

RULES OF PROCEDURE

Code of Conduct for the Members and former Members of the Court

THE EUROPEAN COURT OF AUDITORS (the Court),

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in particular Articles 285, 286 and 339 thereof,

Having regard to the Rules of Procedure of the Court, and in particular Articles 3 and 34(1) thereof, and to the Rules for Implementing the Rules of Procedure of the Court, in particular Article 81(4) thereof,

Whereas the Members of the Court are required, in the Union's general interest, to be completely independent in the performance of their duties, neither to seek nor to take instructions from any government or from any other body, and to refrain from any action incompatible with their duties,

Whereas, when entering upon their duties, the Members of the Court give a solemn undertaking that, both during and after their term of office, they will respect the obligations arising therefrom,

Whereas Members have a special responsibility in ethical matters since, through their example, they have a significant influence on the culture of the organisation and on facilitating a good working environment,

Whereas this Code of Conduct reflects the fundamental ethical values and principles laid out, for example, in the Code of Ethics of the International Organization of Supreme Audit Institutions (ISSAI 130), such as integrity, independence and objectivity, competence, professional behaviour, confidentiality and transparency,

Whereas the Code of Conduct for the Members of the Court of 8 February 2012 needs to be revised in order to take account of the experience gained in its application and for the Court to ensure the highest ethical standards, as expected of Members of the Court, and to take account of the conclusions of the peer review report on the ethical framework of the Court completed in 2019 by the Supreme Audit Institutions of Croatia and Poland,

Whereas, in order to ensure greater transparency and consistency, all relevant provisions regarding the ethical obligations of Members should be merged into this Code of Conduct, which forms an integral part of the Rules for Implementing the Rules of Procedure of the Court,

Whereas the Court has adopted a policy for maintaining a satisfactory working environment and combating psychological and sexual harassment,

Whereas certain obligations arising from this Code of Conduct in relation to the Members of the Court should also apply to former Members in order to be fully effective,

Has decided to adopt the following Code of Conduct for the Members and former Members of the Court:

*Article 6Competence

Members shall develop and maintain knowledge and skills relevant for their duties and shall act in accordance with the applicable standards and with due care.

However, Members may have recourse to the judicial instruments provided for under European Union law if they consider that those decisions have caused them harm.
3. Without prejudice to the President's responsibility for external relations, Members shall have authority outside the Court to communicate and comment upon any reports, opinions or information that the Court has decided to make public, subject to the conditions in paragraph 4 below.
4. Members shall refrain from making any comment outside the Court that:
 - (a) would call into question a decision taken by the Court;
 - (b) could damage the Court's reputation;
 - (c) could be interpreted as a statement of the Court's position on matters that do not fall within its institutional remit or on which the Court has not taken a position; or
 - (d) might involve the Court in any controversy, even after they have ceased to hold office.

*Article 12External Activities

1. Members shall not engage in any professional activity outside the Court, or in any other external activity, whether gainful or not, that is incompatible with their duties, as specified in Article 286(3) and (4) TFEU.
2. Under the conditions laid down in this article, Members may hold honorary, unremunerated offices in foundations or similar organisations in the political, legal, scientific, cultural, artistic, social, sporting or charitable spheres or in educational establishments. 'Honorary office' means an office in which the holder has no management role, no decision-making power and no responsibility for or control of the operations of the body in question, and only exercises a representative or advisory role. 'Foundation or similar organisation' means any non-profit organisation or association engaged in activities in the public interest in the aforementioned areas. Members shall avoid any conflict of interest that could arise, or that could be objectively perceived as arising, from these offices, particularly if the body in question receives any kind of financing from the EU budget.
3. Members may also engage in the following external activities, providing they observe Articles 2 and 10:
 - (a) giving courses in the interests of European integration, the rule of law or ethics, or delivering speeches, or taking part in conferences, provided that either no payment is made or, should a payment be made, that it is paid directly by the organiser to a charity of the Member's choice;
 - (b) publishing a book or writing an article, provided that any royalties from works published in connection with a Member's functions are paid directly by the publisher to a charity of the Member's choice.
4. External activities shall not
 - (a) undermine the Court's impartiality;
 - (b) create a conflict of interest, or be objectively perceived as creating a conflict of interest;
 - (c) take up an excessive amount of time, taking into account the cumulative impact of a Member's total external activities;
 - (d) afford the Member any pecuniary gain.

