

REGULATION (EC) No 1745/2003 OF THE EUROPEAN

of 12 September 2003

on the application of minimum reserves

(ECB/2003/9)

Article 1

Definitions

For the purposes of this Regulation:

- ‘participating Member State’ shall mean an EU Member State which has adopted the euro in accordance with the Treaty,
- ‘participating national central bank’ (participating NCB) shall mean the national central bank of a participating Member State,
- ‘Eurosystème’ shall designate the ECB and the participating NCBs,
- ‘institution’ shall mean any entity in a participating Member State which the ECB, under the terms of Article 19(1) of the Statute, may require to hold minimum reserves,
- ‘reserve account’ shall mean an institution's account with a participating NCB, the end-of-day balance of which counts towards compliance with the institution's reserve requirement,
- ‘reserve requirement’ shall mean the requirement for institutions to hold minimum reserves on reserve accounts with participating NCBs,
- ‘reserve ratio’ shall mean the percentage specified in Article 4 for any particular item in the reserve base,
- ‘maintenance period’ shall mean the period over which compliance with reserve requirements is calculated and for which such minimum reserves must be held on reserve accounts,
- ‘end-of-day balance’ shall mean the balance at the point in time when the finalisation of payment activities and entries relating to possible access to the standing facilities of the Eurosystem has taken place,
- ‘NCB business day’ shall mean any day on which a particular participating NCB is open for the purpose of conducting Eurosystem monetary policy operations,
- ‘resident’ shall mean any natural or legal person residing in any of the participating Member States within the meaning of Article 1(4) of Council Regulation (EC) No 2533/98 of 23 November 1998 concerning the collection of statistical information by the European Central Bank ⁽¹⁾,

- ‘reorganisation measures’ shall mean measures intended to preserve or restore the financial situation of an institution which could affect third parties' pre-existing rights, including measures involving the possible suspension of payments, suspension of enforcement measures or reduction in claims,
- ‘winding-up proceedings’ shall mean collective proceedings concerning an institution which necessarily involve intervention by the judicial authorities or any other competent authority of a participating Member State with the aim of realising assets under the supervision of those authorities, including where the proceedings are terminated by a composition or by another analogous measure,
- ‘merger’ shall mean an operation whereby one or more credit institutions (the merging institutions), on being dissolved without going into liquidation, transfer all their assets and liabilities to another credit institution (the acquiring institution), which may be a newly established credit institution,
- ‘division’ shall mean an operation whereby one credit institution (the institution being divided), on being dissolved without going into liquidation, transfers all its assets and liabilities to more than one institution (the recipient institutions), which may be newly established credit institutions.

*Article 2Institutions subject to reserve requirements

1. The following categories of institutions shall be subject to reserve requirements:
 - (a) credit institutions as defined in the first subparagraph of Article 1(1) of Directive 2000/12/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 20 March 2000 relating to the taking-up and pursuit of the business of credit institutions⁽¹⁾, other than participating NCBs;
 - (b) branches as defined in Article 1(3) of Directive 2000/12/EC, of credit institutions as defined in the first subparagraph of Article 1(1) of the same Directive, other than participating NCBs; these include branches of credit institutions which have neither their registered nor their head office in a participating Member State.

Branches of credit institutions established in participating Member States which are located outside participating Member States are not subject to reserve requirements.

▼M1

2. Without being obliged to submit any request, an institution shall be exempted from reserve requirements from the start of the maintenance period in which its authorisation is withdrawn or renounced, or in which a decision to submit the institution to winding-up proceedings is taken by a judicial authority or any other competent authority of a participating Member State.

▼ M1

The ECB may exempt the following institutions from reserve requirements on a non-discriminatory basis:

- (a) institutions subject to reorganisation measures;
- (b) institutions subject to the freezing of funds and/or other measures imposed by the Community or a Member State under Article 60(2) of the Treaty restricting the use of their funds or a decision of the ECB's Governing Council suspending or excluding their access to open market operations or the Eurosystem's standing facilities;
- (c) institutions for which the purpose of the ECB's minimum reserve system would not be met by imposing reserve requirements upon them. In reaching a decision on any such exemption, the ECB shall take into account one or more of the following criteria:
 - (i) the institution is authorised to pursue special-purpose functions only;
 - (ii) the institution is prohibited from exercising active banking functions in competition with other credit institutions;
 - (iii) the institution is under a legal obligation to have all its deposits earmarked for purposes relating to regional and/or international development assistance.

