COUNCIL REGULATION (EC) No 3281/94

of 19 December 1994

applying a four-year scheme of generalized tariff preferences (1995 to 1998) in respect of certain industrial products originating in developing countries

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Community, and in particular Article 113,

Having regard to the proposal from the Commission (1),

Having regard to the opinion of the European Parliament (2),

Having regard to the opinion of the Economic and Social Committee (3),

Whereas, in accordance with its offer made in the context of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (Unctad), the European Community opened generalized tariff preferences commencing in 1971 in respect, inter alia, of finished and semi-finished industrial products from developing countries; whereas the initial ten-year period of application of such preferences ended on 31 December 1980 and a second ten-year period ended on 31 December 1990, though the scheme has been kept in being unchanged until now;

Whereas the positive role played by this system in the past in improving access for the developing countries to the markets of preference-giving countries is accepted and justifies its continued existence for a time, in step with other priority measures, including the multilateral liberalization of trade;

Whereas in communications to the Council dated 6 July 1990 and 1 June 1994 the Commission set out its recommendations for a further ten-year period of application of its scheme of generalized preferences;

Whereas preferential imports have grown substantially since the previous decade, but the distribution of gains is still uneven despite the adoption of a policy of differentiation in the 1980s;

Whereas the Treaty on European Union has lent a fresh impetus to Community development policy as an aspect of the Union's foreign policy, with priority given to the sustainable economic and social development of the developing countries and their smooth and gradual integration into the world economy;

Whereas the Community scheme of generalized preferences should accordingly become more development-oriented, focusing on the countries which have most need of it, i. e. the poorest countries; whereas the scheme should be complementary to GATT instruments and should foster the integration of developing countries into the world economy and the multilateral trading system; whereas the giving of preferences should therefore be seen as a transitional measure, to be used at need and phased out when the need is considered no longer to exist;

Whereas the new offer aims at a level of liberalization which is neutral overall compared with the existing scheme as regards the impact of the preferential margin on the potential volume of preferential trade without special incentive arrangements;

Whereas the new offer must also take account of certain sectors or products which are sensitive for Community industry; whereas sensitive sectors should be protected against import surges solely by a dual mechanism

(2) OJ No C 341, 5. 12. 1994.

(3) Opinion delivered on 11 October 1994 (not yet published in the Official Journal).

involving a modulation of preferential tariff margins coupled with an emergency safeguard clause; whereas this system will replace the machinery of fixed duty-free amounts and ceilings;

Whereas in order to improve access to the Community market and increase the actual take-up of preferences by moderately-developed or less-developed countries, a system of graduation should be used to transfer preferential margins gradually from advanced to less-developed countries;

Whereas graduation should be applied sensibly and gradually, by country and sector;

Whereas sector/country graduation combines a development criterion, expressed as a development index reflecting a country's per capita income and the level of its manufactured exports as compared with those of the Community, with a measurement of relative industrial specialization expressed as a specialization index based on the ratio of the beneficiary country's share of total Community imports in general to its share of total Community imports in a given sector; whereas combined application of these two criteria should make it possible to adjust the crude results of the specialization index, in terms of the sectors to be excluded, in line with the level of development;

Whereas the sector/country graduation system should also be applied to beneficiary countries whose exports of products covered by the generalized system of preferences (GSP) in a given sector exceed 25 % of beneficiaries' exports of those products in that sector, irrespective of their level of development;

Whereas the graduation mechanism does not apply to countries whose exports to the Community of products covered by the GSP in a given sector do not exceed 2 % of beneficiary countries' exports to the Community in that sector;

Whereas the statistical reference year for applying graduation criteria shall be 1992 in so far as it is available when at the time the Commission proposal is drawn up;

Whereas it seems equitable for the most advanced beneficiary countries to be excluded from entitlement under this Regulation as from 1 January 1998 on the basis of clearly defined, objective criteria for which the Commission will make appropriate proposals before 1 January 1997;

Whereas countries undertaking effective programmes to combat drug production and trafficking should, however, remain entitled to the more favourable arrangements granted them under the previous scheme; whereas the countries concerned, plus Venezuela, will therefore continue to enjoy duty-free access provided that they continue their efforts to combat drugs;

Whereas provision should also be made for special types of assistance additional to the general preferential scheme, aimed at supporting the introduction of forward-looking social or environmental policies in certain moderately-advanced developing countries;

