Action brought on 5 March 2018 — Szegedi v Parliament

(Case T-135/18)

(2018/C 182/29)

Language of the case: Hungarian

Parties

Applicant: Csanád Szegedi (Budapest, Hungary) (represented by: Kristóf Bodó, lawyer)

Defendant: European Parliament

Form of order sought

The applicant claims that the General Court should:

- annul debit note No 2017-1635 issued by the Secretary-General of the European Parliament;
- annul the recovery decision, in the amount of EUR 264 196,11, adopted by the Secretary-General of the European Parliament on 30 November 2017.

Pleas in law and main arguments

In support of his action, the applicant relies on seven pleas in law.

1. First plea in law, alleging that, in the Secretary-General's decision, the findings concerning reimbursement of travel expenses and of expenses for accredited parliamentary assistants were unfounded. The applicant claimed the reimbursement of travel expenses only in those cases in which he was entitled to do so in accordance with Decision No 2009/C 159/01 of the Bureau of the European Parliament concerning implementing measures for the Statute for Members of the European Parliament.

The accredited parliamentary assistants referred to in the decision, who had a contractual relationship with the European Parliament, performed support tasks in relation to the applicant's role as a Member of the European Parliament (MEP) in Brussels and Strasbourg.