3. The ECB shall publish a list of institutions subject to reserve requirements. The ECB shall also publish a list of institutions exempt from its reserve requirements for reasons other than being subject to:

- (a) reorganisation measures;
- (b) the freezing of funds and/or other measures imposed by the Community or a Member State under Article 60(2) of the Treaty restricting the use of an institution's funds or a decision issued by the ECB's Governing Council suspending or excluding an institution's access to open market operations or the Eurosystem's standing facilities.

Institutions may rely on these lists when deciding whether their liabilities are owed to another institution that is itself subject to reserve requirements. These lists shall not be determinative of whether institutions are subject to reserve requirements in accordance with Article 2.

▼ B*Article 3Reserve base*▼ M4

1. An institution's reserve base shall comprise the following liabilities, as defined in the ECB's reporting framework laid down in Regulation (EU) No 1071/2013 of the European Central Bank (ECB/2013/33) ⁽¹⁾, resulting from the acceptance of funds:

▼ M4

- (a) deposits; and
- (b) debt securities issued.

If an institution has liabilities in relation to a branch of the same entity, or in relation to the head office or registered office of the same entity, which are located outside participating Member States, it shall include such liabilities in the reserve base.

2. The following liabilities shall be excluded from the reserve base:

- (a) liabilities owed to any other institution not included on the list of institutions exempt from the ECB's minimum reserve requirements in accordance with Article 2(3); and
- (b) liabilities owed to the ECB or to a participating NCB.

2a. For the liability category 'deposits' referred to in point (a) of paragraph 1, the exclusion, as referred to in paragraph 2, shall be effected in the following manner: the institution shall provide evidence to the relevant participating NCB of the amount of liabilities referred to in points (a) and (b) of paragraph 2, and the amount evidenced shall be deducted from the reserve base.

For the liability category 'debt securities issued' referred to in point (b) of paragraph 1, the exclusion, as referred to in paragraph 2, shall be effected by deducting an amount from the reserve base in the following manner:

- (a) the institution shall provide evidence to the relevant participating NCB of the amount of liabilities referred to in points (a) and (b) of paragraph 2, and the amount evidenced shall be deducted from the reserve base;
- (b) where the institution is unable to provide evidence to the relevant participating NCB of the amount of liabilities referred to in points (a) and (b) of paragraph 2, the institution shall apply the standard deduction published on the ECB's website to the outstanding amount of the debt securities which it has issued and which have an original maturity of up to and including two years.

▼ B

3. The institution shall calculate the reserve base in respect of a particular maintenance period on the basis of the data relating to the month two months prior to the month within which the maintenance period starts. The institution shall report the reserve base to the relevant participating NCB as required within the ECB's reporting framework ►M4 ——— ◀ laid down in ►M3 Regulation (EU) No 1071/2013 (ECB/2013/33) ◀.

▼ M3

4. For institutions which have been granted the derogation set out in Article 9(1) of Regulation (EU) No 1071/2013 of the European Central Bank (ECB/2013/33) ⁽¹⁾ ('tail institutions'), the reserve base shall be calculated, for two consecutive maintenance periods beginning with the maintenance period starting in the third month after the end of a quarter, on the basis of end-of-quarter data reported in accordance with point 4 of Part 1 of Annex III to Regulation (EU) No 1071/2013 (ECB/2013/33). These institutions shall notify their minimum reserves in accordance with Article 5.

▼ B*Article 4Reserve ratios*▼ M1

1. A reserve ratio of 0 % shall apply to the following liability categories (as defined within the ECB's reporting framework ► M4 — in ► M3 Regulation (EU) No 1071/2013 (ECB/2013/33) ◀):

- (a) deposits with agreed maturity over two years;
- (b) deposits redeemable at notice over two years;
- (c) repos;
- (d) debt securities issued with an original maturity over two years.

▼ M2

2. A reserve ratio of 1 % shall apply to all other liabilities included in the reserve base.

▼ B*Article 5Calculation and notification of minimum reserves

1. The amount of minimum reserves to be held by each institution in respect of a particular maintenance period shall be calculated by applying the reserve ratios to each relevant item of the reserve base for that period, as defined in Article 4. The minimum reserves identified by the relevant participating NCB and by the institution in accordance with the procedures mentioned in this Article shall constitute the basis for (i) remuneration of holdings of required reserves, and (ii) assessment of an institution's compliance with the obligation to hold the required amount of minimum reserves.

2. An allowance of EUR 100 000, to be deducted from the amount of the minimum reserves, shall be granted to each institution, subject to the provisions contained in Articles 11 and 13.

