3. Statements by the President

The President stated that the previous week Turkey had once again been struck by an earthquake. He expressed Parliament's solidarity with the country.

Monday 14 November 2011

The President mentioned the floods that had hit southern France and Italy the previous week. He expressed Parliament's solidarity with the families of the victims and with those affected by the flooding.

The President pointed out that he had visited Libya at the end of October, meeting Libya's President, ministers and civil society representatives. Talks had focused on democratisation and building up a market economy. The President reported that he had also visited Tunisia, meeting the Chairman of the Central Bank, the Prime Minister and the leaders of the four main political parties. Talks had focused on the establishment of the rule of law in a society that was open to all. The President also mentioned recent trips he had made to the western Balkans.

The President emphasised the importance of Wednesday's key debate on economic governance, at which the President of the European Council, the President of the Commission, and the President of the Euro Group would be making statements.

The President pointed out that, that day, the session of the EuroMed Scola Youth Parliament, involving young people from 40 countries, had closed.

The President invited MEPs to take part in a human rights conference that would be held at Parliament on 23 November 2011. It would be a high-level event involving 12 Sakharov Prize winners.

On behalf of Parliament, the President paid tribute to former MEP Willy De Clercq, who had also been a European Commissioner and Deputy Prime Minister of Belgium. The House observed a minute's silence.

In accordance with Council Regulation (EC) No 920/2005, published in Official Journal L 156 of 18 June 2005, the institutions of the European Union are temporarily not bound by the obligation to draft all acts in Irish and publish them in that language.
