EFDD: amendments 77, 78, 89, 90, 91, 92

Requests for split votes

S&D:
amendment 21

First part: 'On the one hand, it is necessary to introduce the accessibility requirements in the most effective and least burdensome manner for the economic operators and the Member States, notably by only including in the scope the products and services which have been thoroughly selected and which are placed on the market after the date of application of this Directive. On the other hand, it is necessary to enable economic operators to implement the accessibility requirements set out in this Directive efficiently, in particular by taking into account the lifetime of self-service terminals, ticketing machines and check-in machines. Also, the specific position of SMEs in the internal market should be taken into account.'

Second part: 'Additionally, microenterprises, due to their size, resources and nature, should not be required to comply with the accessibility requirements set out in this Directive or be obliged to use the procedure laid down in Article 12 in order to be exempted from the obligations of this Directive'

ALDE:
amendment 126

First part: 'Where the economic operators have used the exception provided for in paragraphs 1 to 5 for a specific product or service they shall notify the relevant market surveillance authority of the Member State in the market of which the product or service is placed or made available. The assessment referred to in paragraph 3 shall be submitted to the market surveillance authority upon its request.'

Second part: 'SMEs shall be exempted from this notification requirement but shall be able to supply the relevant documentation upon request from a relevant market surveillance authority.'

PPE:
amendment 222

First part: Text as a whole excluding the words: 'or temporary'

Second part: those words

EFDD:
amendment 10

First part: 'Better accessibility of products and services will improve the lives not only of persons with disabilities but also of persons with other permanent or temporary functional limitations, such as elderly persons, pregnant women and persons travelling with luggage.'

Second part: 'However, it is important to limit the scope of this Directive to persons with disabilities and not to extend it to persons with temporary and permanent functional limitations in general, in order to align this Directive to the Convention and to ensure legal certainty for economic operators.'

Thursday 14 September 2017

amendment 27

First part: Text as a whole excluding the words: ‘However, Member States should not be required to amend or introduce in their national law provisions on accessibility of the built environment, if they have already adopted national law covering adequately the built environment of the related services’

Second part: those words

amendment 99

First part: ‘Member States shall ensure that the built environment used by clients of passenger transport services including the environment that is managed by service providers and by infrastructure operators as well as the built environment used by clients of consumer banking services, and customer services centres and shops under the scope of telephony operators shall, as regards to the construction of new infrastructure, or renovations resulting in a substantial change to the structure of the existing building, comply with the accessibility requirements set out in Section X of Annex I, in order to maximise their use by persons with disabilities. This shall be without prejudice to Union legal acts and national legislation for the protection of national treasures possessing artistic, historic and archaeological value.’

Second part: ‘Member States that already have national legislation in place on accessibility requirements as regards the built environment on their territory shall fulfil the requirements on built environment laid down in this Directive only to the extent that the services referred to in the first subparagraph are not covered by such legislation.’
