EXPOSIÇÃO DOS MOTIVOS

Na sua reunião especial de 13 de Dezembro de 1996, em Singapura, o Conselho aprovou (1) uma Declaração Ministerial sobre o Comércio de Produtos das Tecnologias da Informação e (2) congratulou-se com o acordo bilateral ad referendum obtido com os EUA sobre a aceleração da aplicação das taxas de direito nulo previstas no âmbito do Uruguay Round às bebidas espirituosas.

No que diz respeito ao Acordo sobre Tecnologias da Informação (ATI), o Conselho recorda que, em 3 de Dezembro de 1995, no âmbito da Cimeira UE/EUA de Madrid, a UE e os EUA estabeleceram uma Nova Agenda Transatlântica que refere, nomeadamente, “Tendo em conta a importância da sociedade da informação, estaremos a lançar trabalhos específicos com vista a concluir um acordo sobre a tecnologia da informação.” O fórum industrial “Diálogo Comercial Transatlântico”, que decorreu paralelamente e de forma associada, realçou a importância deste compromisso político ao declarar que “a grande maioria dos participantes considera que o ATI deverá incluir um compromisso no sentido de serem eliminados todos os direitos até Janeiro de 2000, ou mesmo antes dessa data.”.

Em 22 de Outubro de 1996, na sequência de consultas preliminares com uma série de países terceiros e de conversações realizadas no âmbito do Comité especial previsto no artigo 113º do Tratado, a Comissão propôs ao Conselho que adoptasse uma decisão relativa à abertura de negociações com países terceiros, tendo em vista a conclusão de um Acordo sobre Tecnologias de Informação. Esta decisão foi adoptada pelo Conselho em 15 de Novembro de 1996.

Na sequência das negociações plurilaterais foi adoptada, em 13 de Dezembro de 1996, em Singapura, uma Declaração Ministerial por 15 Membros da OMC ou Estados em vias de adesão a esta organização (Austrália, Canadá, Taiwan, UE, Hong Kong, Islândia, Indonésia, Japão, Coreia, Liechtenstein, Noruega, Singapura, Suíça, Turquia e Estados Unidos). Essa Declaração definiu como objectivo a eliminação dos direitos aduaneiros até ao ano 2000 (prevendo reduções em quatro fases idênticas) para os produtos das TI pormenorizadamente enumerados nos anexos. Chama-se especialmente a atenção para o ponto 4 das modalidades da Declaração:

“ Os participantes reunir-se-ão logo que possível e, em qualquer caso, o mais tardar em 1 de Abril de 1997, para analisarem a situação no que respeita às aceitações recebidas e avaliarem as conclusões a retirar. Os participantes aplicarão as acções previstas na declaração, desde que um número de participantes representando cerca de 90 por cento do comércio mundial¹ de produtos das tecnologias da informação tenham entretanto notificado a sua aceitação e que a eliminação por fases tenha sido acordada, a contento dos participantes. A fim de determinarem se a aplicação das acções previstas na declaração deve ser concretizada, caso a percentagem do comércio mundial representada pelos participantes se situe abaixo de 90 por cento do comércio mundial dos produtos das tecnologias da informação, os participantes podem ter em conta a participação de Estados ou de territórios aduaneiros distintos que para eles representem uma parte substancial do seu próprio comércio desses produtos. No decurso dessa reunião, os participantes determinarão se esses critérios foram satisfeitos.”.

As discussões técnicas plurilaterais previstas no âmbito da Declaração Ministerial foram concluídas em 31 de Janeiro de 1996. A lista dos produtos abrangidos foi objecto de debate, não tendo, no entanto, o anexo inicial da Declaração Ministerial sido alterado. Ficou acordado que a primeira ronda de consultas sobre a lista alargada dos produtos abrangidos seria iniciada em 1 de Outubro de 1997, tendo-se ainda chegado a um acordo ad referendum sobre os pedidos de prorrogação das fases apresentados por alguns dos signatários iniciais. Entre esses signatários figuram a Indonésia, a Coreia e Taiwan. A Nova Zelândia, que não solicitou uma prorrogação adicional, e a Costa Rica, na sequência do acordo a que chegou com os outros participantes sobre o seu pedido de prorrogação adicional, tornaram-se participantes.

