Is of the opinion that national recovery and resilience plans should be amended to allow for new defence funding;'
Second part:	'calls for these investments to also address vulnerabilities in both military capabilities and the social fabric, empowering us to fight all threats to our values, social model, security and defence;'

§ 74

First part:	Text as a whole without the words: 'in line with the Commission's "ReArm Europe" plan'
Second part:	those words

Verts/ALE:
Amendment 27

First part: ‘whereas the military and defence sector is one of the largest global emitters of greenhouse gases, yet remains largely exempt from mandatory public reporting on its carbon footprint; whereas the carbon footprint of military expenditure in the EU alone was estimated at 24.8 million tonnes of CO_2 equivalent in 2019, comparable to the annual emissions of approximately 14 million cars; whereas the military sector’s increasing reliance on fossil fuels and resource-intensive equipment exacerbates the climate crisis,’

Second part: ‘while diverting funds from urgent social and environmental investments;’

The Left:
§ 12

First part: ‘Expects the white paper on the future of European defence to identify the most pressing threats, structural risks and competitors, and define the extent to which the EU can develop contingency plans to ensure mutual support in the event of large-scale security crises, and help Europe anticipate, prepare for and deter potential aggressors and defend itself in the short and long term,’

Second part: ‘in order to become a credible power and European pillar within NATO;’

First part: Text as a whole without the words: ‘by establishing a comprehensive and resilient defence line across land, air and maritime domains to counter military and hybrid threats;’

Second part: those words

§ 44

First part: Text as a whole without the words: ‘stresses that this must be done in cooperation with NATO by drafting a strategic plan for developing mobility;’

Second part: those words

PfE:
§ 32

First part: ‘Insists that the Rapid Deployment Capacity must achieve full operational capability in 2025 and should be upgraded to be able to face the most extreme military contingencies;’

Second part: ‘reiterates its call to strengthen the EU’s Military Planning and Conduct Capability (MPCC), establishing it as the preferred command and control structure for EU military operations and providing it with adequate premises, staff and effective communication and information systems for all CSDP missions and operations, including those of the Rapid Deployment Capacity;’

§ 34

First part: ‘Reiterates the importance of EU-NATO cooperation, as NATO remains, for those states that are members of it, an important pillar of their collective defence; stresses that EU-NATO cooperation should continue, in particular, in areas such as information exchange, planning, military mobility and the exchange of best practice, and to reinforce deterrence, collective defence and interoperability;’

Second part: ‘calls, nonetheless, for the development of a fully capable European pillar of NATO able to act autonomously whenever necessary;’

Third part: ‘reiterates its call to strengthen cooperation – through action, not only words – on military mobility, information exchange, coordination of planning, improved cooperation on their respective military operations and enhanced response to hybrid warfare aimed at destabilising the whole EU continent;’

ECR:

§ 3

First part: ‘Stresses that Europe continues to stand firmly on the side of Ukraine as it courageously fights for our European values,’

Second part: ‘and recalls its conviction that it is on the Ukrainian battlefields that the future of Europe will be decided;’

Third part: ‘strongly believes that Europe is today facing the most profound military threat to its territorial integrity since the end of the Cold War;’

First part: ‘Believes that Russia, supported by its allies including Belarus, China, North Korea and Iran, is the most significant direct and indirect threat to the EU and its security, as well as that of EU candidate countries and partners; reiterates its condemnation, in the strongest possible terms, of Russia’s unprovoked, illegal and unjustified war of aggression against Ukraine;’

Second part: ‘notes, however, the need to consider fully the instability in our southern neighbourhood, the rise in Chinese military power and the increased aggressiveness of the middle powers, which appear ready to jeopardise transatlantic cooperation on common security and make a deal with the Russian aggressor at the expense of Ukrainian and European security, which are one and the same; notes that the recent actions and statements of the US administration have further increased concerns about the future stance of the US vis-à-vis Russia, NATO and the security of Europe; regrets, in this regard, the votes of the US Government, aligned with the Russian Government, in the UN General Assembly and the UN Security Council on resolutions about the third anniversary of Russia’s war of aggression against Ukraine;’

§ 7

First part: Text as a whole without the words: ‘and build a true European Defence Union’