3. Each participating NCB shall determine procedures for the notification of institutions' individual minimum reserves, in accordance with the following principles. Either the relevant participating NCB or the institution shall take the initiative to calculate that institution's minimum reserves for the relevant maintenance period, on the basis of the statistical information and of the reserve base reported in accordance with ► M3 Article 6 of Regulation (EU) No 1071/2013 (ECB/2013/33) ◀. The calculating party shall notify the other party of the calculated minimum reserves at the latest three NCB business days before the start of the maintenance period. The relevant participating NCB may specify an earlier date as a time limit for the notification of minimum reserves. It may also specify additional time limits for the institution to notify any revisions to the reserve base, and any revisions to the notified minimum reserves. If an institution abuses the opportunity that is offered by its participating NCB to revise the reserve base and the minimum reserves, the NCB may suspend permission for that institution to submit revisions. The notified party shall acknowledge the calculated minimum reserves at the latest on the NCB business day preceding the start of the maintenance period. If the notified party has not replied to the notification by the end of the NCB business day preceding the start of the maintenance period, it shall be deemed to have acknowledged the amount of minimum reserves of the institution for the relevant maintenance period. Once acknowledged, the institution's minimum reserves for the relevant maintenance period cannot be revised.

4. The participating NCBs shall publish calendars indicating the forthcoming time limits for notification and acknowledgement of data relevant to minimum reserves for the implementation of the procedures mentioned in this Article.

5. Where an institution fails to report the relevant statistical information as specified in Article 5 of ►M3 Regulation (EU) No 1071/2013 (ECB/2013/33) ◀, the relevant participating NCB shall inform the institution concerned of the amount of the institution's minimum reserves that is to be notified or acknowledged, in accordance with the procedures mentioned in this Article, for the relevant maintenance period(s), estimated on the basis of historical information reported by the institution and any other relevant information. Article 6 of Regulation (EC) No 2531/98 and the ECB's power to impose sanctions for infringement of the ECB's statistical reporting requirements shall remain unaffected.

*Article 6Reserve holdings

1. An institution shall hold its minimum reserves on one or more reserve accounts with the national central bank in each participating Member State in which it has an establishment, in relation to its reserve base in the corresponding Member State. Reserve accounts shall be denominated in euro. Institutions' settlement accounts with the participating NCBs may be used as reserve accounts.

2. An institution shall have complied with its reserve requirement if the average end-of-day balance on its reserve accounts over the maintenance period is not less than the amount defined for that period in accordance with the procedures set out in Article 5.

3. If an institution has more than one establishment in a participating Member State, its registered office or head office, if located in that Member State, shall be responsible for ensuring compliance with the institution's reserve requirement. If the institution has neither a registered office nor a head office in that Member State, it shall designate which of its branches in that Member State shall be responsible for ensuring compliance with the institution's reserve requirement. All these establishments' reserve holdings count together towards compliance with the institution's total reserve requirement in that Member State.

Article 7Maintenance period▼M3

1. Unless the Governing Council of the ECB decides to modify the calendar according to paragraph 2, the maintenance period shall start on the settlement day of the main refinancing operation following the meeting of the Governing Council, at which the assessment of the monetary policy stance is pre-scheduled. The Executive Board of the ECB shall publish a calendar of maintenance periods at least three months before the start of each calendar year. Publication of such calendar shall take place in the Official Journal of the European Union and on the websites of the ECB and of the participating NCBs.

▼B

2. The Governing Council shall decide on any modification of this calendar that is necessary due to extraordinary circumstances and the Executive Board shall publish it in the same manner well in advance of the start of the maintenance period to which the modification is applied.

*Article 8Remuneration

1. Holdings of required reserves are remunerated at the average, taken over the maintenance period, of the ECB rate (weighted according to the number of calendar days) for the main refinancing operations of the Eurosystem according to the following formula (whereby the result is rounded to the nearest cent):

$$R_t = \frac{H_t \cdot n_t \cdot r_t}{100 \cdot 360}$$

$$r_t = \sum_{i=1}^{n_t} \frac{MR_i}{n_t}$$

Where:

R_t = remuneration to be paid on holdings of required reserves for the maintenance period t ;

H_t = average daily holdings of required reserves for the maintenance period t ; n_t = number of calendar days in the maintenance period t ; r_t = rate of remuneration on holdings of required reserves for the maintenance period t . Standard rounding of the rate of remuneration to two decimals shall be applied;

i = i th calendar day of the maintenance period t ;

▼B

MR_i = marginal interest rate for the most recent main refinancing operation settled on or before calendar day i .

2. The remuneration shall be paid on the second NCB business day following the end of the maintenance period over which the remuneration was earned.

*Article 9Responsibility for verification

The participating NCBs shall exercise the right to verify the accuracy and quality of the information which institutions provide to demonstrate compliance with the reserve requirement as specified in Article 6 of Regulation (EC) No 2531/98 without prejudice to the right of the ECB to exercise this right itself.

