

Form of order sought

The applicant claims that the Tribunal should:

- Annul the decision not to extend the applicant's contract beyond 30 September 2009 and the refusal to take any measure to regularise the administrative situation of the applicant, who has carried out permanent tasks at the institution for 16 years;
- Order the Council of the European Union to pay the costs.

---

Action brought on 29 January 2010 — Hecq v Commission

(Case F-10/10)

(2010/C 100/103)

Language of the case: French

Parties

Applicant: André Hecq (Chaumont-Gistoux, Belgium) (represented by: L. Vogel, lawyer)

Defendant: European Commission

Subject-matter and description of the proceedings

The annulment of the Commission's decision rejecting an application for reimbursement of 100 % of various medical costs.

Form of order sought

The applicant claims that the Tribunal should:

- Annul the implied decision, which the appointing authority is deemed to have adopted on 7 April 2009, rejecting the applicant's application, dated 7 December 2008, by which he requested the reimbursement in their entirety, pursuant to Article 73 of the Staff Regulations, of three instances of medical treatment, namely a psychiatrist's appointment of 6 October 2008, medication prescribed by the same psychiatrist and issued to the applicant on 21 October 2008 and a doctor's appointment of 1 December 2008;
  - So far as necessary, annul the decision adopted by the appointing authority on 20 October 2009 by which that authority rejected the applicant's complaint brought on 25 June 2009, against that implied decision of 7 April 2009;
  - Order the European Commission to pay the costs.
-