

Reports of Cases

Order of the Court (Second Chamber) of 29 September 2015 —

ANKO v Commission

(Case C-2/15 SA)¹

(Application for leave to serve a garnishee order on the European Union)

Privileges and Immunities of the European Union — Application for leave to serve a garnishee order on an institution of the European Union — Need for the Court's authorisation — Scope of the Court's jurisdiction — Assessment of the reality of the Commission's debt — Debt which is the subject matter of a case before the Court — Rejection of the application for leave to serve an order (Protocol on the Privileges and Immunities of the European Communities, Art. 1) (see paras 12-16)

Operative part:

1. The application is rejected.
2. ANKO AE Antiprosopion, Emporiou kai Viomichanias and the European Commission are ordered to pay their own costs.

¹ — OJ C 118 13.4.2015.