Second part: those words

§ 8

First part: ‘Deplores the reluctance of the Council and the EU Member States when it comes to addressing deep structural challenges of the European defence industrial landscape and the lack of ambition as regards cooperation at EU level between the Member States’ armed forces;’

Second part: ‘calls on the Member States to join forces and support a major step towards a very ambitious and comprehensive framework on defence;’

§ 46

First part: Text as a whole without the words: ‘emphasises that EDIP should be designed as a stepping stone towards greater European sovereignty in defence production;’

Second part: those words

§ 53

First part: ‘Recommends the establishment of a security of supply regime, including joint strategic stocks of raw materials and critical parts, to ensure the availability of raw materials and components needed for the production of defence products, and to allow production cycles to be ramped up faster and shortened;’

Second part: ‘calls for the Commission to be tasked with the mapping and monitoring of the EDTIB, with the aims of protecting its strengths, reducing its vulnerabilities, avoiding crises and providing it with an effective and efficient industrial policy;’

First part: ‘Stresses that the creation of a single European defence market is a priority, as the fragmentation and lack of competitiveness of the European industry have so far hampered the capacity of the EU to assume more responsibility as a security provider; recalls that the concept of a “defence market” implies a full recognition of its specificity and an appropriate and coherent application of EU public policies;’

Second part: ‘recalls that European preference should be the aim of achieving this single “market” by strictly linking territoriality and the added value generated in this territory;’

S&D:
Amendment 46

First part: ‘strongly condemns US threats against Greenland;’

Second part: ‘is appalled by the apparent lack of condemnation by EU officials of such a blatant threat against the autonomous territory of a Member State;’

Amendment 52

First part: ‘Recalls the provisional measures ordered by the International Court of Justice (ICJ) regarding the application of the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide in the Gaza Strip (South Africa v. Israel); stresses the need for international law to be upheld and respected; calls on the Council and the Commission to ensure that the EU is in no way complicit in violations of international law, including under the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide,’

Second part: ‘with particular regard to the role of the European arms industry in providing weapons to the Israel Defense Forces;’

Amendment 66

First part: ‘calls, therefore, on the Commission and the Member States to ensure that EU public spending goes to EU companies, and EU companies only;’

Second part: ‘stresses that the licensed production of US weapons should not be counted as European production, eligible for EU spending;’

Amendment 76

First part: ‘reiterates the need to protect welfare services and social investments while investing in defence; recognises the importance of well-funded social welfare services in maintaining overall national resilience;’

Second part: ‘reminds the Member States, to this end, of the importance of progressive taxation of capital gains and high incomes as important sources of funding for both the reconstruction of national defence capabilities and comprehensive welfare services;’

Amendment 87

First part: Text as a whole without the word: ‘the’ (as in ‘should be the flagship’)

Second part: that word

Amendment 95

First part: Text as a whole excluding the word ‘every’ and the words ‘of the military and defence sector’

Second part: ‘every’

Third part: ‘of the military and defence sector’

Amendment 103

First part: ‘calls for a more geographically balanced development of the EDTIB,’

Second part: ‘ensuring that critical capabilities, such as ammunition production, air defence systems and drone technologies, are also developed in frontline states, which have a direct understanding of operational needs;’

Amendment 106

First part: 'Emphasises the importance of ensuring a geographically balanced distribution of defence financing in the next multiannual financial framework (MFF),'

Second part: 'particularly to strengthen the EU's external borders with Russia and Belarus;'

Amendment 107

First part: 'Calls for urgent financial support to ensure the timely supply of defence products through joint procurement, industrial coordination, stockpiling, access to finance for manufacturers and the expansion and modernisation of production capacities,'

Second part: 'emphasising that this funding should prioritise Member States bordering Ukraine, to enhance its protection, and Member States bordering Russia, to further deter potential threats;'

First part: 'Urges the EU and its Member States to stand firmly on the side of Ukraine; recalls its conviction that it is on the Ukrainian battlefields that the future of Europe will be decided and that the trajectory of Russia's war against Ukraine will be decisively shifted; underlines that such a shift now depends almost entirely on Europe;'

