NOTICE OF OPEN COMPETITIONS

EPSO/AD/188/10 (AD 5) and EPSO/AD/189/10 (AD 7)

(2010/C 196 A/01)

The European Personnel Selection Office (EPSO) is organising open competitions, based on tests, to constitute a reserve from which to recruit conference interpreters (*).

EPSO/AD/188/10 (grade AD 5) and EPSO/AD/189/10 (grade AD 7)

- INTERPRETERS for BULGARIAN (BG)
- ENGLISH-LANGUAGE (EN) INTERPRETERS
- DUTCH-LANGUAGE (NL) INTERPRETERS
- INTERPRETERS for ROMANIAN (RO)
- INTERPRETERS for SLOVENIAN (SL)

The purpose of these competitions is to draw up reserve lists from which to fill vacant posts in the institutions of the European Union, in particular Parliament, the Commission and the Court of Justice.

Before applying, you should read carefully the guide published in Official Journal C 184 A of 8 July 2010 and on the EPSO website.

This guide is an integral part of the competition notice and will help you to understand the rules governing the procedure and how to apply.

I. GENERAL BACKGROUND

1. Number of successful candidates	EPSO/AD/188/10 (grade AD 5) — EPSO/AD/189/10 (grade AD 7)
	49	49
2. Remarks	Each competition includes several languages and several options. You may apply for only one competition, one language and one option. You must make your choice when you apply on-line and you will not be able to change it after your on-line application form has been confirmed and validated. However, where a candidate does not have the required qualifications for the AD 7 competition but satisfies the eligibility requirements for the AD 5 competition, the selection board may, with the candidate's consent, reassign the application to the AD 5 competition. Similarly, where a candidate admitted to the AD 7 competition fails the interpretation tests in one of the three languages, but fulfils the requirements for passing the AD 5 competition, the selection board may offer to enter that candidate's name on the reserve list for the latter. Such reassignment, in order of merit, will be possible only in so far as there are available places on the reserve list for that competition.

II. DUTIES

The job of interpreter calls for exceptional adaptability (frequent meetings and irregular hours) and the ability to grasp varied and often complex issues, to react swiftly to changing circumstances and to communicate effectively. You must be able to work frequently under pressure, both independently and as part of a team, and to adjust to a multicultural working environment. You will be expected to upgrade your professional skills — including technology — throughout your career. You may be asked to expand your language combination to meet the needs of the service <sup>(1)</sup>.

The main duty of a conference interpreter is to ensure that the discussions held at various meetings are correctly interpreted into an official language of the European Union. This can entail either simultaneous or consecutive interpreting. Interpreters will be expected to study both the subject matter of meetings and terminology lists in advance.

Interpreters may also be required to evaluate the work of Auxiliary Conference Interpreters (freelancers) and to carry out administrative duties associated with interpreting.

Working as a conference interpreter can involve frequent travel, except in the case of interpreters at the Court of Justice, who work primarily in Luxembourg.

More information on the European Community's interpreting services can be found at:

http://europa.eu/interpretation/index\_en.htm

III. ELIGIBILITY

On the closing date for on-line applications, you must fulfil all the following general and specific conditions:

1. General conditions

- You must be a citizen of one of the Member States of the European Union.
- You must enjoy your full rights as a citizen.
- You must have fulfilled any obligations imposed on you by the laws on military service.
- You must meet the character requirements for the duties involved.

<sup>(1)</sup> For successful candidates recruited by the European Parliament, this will be considered a duty of service.

2. Specific conditions

Note: Experience as a court interpreter, liaison interpreter, company interpreter or interpreter for social or other public services will not be considered experience as a conference interpreter.

2.1	Qualifications
Either (a)	You must have successfully completed a full course of training as a conference interpreter equivalent to four years of studies at university level and obtained the relevant qualification.
or (b)	You must have a level of education which corresponds to full university studies of at least three years attested by a diploma AND completed training as a conference interpreter attested by a certificate or other proof of success.
or (c)	You must have a level of education which corresponds to full university studies of at least three years attested by a diploma AND one year's professional experience as a conference interpreter, evidenced by documents clearly indicating the number of days worked as a conference interpreter.
2.2	Professional experience
	Grade AD 5 No professional experience is required unless you are applying under III.2.1.(c), in which case the experience must have been gained since you obtained the first qualification required under that heading.
	Grade AD 7 You must have at least four years' graduate-level professional experience gained since obtaining your first degree or diploma. Such professional experience must include at least 100 days of conference interpreting since the date when the condition set out in III.2.1(a), (b) or (c) was fulfilled. These four years must be additional to both the training as a conference interpreter evidenced by the relevant qualification and the one year of experience working as a conference interpreter required under III.2.1(b) or (c) above.
2.3	Knowledge of languages The official languages of the European Union are: <table><tr><td>BG (Bulgarian)</td><td>FI (Finnish)</td><td>NL (Dutch)</td></tr><tr><td>CS (Czech)</td><td>FR (French)</td><td>PL (Polish)</td></tr><tr><td>DA (Danish)</td><td>GA (Irish)</td><td>PT (Portuguese)</td></tr><tr><td>DE (German)</td><td>HU (Hungarian)</td><td>RO (Romanian)</td></tr><tr><td>EL (Greek)</td><td>IT (Italian)</td><td>SK (Slovak)</td></tr><tr><td>EN (English)</td><td>LT (Lithuanian)</td><td>SL (Slovenian)</td></tr><tr><td>ES (Spanish)</td><td>LV (Latvian)</td><td>SV (Swedish)</td></tr><tr><td>ET (Estonian)</td><td>MT (Maltese)</td><td></td></tr></table> For recruitment to the Court of Justice, an understanding of written French is required. Your knowledge of languages must be proven by supporting documents, which should be attached to your full application. If you have no such supporting documents, you should explain in detail, on a separate sheet, how you acquired such knowledge. 'Language combination' means the languages used by conference interpreters in their work. Working languages are either 'active' or 'passive' languages, and are defined below as 'A', 'B' or 'C' languages. Active languages Language 'A' or 'A*': Your main language (mother tongue or an exact equivalent), of which you have a perfect command and into which you work from all your working languages, both simultaneously and consecutively. Language 'B': Although not your main language, a language of which you have a full command and into which you interpret from language A, either simultaneously or consecutively. Passive languages Language 'C': Language from which you interpret and which you understand fully. Note Please note that your general competencies will be tested at the assessment centre in English (EN), French (FR) or German (DE); the language chosen must be different from active language A or A*.