Whereas beneficiary countries which so desire and which still do not have the means of meeting the costs may be encouraged to introduce effective policies for the protection of workers' rights, with particular regard to the right to organize and prohibition of child labour; whereas special incentive arrangements may therefore also be established for products manufactured in conditions conforming to standards laid down by the International Labour Organization (ILO) in countries whose legislation contains rules of similar scope and substance which are actually applied;

Whereas beneficiary countries may also be encouraged to undertake effective environmental protection policies, by means of incentives for products and production methods internationally approved as consistent with the objectives set out in international conventions on the environment and in Agenda 21; whereas to that end special incentive arrangements may initially be introduced for tropical wood products from forests which are sustainably managed in conformity with International Tropical Timber Organization (ITTO) standards;

Whereas the special incentive arrangements take the form of an additional preferential margin for the bringing into force of which the intensity and modalities will be decided upon by the Council in 1997, acting on a proposal from the Commission and on the basis of an examination of the results of discussions held in international fora on the relationships between trade and labour rights and between trade and the environment;

Whereas in certain circumstances it might be appropriate to withdraw temporarily some or all of a country's preferential entitlement; whereas this may also apply to any form of forced labour, exports of goods made by prison labour, inadequate controls on export or transit of drugs or money laundering, discriminatory treatment against the Community in the legislation of the beneficiary countries or failure to apply administrative methods of cooperation which would enable the scheme to function properly; whereas the same also applies in the case of failure to comply with obligation entered into in the Uruguay Round to meet agreed market-access objectives;

Whereas temporary withdrawal of entitlement would be the culmination of a procedure enabling all interested parties to make known their point of view;

Whereas at the end of such a procedure the decision on temporary withdrawal as defined above should be taken having regard to the context of relations with the beneficiary country in question as a whole; whereas Community interests might therefore be better served in certain instances if the matter, which is likely to include aspects other than trade-related aspects, is examined within the Council; whereas the Council should therefore retain decision-making powers with regard to withdrawal of entitlement in whole or in part;

Whereas it would be illogical to accord preferences in respect of products subject to anti-dumping or anti-subsidy measures, where such measures fail to reflect the impact of the preferential arrangements;

Whereas the preferential rates of duty to be applied under this Regulation should be calculated, as a general rule, from the conventional rate of duty of the Common Customs Tariff for the products concerned; whereas they should however be calculated from the autonomous rate of duty where, for the products concerned, no conventional rate is provided or where the autonomous rate is lower than the conventional rate,

HAS ADOPTED THIS REGULATION:

Article 1

1. A Community scheme of generalized tariff preferences, comprising general arrangements and special incentive arrangements, is hereby established for the period 1 January 1995 to 31 December 1998, to apply in accordance with the conditions and arrangements prescribed by this Regulation.

2. This Regulation shall apply to products falling within Chapters 25 to 97 of the Common Customs Tariff listed in Annex I. It shall not apply to the products listed in Annex IX.

3. Access to the arrangements referred to in paragraph 1 shall be restricted to the countries and territories listed in Annex III.

4. In order to be admitted under one of the preferential arrangements established by this Regulation, products must comply with a definition of origin adopted in accordance with the procedure laid down in Article 249 of Council Regulation (EEC) No 2913/92 establishing the Community Customs Code <sup>(1)</sup>.

TITLE I

General arrangements

Article 2

1. The preferential duty applicable to products listed in Part 1 of Annex I shall be 85 % of the Common Customs Tariff duty applicable to the product concerned, without prejudice to Articles 7 and 8 of this Regulation.

2. The preferential duty applicable to products listed in Part 2 of Annex I shall be 70 % of the Common Customs Tariff duty applicable to the product concerned, without prejudice to Articles 7 and 8 of this Regulation.

3. The preferential duty applicable to products listed in Part 3 of Annex I shall be 35 % of the Common Customs Tariff duty applicable to the product concerned, without prejudice to Articles 7 and 8 of this Regulation.

4. Common Customs Tariff duties shall be suspended in their entirety on products listed in Part 4 of Annex I.

Article 3

1. Common Customs Tariff duties shall be suspended in their entirety on products covered by this scheme for the least developed countries listed in Annex IV.

2. They shall also be suspended in their entirety for those countries listed in Annex V which are conducting a campaign to combat drugs, without prejudice to the procedure described in Article 18 (3).

Article 4

1. A graduation mechanism shall be set up.

2. The graduation mechanism shall be applicable to the countries and sectors listed in Part 1 of Annex II which meet the criteria laid down in Part 2 of Annex II.

