It was also stated that measures against those responsible for violence, unjustified arrests and falsification of election results could be taken.
- (3) Given the escalation of the serious human rights violations in Belarus, and the violent repression of civil society, democratic opposition and journalists as well as of persons belonging to national minorities, additional designations of persons and entities should be adopted.
- (4) On 24 and 25 May 2021, the European Council adopted conclusions in which it strongly condemned the forced landing of a Ryanair flight in Minsk, Belarus, on 23 May 2021 endangering aviation safety, and the detention by Belarusian authorities of journalist Raman Pratasevich and Sofia Sapega. It called on the Council to adopt additional listings of persons and entities as soon as possible on the basis of the relevant sanctions framework.

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,

Having regard to Council Decision 2012/642/CFSP of 15 October 2012 concerning restrictive measures in view of the situation in Belarus ⁽¹⁾, and in particular Article 6(1) thereof,

Having regard to the proposals from the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy,

Whereas:

- (1) On 15 October 2012, the Council adopted Decision 2012/642/CFSP.
- (2) On 9 August 2020, Belarus conducted presidential elections, which were found to be inconsistent with international standards and marred by the repression of independent candidates and a brutal crackdown on peaceful protesters in the wake of those elections. On 11 August 2020, the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy issued a declaration on behalf of the Union, assessing that the elections were neither free nor fair. It was also stated that measures against those responsible for violence, unjustified arrests and falsification of election results could be taken.
- (3) On 2 October 2020, the Council adopted Implementing Decision (CFSP) 2020/1388 ⁽²⁾ which designated 40 persons identified as responsible for the repression and intimidation of peaceful demonstrators, opposition members and journalists in the wake of the 2020 presidential elections in Belarus, as well as for the Central Electoral Commission's misconduct of the electoral process for those elections.
- (4) On 6 November 2020, in view of the gravity of the situation in Belarus, the Council adopted Implementing Decision (CFSP) 2020/1650 ⁽³⁾, which designated Aliaksandr Lukashenka and 14 other persons, among them persons from his close circle.
- (5) On 17 December 2020, in view of the repression of civil society in Belarus the Council adopted Implementing Decision (CFSP) 2020/2130 ⁽⁴⁾, which designated 29 persons and 7 entities.
- (6) Given the escalation of the serious human rights violations in Belarus, and the violent repression of civil society, democratic opposition and journalists as well as of persons belonging to national minorities, additional designations of persons and entities should be adopted.
- (7) On 24 and 25 May 2021, the European Council adopted conclusions in which it strongly condemned the forced landing of a Ryanair flight in Minsk, Belarus, on 23 May 2021 endangering aviation safety, and the detention by Belarusian authorities of journalist Raman Pratasevich and Sofia Sapega. It called on the Council to adopt additional listings of persons and entities as soon as possible on the basis of the relevant sanctions framework.
- (8) 78 persons and 7 entities should therefore be added to the list of persons and entities subject to restrictive measures set out in the Annex to Decision 2012/642/CFSP,
