

ORDER OF THE COURT OF FIRST INSTANCE (Fifth Chamber) 14 January 1993 ^{*}

In Case T-92/92 AJ,

Loïc Lallemand-Zeller, residing at Sceaux (France),

applicant,

v

Commission of the European Communities,

defendant,

APPLICATION for legal aid pursuant to Article 94 of the Rules of Procedure,

THE COURT OF FIRST INSTANCE OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES (Fifth Chamber), composed of: D. P. M. Barrington, President, R. Schintgen and A. Kalogeropoulos, Judges,

Registrar: H. Jung,

having regard to Articles 94 and 95 of the Rules of Procedure,

makes the following

Order

By letter received at the Registry of the Court of First Instance on 13 November 1992, Loïc Lallemand-Zeller applied for legal aid in order to bring an action against the Commission of the European Communities following the decision of the Selection Board for Competition COM/A/721 not to admit him to the oral tests in view of the results obtained in the written tests.

^{*} Language of the case: French.

Mr Lallemand-Zeller stated that he lacked means and lodged in support of his application a letter from the local social welfare department certifying that he has been without income since July 1992.

In its observations lodged at the Court Registry on 27 November 1992, the Commission stated that, in its opinion, the application for legal aid ought to be granted.

The applicant should be granted legal aid.

The applicant has taken no action in response to the request made by letter of 4 December 1992 that he should indicate a lawyer of his choice to act for him; Aloyse May, of the Luxembourg Bar, should therefore be appointed for this purpose.

In order to give due effect to the present application for legal aid, which has been lodged without the assistance of a lawyer, it should be noted that the lodging of that application, which appears to be justified, before the initiation of proceedings and within the period prescribed for that purpose, has prevented time from running for the purposes of bringing proceedings until the date on which the applicant is served with the present order granting him legal aid and appointing his lawyer.

THE COURT OF FIRST INSTANCE (Fifth Chamber)

hereby orders:

1. Loïc Lallemand-Zeller is granted legal aid.
2. Aloyse May of the Luxembourg Bar is appointed to act for the applicant.

3. Time for the purposes of bringing proceedings shall not run from 13 November 1992 until the date on which the applicant is served with the present order.
4. The decision on the amount of expenses and fees to be paid by way of legal aid is reserved.