3. Without prejudice to Articles 5 to 8, the preferential margin obtained by applying Article 2 to imports of products originating in the countries and falling within the sectors referred to in paragraph 2 above, shall be reduced as follows:

- as regards the countries listed in Annex VII, the preferential margin shall be reduced by 50 % from 1 April 1995 and abolished from 1 January 1996,
- as regards countries not listed in Annex VII, the preferential margin shall be reduced by 50 % from 1 January 1997 and abolished from 1 January 1998.

4. Products coming under the ECSC Treaty shall remain excluded from the preferential arrangements in the case of countries which did not qualify in 1994.

Article 5

1. The graduation mechanism shall also apply to countries whose exports to the Community of products covered by the scheme in a given sector exceed 25 % of beneficiary countries' exports to the Community in that sector. The preferential margin for those countries and sectors obtained by applying Article 2 shall be abolished as from 1 January 1996.

2. The graduation mechanism shall not apply to countries whose exports to the Community of products covered by the scheme in a given sector do not exceed 2 % of beneficiary countries' exports to the Community in that sector.

3. Abolition of the preferential margin shall take immediate effect in the event of the phased implementation of the graduation mechanism resulting in certain countries being granted a much more favourable level of access in respect of certain products than the arrangements applicable in 1993. This is the case where the fixed zero duty applicable in 1993 to products originating in countries covered by the graduation mechanism represented less than 1 %, and for products in Part 1 of Annex I less than 0,5 %, of total exports of that product originating in the same country (Part 1 of Annex VI), or where products originating in countries covered by the graduation mechanism were not entitled to preferences in 1993 (Part 2 of Annex VI). This paragraph shall be applicable to the products listed in columns 2 and 3 of Annex VI originating in the countries listed in column 1 of that Annex.

4. Council Regulation No 1291/94 shall be extended until 31 December 1995.

Article 6

The most advanced beneficiary countries shall be excluded from entitlement under this Regulation as from 1 January 1998 on the basis of objective, clearly defined criteria for which the Commission shall submit appropriate proposals before 1 January 1997.

TITLE II

Special incentive arrangement

Article 7

1. As from 1 January 1998 special incentive arrangements in the form of additional preferences may be granted to beneficiary countries covered by the scheme which request such arrangements in writing and provide proof that they have adopted and actually apply domestic legal provisions incorporating the substance of the standards laid down in International Labour Organization Conventions Nos 87 and 98 concerning freedom of association and protection of the right to organize and the application of the principles of the right to organize and to bargain collectively and Convention No 138 concerning minimum age for admission to employment.

2. To that end the Council shall in 1997 carry out a review based on a Commission report on the results of the studies carried out in international fora such as the ILO, World Trade Organization (WTO) and Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD) on the relationship between trade and labour rights.

3. In the light of that review and on the basis of internationally accepted, objective and operational criteria, the Commission shall submit a proposal for a Council decision on the intensity of the special incentive arrangements referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article and the modalities for implementing them.

Article 8

1. As from 1 January 1998 special incentive arrangements in the form of additional preferences may be granted to beneficiary countries covered by the scheme which request such arrangements in writing and provide proof that they have adopted and actually apply domestic legal provisions incorporating the substance of the standards laid down by the ITTO relating to the sustainable management of forests.

2. To that end the Council shall in 1997 carry out a review based on a Commission report on the results of the studies carried out in international fora such as the ILO, WTO and OECD on the relationship between trade and the environment.

3. In the light of that review and on the basis of internationally accepted, objective and operational criteria, the Commission shall submit a proposal for a Council decision on the intensity of the special incentive arrangements referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article and the detailed procedures for implementing them.

TITLE III

Article 11

Temporary withdrawal, in whole or in part, of the scheme of generalized preferences

Article 9

1. The arrangements provided for by this Regulation may at any time be temporarily withdrawn in whole or in part, in the following circumstances:

- practice of any form of forced labour as defined in the Geneva Conventions of 25 September 1926 and 7 September 1956 and International Labour Organization Conventions Nos 29 and 105,
- export of goods made by prison labour,
- manifest shortcomings in customs controls on export or transit of drugs (illicit substances or precursors), or failure to comply with international conventions on money laundering;
- fraud or failure to provide administrative cooperation as required for the verification of certificates of origin Form A,
- manifest cases of unfair trading practices on the part of a beneficiary country, including discrimination against the Community and failure to comply with obligations under the Uruguay Round to meet agreed market-access objectives.

