(2006/619/EF)

RÅDET FOR DEN EUROPÆISKE UNION HAR —

under henvisning til traktaten om oprettelse af Det Europæiske Fællesskab, særlig artikel 62, nr. 2), artikel 63, nr. 3), og artikel 66, sammenholdt med artikel 300, stk. 2, første afsnit, og artikel 300, stk. 3, første afsnit,

- (1) Kommissionen varetog på Fællesskabets vegne og efter bemyndigelse fra Rådet forhandlingerne om de dele af protokollen, der er omfattet af Fællesskabets kompetence.
- (2) Rådet bemyndigede Kommissionen til at forhandle om Fællesskabets tiltrædelse af den pågældende internationale aftale.
- (3) Efter afslutningen af forhandlingerne blev de instrumenter, man havde forhandlet sig frem til, undertegnet af Fællesskabet den 12. december 2000 i overensstemmelse med Rådets afgørelse 2001/87/EF af 8. december 2000 ⁽²⁾.
- (4) Nogle medlemsstater er allerede parter i protokollen, mens ratifikationsprocessen er i gang i andre medlemsstater.
- (5) Denne afgørelse berører ikke Det Forenede Kongeriges og Irlands stilling i henhold til protokollen om integration af Schengen-reglerne i Den Europæiske Union og protokollen om Det Forenede Kongeriges og Irlands stilling, der er knyttet som bilag til traktaten om Den Europæiske Union, og til traktaten om oprettelse af Det Europæiske Fællesskab, og Det Forenede Kongerige og Irland er derfor ikke bundet af denne afgørelse, idet den vedrører Fællesskabets udøvelse af eksternt kompetence på områder, hvor dets interne lovgivning ikke binder Det Forenede Kongerige og/eller Irland.
- (6) Denne afgørelse berører ikke Danmarks stilling i henhold til protokollen om Danmarks stilling, der er knyttet som bilag til traktaten om Den Europæiske Union og til traktaten om oprettelse af Det Europæiske Fællesskab, og Danmark deltager ikke i vedtagelsen af afgørelsen, som ikke er bindende for Danmark.

- (7) Indgåelsen af konventionen på Fællesskabets vegne blev godkendt ved Rådets afgørelse 2004/579/EF af 29. april 2004 ⁽³⁾, hvilket er en forudsætning for, at Fællesskabet kan blive part i protokollen, jf. konventionens artikel 37, stk. 2.
- (8) De øvrige betingelser, der gør det muligt for Fællesskabet at deponere godkendelsesinstrumentet som omhandlet i konventionens artikel 36, stk. 3, og i protokollens artikel 16, stk. 3, er opfyldt.
- (9) I det omfang protokollens bestemmelser falder ind under traktatens tredje del, afsnit IV, skal indgåelsen af protokollen godkendes på Fællesskabets vegne.
- (10) I det omfang protokollens bestemmelser falder ind under traktatens artikel 179 og 181 A, skal indgåelsen af protokollen på Fællesskabets vegne godkendes ved hjælp af en særskilt rådsafgørelse ⁽⁴⁾.
- (11) Fællesskabet bør, når det deponerer sit godkendelsesinstrument, også deponere en erklæring om udstrækningen af Fællesskabets kompetence med hensyn til de spørgsmål, protokollen omhandler, jf. protokollens artikel 16, stk. 3 — to Prevent, Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Persons, Especially Women and Children, supplementing the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organised Crime

PREAMBLE

THE STATES PARTIES TO THIS PROTOCOL,

DECLARING that effective action to prevent and combat trafficking in persons, especially women and children, requires a comprehensive international approach in the countries of origin, transit and destination that includes measures to prevent such trafficking, to punish the traffickers and to protect the victims of such trafficking, including by protecting their internationally recognised human rights,

TAKING INTO ACCOUNT the fact that, despite the existence of a variety of international instruments containing rules and practical measures to combat the exploitation of persons, especially women and children, there is no universal instrument that addresses all aspects of trafficking in persons,

CONCERNED that, in the absence of such an instrument, persons who are vulnerable to trafficking will not be sufficiently protected,

RECALLING General Assembly resolution 53/111 of 9 December 1998, in which the Assembly decided to establish an open-ended intergovernmental ad hoc committee for the purpose of elaborating a comprehensive international convention against transnational organised crime and of discussing the elaboration of, inter alia, an international instrument addressing trafficking in women and children,

CONVINCED that supplementing the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organised Crime with an international instrument for the prevention, suppression and punishment of trafficking in persons, especially women and children, will be useful in preventing and combating that crime,

HAVE AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 3

Article 1

Use of terms

Relation with the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organised Crime

1. This Protocol supplements the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organised Crime. It shall be interpreted together with the Convention.
2. The provisions of the Convention shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to this Protocol unless otherwise provided herein.
3. The offences established in accordance with article 5 of this Protocol shall be regarded as offences established in accordance with the Convention.