Numa reunião especial realizada em 13 de Dezembro de 1996, em Singapura, o Conselho decidiu que era necessário adoptar uma nova decisão do Conselho, antes da revisão que deve ser efectuada até 1 de Abril de 1997, para formalizar uma aceitação definitiva do acordo. Tal decisão, que será necessária para vincular a Comunidade em relação aos compromissos que assumiu, depende, no entanto, das disposições relativas ao limiar mínimo e de um acordo sobre a eliminação por fases. Para preparar o terreno, o projecto de decisão em anexo foi elaborado no pressuposto de que ambos os critérios se encontram preenchidos. Caso estes critérios não estejam efectivamente preenchidos em finais de Março, a questão terá de ser reexaminada.

No que diz respeito às bebidas espirituosas, a Comissão considera que o acordo obtido com os Estados Unidos sob a forma de um Memorando de Entendimento melhorará consideravelmente as possibilidades de exportação da UE. A Comissão prosseguirá os seus esforços para que outras Partes adiram a este acordo.

Por conseguinte, a Comissão apresenta ao Conselho duas propostas de decisão do Conselho.

Reconhecendo que os resultados dessas negociações incluem igualmente algumas concessões oferecidas durante as negociações que conduziram ao estabelecimento das Listas anexas ao Protocolo de Marráquexe,

Declararam o seguinte:

1. O regime comercial de cada uma das Partes deve evoluir de modo a reforçar as oportunidades de acesso ao mercado para os produtos das tecnologias da informação.

2. Em conformidade com as modalidades estabelecidas no Anexo da presente declaração, as Partes consolidarão e eliminarão os direitos aduaneiros e outros direitos e imposições de qualquer espécie, na acepção do nº 1, alínea b), do artigo II do Acordo Geral sobre Pautas Aduaneiras e Comércio de 1994 no que diz respeito aos seguintes produtos:

(a) Todos os produtos classificados (ou classificáveis) nos códigos do Sistema Harmonizado (1996) ("SH"), enumerados no Apêndice A do Anexo da presente declaração, e

ANEXO

Modalidades e produtos abrangidos

Todos os Membros da Organização Mundial do Comércio e os Estados ou territórios aduaneiros distintos em vias de adesão à OMC podem participar no desenvolvimento do comércio mundial de produtos das tecnologias da informação, em conformidade com as seguintes modalidades:

1. Cada participante deve integrar as medidas descritas no ponto 2 da declaração na respectiva lista do Acordo Geral sobre Pautas Aduaneiras e Comércio de 1994, bem como quer a nível da sua própria posição pautal, quer do código de seis algarismos do Sistema Harmonizado (1996) ("SH"), na sua pauta aduaneira nacional ou em qualquer outra versão publicada da pauta aduaneira, consoante a que for normalmente utilizada pelos importadores e pelos exportadores. Os participantes que não sejam Membros na OMC aplicarão estas medidas numa base autónoma, enquanto se aguarda a conclusão do seu processo de adesão à OMC, devendo integrar estas medidas na respectiva lista OMC de acesso ao mercado para as mercadorias.

2. Para o efeito, no mais curto prazo e o mais tardar em 1 de Março de 1997, cada participante deve transmitir a todos os outros participantes um documento que contenha a) informações pormenorizadas relativas à forma como o regime pautal adequado será aplicado na respectiva lista de concessões OMC e b) uma lista dos códigos SH pormenorizados relativos aos produtos especificados no Apêndice B. Estes documentos serão examinados e aprovados numa base consensual, devendo este processo de exame estar concluído, o mais tardar, em 1 de Abril de 1997. Logo que este processo de exame esteja concluído relativamente a qualquer documento, o mesmo será apresentado como alteração da lista do participante em causa, em conformidade com a Decisão de 26 de Março de 1980 relativa aos procedimentos para alteração e rectificação das listas e concessões pautais (BISD 27S/25).

