EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND COUNCIL DIRECTIVE 94/60/EC

of 20 December 1994

amending for the 14th time Directive 76/769/EEC on the approximation of the laws, regulations and administrative provisions of the Member States relating to restrictions on the marketing and use of certain dangerous substances and preparations

THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,

EEC⁽⁵⁾ concerning a 1990 to 1994 action plan in the context of the 'Europe against Cancer' programme;

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Community, and in particular Article 100a thereof,

Whereas the substances which appear in Annex I to Council Directive 67/548/EEC⁽⁶⁾ and are classified as carcinogens category 1 or 2 may cause cancer; whereas to improve health protection such substances and preparations containing them should not be placed on the market for use by the general public;

Having regard to the proposal from the Commission⁽¹⁾,

Having regard to the opinion of the Economic and Social Committee⁽²⁾,

Whereas the substances which appear in Annex I to Directive 67/548/EEC and are classified as mutagens category 1 or 2 may cause heritable genetic damage; whereas to improve health protection such substances and preparations containing them should not be placed on the market for use by the general public;

Acting in accordance with the procedure referred to in Article 189b of the Treaty⁽³⁾,

Whereas measures should be adopted for the achievement of the internal market; whereas the internal market is an area without internal frontiers in which the free movement of goods, persons, services and capital is guaranteed;

Whereas the substances which appear in Annex I to Directive 67/548/EEC and are classified as toxic for reproductive purposes category 1 or 2 may cause birth defects; whereas to improve health protection such substances and preparations containing them should not be placed on the market for use by the general public;

Whereas work on the internal market should also gradually improve the quality of life, health protection and consumer safety; whereas the measures proposed by this Directive are in line with the Council resolution of 9 November 1989 on future priorities for relaunching consumer protection policy⁽⁴⁾;

Whereas the Council and the Representatives of the Governments of the Member States, meeting within the Council, adopted Decision 90/238/Euratom, ECSC,

Whereas, for reasons of transparency and clarity, such substances should be referred to using a recognized nomenclature, preferably that of the Iupac (International Union of Pure and Applied Chemistry); whereas Annex I to Directive 67/548/EEC ('List of dangerous substances') is regularly updated by way of adaptation to technical progress; whereas the Commission will submit to the

⁽³⁾ Opinion of the European Parliament of 19 January 1994 (OJ No C 44, 14. 2. 1994, p. 2), Council common position of 16 June 1994 (OJ No C 244, 31. 8. 1994, p. 1) and Decision of the European Parliament of 26 October 1994 (OJ No C 323, 21. 11. 1994).

⁽⁶⁾ OJ No 196, 16. 8. 1967, p. 1/67. Directive as last amended by Commission Directive 91/632/EEC (OJ No L 338, 10. 12. 1991, p. 23).

European Parliament and the Council, no later than six months after publication of such adaptation to technical progress in the Official Journal of the European Communities, a proposal for a Directive governing the substances newly classified as carcinogenic in categories 1 and 2, mutagenic in categories 1 and 2, and toxic for reproductive purposes in categories 1 and 2, so as to update this Directive;

Whereas the said proposal from the Commission will take account of the risks and advantages of the substances newly classified as well as of the Community legislative provisions on risk analysis;

Whereas Annex I to Directive 67/548/EEC lays down individual concentration limits for such substances and, in the absence of such limits, Table VI of Annex I to Council Directive 88/379/EEC⁽¹⁾, lays down general concentration limits which apply to such substances contained in preparations;

Whereas creosote, as defined in the Annex to this Directive, may be damaging to health because of its content of known carcinogens; whereas for these reasons the use of creosote in wood treatment and the marketing and use of creosote-treated wood should be limited;

Whereas some of the components of creosote are poorly degradable and deleterious to certain organisms in the environment; whereas these components may enter the environment as a result of the use of treated wood;

Whereas some chlorinated solvents present a danger to health and should not be marketed to the general public in substances and preparations;

Whereas the restrictions on the use of creosote in wood treatment, on the marketing and use of creosote-treated wood and on the marketing and use of chlorinated solvents laid down by this Directive take into account the current state of knowledge and techniques regarding safer alternatives;

Whereas restrictions already adopted by certain Member States on the marketing and use of the substances mentioned above or the preparations containing them directly affect the establishment and functioning of the internal market; whereas it is therefore necessary to approximate the laws of the Member States in this field and consequently amend Annex I to Council Directive 76/769/EEC⁽²⁾;

Whereas this Directive does not affect Community legislation laying down minimum requirements for the protection of workers contained in Council Directive 89/391/EEC⁽³⁾ and in individual directives based thereon, in particular Directive 90/394/EEC⁽⁴⁾,
