COMMISSION

Proposal for a Council Regulation establishing a European agency for trade cooperation with the developing countries*(Submitted by the Commission to the Council on 12 October 1976)*

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Economic Community, and in particular Articles 113 and 235 thereof,

Having regard to the proposal from the Commission,

Having regard to the opinion of the European Parliament,

Having regard to the opinion of the Economic and Social Committee,

Whereas by its resolutions of 30 April 1974 and 3 March 1975 the Council reiterated its wish to improve the use of the generalized preferences scheme and actively to contribute towards the development of trade relations with the developing countries; whereas it has to this end requested the Commission to put before it concrete proposals for the implementation of the resolutions adopted;

Whereas the appropriate use of the Community's generalized preferences scheme, and the exercise of the responsibilities incumbent upon the Community in the matter of trade promotion for the benefit of the developing countries raise particularly wide-ranging and complex problems because of the volume of trade involved and the interests at stake and whereas the relevant implementing measures to be taken in the Community and the developing countries must be carried out under optimum conditions;

Whereas, with a view to facilitating Commission action and making administration as flexible as possible at the level of execution, a European agency for trade cooperation with the developing countries should be set up as a decentralized body managed on business lines and under the supervision of the Commission, for which it will receive Directives;

Whereas the Treaty has not provided the specific powers necessary for setting up such an agency;

Whereas the agency will be set up within the framework of the European Communities and will function in accordance with Community law and with the Directives given to it by the Commission, and whereas the conditions under which certain general provisions will apply should be defined,

HAS ADOPTED THIS REGULATION:

Article 1

A European agency for trade cooperation with the developing countries, hereinafter called the 'agency', is hereby set up.

It shall have legal personality.

In each of the Member States, it shall enjoy the most extensive legal capacity accorded to legal persons. It shall exercise its activity exclusively in the general interest.

It shall be non-profit making.

It shall be managed on business lines.

The agency shall have its seat in Brussels.

Article 2

The aim of the agency shall be to facilitate by means of practical measures the achievement of the Community's objectives in the sphere of trade relations with the developing countries.

- (i) As regards generalized preferences its task shall be to provide information, documentation and advice for business firms, in particular Community importers and developing country exporters.
- (ii) As regards trade promotion, its task shall be the execution of projects and action programmes defined and approved by the Commission.

The agency shall, where necessary, ensure complementarity in these two fields.

In carrying out the tasks entrusted to it by the Commission the agency shall cooperate closely with the national bodies of the Member States specializing in trade cooperation with the developing countries and shall establish appropriate contacts with those concerned.

Article 3

The agency shall be run by a managing director assisted by two heads of department. The managing director and the two heads of department shall be appointed by the Commission. Their term of office shall be three years and shall be renewable. The managing director and the heads of department may be dismissed by the Commission.

Article 4

The managing director shall be responsible to the Commission for the administration of the agency. In the performance of his duties the managing director shall observe the general and specific Directives given to him by the Commission. He shall in all circumstances submit to supervision by the Commission and be accountable to it.

The managing director shall be the legal representative of the agency.

The managing director may delegate his powers to the heads of department or to members of the staff of the agency.

Article 5

The managing director shall be assisted by a management committee composed of four members appointed by the Commission and selected from within the Commission's departments responsible for implementation of the generalized system of preferences and for trade promotion activities.

The task of the management committee shall be to advise the managing director, either at his request or on its own initiative.

The chairman shall convene the management committee at least twice a year, as agreed with the managing director.

Article 6

The managing director shall, by 31 March each year at the latest, send the Commission the operating budget of the agency for the following year. This budget, which shall include an establishment plan, shall be forwarded by the Commission to the Council with the preliminary draft budget of the European Communities.

The budget of the European Communities shall each year, under a specific heading, include a subsidy for the operating of the agency.

The managing director shall adopt the estimate of revenue and expenditure before the beginning of the financial year, adjusting it to the subsidy granted by the budgetary authority.

Article 7

The Commission shall communicate the annual action programmes to the managing director of the agency so that they can be carried out as soon as possible after the Community budget has been approved.

Projects not contained in the annual action programmes shall be sent to the managing director of the agency as and when they have been approved.

The appropriations to cover the operational expenditure of each department of the agency shall be fixed by the Commission when it sends each programme or project to the agency.

Article 8

The managing director shall, by 31 March each year at the latest, prepare an annual general report on the activities and financial situation of the agency for the preceding year and shall submit it, after receiving the opinion of the management committee, to the Commission.

Article 9

A balance sheet adopted on 31 December, to which a revenue and expenditure account is annexed, shall be drawn up annually. It shall be addressed, by 1 March at the latest, to the Audit Board provided for in Article 206 of the Treaty, which shall report on the agency's accounts.

The managing director shall each year draw up a management report on the preceding financial year.

The Commission shall receive, by 1 May at the latest, the balance sheet, the revenue and expenditure account, the report of the Audit Board and the management report of the managing director and shall grant the latter a discharge in respect of his management duties.

The above documents shall be annexed to the accounts of the preceding year and the Commission shall submit them annually to the Council and the European Parliament pursuant to the fourth paragraph of Article 206 of the Treaty.

Article 10

The provisions governing the staff of the agency shall be adopted by the Council, acting on a proposal from the Commission.

Article 11

The managing director, the two heads of department, the staff and all other persons participating in the activities of the agency shall be required, even after their duties have ceased, not to disclose information of the kind covered by the obligation of professional secrecy.

Article 12

The Protocol on the privileges and immunities of the European Communities shall apply to the agency.

Article 13

The contractual liability of the agency shall be governed by the law applicable to the contract in question.

The Court of Justice of the European Communities shall have jurisdiction to give judgment pursuant to any arbitration clause contained in a contract concluded by the agency.

In the case of non-contractual liability, the agency shall, in accordance with the general principles common to the laws of the Member States, make good any damage caused by the agency or its servants in the performance of their duties. The Court of Justice shall have jurisdiction in disputes relating to compensation for any such damage.

Article 14

Member States, members of the management committee of the agency and third parties directly and personally involved may refer to the Commission any act of the agency, whether express or implied, for the Commission to examine the legality of that act.

Referral shall be made to the Commission within 15 days of the day on which the party concerned first became aware of the act in question.

The Commission shall take a Decision within one month. If no Decision has been taken within this period, the case shall be deemed to have been dismissed.

Article 15

The Commission is authorized to take all steps required for the setting up and operation of the agency and its bodies.
