EU law and related documents

The European Union (EU) has its own legal system, whose main rules and principles are laid down in the founding Treaties. The EU can adopt legislative acts, which member countries must comply with and apply.

Find out more about the legal sources of EU law.

View the complete text and life cycle of EU legal documents by searching or navigating through the EU legal collections:

- Treaties
- EU Legislation
- Consolidated acts
- EFTA documents
- EU Preparatory acts
- EU case law
- Parliamentary questions
- International agreements