

Operative part of the order

The mere fact that a protected work, freely available on an internet site, is inserted into another internet site by means of a link using the 'framing' technique, such as that used in the case in the main proceedings, cannot be classified as 'communication to the public' within the meaning of Article 3(1) of Directive 2001/29/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 22 May 2001 on the harmonisation of certain aspects of copyright and related rights in the information society since the work at issue is not transmitted to a new public or communicated a specific technical method different from that of the original communication.
