The rapporteur proposed that paragraph 8 be divided in two, to read as follows:

1st part:

8. Welcomes the fact that Croatia is continuing to cooperate fully with the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia (ICTY); is concerned, however, about the negative impact which the judgments of the ICTY in the Vukovar war crimes cases has had on public opinion in Croatia;

2nd part:

8a. Urges the Croatian government, with the support of all political parties, the media and civil society and jointly with the ICTY office in Croatia, to take steps to maintain popular support for the role of the ICTY in addressing the war crimes perpetrated during the Yugoslav conflict; notes that this support would be significantly strengthened if all the countries concerned were to cooperate fully with the ICTY;

Hannes Swoboda moved oral amendments as follows:

— to am 12:

21. Welcomes Croatia's Pre-Accession Economic Programme and notes that it envisaged the adoption in March 2008 of the long overdue National Restructuring Programme for the Shipbuilding Industry; reminds the Croatian authorities that progress in this area, besides being a requirement of the Stabilisation and Association Agreement, is of crucial importance for accession negotiations; calls on the Commission to facilitate, via the IPA, the implementation of the restructuring programme;

— to am 15:

31. Shares with the Commission the view that, with increased efforts on the part of Croatia and continuous support by the EU institutions, accession negotiations could should, in any event, be concluded in 2009;
