Support to the Return and Reintegration Process of Communities to Kosovo

European Union's CARDS programme

EuropeAid/117760/D/G/KOS

(2003/C 311/15)

The European Agency for Reconstruction is seeking proposals for the implementation of a returns and reintegration programme for communities to Kosovo with financial assistance from the CARDS programme of the European Communities. The support programme for returns and reintegration will develop a sustainable returns process for returnees and displaced persons who wish to return to their place of origin. This support programme will be carried out through the following activities: dialogue facilitation, rehabilitation of the social and physical infrastructure, housing reconstruction, community development and self reliance and sustainability programmes, including support to communities in the form of collaboration and advocacy to support municipalities to improve access to services. International Organisations/NGOs will be invited to submit proposals which will meet all or a combination of the above activities. This intervention will focus on developing a strong cross boundary programme. The full Guidelines for Applicants will be available for consultation at the European Agency for Reconstruction, 1 Kosovo street, Pristina, Kosovo (contact person Mary Walsh) and on the following internet site: www.ear.eu.int. The deadline for submission of proposals is the 1st of April 2004.
