(i) paragraph (b) thereof shall be substituted by the following:

"(b) where, on the basis of the risk assessments carried out in accordance with regulation 5, the subject person determines that an occasional transaction, a business relationship or any transaction represents a high risk of money laundering or funding of terrorism; and"

(ii) paragraph (c) thereof shall be deleted;

(iii) paragraph (d) thereof shall be renumbered as paragraph (c); and

(iv) in paragraph (c) thereof, as renumbered, for the words "sub-regulations (3) to (9)" there shall be substituted the words "sub-regulations (3) to (10)";

(b) in sub-regulation (2) thereof, for the words "cases referred to in paragraphs (a) to (c)" there shall be substituted the words "cases referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b)"; and the proviso thereto shall be deleted;

(c) sub-regulation (9) thereof shall be substituted by the following:

"(9) Subject persons shall, as far as reasonably possible, examine the purpose and background of all transactions that:

(a) are complex;

(b) are unusually large;

(c) are conducted in an unusual pattern; or
(d) have no apparent economic or lawful purpose:

Provided that in such cases subject persons shall increase the degree and nature of monitoring of the business relationship, to determine whether those transactions or activities are suspicious in terms of regulation 15(3)."; and

(d) immediately after sub-regulation (9) thereof, as substituted, there shall be added the following new sub-regulations:

"(10) Where occasional transactions or business relationships or transactions involve non-reputable jurisdictions, subject persons shall:

(a) obtain additional information on the identity of the customer and, where applicable, the beneficial owners;

(b) obtain additional information on the intended nature of business relationships;

(c) obtain additional information on the source of wealth and source of funds of the customer, and, where applicable, the beneficial owners;

(d) obtain information on the purpose of prospective or executed transactions;

(e) obtain the approval of senior management when establishing business relationships, carrying out occasional transactions or continuing business relationships;

(f) conduct enhanced monitoring of business relationships by increasing the frequency of monitoring, and identifying and, where appropriate, examining patterns of transactions that require further scrutiny; and

(g) where applicable, require that the first payment be carried out through a bank account in the customer’s name held with a bank subject to customer due diligence obligations that are consistent with those laid down under these regulations.

(11) Where occasional transactions or business relationships or transactions involve non-reputable jurisdictions in respect of which there is an international call for counter-measures, subject persons shall inform in writing the Financial Intelligence Analysis Unit, and shall apply one or more of the following enhanced customer due diligence measures:

(a) carry out additional customer due diligence measures;

(b) introduce enhanced reporting mechanisms or systematic reporting of transactions;

(c) limit occasional transactions or business relationships involving such non-reputable jurisdictions:

Provided that in the cases referred to in this sub-regulation the Financial Intelligence Analysis Unit or the relevant supervisory authority shall apply any one or more of the following counter-measures:

(a) refuse the establishment in Malta of branches, representative offices or subsidiaries of persons or entities undertaking activities equivalent to relevant financial business or relevant activity which are situated in such non-reputable jurisdictions, or otherwise take into account the fact that that person or entity is situated in a non-reputable jurisdiction that has deficiencies in its anti-money laundering and counter funding of terrorism regime;

(b) prohibit subject persons from establishing branches or representative offices in such a non-reputable jurisdiction or otherwise take into account the fact that the branch or representative office would be situated in a non-reputable jurisdiction that has deficiencies in its anti-money laundering and counter funding of terrorism regime;

(c) carry out increased compliance
monitoring or require increased external audit requirements on branches and subsidiaries of persons and entities referred to in paragraph (a), established in Malta;

(d) require external audit requirements on subject persons forming part of a group in respect of their branches or subsidiaries in such non-reputable jurisdictions; and

(e) require subject persons carrying out relevant financial business to review, amend or terminate correspondent relationships with respondent institutions established in such non-reputable jurisdiction.

(12) The provisions of the proviso to sub-regulation (11) shall not prejudice the ability of the Financial Intelligence Analysis Unit, or a supervisory authority, acting pursuant to its powers at law, to apply, in the case referred to in this sub-regulation, measures other than those envisaged in that proviso, or to apply measures so envisaged in other situations as deemed appropriate.

(13) When taking any measures as set out in the proviso to sub-regulation (11), the Financial Intelligence Analysis Unit and the relevant supervisory authorities shall take into account, as appropriate, relevant evaluations, assessments or reports drawn up by international organisations, which lay down or monitor adherence with international standards for the prevention of money laundering and for combating the funding of terrorism, in relation to the risks posed by individual third countries, and shall duly notify the European Commission of any measures taken.".

9. Sub-regulation (6) of regulation 13 of the principal regulations shall be substituted by the following:

"(6) The processing of personal data for the purposes of the Act and these regulations shall be deemed to be a matter of public interest under Regulation (EU) 2016/679, and the term "personal data" shall have the same meaning as is assigned to it under Regulation (EU) 2016/679."

10. Regulation 14 of the principal regulations shall be substituted by the following:
"14. (1) The Financial Intelligence Analysis Unit shall maintain comprehensive statistical data relative to its functions under the Act, to assist in the review of the effectiveness of the national system to combat money laundering or the funding of terrorism and the carrying out of national risk assessments.

(2) Comprehensive statistical data maintained under sub-regulation (1) shall include:

(a) data measuring the size and importance of the different sectors which are subject to anti-money laundering and counter-funding of terrorism obligations under these regulations, including the number of entities and persons conducting a relevant activity or a relevant financial business and the economic importance of each sector;