(a) As concessões que cada participante proporá como alterações à respectiva lista consolidarão e eliminarão todos os direitos aduaneiros e outras imposições e encargos de qualquer tipo aplicáveis aos produtos das tecnologias da informação do seguinte modo:

(i) a eliminação desses direitos aduaneiros realizar-se-á através de reduções idênticas das taxas, salvo decisão em contrário acordada pelos participantes. Salvo decisão em contrário acordada pelos participantes, cada participante consolidará todos os direitos das posições enumeradas nos apêndices o mais tardar em 1 de Julho de 1997 e efectuará a primeira redução pautal efectiva o mais tardar em 1 de Julho de 1997, a segunda redução o mais tardar em 1 de Janeiro de 1998 e a terceira redução o mais tardar em 1 de Janeiro de 1999, devendo a eliminação dos direitos aduaneiros estar completa o mais tardar em 1 de Janeiro de 2000.

Os participantes acordam em incentivar a eliminação autónoma dos direitos aduaneiros antes destas datas. A taxa reduzida deve, em cada fase, ser arredondada para a primeira casa decimal e

(ii) a eliminação dos outros direitos e imposições de qualquer espécie, na acepção do nº 1, alínea b), do artigo II do Acordo Geral, deve estar terminada em 1 de Julho de 1997, salvo especificação em contrário prevista no documento do participante apresentado aos outros participantes para exame.

- (b) As alterações da respectiva lista que cada participante deve propor a fim de aplicar a sua consolidação e a eliminação dos direitos aduaneiros por ele aplicáveis aos produtos das tecnologias da informação, devem permitir atingir aos seguintes resultados:
- (i) no que diz respeito aos códigos SH enumerados no Apêndice A, ao estabelecimento, quando adequado, de subdivisões na respectiva lista a nível das posições pautais nacionais e
 - (ii) no que respeita aos produtos especificados no Apêndice B, à integração de um anexo na respectiva lista que inclua todos os produtos enumerados no Apêndice B e que deve especificar os códigos SH pormenorizados desses produtos, quer a nível da posição pautal nacional, quer a nível do código de seis algarismos do SH.

Os participantes alterarão prontamente as respectivas pautas aduanerias nacionais, a fim de incluírem as alterações que propuseram logo que estas produzam efeitos.

3. Os participantes reunir-se-ão periodicamente sob os auspícios do Conselho do Comércio de Mercadorias para reexaminarem a lista de produtos especificados nos apêndices a fim de chegarem a acordo, por consenso, com base nos desenvolvimentos tecnológicos, na experiência obtida com a aplicação das concessões pautais, ou nas alterações da nomenclatura do SH, uma eventual alteração dos apêndices a fim de incluir novos produtos, bem como para se consultarem sobre os entraves não pautais ao comércio de produtos das tecnologias da informação. Essas consultas não prejudicam os direitos e obrigações decorrentes do acordo OMC.

4. Os participantes reunir-se-ão logo que possível e, em qualquer caso, o mais tardar em 1 de Abril de 1997, para analisarem a situação no que respeita às aceitações recebidas e avaliarem as conclusões a retirar. Os participantes aplicarão as acções previstas na declaração, desde que um número de participantes representando cerca de 90 por cento do comércio mundial² de produtos das tecnologias da informação tenham entretanto notificado a sua aceitação e que a eliminação por fases tenha sido acordada, a contento dos participantes. A fim de determinarem se a aplicação das acções previstas na declaração deve ser concretizada, caso a percentagem do comércio mundial representada pelos participantes se situe abaixo de 90 por cento do comércio mundial dos produtos das tecnologias da informação, os participantes podem ter em conta a participação de Estados ou de territórios aduaneiros distintos que para eles representem uma parte substancial do seu próprio comércio desses produtos. No decurso dessa reunião, os participantes determinarão se esses critérios foram satisfeitos.

² Esta percentagem será calculada pelo Secretariado da OMC com base nos dados mais recentes disponíveis por ocasião da reunião.

5. Os participantes reunir-se-ão sempre que necessário e o mais tardar em 30 de Setembro de 1997, a fim de analisarem quaisquer divergências existentes quanto à classificação dos produtos das tecnologias da informação, começando pelos produtos especificados no Apêndice B. Os participantes acordam quanto ao objectivo comum de alcançar, sempre que adequado, uma classificação comum para estes produtos no âmbito da actual nomenclatura SH, tendo em conta as interpretações e as decisões do Conselho de Cooperação Aduaneira (igualmente designado “Organização Mundial das Alfândegas” ou “OMA”). Sempre que subsista uma divergência na classificação, os participantes considerarão a possibilidade de apresentar uma sugestão conjunta à OMA com vista a actualizar a actual nomenclatura do SH ou a resolver a divergência de interpretação da nomenclatura do SH.

