

New national side of euro coins intended for circulation

(2013/C 219/07)

National side of the new commemorative 2-euro coin intended for circulation and issued by Portugal

Euro coins intended for circulation have legal tender status throughout the euro area. For the purpose of informing the public and all parties who handle the coins, the Commission publishes a description of the designs of all new coins ⁽¹⁾. In accordance with the Council conclusions of 10 February 2009 ⁽²⁾, euro-area Member States and countries that have concluded a monetary agreement with the Community providing for the issuing of euro coins are allowed to issue commemorative euro coins intended for circulation, provided that certain conditions are met, particularly that only the 2-euro denomination is used. These coins have the same technical characteristics as other 2-euro coins, but their national face features a commemorative design that is highly symbolic in national or European terms.

Issuing country: Portugal

Subject of commemoration: the 250th anniversary of the construction of 'Torre dos Clérigos'

Description of the design:

The tower is depicted as it can be seen by the people on the street when standing close to it, side by side with the typical Oporto skyline as seen from Douro River south bank. At the top, in semi-circle, the inscription '250 ANOS TORRE DOS CLÉRIGOS — 2013'. At the bottom right, the Portuguese coat of arms and underneath the indication of the issuing country 'PORTUGAL'. At the left, the mint mark and the name of the artist 'INCM — HUGO MACIEL'.

The coin's outer ring depicts the 12 stars of the European flag.

Number of coins to be issued: 525 000

Date of issue: June 2013
