

New national side of euro coins intended for circulation

(2015/C 428/04)

National side of the new commemorative 2-euro coin intended for circulation and issued by Germany

Euro coins intended for circulation have legal tender status throughout the euro area. For the purpose of informing the public and all parties who handle the coins, the Commission publishes a description of the designs of all new coins <sup>(1)</sup>. In accordance with the Council conclusions of 10 February 2009 <sup>(2)</sup>, euro-area Member States and countries that have concluded a monetary agreement with the European Union providing for the issuing of euro coins are allowed to issue commemorative euro coins intended for circulation, provided that certain conditions are met, particularly that only the 2-euro denomination is used. These coins have the same technical characteristics as other 2-euro coins, but their national face features a commemorative design that is highly symbolic in national or European terms.

Issuing country: Germany

Subject of commemoration: Saxony ('Federal States' (Bundesländer) series)

Description of the design: The design shows a view from the inner yard of the world-famous Dresden Zwinger to the Crown Gate. The inner part also features the name 'SACHSEN' and the issuing country's country code 'D' at the bottom, the mint mark of the respective mint ('A', 'D', 'F', 'G' or 'J') as well as the engraver's mark (the initials 'JT' — Jordi Truxa) right at the top and the year '2016' left at the top.

The coin's outer ring depicts the 12 stars of the European flag.

Number of coins to be issued: 30 million

Date of issue: 5 February 2016
