OPINIONS

EUROPEAN COMMISSION

COMMISSION OPINION

of 14 January 2010

relating to the plan for the disposal of radioactive waste arising from the Conditioning and Storage Facility for Activated Waste ICEDA, located on the Bugey site in France, in accordance with Article 37 of the Euratom Treaty

(Only the French text is authentic)

(2010/C 67/01)

On 13 July 2009, the European Commission received from the French Government, in accordance with Article 37 of the Euratom Treaty, General Data relating to the plan for the disposal of radioactive waste arising from the Conditioning and Storage Facility for Activated Waste ICEDA, located on the Bugey site in France.

On the basis of these data and following consultation with the Group of Experts, the Commission has drawn up the following opinion:

1. The distance between the ICEDA facility and the nearest border with another Member State, in this case Italy, is 117 km. Germany is the next nearest Member State at a distance of 266 km.
2. Under normal operating conditions, the discharges of gaseous effluents will not cause an exposure liable to affect the health of the population in another Member State.
3. Solid radioactive waste will temporarily be stored on site before being transferred to a treatment or storage facility authorised by the French Government.
4. In the event of unplanned releases of radioactive effluent which may follow an accident of the type and magnitude considered in the General Data, the doses received in another Member State will not be liable to affect the health of the population.

In conclusion, the Commission is of the opinion that the implementation of the plan for the disposal of radioactive waste in whatever form, arising from the Conditioning and Storage Facility for Activated Waste ICEDA, located on the Bugey site in France, both in normal operation and in the event of an accident of the type and magnitude considered in the General Data, is not liable to result in radioactive contamination of the water, soil or airspace of another Member State.

Done at Brussels, 14 January 2010.

Information communicated by Member States regarding State aid granted under Commission Regulation (EC) No 1857/2006 on the application of Articles 87 and 88 of the Treaty to State aid to small and medium-sized enterprises active in the production of agricultural products and amending Regulation (EC) No 70/2001

(2010/C 67/05)

Aid No: XA 254/09

Title of aid scheme or name of company receiving an individual aid: Regeling LNV-subsidies: onderdeel investeringssteun voor primaire landbouwondernemingen in technieken die leiden tot vermindering van de emissie van fijn stof

Objective of aid:

Legal basis:

Regeling LNV-subsidies: artikel 1:2, artikel 1:3, artikel 2:37, eerste lid, onderdeel d, bijlage 2 (hoofdstuk 5)

The scheme is aimed at enabling small and medium-sized agricultural holdings which exceed, or could exceed, the limit values set by the European Union for particulate matter (PM₁₀) to comply with those values by 11 June 2011. The scheme thus forms part of the National Air Quality Cooperation Programme (NSL). The NSL includes the measures that are required to ensure timely compliance with the air quality limit values laid down in Directive 2008/50/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 21 May 2008 on ambient air quality and cleaner air for Europe. This takes into account the postponement and exemption provided for in the European Commission Decision of 7 April 2009 (C(2009) 2560). This decision granted the Netherlands a derogation until 11 June 2011 as regards attainment of the limit values for particulate matter (PM₁₀). Under the derogation, the deadline for attaining the values is postponed and they will become binding on the Netherlands only on 11 June 2011. The period up to 11 June 2011 may therefore be regarded as a transitional period.

COUNCIL REGULATION (EC) No 510/2006'MARRONE DELLA VALLE DI SUSA'*EC No: IT-PGI-0005-0564-08.11.2006*PGI (X) PDO ()*1. Name:

'Marrone della Valle di Susa'

2. Member State or third country:

Italy

3. Description of the agricultural product or foodstuff:3.1. Type of product:

Class 1.6: Fruit, vegetables and cereals, fresh or processed

3.2. Description of the product to which the name in (1) applies:

The name 'Marrone della Valle di Susa' denotes the fruit obtained from five local ecotypes commonly referred to by the name of the municipality of origin, that is to say: Marrone di San Giorio di Susa, Marrone di Meana di Susa, Marrone di Sant'Antonino di Susa, Marrone di Bruzolo and Marrone di Villar Focchiardo. On release for consumption it must have the following characteristics: no more than three fruit per husk; ellipsoidal in shape, not very pronounced apex with presence of tomentum ending in style remnants that are also tomentose; tobacco-brown to reddish pericarp with 25-30 darker stripes; hazel/chamois-coloured epispem slightly invaginated and separating easily from the seed; elliptical to rectangular hilum scar of a size such that it does not extend over the sides, flat and lighter in colour than the pericarp, with residual pilosity at the edges; clearly visible medium to large star pattern; medium to large size with no more than 85 fruit per kilogram; seed, one per fruit, has white or creamy-white crunchy flesh with a pleasant, sweet taste, and virtually no surface grooves.

3.3. Raw materials (for processed products only):

3.4. Feed (for products of animal origin only):

3.5. Specific steps in production that must take place in the defined geographical area:

Harvesting, grading, cleaning, sizing and the 'curatura' soaking process must take place in the defined geographical area. Produce not placed on the market within 30 days of harvest undergoes 'curatura'. In order to maintain the keeping qualities of the chestnuts, this must be carried out exclusively by soaking in cold water at ambient temperature for two to eight days, or by soaking in hot water at 48 °C for 50 minutes and then keeping in cold water for another 50 minutes. This process does not harm the typical characteristics of the product.

