

COMMISSION IMPLEMENTING REGULATION (EU) 2015/880of 4 June 2015*on the extension of the transitional periods related to own funds requirements for exposures to central counterparties set out in Regulations (EU) No 575/2013 and (EU) No 648/2012 of the European Parliament and of the Council*(Text with EEA relevance)

THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union,

Having regard to Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013 on prudential requirements for credit institutions and investment firms and amending Regulation (EU) No 648/2012 ⁽¹⁾, and in particular Article 497(3) thereof,

Whereas:

- (1) In order to avoid disruption to international financial markets and to prevent penalising institutions by subjecting them to higher own funds requirements during the processes of authorisation and recognition of existing central counterparties (CCPs), Article 497(1) and (2) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 established a transitional period during which all CCPs with which institutions established in the Union clear transactions will be considered qualifying CCPs.
- (2) Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 also amended Regulation (EU) No 648/2012 of the European Parliament and of the Council ⁽²⁾ in respect of certain inputs to the calculation of institutions' own funds requirements for exposures to CCPs. Accordingly, Article 89(5a) of Regulation (EU) No 648/2012 requires certain CCPs to report, for a limited period of time, the total amount of initial margin they have received from their clearing members. That transitional period mirrors the one laid down in Article 497 of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013.
- (3) Both the transitional period for own funds requirements set out in Article 497(1) and (2) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 and the transitional period for reporting the initial margin set out in the first and second subparagraphs of Article 89(5a) of Regulation (EU) No 648/2012 were set to expire on 15 June 2014.
- (4) Article 497(3) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 empowers the Commission to adopt an implementing act in order to extend the transitional period by 6 months in exceptional circumstances. That extension should also apply in respect of the time limits laid down in Article 89(5a) of Regulation (EU) No 648/2012. Commission Implementing Regulation (EU) No 591/2014 ⁽³⁾, initially, and Commission Implementing Regulation (EU) No 1317/2014 ⁽⁴⁾, subsequently, have already extended those transitional periods until 15 June 2015.
- (5) The authorisation process for existing CCPs established in the Union is ongoing but will not be completed by 15 June 2015. With regard to existing CCPs established in third countries that have already applied for recognition, no recognition has been granted yet to such CCPs. The need to avoid disruption to the international financial markets that led previously to the extension of the transitional period laid down in Article 497(2) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 regarding CCPs established in third countries would therefore remain after the expiry of the extension of the transitional period set out in Implementing Regulation (EU) No 1317/2014. A further extension of the transitional period should enable institutions established in the Union (or their subsidiaries established outside the Union) to avoid significant increase in the own funds requirements due to the lack of recognised CCPs established in each relevant third country which provide, in a viable and accessible way, the specific type of clearing services that Union institutions require. While such an increase may only be temporary, it could potentially lead to the withdrawal of those institutions as direct participants in those CCPs and hence cause disruption in the markets in which those CCPs operate. An additional 6-month extension of the transitional periods is therefore appropriate.

- (6) The measures provided for in this Regulation are in accordance with the opinion of the European Banking Committee,
