

Re:

Application for annulment of the decision rejecting the applicant's request for reclassification of his contract as a member of the contract staff in function group I into a contract as a member of the temporary staff or, alternatively, into a contract as a member of the contract staff in function group III, and the claim for compensation for the non-material and material damage allegedly suffered.

Operative part of the order

1. The action is dismissed as manifestly unfounded.
2. Mr Di Marzio shall bear his own costs and is ordered to pay those incurred by the Council of the European Union.

⁽¹⁾ OJ C 127 of 20/4/2015, p. 43.

Order of the Civil Service Tribunal (1st Chamber) of 9 December 2015 — Van der Veen v Europol

(Case F-45/15) ⁽¹⁾

(Civil Service — Europol staff — Member of the temporary staff — Decision 2009/371/JHA — Europol's refusal to sign a contract for an indefinite period — Article 81 of the Rules of Procedure — Action manifestly inadmissible)

(2016/C 048/117)

Language of the case: French

Parties

Applicant: Mark Van der Veen (The Hague, the Netherlands) (represented by: J.-J. Ghosez, lawyer)

Defendant: European Police Office (represented by: D. Neumann, J. Arnould and C. Falmagne, Agents)

Re:

Application for annulment of the defendant's implied decision not to follow up the applicant's request for a contract for an indefinite period.

Operative part of the order

1. The action is dismissed as manifestly inadmissible.
2. Mr Van der Veen shall bear his own costs and is ordered to pay the costs incurred by the European Police Office.

⁽¹⁾ OJ C 190, 8.6.2015, p. 34.