3.6. Specific rules concerning slicing, grating, packaging, etc.:

'Marrone della Valle di Susa' must be released for consumption in one of the following forms: produce packed in net bags of 1, 2, 2,5, 3 and 10 kg and in hermetically sealed bags of 5, 10, 25 and 50 kg. The fresh product can be released for consumption from 25 September of the year of production.

3.7. Specific rules concerning labelling:

When the packaging is closed a label must be affixed containing a logo with the Protected Geographical Indication 'Marrone della Valle di Susa' in clear and indelible lettering easily distinguishable from any other wording. Details of the name, business name and address of the packager, the year of production and the original gross weight may be given.

The PGI logo shows a bag full of chestnuts tipped over forwards, open at the end, from which chestnuts are pouring out.

4. Concise definition of the geographical area:

The geographical area comprises all the municipalities of the Susa Valley in which the Susa Valley chestnut is traditionally grown. That area is made up of all the municipalities whose altitude, exposure and average annual temperatures enable the chestnut to be grown. The production area of 'Marrone della Valle di Susa' covers the entire territory of the following municipalities in the Province of Turin: Almese, Avigliana, Borgone Susa, Bruzolo, Bussoleno, Caprie, Chianocco, Chiomonte, Chiusa San Michele, Condove, Exilles, Giaglione, Gravere, Mattie, Meana di Susa, Mompantero, Novalesa, Rubiana, Salbertrand, San Didero, San Giorio di Susa, Sant'Ambrogio di Torino, Sant'Antonino di Susa, Susa, Vaie, Venaus, Villar Dora, Villar Focchiardo.

5. Link with the geographical area:

5.1. Specificity of the geographical area:

The richness of the soils in sand and gravel, the orientation of the rock strata in the slope direction and the gradient influence the hydrological balance of the Susa Valley and hence the chestnut trees as well. The climate trend is characterised by not very high precipitation owing to the position of the Valley, wedged in between the Sangone and Lanzo Valleys and with the Orsiera massif to the south which impedes the influx of moist air masses from the Mediterranean. With these geological and pedological characteristics of the Susa Valley region the chestnut is able to grow in the best conditions so that the plants grow vigorously, giving the fruit its typical organoleptic qualities.

5.2. Specificity of the product:

The specific characteristics of the product are the colour and crunchiness of its flesh, its sweet and perfumed taste and its medium to large size. These characteristics make 'Marrone della Valle di Susa' a product which has always been much appreciated on domestic and foreign markets.

5.3. Causal link between the geographical area and the quality or characteristics of the product (for PDO) or a specific quality, the reputation or other characteristic of the product (for PGI):

The granting of the Protected Geographical Indication is requested for 'Marrone della Valle di Susa' above all for the undeniable reputation this product has enjoyed for centuries. In the Susa Valley, there are detailed records of chestnut cultivation going back as far as 1200.

Worthy of mention is the 'Castagneretum di Templaris', between the municipalities of Villar Focchiardo and San Giorio di Susa, which belongs to the Order of the Knights Templar and where the most ancient stumps still exist today. In the Middle Ages, the chestnut had a fundamental role in the local economy because the chestnut harvest guaranteed well-paid work and ensured an invaluable source of food.

Cultivation then spread through promotion by monastic bodies which set up extensive chestnut woods throughout the Susa Valley using the local ecotypes and which even today produce a much-prized chestnut that is greatly in demand, suitable for fresh consumption and the production of marrons glacés.

There are numerous documents attesting to the historical authenticity of 'Marrone della Valle di Susa' and many product orders from well-known Italian and foreign processing firms. The oldest orders date back to the end of the 19th century.

A number of articles in technical journals and local weeklies have been devoted to the 'Marrone della Valle di Susa'. The 'Marrone della Valle di Susa' is included in the 'Paniere dei Prodotti Tipici della Provincia di Torino' (Basket of Typical Produce of the Province of Turin).

Furthermore, for the last 40 years the 'Marrone della Valle di Susa' has been the star attraction of a very successful festival which currently boasts some 50 000 visitors.

Reference to publication of the specification:

This Ministry launched the national objection procedure with the publication of the proposal for the grant of 'Marrone della Val di Susa' as a protected geographical indication in Official Gazette of the Italian Republic No 28 of 3 February 2006.

In accordance with Council Regulation (EC) No 920/2005, published in Official Journal L 156 of 18 June 2005, the institutions of the European Union are temporarily not bound by the obligation to draft all acts in Irish and publish them in that language. Irish editions of the Official Journal are therefore sold separately.

Subscriptions to the Supplement to the Official Journal (S Series — tendering procedures for public contracts) cover all 23 official language versions on a single multilingual CD-ROM.

On request, subscribers to the Official Journal of the European Union can receive the various Annexes to the Official Journal. Subscribers are informed of the publication of Annexes by notices inserted in the Official Journal of the European Union.

CD-Rom formats will be replaced by DVD formats during 2010.