*Article 13Obligations of Members after ceasing to hold office

1. After ceasing to hold office, former Members shall respect those obligations arising from their duties that continue to have an effect after their term, in particular the duty to behave with integrity and discretion as regards the acceptance of certain appointments or benefits in line with Article 286(4) TFEU, and the obligations specified in this Code of Conduct.
2. They shall continue to be bound by the duties of discretion and collegiality, as laid down in Article 11, with respect to the activities performed during their term of office. 6. Any property owned either directly or through a real estate company shall be declared, and its approximate location and nature identified, with the exception of homes reserved for the exclusive use of the owner and their family. This shall not include moveable assets.
7. These obligations apply to the financial interests of spouses, partners ⁽¹⁾ and minor children, where those interests might be objectively considered capable of giving rise to a conflict of interest.
8. On first taking office, Members shall declare all activities, professional and honorary, engaged in during the previous three years.
9. Members shall, in order to obviate any potential risk of conflict of interests, declare any professional activities of their spouses or partners ⁽²⁾.
10. Members shall declare all current external activities in addition to declaring them in accordance with the specific procedure laid down in Article 16(1). This shall exclude external activities falling under Article 12(3).

13. The President of the Court shall examine the declarations from a formal point of view, with the support of the Legal Service. The Declaration of Interests made by the President shall be examined by the Member next in order of precedence to the President under Article 5 of the Rules of Procedure.
14. Following this examination and with due regard to the protection of personal data, these Declarations of Interests shall be published on the Court's website.
15. The President shall take account of the declarations when proposing the assignment of the Member to a Chamber or Committee of the Court, in order to avoid any possible conflict of interests.
16. If Members are confronted with a situation outside the scope of the Declaration of Interests that may give rise to a conflict of interest, they shall inform the President of the Court. Following an examination by the Ethics Committee, the matter shall be submitted to the Court, which shall take any measure it considers appropriate.

Article 14a

1. Any long-term contractual relationships between Members and staff of the Court, whether or not they involve any remuneration, shall be declared to the Ethics Committee, which is responsible for their examination.
2. Members shall not enter into long-term rental, sub-rental, or loan agreements with staff of the Court.

Article 15

Acceptance of gifts and similar benefits

1. If, by virtue of diplomatic and courtesy usage, Members receive gifts or similar benefits of a value of more than EUR 150, they shall hand them over to the Secretary-General. In case of doubt, they shall declare to the Secretary-General any gift received in the performance of their duties, asking for an assessment of its value.
2. The Secretariat of the Court shall keep a register of gifts and similar benefits with a value of more than EUR 150, identifying the donors, which shall be publicly available on the Court's website.
3. This Article shall not apply to authorised official missions involving a Member's participation in an event where the organiser bears certain costs (for example, travel or hotel costs).

Article 16

Members' obligations regarding external activities

1. Members shall declare without delay to the President of the Court all external activities or changes to a declared activity, using the form in Annex II. Members shall describe the external activities as accurately as possible according to each of the criteria listed in paragraph 3.

4. By way of exception, external activities pursuant to Article 12(3)(a) and (b) shall be declared to the President using the form in Annex II and sent for information purposes to the Ethics Committee, which shall not issue an opinion unless it deems this necessary.

5. Activities falling within the scope of the Court's Decision on the mission expenses of the Members of the Court cannot constitute 'external activities' within the meaning of Articles 12 and 16 of this Code. Members remain free to provide any such information they see fit to the Ethics Committee, purely for its information. Conversely, an external activity declared under this Code cannot benefit from reimbursement under the Court's Decision on the mission expenses of the Members of the Court.

Article 17

Members' occupations after ceasing to hold office

1. Whenever Members or former Members of the Court intend to engage in an occupation during the two years after they have ceased to hold office, they shall declare it to the President of the Court using the form in Annex III as soon as they become aware of the matter, and if possible with at least two months' notice.
2. For the purposes of this Code, 'occupation' means any professional activity, whether gainful or not. It excludes:
 - (a) honorary, unremunerated offices in foundations or similar organisations, with no link to the activities of the European Union, in the political, legal, scientific, cultural, artistic, social, sporting or charitable sphere or in educational establishments;
 - (b) the mere management in a private capacity of assets or holdings or personal or family fortune; and
 - (c) comparable activities.
3. The President shall forward such declarations for examination by the Ethics Committee. The Ethics Committee shall examine whether the nature of the planned occupation is compatible with Article 286(4) TFEU and the present Code, whether it undermines the Court's impartiality, and whether there is a conflict of interest.
4. Where necessary, the Ethics Committee shall, in carrying out this examination under paragraph 3, identify and assess if there are any specific and substantiated risks to the criteria in paragraph 3 arising from reports for which the Member acted as Reporting Member in the last two years of his or her mandate. The Committee shall also have regard to Article 15 of the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights on the Freedom to choose an occupation and the right to engage in work.
5. If the Ethics Committee considers that the occupation would be incompatible with Article 286(4) TFEU and the present Code, the President shall inform the former Member, who shall refrain from engaging in that activity.
6. By way of exception, where the former Member intends to engage in public office, a conflict of interest is, in principle, not to be expected.