*Article 10Indirect holding of minimum reserves through an intermediary

1. An institution may apply for permission to hold all its minimum reserves indirectly through an intermediary resident in the same Member State. The intermediary shall be an institution subject to reserve requirements which normally effects part of the administration (e.g. treasury management) of the institution for which it is acting as intermediary, beyond the holding of minimum reserves.

2. Any application for permission to hold minimum reserves through an intermediary as described in paragraph 1 above shall be addressed to the national central bank of the participating Member State in which the applicant is established. The application shall include a copy of an agreement between the intermediary and the applicant in which both parties express their consent to the arrangement. The agreement shall also specify whether the applicant wishes to access Eurosystem standing facilities and open market operations. The agreement shall specify a notice period of at least 12 months. Upon compliance with the above conditions, the relevant participating NCB may grant the applicant permission to hold minimum reserves through an intermediary, subject to the provisions of paragraph 4 of this Article. Such permission shall be effective from the start of the first maintenance period following the date permission is granted, and shall continue for the duration of the aforementioned agreement between the parties.

3. The intermediary shall maintain these minimum reserve holdings in accordance with the general conditions of the ECB's minimum reserve system. Not only the institutions for which the intermediary is acting, but also the intermediary itself shall be responsible for complying with those institutions' reserve requirements. In the event of non-compliance, the ECB may impose any applicable sanctions on the intermediary, on the institution for which it is acting as intermediary, or on both, in accordance with the liability for non-compliance.

4. The ECB or the relevant participating NCB may, at any time, withdraw permission to hold minimum reserves indirectly:

▼B

- (i) if an institution which holds its reserves indirectly through an intermediary, or the intermediary itself, fails to comply with its obligations under the ECB minimum reserve system;
- (ii) if the conditions for the holding of reserves indirectly specified in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article are no longer fulfilled; or
- (iii) for prudential reasons relating to the intermediary.

If such permission is withdrawn for prudential reasons relating to the intermediary, the withdrawal may have immediate effect. Subject to the requirements of paragraph 5, any withdrawal for other reasons shall take effect at the end of the then current maintenance period. An institution which holds its reserves through an intermediary, or the intermediary itself, may, at any time, ask for the permission to be withdrawn. Withdrawal requires prior notification by the relevant participating NCB to become effective.

5. The institution which holds its minimum reserves through an intermediary and the intermediary itself shall be informed of any withdrawal of permission for reasons other than prudential ones at least five working days before the end of the maintenance period in which permission is withdrawn.

6. Without prejudice to the individual statistical reporting obligations of the institution which holds its minimum reserves through an intermediary, the intermediary shall report the reserve base data in a sufficiently detailed manner to enable the ECB to verify its accuracy and quality, having regard to the provisions contained in Article 9, and determine the respective minimum reserves and the reserve holdings data for itself, as well as in respect of each institution for which it acts as intermediary. That data shall be provided to the participating NCB with which the minimum reserves are held. The intermediary shall provide the aforementioned reserve base data according to the same frequency and timetable as were established within the ECB's reporting framework ►M4 ————— ◀ laid down in ►M3 Regulation (EU) No 1071/2013 (ECB/2013/33) ◀.

▼M1*Article 11Reserve holding on a consolidated basis

Institutions allowed to report statistical data regarding their consolidated reserve base as a group (as defined within the ECB's reporting framework ►M4 ————— ◀ in ►M3 Regulation (EU) No 1071/2013 (ECB/2013/33) ◀ shall hold minimum reserves through one of the institutions in the group which is acting as intermediary exclusively for these institutions and in accordance with the provisions in Article 10. On receiving authorisation from the ECB to carry out statistical reporting regarding the consolidated reserve base for the institutions in the group, the institution acting as the intermediary for the group shall automatically be exempted from the provisions in Article 10(6) and only the group as a whole shall be entitled to receive the allowance referred to in Article 5(2).

*Article 12NCB business days

If one or more branches of a participating NCB are closed on an NCB business day owing to local or regional bank holidays, the relevant participating NCB shall inform the institutions in advance of the arrangements to be made for transactions involving those branches.

*Article 13Mergers and divisions

1. For the maintenance period in which a merger takes effect, the merging institutions' reserve requirements shall be assumed by the acquiring institution and the acquiring institution shall benefit from any allowance described in Article 5(2) granted to the merging institutions. All the merging institutions' reserve holdings for the maintenance period in which the merger takes effect shall count together towards compliance with reserve requirements by the acquiring institution.

