JURE case law

The JURE (Jurisdiction, recognition and enforcement of judgments in civil and commercial matters) collection contains relevant judgments delivered by courts in contracting states (EU Member States and if applicable Iceland, Norway and Switzerland) and the EU Court of Justice under the following:

- Brussels Convention (1968)
- Lugano Convention (1988)
- New Lugano Convention (2007)

The judgments are available in their original language only.
There is also a summary of each judgment in English, French and German (and in the original language, if the country in question provides one).