Second part: 'urges the Member States, therefore, to provide more arms and ammunition to Ukraine before negotiations are concluded; warns that, if the EU were to fail in its support and Ukraine were forced to surrender, Russia would then turn against other countries, including possibly the EU Member States;'

Third part: 'calls on the EU Member States, international partners and NATO allies to lift all restrictions on the use of Western weapons systems delivered to Ukraine against military targets in Russian territory;'

Fourth part: 'calls for the EU and its Member States to actively work towards maintaining and achieving the broadest possible international support for Ukraine and identifying a peaceful solution to the war that must be based on full respect for Ukraine's independence, sovereignty and territorial integrity, the principles of international law, accountability for war crimes and the crime of aggression, and Russian payments for the massive damage caused in Ukraine; urges the EU and its Member States to participate in establishing robust future security guarantees for Ukraine;'

PPE, PfE:
§ 19

First part: 'Calls for a significant increase in the financing of military support for Ukraine; calls, in this regard, for the swift adoption of the next military aid package, which should be the largest to date and reflect the level of ambition this juncture calls for;'

Second part: 'calls on the EU Member States to commit at least 0.25% of their GDP to military aid for Ukraine;'

Third part: 'condemns the veto imposed by one Member State on the functioning of the European Peace Facility;'

Fourth part: 'calls on the EU Member States, together with their G7 partners, to immediately use all frozen Russian assets to serve as a foundation for a substantial grant and loan to Ukraine, as a legally sound and financially significant way to maintain and increase our support for Ukraine's military needs;'

First part: 'Calls for the EU and its Members States to facilitate the use of CSDP instruments in complementarity with internal security tools in the immediate vicinity of the EU's territory and territorial waters, and to strengthen dual-use and civil-military cooperation at EU level, based on a whole-of-government approach;'

Second part: ‘reiterates its call for the protection of critical underwater infrastructure via the establishment of EU-specific rapid response strategies for underwater infrastructure protection, operating in alignment with NATO; encourages investment in advanced detection and surveillance systems for underwater infrastructure monitoring;’ without the words: ‘operating in alignment with NATO’

Third part: ‘operating in alignment with NATO’

§ 58

First part: ‘Calls for greater coherence in governance as CSDP must become the key instrument of a powerful Europe; considers that this requires a real link in governance between the Member States, the Vice-President of the Commission / High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy (VP/HR) and the Commissioners;’

Second part: ‘urges the Member States to overcome the complexity of decision-making processes in the governance of European defence; calls for the creation of a council of defence ministers’

Third part: ‘and for the move from unanimity to qualified majority voting for decisions in the European Council, the Council of Ministers and EU agencies such as the EDA,’

Fourth part: ‘excluding military operations with an executive mandate’

Fifth part: ‘calls, in the meantime, for the use of Article 44 TEU in the creation of a horizontal task force on defence in the Commission; calls for increased democratic accountability through enhanced oversight by Parliament;’

PPE, ECR:
§ 69

First part: ‘Strongly supports the idea that EU Member States must increase their defence and security financing to new levels;’

Second part: ‘notes that some Member States have already increased their defence spending to 5 % of GDP’

Third part: ‘and insists that the current security environment and the multiple, complex and evolving security threats require Member States to increase their defence spending to at least 3 % of GDP;’

PfE, Renew:
§ 73

First part: ‘Calls for a system of European defence bonds to be explored for financing large-scale military investments up front;’

Second part: ‘calls, similarly, for the use of unused “coronabonds” for defence instruments to be explored, to complement the Commission’s “ReArm Europe” plan, as the EU is now experiencing a pressing need to boost security and defence to protect its citizens, restore deterrence and support its allies, first and foremost Ukraine;’

PPE, The Left:
Recital S

First part: Text as a whole without the words: ‘by the requirement for unanimity’

Second part: those words

Miscellaneous
Geadis Geadi had moved the following oral amendment to paragraph 5:
‘Reiterates its call on Türkiye, a NATO member state and EU candidate country, to abide by international law, recognise the Republic of Cyprus and immediately end the occupation and withdraw its troops from the island;’

8. The need for EU support towards a just transition and reconstruction in Syria
