3. Composition of Parliament

The Maltese authorities had announced the election to the European Parliament of Claudette Abela Baldacchino to replace Louis Grech, Marlene Mizzi to replace Edward Scicluna, and Roberta Metsola to replace Simon Busuttil.

In accordance with Article 7(1) of the Act of 20 September 1976 concerning the election of the Members of the European Parliament by direct universal suffrage, and with Rule 4(1) and (4) of its Rules of Procedure, Parliament noted the election of Claudette Abela Baldacchino, Marlene Mizzi and Roberta Metsola as Members of the European Parliament, with effect from 25 April 2013.

Under Rule 3(2), until such time as their credentials had been verified or a ruling had been given on any dispute, and provided that they had previously made a written declaration stating that they did not hold any office incompatible with that of Member of the European Parliament, Claudette Abela Baldacchino, Marlene Mizzi and Roberta Metsola would take their seats in Parliament and on its bodies and would enjoy all the rights attaching thereto.

Monday 20 May 2013

The Italian authorities had announced the election of Debora Serracchiani as President of the Friuli-Venezia Giulia Region, and the election to the European Parliament of Franco Frigo to replace her, with effect from 7 May 2013.

In accordance with Article 7(1) of the Act of 20 September 1976 concerning the election of the Members of the European Parliament by direct universal suffrage, and with Rule 4(1) and (4) of its Rules of Procedure, Parliament established the vacancy of Debora Serracchiani's seat, and noted the election of Franco Frigo as a Member of the European Parliament from that date.

Under Rule 3(2), until such time as his credentials had been verified or a ruling had been given on any dispute, and provided that he had previously made a written declaration stating that he did not hold any office incompatible with that of Member of the European Parliament, Franco Frigo would take his seat in Parliament and on its bodies and would enjoy all the rights attaching thereto.

4. Interpretation of the Rules of Procedure

The President informed the House, under Rule 211(3), of the following interpretation of Rule 156(6), provided by the Committee on Constitutional Affairs, which had been consulted on the application of that provision:

'On a proposal from the President, an oral amendment, or any other oral modification, shall be treated in the same way as an amendment not distributed in all the official languages. If the President considers it admissible under Rule 157(3), and save in the case of objection under Rule 156(6), it shall be put to the vote in accordance with the order of voting established.

'In committee, the number of votes needed to object to such an amendment or such a modification is established on the basis of Rule 196 proportionally to that applicable in plenary, rounded up where necessary to the nearest complete number.'

If this interpretation was not contested by a political group or by at least 40 Members, in accordance with Rule 211(4), before the opening of the following day's sitting, Tuesday 21 May 2013., it would be deemed to have been adopted. Otherwise, the matter would be put to the vote in Parliament.

5. Composition of committees and delegations

The President had received the following requests for appointments from the PPE Group:

- Committee on Civil Liberties, Justice and Home Affairs: Roberta Metsola
- Special Committee on Organised Crime, Corruption and Money Laundering: Roberta Metsola

The appointments would be deemed ratified if there were no objections before the approval of these minutes.

Pursuant to Rule 216(4), this corrigendum would be deemed approved unless, within 24 hours, a request was made by a political group or at least 40 Members that it be put to the vote.

Renate Weber had moved the following oral amendment to paragraph 24:

- '24. Emphasises the need to promote ethical journalism in media; calls upon the European Commission to propose an instrument (e.g. by means of a recommendation such as the recommendation of 20 December 2006 on the protection of minors and human dignity and on the right of reply in relation to the competitiveness of the European audiovisual and online information services industry) to ensure that the Member States invite the media sector to develop professional standards and ethical codes which include the obligation to indicate a difference between facts and opinions in reporting, the necessity of accuracy, impartiality and objectivity, respect for people's privacy, the duty to correct misinformation and the right of reply; this framework should foresee the establishment by the media sector of an independent media regulatory authority – operating independently from political or other external interference – that can treat complaints about the press based on the professional standards and ethical codes, and that has the authority to take appropriate sanctions;'

PPE: Final vote

Requests for separate votes

ECR: §§ 11 and 13

Miscellaneous

Johannes Cornelis Van Baalen had withdrawn his signature from motion for a resolution B7-0248/2013.

Christian Dan Preda moved the following oral amendment to Recital K:

‘whereas since 16 April 2012 Ms Ingabire had been boycotting her trial in protest at the intimidation and illegal interrogation procedures used against some of her co-accused, namely former FLDR members Lieutenant-Colonel Tharcisse Nditurende, Lt Colonel Noël Habiaremye, Captain Jean Marie Vianney Karuta and Major Vital Uwumuremyi, as well as against the Court’s decision to shorten the hearing of a defence witness Michel Habimana, who accuses the Rwandan authorities of fabricating evidence; whereas these circumstances have not been confirmed by the Rwandan authorities;’
