

C/2025/5222

6.10.2025

Action brought on 15 August 2025 – Mowi Poland v Commission

(Case T-567/25)

(C/2025/5222)

Language of the case: Polish

Parties

Applicant: Mowi Poland S.A. (Ustka, Poland) (represented by: Z. Kiedacz and K. Puchalska, lawyers)

Defendant: European Commission

Form of order sought

The applicant claims that the Court should:

- annul the implied decision of the European Commission of 5 June 2025, issued in the cases examined by the Commission under the reference numbers 2024/6996, 2024/6997 and 2025/0528 and rejecting MOWI Poland S.A.'s application, made on the basis of Regulation No 1049/2001, for access to public documents;
- order the Commission to pay the costs.

Pleas in law and main arguments

In support of the action, the applicant relies on two pleas in law.

1. First plea in law, alleging infringement, by the Commission, of Article 15(3) TFEU, read in conjunction with Articles 1 and 2 of Regulation No 1049/2001. ⁽¹⁾
2. Second plea in law, alleging failure, by the Commission, to fulfil its obligation to state reasons. As can be seen from the second paragraph of Article 296 TFEU, legal acts adopted by the EU institutions are subject to the obligation to state reasons. The statement of reasons must be appropriate to the measure at issue and must disclose in a clear and unequivocal fashion the reasoning followed by the institution which adopted that measure. In a situation where the Commission has issued an implied negative decision for the purposes of Article 8(3) of Regulation No 1049/2001, the decision is not accompanied by any statement of reasons, which is manifestly in breach of the obligation to state reasons.
