Action brought on 23 January 2015 — ZZ v EMA

(Case F-9/15)

(2015/C 118/58)

Language of the case: French

Parties

Applicant: ZZ (represented by: J.-N. Louis, R. Metz, N. de Montigny, D. Verbeke and T. Van Lysbeth)

Defendant: European Medicines Agency (EMA)

Subject-matter and description of the proceedings

The annulment of the decision of the European Medicines Agency (EMA) to suspend the applicant from his duties and an application for the payment of one euro as provisional compensation in respect of the material and non-material harm allegedly suffered.

Form of order sought

The applicant claims that the Tribunal should:

- annul the decision of the EMA of 31 March 2014 to place the applicant on ‘non-active status’ for an indefinite period;
 - order the defendant to pay the applicant one euro as provisional compensation in respect of the material and non-material harm suffered;
 - order the EMA to pay the costs.
