

Notice of the impending expiry of certain anti-dumping measures

(92/C 50/02)

1. The Commission gives notice that, unless a review is initiated in accordance with the following procedure, the anti-dumping measures mentioned below will lapse within the next six months as provided in Article 15 of Council Regulation (EEC) No 2423/88 of 11 July 1988 <sup>(1)</sup> on protection against dumped imports from countries not members of the European Economic Community.

2. Procedure

An interested party may lodge a written request for a review. This request must contain sufficient evidence that the expiry of the measures would lead again to injury or threat of injury. Furthermore, interested parties may make their views known in writing and may apply to be heard orally by the Commission provided that they consider that they are likely to be affected by the result of the proceeding and that there are particular reasons why they should be heard.

3. Time limit

Requests for a review by an interested party and any requests for hearings should be sent in writing to reach the Commission of the European Communities, Directorate-General for External Relations (Division I-C-2), rue de la Loi 200, B-1049 Brussels <sup>(2)</sup> not later than 30 days following the publication of this notice.

If a request for a review is not received in adequate form within the time limit specified above, the Community authorities may disregard the request and the measures concerned will automatically lapse in accordance with Article 15 (1) of the aforementioned Regulation.

4. Where the Commission intends to carry out a review of the measures, a notice to that effect will be published in the Official Journal of the European Communities prior to the end of the relevant five-year period. The measures remain in force pending the outcome of the review.

5. This notice is published in accordance with Article 15 (2) of the abovementioned Regulation.
