PPE:

Amendment 8

First part: Text as a whole excluding the words: ‘The BEPS initiative fell short of the pledge that the G20 finance ministers issued in Saint Petersburg in September 2013 when they stated that “profits should be taxed where economic activities deriving the profits are performed and where value is created.” 19a. The failure of the BEPS process to meet its original objectives underlines the importance of heightened country-level reporting for all multinationals.’

Second part: those words

amendment 20

First part: ‘Cases of infringements by undertakings and branches of the requirements on reporting on income tax information, giving rise to penalties by Member States, under Directive 2013/34/EU, should be reported in a public registry managed by the Commission.’

Second part: ‘Those penalties could include, inter alia, administrative fines or exclusions from public calls for tenders and from the awarding of funding from the Union’s structural funds.’

amendment 46

First part: ‘Member States shall make such omissions subject to prior authorisation of the national competent authority. The undertaking shall seek each year a new authorisation from the competent authority, which will take a decision on the basis of a new assessment of the situation.’

Second part: ‘Where the information omitted no longer complies with the requirement laid down in subparagraph 3a, it shall immediately be made publicly available.’

amendment 69

Second part: ‘Where the information omitted no longer complies with the requirement laid down in subparagraph 3a, it shall immediately be made publicly available. As from the end of the non-disclosure period, the undertaking shall also retroactively disclose, in the form of an arithmetic average, the information required under this Article for the preceding years covered by the non-disclosure period.’

Miscellaneous

Amendments 66, 67, 74, 78, 79 and 80 were withdrawn.

§ 4	§	original text		+	amended orally
Vote: Resolution (text as a whole)			RCV	+	530, 147, 19

Miscellaneous

The rapporteur proposed the following oral amendment to § 4;

'4. Stresses that no activities should be outsourced to PSCs that would imply the use of force and/or active participation in hostilities, except for self-defence; and under no circumstances should PSCs be allowed to take part in, or conduct interrogations; stresses that, in the field of EU security and defence, the priority should be to strengthen national armed forces, to which PSC can only be a complement without any authority over strategic decisions; highlights the fact that any participation by private security companies in military operations must be justified, with clearly-defined objectives that can be verified using tangible indicators, have a fully-detailed budget and a specific start and end date, and be governed by a strict code of ethics; points out that the work of the armed forces and security forces abroad is of fundamental value in peace-keeping and conflict prevention, as well as in the social reconstruction and national reconciliation that follows;'

§ 34

First part: Notes that given the number of workers, particularly young people, who are now leaving their countries of origin for other Member States in search of employment opportunities, there is an urgent need to develop appropriate measures to guarantee that no worker is left uncovered by social and labour rights protection; calls, in this regard, on the Commission and the Member States to further improve EU labour mobility while upholding the principle of equal treatment, safeguarding wages and social standards and guaranteeing full portability of social rights;

Second part: 'calls on each Member State to establish social and employment policies for equal rights and equal pay at the same place of work;'

§ 45

First part: 'Calls on the Commission and the Member States to combat undeclared work, bogus self-employment and all forms of illegal employment practices which undermine workers' rights and social security systems;'

Second part: 'reiterates its view that the prevention of zero-hour contracts should be considered in all future employment policies;'