2. Temporary withdrawal shall not be automatic, but shall follow the procedural requirements laid down in the following Articles, including Article 12 (3).

Article 10

1. The circumstances referred to in Article 9 which might make it necessary to resort to temporary withdrawal of preferences shall be brought to the Commission's attention by the Member States, or by any natural or legal persons, or associations not endowed with legal personality, which can show an interest in such withdrawal. The Commission shall communicate the information immediately to all Member States.

2. Consultations may be initiated either at the request of a Member State or at the Commission's request. They shall take place within eight working days of receipt by the Commission of the information referred to in paragraph 1 and in any event before adoption of any Community measures withdrawing preferences.

3. The consultations shall take place in the Committee referred to in Article 17, which shall be convened by its chairman, who shall communicate all pertinent information to the Member States as soon as possible.

4. The consultations shall be concerned inter alia with analysis of the circumstances referred to in Article 9 and the measures to be taken.

1. Where the Commission finds, following the consultations, that there is sufficient evidence to justify initiation of an investigation, it shall:

- (a) announce the initiation of an investigation in the Official Journal of the European Communities and notify the country concerned thereof; such announcement shall give a summary of the information received and state that all relevant information is to be communicated to the Commission, indicating the period within which interested parties may make known their views in writing;
- (b) commence the investigation, lasting at least one year, in cooperation with the Member States and in consultation with the Committee provided for in Article 17. The duration of the investigation may be extended if need be under the same procedure.

2. The Commission shall seek all information it deems to be necessary and shall, where it considers this appropriate, after consulting the Committee referred to in Article 17, verify the information with economic operators and the competent authorities of the beneficiary country concerned. For this purpose the Commission may dispatch its own experts to establish on the spot the truth of the allegations made by the person referred to in Article 10 (1). The Commission shall provide the competent authorities of the beneficiary country concerned every opportunity to cooperate as necessary in the conduct of these enquiries.

3. The Commission may also be assisted by officials of the Member State on whose territory verification might be sought if the said Member State so requests.

4. The Commission may hear the interested parties. It shall so hear them if they have, within the period prescribed in the notice published in the Official Journal of the European Communities, made a written request for a hearing showing that they are likely to be affected by the result of the investigation and that there are particular reasons why they should be heard orally.

5. Where information requested by the Commission is not provided within a reasonable period or the investigation is significantly impeded, findings may be made on the basis of the facts available.

Article 12

1. When the investigation is complete the Commission shall report the findings to the Committee referred to in Article 17.

2. If the Commission considers temporary withdrawal of preference to be unnecessary it shall publish in the Official Journal of the European Communities, after consulting the Committee, a notice of termination of the investigation setting out its main conclusions.

3. If the Commission considers temporary withdrawal of preference to be necessary, it shall submit an appropriate proposal to the Council, which shall decide on it by a qualified majority.

Article 13

Preference shall be granted to products which are subject to anti-dumping or anti-subsidy measures under Council Regulation (EEC) No 2423/88 of 11 July 1988, as amended, unless it can be shown that those duties were based on the injury caused and on prices which did not reflect the preferential tariff arrangements granted to the country concerned. To that end the Commission shall publish in the Official Journal of the European Communities a list of products and countries to which preference is not granted.

Article 14

1. Where a product originating in one of the countries or territories listed in Annex III is imported on terms which cause or threaten to cause serious difficulties to a Community producer of like or directly competing products, Common Customs Tariff duties on that product may be reintroduced at any time at the request of a Member State or on the Commission's own initiative.

2. The Commission shall announce the opening of an investigation in the Official Journal of the European Communities. The announcement shall provide a summary of the information received and state any useful information should be communicated to the Commission; it shall specify the time limit within which interested parties may make their views known in writing.

3. In examining the possible existence of serious difficulties, the Commission shall take account inter alia of the factors listed in Annex VIII where the information is available.

4. The Commission shall take the decisions referred to above within 30 working days following consultation of the Committee set up under Article 17. A Member State may refer the Commission's decision to the Council within 10 days. The Council, acting by a qualified majority, shall have 30 days within which to adopt a different decision.

5. The beneficiary countries concerned shall be informed of such measures before the said measures become effective.

6. Where exceptional circumstances requiring immediate action make either notification or examination impossible, the Commission may, after so informing the Member States, implement any preventive measure which is strictly necessary and which satisfies the conditions laid down in paragraph 1 to deal with the situation.

