Brussels, 13.06.1995
COM(95) 268 final

Proposal for a

COUNCIL REGULATION (EC)

completing the annex to

Council Regulation (EC) No 1461/93 of 8 June 1993 concerning access to public contracts for tenderers from the United States of America

(presented by the Commission)

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

On 28 May 1993, the US published sanctions against certain member states claiming that US telecommunications equipment faced discrimination in these markets. These sanctions were imposed following the conclusion of a Memorandum of Understanding on public procurement between the EC and US of 25 May 1993 which does not cover the telecommunications sector. The EC responded on 8 June 1993 by taking measures with the same field of application as those of the US (Council Reg. No 1461/93).

The three new member states apply the Community's public procurement directives.

These directives include, according to the US, certain discriminatory practices. Consequently, the US made known its intention to extend to the new member states, the sanctions that were imposed in 1993. A final ruling was made on 31 May 1995 (US Federal Register of 31 May 1995 - FAC 90-27). The Commission disputes the reasoning of the US for maintaining sanctions. It was agreed by both sides, when the Marrakesh bilateral procurement deal was agreed in April 1994, that the Community and the US were not engaged in a simple exchange of access to their respective telecommunications procurement sectors. The deal reached in Marrakesh recognised that the Community would not offer access to its telecommunications sector without the removal of a number of "Buy American" provisions on several Federal funding programmes. Having reached this understanding, it is unfortunate that the US has decided not to revoke its sanctions, thereby forcing the Community to maintain its counter-measures in place against the US.

By virtue of Article 2 of the Act of Accession, Council Regulation No 1461/93 applies to the three new member states. However, a technical adaptation covered by Art 169 of the same Act must be made in order to cover the relevant entities of the three new member states in the annex.

This is why the Commission proposes to complete the annex to Council Regulation No 1461/93 of 8 June 1993 concerning access to public contracts for tenderers from the United States of America. (OJ L 146 of 17 June 1993)

The Commission proposes therefore, that Council adopts the draft regulation attached.
