(5) Where a traditional expression listed in Appendix 4 is homonymous with the name used for a wine-sector product not originating in the territory of one of the Parties, the latter name may be used to describe and present a wine-sector product, provided it is traditionally and consistently used, its use for that purpose is regulated by the country of origin and consumers are not misled about the exact origin of the wine concerned.

(4) The measures and proceedings referred to in paragraph 3 shall be taken in particular in the following cases:

Registered designation of origin Genève (AOC Genève)

1. Geographical area

The geographical area for AOC Genève includes:

- all the territory of the Canton of Geneva,
- all the French municipalities of:
 - Challex,
 - Ferney-Voltaire,
- parts of the French municipalities of:
 - Ornex,
 - Chens-sur-Léman,
 - Veigy-Foncenex,
 - Saint-Julien-en-Genevois,

enumerated in the specifications for AOC Genève.

2. Production area of the grapes

The production area of the grapes includes:

- (a) on the Geneva territory: the areas included in the vineyard register within the meaning of Article 61 of the federal law on agriculture (RS 910.1) and whose grapes are used to produce wine;
- (b) on French territory: areas of the municipalities or parts of municipalities enumerated in point 1, planted with vines or subject to replanting rights constituting a maximum of 140 hectares.

3. Wine making area

The wine making area is restricted to Swiss territory.

4. Downgrading

Using the “AOC Genève” registered designation of origin does not preclude using the designations “vin de pays” and “vin de table suisse” to refer to wines made from grapes from the production zone defined in point 2(b) and downgraded.

5. Monitoring the specifications for the AOC Genève

The Swiss checks are the responsibility of the Swiss authorities, specifically those of Geneva.

The competent Swiss authority entrusts the physical checks to be carried out on French territory to a French inspection body accredited by the French authorities.

6. Transitional provisions

Producers with areas planted with vines that are not listed in the grape production area listed in point 2(b), but who have previously and legitimately used the registered designation of origin “AOC Genève”, may continue to use it until 2013 and the relevant products can be marketed until stocks are exhausted.

Declaration by the Commission on Article 7

The European Union declares that it will not prevent Switzerland from using the terms “appellation d’origine protégée” and “indication géographique protégée”, including their abbreviations “AOP” and “IGP” referred to in Article 7(1) of Annex 7 to the Agreement between the European Community and the Swiss Confederation on trade in agricultural products, if the Swiss legislative system concerning geographical indications for the agriculture and wine sectors is harmonised with the European Union’s system.’