7. Nothing in the preceding paragraphs shall affect the application of safeguard clauses adopted as part of the common agricultural policy under Article 43 of the Treaty, or as part of the common commercial policy under Article 113 of the Treaty, or any other safeguard clauses which may be applied.

TITLE IV

Common provisions

Article 15

1. Subject to paragraph 2, rates of preferential duty calculated in accordance with this Regulation shall be rounded up or down to the first decimal place.

2. Where the application of paragraph 1 results in a rate of preferential duty of 0,5 % or less, the preferential rate shall be considered a full exemption.

3. Changes to Annex I or Annex II made necessary by amendments to the combined nomenclature shall be adopted in accordance with the procedure laid down in Article 19.

Article 16

1. Within six weeks of the end of each quarter the Member States shall send the Statistical Office of the European Communities their statistical data on goods admitted for free circulation during that quarter under the tariff preferences provided for in this Regulation. The said data, supplied by reference to combined nomenclature codes and, where applicable, Taric codes, shall show values, quantities and any supplementary units required in accordance with the definitions in Regulations (EEC) No 1736/75 <sup>(1)</sup> and (EEC) No 3367/87 <sup>(2)</sup>, broken down by country of origin.

2. The Member States shall forward to the Commission, at its request, and by the 11th day of each month at the latest, details of the quantities of products for which the benefit of the present arrangements were granted during the previous months. The Member States and the Commission shall cooperate closely to ensure that this provision is complied with.

Article 17

1. A Committee for the Management of Generalized Preferences, hereinafter referred to as 'the Committee', is hereby set up. It shall consist of representatives of the Member States and shall be chaired by a representative of the Commission.

2. The Committee shall adopt its Rules of Procedure.

Article 18

1. The Committee may examine any matter relating to the application of this Regulation which is raised by its chairman either on his own initiative or at the request of a Member State's representative.

2. On the basis of an annual report from the Commission, it shall examine the extent to which the principle of neutrality of the effects of this scheme has been observed and any steps being considered by the Commission, either in accordance with the procedure laid down in Article 19 or through proposal submitted to the Council, to ensure proper observance thereof.

3. It shall also examine, on the basis of an annual report from the Commission, the effects of the special arrangements with regard to drugs, including the progress made by the countries listed in Annex V in the fight against drugs and, if progress is insufficient, any measures which the Commission is considering taking, in accordance with the procedure laid down in Article 19 and after consulting the country concerned, to suspend in whole or in part the application of Article 3.

Article 19

1. The Commission representative shall submit to the Committee a draft to the measures to be taken. The Committee shall deliver its opinion on the draft within a time limit which the chairman may lay down according to the urgency of the matter. The opinion shall be delivered by the majority laid down in Article 148 (2) of the Treaty. The chairman shall not vote.

2. (a) The Commission shall adopt the measures envisaged if they are in accordance with the opinion of the Committee.

(b) If the measures envisaged are not in accordance with the opinion of the Committee, or if no opinion is delivered, the Commission shall, without delay, submit to the Council a proposal relating to the measures to be taken. The Council shall act by a qualified majority.

(c) If, within three months of referral to the Council, the Council has not acted, the proposed measures shall be adopted by the Commission.

TITLE V

Transitional provisions

Article 20

1. In derogation from Article 2, the benefit of the preferential arrangements applicable in the Member States in 1994 may be granted to goods put into free circulation in the Community before 15 March 1995, provided that:

- the goods concerned are covered by a purchase contract concluded during 1994, and
- it can be shown to the satisfaction of the customs authorities that those goods left the country of origin before 1 January 1995, and
- the benefit of those preferential arrangements has not been stopped either by Commission regulation or by reason of the exhaustion of a tariff quota.

2. The customs authorities may regard the second indent of paragraph 1 as having been satisfied if one of the following documents is submitted to them:

- in the case of transport by sea or waterway, the bill of lading showing that loading took place before that date,
- in the case of transport by rail, the consignment note accepted by the railways of the expediting country before that date,
- in the case of transport by road, the TIR (international road transport) carnet issued before that date by the customs office in the country of origin or any other appropriate document authenticated by the relevant customs authorities of the country of origin before that date,
- in the case of transport by air, the air consignment note showing that the airline received the goods before that date.

Article 21

This Regulation shall enter into force on 1 January 1995.

It shall be applicable for four years.

This Regulation shall be binding in its entirety and directly applicable in all Member States.

(1) Application of Article 5(1).