6. Os participantes reconhecem que o artigo XXIII do Acordo Geral rege a anulação ou a redução das vantagens que para um participante Membro da OMC decorrem directa ou indirectamente da aplicação da presente declaração, em consequência da aplicação por um outro participante Membro da OMC de qualquer medida, independentemente de a mesma ser ou não contrária às disposições do Acordo Geral.

7. Cada participante acolherá favoravelmente qualquer pedido de realização de consultas de um outro participante no que respeita aos compromissos acima referidos. Essas consultas não prejudicarão os direitos e obrigações decorrentes do Acordo OMC.

8. Os participantes que actuem sob os auspícios do Conselho do Comércio de Mercadorias informarão os outros Membros da OMC e os Estados ou territórios aduaneiros distintos em vias de adesão à OMC sobre estas modalidades e iniciarão consultas com vista a facilitar a sua participação no desenvolvimento do comércio de produtos das tecnologias da informação com base na declaração.

9. Na acepção das presentes disposições, o termo “participante” designa os Membros da OMC ou os Estados ou territórios aduaneiros distintos em vias de adesão à OMC que apresentem o documento descrito no ponto 2 o mais tardar em 1 de Março de 1997.

10. O presente anexo estará aberto à aceitação de todos os Membros da OMC e de qualquer Estado ou território aduaneiro distinto em vias de adesão à OMC. As aceitações serão notificadas por escrito ao Director-Geral que as comunicará a todos os participantes.

FICHA FINANCEIRA

1. Proposta de Decisão do Conselho relativa à eliminação de direitos aplicáveis aos produtos das tecnologias da informação e a determinadas bebidas espirituosas.
2. Rubrica orçamental: Capítulo 12/artigo 120º
3. Base jurídica: Artigo 113º
4. Descrição: A proposta resulta da Decisão do Conselho de encetar negociações com países terceiros tendo em vista a conclusão de um Acordo sobre Tecnologias da Informação e do compromisso político assumido pelos Ministros na Conferência Ministerial de Singapura, em 13 de Dezembro de 1996.

A proposta tem por objecto a eliminação, até ao ano 2000, dos direitos aplicáveis aos produtos das tecnologias da informação e a determinadas bebidas espirituosas.

5. Natureza da receita : Perda das receitas geradas pelos direitos pagos pelas importações originárias de países terceiros.

Alteração do nível das receitas :

A eliminação dos direitos aplicáveis às importações de produtos das tecnologias da informação será efectuada em quatro fases anuais iguais, entre 1 de Julho de 1997 e 1 de Janeiro do ano 2000. A perda dos direitos cobrados é calculada como sendo a diferença entre a taxa do direito acordado no âmbito das negociações do Uruguay Round (para cada ano) e a taxa acordada no âmbito do ATI (para o mesmo ano) relativamente a um volume de importações equivalente ao de 1995 (ver anexo). A perda de receitas decorrente do ATI equivale, pois, simplesmente à perda de receitas adicionais. Elevar-se-á no total a :

1.7.1997:	242,6 milhões de ecus
1.1.1998:	643,3 milhões de ecus
1.1.1989:	891,3 milhões de ecus
1.1.2000:	1241,8 milhões de ecus

No que diz respeito às bebidas espirituosas, com base nas importações realizadas pela Europa dos Quinze em 1995 e de equivalentes ad valorem (ave) para todas as importações NMF de 1995, a perda de direitos cobrados elevar-se-á a :

1.7.1997:	0,5 milhões de ecus
1.1.1998:	1,6 milhões de ecus
1.1.1999:	2 milhões de ecus
1.1.2000:	2,5 milhões de ecus
1.1.2001:	1,9 milhões de ecus
1.1.2002:	1,2 milhões de ecus
1.1.2003:	0,7 milhões de ecus

A média anual é de 1625 kilo-ecus (6,5 anos) e o total eleva-se a 10, 5 milhões de ecus.

A diminuição, em termos de valor, dos recursos próprios tradicionais será compensada por um maior recurso aos recursos próprios PNB.