2. From the maintenance period immediately following the maintenance period in which the merger takes effect onwards, the acquiring institution shall be granted only one allowance as described in Article 5(2). For the maintenance period immediately following the one in which the merger takes effect, the acquiring institution's minimum reserves shall be calculated using a reserve base which aggregates the reserve bases of the merging institutions and, where appropriate, of the acquiring institution. The reserve bases to be aggregated are those which would have been relevant for this maintenance period had the merger not occurred. To the extent required to have adequate statistical information for each of the merging institutions, the acquiring institution shall assume the merging institutions' statistical reporting obligations. Specific provisions, depending on the features of the institutions involved in the merger, are set out in ► M3 Annex III to Regulation (EU) No 1071/2013 (ECB/2013/33) ◀.

3. For the maintenance period in which a division takes effect, those recipient institutions which are credit institutions shall assume the reserve requirement of the institution being divided. Each of the recipient credit institutions shall be liable in proportion to the part of the reserve base of the institution being divided that is allocated to it. Reserves held by the institution being divided during the maintenance period in which the division takes effect shall be allocated between the recipient institutions which are credit institutions in the same proportions. For the maintenance period in which the division takes effect, the allowance described in Article 5(2) shall be granted to each of the recipient institutions which is a credit institution.

4. From the maintenance period immediately following the maintenance period in which the division takes effect and until the recipient institutions which are credit institutions have reported their respective reserve bases in accordance with ► M3 Article 6 of Regulation (EU) No 1071/2013 (ECB/2013/33) ◀, each recipient institution which is a credit institution shall assume, possibly in addition to its own minimum reserves, the minimum reserves calculated on the basis of the part of the reserve base of the institution being divided that is allocated to it. From the maintenance period immediately following the maintenance period in which the division takes effect onwards, each recipient institution which is a credit institution shall be granted one allowance as described in Article 5(2).

▼M1*Article 13aEuro area enlargement

1. The ECB's Governing Council delegates power to the ECB's Executive Board to decide, in cases when a Member State adopts the euro in accordance with the Treaty on the following matters, after taking into consideration the views of the Market Operations Committee of the ESCB, as applicable:

- (a) the dates of the transitional maintenance period for the application of minimum reserve requirements to institutions located in that Member State, with the initial date being the date of the adoption of the euro in that Member State;
- (b) the manner of calculation of the reserve base for the purposes of determining the level of minimum reserves required to be held by institutions located in the Member State adopting the euro during the transitional maintenance period taking into account the ECB's reporting framework ►M4 ————— ◀ as laid down in ►M3 Regulation (EU) No 1071/2013 (ECB/2013/33) ◀; and
- (c) the time limit by which the calculation and verification of the minimum reserves is to be carried out by the institutions located in the Member State adopting the euro and their national central bank in respect of the transitional maintenance period.

The Executive Board shall publish a statement on its decision at least two months before the date of the adoption of the euro in that Member State.

2. The Governing Council of the ECB further delegates to the Executive Board of the ECB the power to authorise institutions located in other participating Member States to deduct from their reserve base for the maintenance periods coinciding with and succeeding the transitional maintenance period any liabilities owed to institutions located in the Member State adopting the euro even though at the time the minimum reserves are calculated such institutions do not appear on the list of institutions subject to reserve requirements in Article 2(3). In this event, the decisions issued by the Executive Board of the ECB under this paragraph may further specify the manner in which the deduction of such liabilities shall be carried out.

3. Any decision issued by the Executive Board under paragraphs 1 and 2 shall be promptly notified to the Governing Council of the ECB, and the Executive Board of the ECB shall abide by any decision adopted by the Governing Council of the ECB thereon.

*Article 14Transitional provisions

1. The maintenance period starting on 24 January 2004 shall end on 9 March 2004.
2. The minimum reserves for this transitional maintenance period shall be calculated using the reserve base at 31 December 2003. The reserve base at 30 September 2003 shall be used for institutions reporting on a quarterly basis.
3. The procedures for calculation, notification, confirmation, revision and acknowledgment set out in Article 5(3), (4) and (6) of Regulation (EC) No 2818/98 (ECB/1998/15) shall apply to this transitional maintenance period.

*Article 15Final provisions

1. This Regulation shall enter into force on 24 January 2004, with the exception of Article 5(3) and (5) which shall enter into force on 10 March 2004.
2. Regulation (EC) No 2818/98 (ECB/1998/15) of 1 December 1998 on the application of minimum reserves shall be repealed on 23 January 2004, with the exception of Article 5(3), (4) and (6) which shall be repealed on 9 March 2004.
3. References made to the repealed Regulation shall be construed as being made to this Regulation.