Article 2

Statement of purpose

The purposes of this Protocol are:

- (a) to prevent and combat trafficking in persons, paying particular attention to women and children;
- (b) to protect and assist the victims of such trafficking, with full respect for their human rights; and
- (c) to promote cooperation among States Parties in order to meet those objectives.

For the purposes of this Protocol:

- (a) 'trafficking in persons' shall mean the recruitment, transportation, transfer, harbouring or receipt of persons, by means of the threat or use of force or other forms of coercion, of abduction, of fraud, of deception, of the abuse of power or of a position of vulnerability or of the giving or receiving of payments or benefits to achieve the consent of a person having control over another person, for the purpose of exploitation. Exploitation shall include, at a minimum, the exploitation of the prostitution of others or other forms of sexual exploitation, forced labour or services, slavery or practices similar to slavery, servitude or the removal of organs;
- (b) the consent of a victim of trafficking in persons to the intended exploitation set forth in subparagraph (a) of this article shall be irrelevant where any of the means set forth in subparagraph (a) have been used;
- (c) the recruitment, transportation, transfer, harbouring or receipt of a child for the purpose of exploitation shall be considered 'trafficking in persons' even if this does not involve any of the means set forth in subparagraph (a) of this article;
- (d) 'child' shall mean any person under 18 years of age.

Article 4

Scope of application

This Protocol shall apply, except as otherwise stated herein, to the prevention, investigation and prosecution of the offences established in accordance with article 5 of this Protocol, where those offences are transnational in nature and involve an organised criminal group, as well as to the protection of victims of such offences.

Article 5

 - (a) information on relevant court and administrative proceedings;
 - (b) assistance to enable their views and concerns to be presented and considered at appropriate stages of criminal proceedings against offenders, in a manner not prejudicial to the rights of the defence.
3. Each State Party shall consider implementing measures to provide for the physical, psychological and social recovery of victims of trafficking in persons, including, in appropriate cases, in cooperation with non-governmental organisations, other relevant organisations and other elements of civil society, and, in particular, the provision of:

- (a) appropriate housing;

5. Each State Party shall endeavour to provide for the physical safety of victims of trafficking in persons while they are within its territory.

6. Each State Party shall ensure that its domestic legal system contains measures that offer victims of trafficking in persons the possibility of obtaining compensation for damage suffered.

Article 7

Status of victims of trafficking in persons in receiving States

1. In addition to taking measures pursuant to article 6 of this Protocol, each State Party shall consider adopting legislative or other appropriate measures that permit victims of trafficking in persons to remain in its territory, temporarily or permanently, in appropriate cases.
2. In implementing the provision contained in paragraph 1 of this article, each State Party shall give appropriate consideration to humanitarian and compassionate factors.

Article 8

Repatriation of victims of trafficking in persons

1. The State Party of which a victim of trafficking in persons is a national or in which the person had the right of permanent residence at the time of entry into the territory of the receiving State Party shall facilitate and accept, with due regard for the safety of that person, the return of that person without undue or unreasonable delay.
2. When a State Party returns a victim of trafficking in persons to a State Party of which that person is a national or in which he or she had, at the time of entry into the territory of the receiving State Party, the right of permanent residence, such return shall be with due regard for the safety of that person and for the status of any legal proceedings related to the fact that the person is a victim of trafficking and shall preferably be voluntary.

3. At the request of a receiving State Party, a requested State Party shall, without undue or unreasonable delay, verify whether a person who is a victim of trafficking in persons is its national or had the right of permanent residence in its territory at the time of entry into the territory of the receiving State Party.

4. In order to facilitate the return of a victim of trafficking in persons who is without proper documentation, the State Party of which that person is a national or in which he or she had the right of permanent residence at the time of entry into the territory of the receiving State Party shall agree to issue, at the request of the receiving State Party, such travel documents or other authorisation as may be necessary to enable the person to travel to and re-enter its territory.

5. This article shall be without prejudice to any right afforded to victims of trafficking in persons by any domestic law of the receiving State Party.

6. This article shall be without prejudice to any applicable bilateral or multilateral agreement or arrangement that governs, in whole or in part, the return of victims of trafficking in persons.

III. PREVENTION, COOPERATION AND OTHER MEASURES

Article 9

2. States Parties shall endeavour to undertake measures such as research, information and mass media campaigns and social and economic initiatives to prevent and combat trafficking in persons.

3. Policies, programmes and other measures established in accordance with this article shall, as appropriate, include cooperation with non-governmental organisations, other relevant organisations and other elements of civil society.

4. States Parties shall take or strengthen measures, including through bilateral or multilateral cooperation, to alleviate the factors that make persons, especially women and children, vulnerable to trafficking, such as poverty, underdevelopment and lack of equal opportunity.