PART 2

Identification of countries and sectors referred to in Article 4

I. Classification of beneficiary countries by development index

The development index represents each country's overall level of industrial development compared with that of the European Union. It is based on the following formula, which combines per capita income with the level of manufactured exports:

$$\frac{\{\log[(Y_i/POP_i)/(Y_{ue}/POP_{ue})] + \log[X_i/X_{ue}]\}}{2}$$ in which:

- $Y_i$  = the beneficiary country's income,
- $Y_{ue}$  = the European Union's income,
- $POP_i$  = the beneficiary country's population,
- $POP_{ue}$  = the population of the European Union,
- $X_i$  = the value of the beneficiary country's manufactured exports,
- $X_{ue}$  = the value of the European Union's manufactured exports.

Using this formula, an index of 0 means the beneficiary's level of industrial development is equal to that of the European Union.

Figures for income and population are taken from World Bank statistics (World Development Report 1993) and those for manufactured exports from the Unctad Handbook of International Trade and Development Statistics (1992).

II. Classification of beneficiary countries by relative sectoral specialization index

A beneficiary country's specialization index is derived from the relationship between the proportion of imports in a determined sector coming from this country within the total amount of Community imports in this sector, on the one hand, and on the other hand, this country's share proportion of the total Community imports.

III. Combining the development and specialization indexes

The combination of these two indexes determines how Article 4 will be applied to each beneficiary country.

For countries with a development index greater than -1, Article 4 will apply when the specialization index equals or exceeds 1.

For countries with a development index between -1 and -1,23, Article 4 will apply when the specialization index equals or exceeds 1,5.

For countries with a development index between -1,23 and -1,70, Article 4 will apply when the specialization index equals or exceeds 5.

For countries with a development index between -1,70 and -2, Article 4 will apply when the specialization index equals or exceeds 7.

Article 4 will not apply to countries with a development index of less than -2.

COUNCIL REGULATION (EC) No 3282/94

of 19 December 1994

extending into 1995 the application of Regulations (EEC) No 3833/90, (EEC) No 3835/90 and (EEC) No 3900/91 applying generalized tariff preferences in respect of certain agricultural products originating in developing countries

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Community, and in particular Article 113,

Having regard to the proposal from the Commission (1),

Having regard to the opinion of the European Parliament (2),

Having regard to the opinion of the Economic and Social Committee (3),

Whereas within the context of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (Unctad), the European Community offered to grant tariff preferences on certain agricultural products of Chapters 1 to 24 of the Common Customs Tariff which originate in developing countries; whereas the preferential treatment proposed in the offer consists, in respect of certain goods which are subject to the trade arrangements laid down in Regulation (EEC) No 3033/80 (4), of a reduction in the fixed component of the charge applicable to such goods by virtue of that Regulation, and, in respect of products which are subject to the single customs duty, of a reduction in such duty; whereas preferential imports of the products concerned should be effected in general without quantitative restrictions;

Whereas the positive role played by this system in improving access for developing countries to the markets of the preference-giving countries was recognized at the ninth session of the Unctad Special Committee on Preferences; whereas it was there agreed that the objectives of the system of generalized preferences would not be fully achieved by the end of 1980, that consequently it should be prolonged beyond the initial period, as an overall review of the system was started in 1990;

Whereas the part of the Community's scheme of generalized preferences covering industrial products is the subject of a Regulation applicable for three years and based on the 10-year guidelines adopted by the Community; whereas, in view of the special problems relating to the implementation of the results of the Uruguay Round for the products referred to in this Regulation, it appears unlikely that a Regulation based on the new 10-year guidelines for these products can be envisaged before the end of 1995; whereas, therefore, the current scheme for agricultural products should be temporarily renewed, subject to certain improvements, pending the introduction of a new agricultural scheme on 1 January 1996;

Whereas countries undertaking effective programmes to combat drug production and trafficking should, however, remain entitled to the more favourable arrangements granted them under the previous scheme; whereas the countries concerned, together with Venezuela except in respect of fisheries products, will therefore continue to enjoy duty-free access,

HAS ADOPTED THIS REGULATION:

Article 1

Regulations (EEC) No 3833/90, (EEC) No 3835/90 and (EEC) No 3900/91 applying generalized tariff preferences in respect of certain agricultural products originating in developing countries shall apply mutatis mutandis from 1 January 1995 to 31 December 1995.

References in the Regulations mentioned in the first subparagraph to specific dates in 1991 and 1992 shall be taken to refer to the same dates in 1995 or 1996 respectively.
