The ID card is a paper card laminated in foil (105 x 74 mm). On the front it bears a photograph of the holder and states his/her name, nationality, date of birth, sex, function, address and the date of expiry of the ID card. On the back it states that the ID card is an official document and a proof of identity, valid only in the Czech Republic.

It should be noted that this identity card does not constitute the entitlement to entry the territory of the Czech Republic without a visa, since this identity card is not a proof of possession of a Czech residence permit.
DENMARK

Stickers:

— Sticker E (pink/white sticker).

Diplomatisk visering/Diplomatic Residence Permit — issued to accredited diplomats and their family members, and to staff of international organisations in Denmark of equivalent rank. Valid for stay and multiple entries, so long as the individual remains diplomatically accredited in Copenhagen.

— Sticker F (pink/white sticker).

Opholdstilladelse/Residence Permit — issued to technical/administrative staff in post and to their family members, and to diplomats’ household staff holding service passports from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the country of origin. Also issued to staff of international organisations in Denmark of equivalent rank. Valid for stay and multiple entries, for as long as the posting lasts.
— Sticker S (pink/white sticker)(combined with sticker E or F).

Residence permit for accompanying close relatives if included in the passport.
Identity cards

- Red cards

  - R-nr. = identity card number
  - D-nr. = diplomat’s identity number
  - I-nr. = identity number for the highest ranking officials of international organisations
Green cards

- G-nr. = identity card number
- T-nr. = identity number for the technical/administrative staff of an Embassy
- I-nr. = identity number for the technical/administrative staff of an international organisation
White cards

H-nr. = identity card number
L-nr. = identity number for locally employed staff at Embassies
I-nr. = identity number for locally employed staff of international organisations
S-nr. = identity number for service staff (drivers, household staff, etc.)

It should be noted that the identity cards issued by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs to foreign diplomats, technical/administrative staff, domestic staff, etc., do not give entitlement to entry without a visa, since these identity cards are not proof of possession of a Danish residence permit.
1. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs (Protocol Section) issues the following ID cards to diplomatic staff on request:

(a) Red diplomatic ID cards

These ID cards are issued to diplomats and family members making up their respective households;
(b) Blue ID cards

These ID cards are issued to technical and administrative staff and departmental staff at diplomatic missions and family members making up their respective households:
(c) Green ID Cards

These ID cards are issued to private domestic staff of staff working at diplomatic missions, provided that they do not have their permanent residence in the Federal Republic of Germany:

![Green ID Card Image]

(d) Yellow ID cards

These ID cards are issued to staff working at diplomatic missions who have their permanent residence in the Federal Republic of Germany and family members making up their respective households, provided that they do not hold German nationality within the meaning of the Basic Law (Grundgesetz). Yellow ID cards are also issued to persons who entered the Federal Republic of Germany in possession of a valid visa to work at a diplomatic mission and who were not accredited by their government:

![Yellow ID Card Image]
2. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs (Protocol Section) also issues the following documents on request:

   (a) Pink ID cards

   These ID cards are issued to staff without privileges of the Russian Federation’s trade representation and of the trade departments of the Czech and Slovak embassies as well as family members making up their respective households:
(b) Special dark red ID cards
These ID cards are issued to foreign employees of representations of international and supranational organisations and institutions, as well as intergovernmental organisations, working permanently in Germany and family members making up their respective households who are foreign nationals.

3. The competent authorities at Länder level issue the following documents on request:

(a) White ID cards
These ID cards are issued to staff of the consular corps, consular staff and family members making up their respective households;
(b) Grey ID cards

These ID cards are issued to other employees and family members making up their respective households:
(c) White ID cards crossed with green lines

These ID cards are issued to honorary consular officials;

(d) Yellow ID cards

These ID cards are intended for members of consular representations (local staff) who have their permanent residence in the Federal Republic of Germany and family members making up their respective households, provided that these persons do not hold German nationality within the meaning of the Basic Law (Grundgesetz);
(e) Green ID cards

These ID cards are issued to private domestic staff of accredited consular officials, provided that they do not have their permanent residence in the Federal Republic of Germany.
Given that the abovementioned categories of persons do not have their permanent residence in the Federal Republic of Germany, to enter German territory they must be in possession of a valid residence permit in the form of a visa authorising them solely to work for an accredited consular official. A residence permit is issued solely on this basis and for a duration of one year. It can be extended several times, but may not exceed the duration of the employer's assignment. When the residence permit expires, the private domestic employee must leave the country and may not change employers without having lodged a new request abroad.