5. States Parties shall adopt or strengthen legislative or other measures, such as educational, social or cultural measures, including through bilateral and multilateral cooperation, to discourage the demand that fosters all forms of exploitation of persons, especially women and children, that leads to trafficking.

Article 10

Information exchange and training

1. Law enforcement, immigration or other relevant authorities of States Parties shall, as appropriate, cooperate with one another by exchanging information, in accordance with their domestic law, to enable them to determine:

- (a) whether individuals crossing or attempting to cross an international border with travel documents belonging to other persons or without travel documents are perpetrators or victims of trafficking in persons;
- (b) the types of travel document that individuals have used or attempted to use to cross an international border for the purpose of trafficking in persons; and

2. States Parties shall provide or strengthen training for law enforcement, immigration and other relevant officials in the prevention of trafficking in persons. The training should focus on methods used in preventing such trafficking, prosecuting the traffickers and protecting the rights of the victims, including protecting the victims from the traffickers. The training should also take into account the need to consider human rights and child- and gender-sensitive issues and it should encourage cooperation with non-governmental organisations, other relevant organisations and other elements of civil society.

3. A State Party that receives information shall comply with any request by the State Party that transmitted the information that places restrictions on its use.

Article 11

Border measures

1. Without prejudice to international commitments in relation to the free movement of people, States Parties shall strengthen, to the extent possible, such border controls as may be necessary to prevent and detect trafficking in persons.

2. Each State Party shall adopt legislative or other appropriate measures to prevent, to the extent possible, means of transport operated by commercial carriers from being used in the commission of offences established in accordance with article 5 of this Protocol.

3. Where appropriate, and without prejudice to applicable international conventions, such measures shall include establishing the obligation of commercial carriers, including any transportation company or the owner or operator of any means of transport, to ascertain that all passengers are in possession of the travel documents required for entry into the receiving State.

4. Each State Party shall take the necessary measures, in accordance with its domestic law, to provide for sanctions in cases of violation of the obligation set forth in paragraph 3 of this article.

5. Each State Party shall consider taking measures that permit, in accordance with its domestic law, the denial of entry or revocation of visas of persons implicated in the commission of offences established in accordance with this Protocol.

6. Without prejudice to article 27 of the Convention, States Parties shall consider strengthening cooperation among border control agencies by, inter alia, establishing and maintaining direct channels of communication.

Article 12

Security and control of documents

Each State Party shall take such measures as may be necessary, within available means:

- (a) to ensure that travel or identity documents issued by it are of such quality that they cannot easily be misused and cannot readily be falsified or unlawfully altered, replicated or issued; and
- (b) to ensure the integrity and security of travel or identity documents issued by or on behalf of the State Party and to prevent their unlawful creation, issuance and use.

Article 13

Legitimacy and validity of documents

At the request of another State Party, a State Party shall, in accordance with its domestic law, verify within a reasonable time the legitimacy and validity of travel or identity documents issued or purported to have been issued in its name and suspected of being used for trafficking in persons.

IV. FINAL PROVISIONS

Article 14

Saving clause

1. Nothing in this Protocol shall affect the rights, obligations and responsibilities of States and individuals under international law, including international humanitarian law and international human rights law and, in particular, where applicable, the 1951 Convention⁽¹⁾ and the 1967 Protocol⁽²⁾ relating to the Status of Refugees and the principle of non-refoulement as contained therein.

2. The measures set forth in this Protocol shall be interpreted and applied in a way that is not discriminatory to persons on the ground that they are victims of trafficking in persons. The interpretation and application of those measures

Settlement of disputes

1. States Parties shall endeavour to settle disputes concerning the interpretation or application of this Protocol through negotiation.

2. Any dispute between two or more States Parties concerning the interpretation or application of this Protocol that cannot be settled through negotiation within a reasonable time shall, at the request of one of those States Parties, be submitted to arbitration. If, six months after the date of the request for arbitration, those States Parties are unable to agree on the organisation of the arbitration, any one of those States Parties may refer the dispute to the International Court of Justice by request in accordance with the Statute of the Court.

3. Each State Party may, at the time of signature, ratification, acceptance or approval of or accession to this Protocol, declare that it does not consider itself bound by paragraph 2 of this article. The other States Parties shall not be bound by paragraph 2 of this article with respect to any State Party that has made such a reservation.

4. Any State Party that has made a reservation in accordance with paragraph 3 of this article may at any time withdraw that reservation by notification to the Secretary-General of the United Nations.

Article 16

For the purpose of this paragraph, any instrument deposited by a regional economic integration organisation shall not be counted as additional to those deposited by Member States of such organisation.