— New residence permits in card format (ID card format) issued by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs:
  — Diplomatenausweis (diplomatic ID card) and Diplomatenausweis Art. 38 WÜD (diplomatic ID card pursuant to Article 38 of the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations)
  — These documents are equivalent to the old red diplomat's passes and bear the letter 'D' on the back.
  — Protokollausweis für Verwaltungspersonal (protocol pass for administrative staff)
  — This document is equivalent to the old blue pass for seconded members of the administrative and technical staff of the missions and bears the letters 'VB' on the back.
  — Protokollausweis für dienstliches Hauspersonal (protocol pass for service staff)
  — This document is equivalent to the old blue pass for seconded members of the service staff of the missions and bears the letters 'DP' on the back.
  — Protokollausweis für Ortskräfte (protocol pass for local staff)
  — This document is equivalent to the old yellow pass for locally hired employees of the missions and bears the letters 'OK' on the back.
  — Protokollausweis für privates Hauspersonal (protocol pass for private domestic staff)
  — This document is equivalent to the old green pass for private domestic staff of seconded members of the missions and bears the letters 'PP' on the back.
  — Sonderausweis für Mitarbeiter internationaler Organisationen (Special card issued to members of staff of international organisations)
  — This document is equivalent to the old dark red special pass for members of staff of international organisations and bears the letters 'IO' on the back.

The respective privileges are indicated on the back of the pass.

— General features of the cards:

The document is laminated in foil (the image of the foil can be seen below). It is waterproof, cannot be altered without causing damage and it has the following security elements: uv content, micro-letter protection, metallised paper.
Applications for the identity cards should be submitted by Note Verbale to the Protocol Office, Consular and Information Directorate, Ministry of Foreign Affairs accompanied by two recent photos of the person concerned. The Note Verbale should include the designation of the applicant, clearly indicating whether the applicant is a diplomat or technical staff. Identity cards should be returned to the Protocol Office, Consular and Information Directorate on termination of the tour of duty of the person concerned.

Five different identity cards are used by the Protocol Office, Consular and Information Directorate to indicate whether the bearer is a diplomat, technical staff member, Honorary Consul of Malta, Honorary Consul of another country represented in Malta or a staff member of an International Organisation. Each identity card is valid for a period of four years.

1. Diplomats

Black identity cards indicate that the bearer is a Diplomat. This identity card is issued to the diplomatic staff of a foreign mission and their spouses as well as to their children over 18 years of age still forming part of the same household.
2. Consular

There are two kinds of consular identity cards, one green and one brown. The Green identity card is issued to Honorary Consuls of Malta abroad whilst the Brown identity card is issued to Honorary Consuls representing foreign countries in Malta.

3. Administrative and technical staff

A Blue identity card is issued to the technical and administrative staff and family members of a mission accredited to Malta.

4. Staff of International Organisations

A Maroon card is issued to staff of International Organisations and their family members who form part of the same household.

The technical features of the identity cards issued by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs are:

(a) Identity card numbers which are registered;
(b) Signature of the authorised Protocol officer; and
(c) Lamination of the identity cards so as to reduce the possibility of forgery.

FINLAND

The Ministry for Foreign Affairs issues identity cards to the members of missions and to private servants for the term of office or residence in Finland, provided that the period is not shorter than six months. An identity card is not considered to be an official document of identity in Finland. Its purpose is to certify the position and status of the person assigned to serve at a mission. The different types of cards are as follows:

— A-card to diplomatic agents;

— B-card to members of the administrative and technical staff;

— C-card to members of the service staff of missions (such as drivers, housekeepers and cooks);

— D-card to private servants of members of missions, and locally engaged drivers of missions.
In connection with a valid residence permit:

A temporary residence permit (B) in the form of a sticker issued by the Ministry for Foreign Affairs, bearing the indication ‘diplomaattileimaus’ (diplomatic) or ‘virkaleimaus’ (service) or bearing no specific indication.