2. For each State or regional economic integration organisation ratifying, accepting, approving or acceding to this Protocol after the deposit of the 40th instrument of such action, this Protocol shall enter into force on the 30th day after the date of deposit by such State or organisation of the relevant instrument or on the date this Protocol enters into force pursuant to paragraph 1 of this article, whichever is the later.

Article 18

After the expiry of five years from the entry into force of this Protocol, a State Party to the Protocol may propose an amendment and file it with the Secretary-General of the United Nations, who shall thereupon communicate the proposed amendment to the States Parties and to the Conference of the Parties to the Convention for the purpose of considering and deciding on the proposal. The States Parties to this Protocol meeting at the Conference of the Parties shall make every effort to achieve consensus on each amendment. 2. Regional economic integration organisations, in matters within their competence, shall exercise their right to vote under this article with a number of votes equal to the number of their Member States that are Parties to this Protocol. Such organisations shall not exercise their right to vote if their Member States exercise theirs and vice versa.

BILAG II

Erklæring om udstrækningen af Det Europæiske Fællesskabs kompetence med hensyn til de spørgsmål, der er omhandlet i protokollen om forebyggelse, bekæmpelse og retsforfølgning af menneskehandel, særlig handel med kvinder og børn, til supplerende af De Forenede Nationers konvention om bekæmpelse af grænseoverskridende organiseret kriminalitet

I henhold til protokollens artikel 16, stk. 3, skal tiltrædelsesinstrumentet fra en regional organisation for økonomisk integration indeholde en erklæring om udstrækningen af organisationens kompetence med hensyn til de spørgsmål, protokollen omhandler, dvs. den kompetence, som organisationen har fået overdraget fra sine medlemsstater, der er parter i protokollen.

Protokollen om forebyggelse, bekæmpelse og retsforfølgning af menneskehandel, særlig handel med kvinder og børn, finder, for så vidt angår de beføjelser, der er blevet overdraget til Det Europæiske Fællesskab, anvendelse på de områder, hvor traktaten om oprettelse af Det Europæiske Fællesskab finder anvendelse, og på de betingelser, der er fastsat i nævnte traktat, særlig i artikel 299 og i protokollerne knyttet som bilag til traktaten.

Denne erklæring berører ikke Det Forenede Kongeriges og Irlands stilling i henhold til protokollen om integration af Schengen-reglerne i Den Europæiske Union og protokollen om Det Forenede Kongeriges og Irlands stilling, der er knyttet som bilag til traktaten om Den Europæiske Union og til traktaten om oprettelse af Det Europæiske Fællesskab.

Denne erklæring berører heller ikke Danmarks stilling i henhold til protokollen om Danmarks stilling, der er knyttet som bilag til traktaten om Den Europæiske Union og til traktaten om oprettelse af Det Europæiske Fællesskab.

I henhold til artikel 299 gælder denne erklæring heller ikke for de af medlemsstaternes territorier, hvor nævnte traktat ikke finder anvendelse, og den er uden betydning for de love eller beslutninger, som de pågældende medlemsstater måtte vedtage i henhold til protokollen på disse territoriers vegne eller i deres interesse. I overensstemmelse med ovennævnte bestemmelse indeholder denne erklæring en angivelse af den kompetence, som medlemsstaterne i henhold til traktaterne har overdraget til Fællesskabet med hensyn til de spørgsmål, protokollen omhandler. Udstrækningen og udøvelsen af denne kompetence udvikler sig ifølge sagens natur til stadighed, efterhånden som Fællesskabet vedtager yderligere relevante bestemmelser, og Fællesskabet vil om nødvendigt supplere eller ændre denne erklæring i overensstemmelse med protokollens artikel 16, stk. 3.

Fællesskabet påpeger, at det har kompetence til at vedtage foranstaltninger vedrørende passage af medlemsstaternes ydre grænser, hvori der fastlægges standarder og procedurer, som medlemsstaterne skal følge ved udøvelse af personkontrol ved disse grænser, og visumregler for forventet ophold i højst tre måneder.

Fællesskabet har også kompetence til at vedtage foranstaltninger vedrørende indvandringspolitikken, herunder betingelserne for indrejse og ophold og foranstaltninger til at imødegå ulovlig indvandring og ulovligt ophold, herunder repatriering af personer med ulovligt ophold. Det kan desuden tage skridt til at etablere et samarbejde mellem de relevante offentlige myndigheder i medlemsstaterne og mellem disse myndigheder og Kommissionen på førnævnte områder. På disse områder har Fællesskabet vedtaget bestemmelser, og det er derfor Fællesskabet alene, der skal indgå eksterne aftaler med tredjelande eller kompetente internationale organisationer, hvor det har vedtaget sådanne bestemmelser.

Desuden supplerer Fællesskabets politik inden for udviklingssamarbejde medlemsstaternes politikker og omfatter bestemmelser til forebyggelse og bekæmpelse af menneskehandel.
