Archived summaries

- e-Health: improving health and healthcare through the use of information and communications technologies
- Green Paper on Mental Health
- A new strategic approach to health for the EU (2008-2013)
- Drinking and driving: Maximum authorised level of alcohol in the blood
- Community action in the field of mental health
- Environment and Health Action Plan 2004-2010
- Ban on smoking in public places
- Obesity, nutrition and physical activity
- Telemedicine systems and services
- Early warning and response system for the prevention and control of communicable diseases
- Nutrition and health
- BSE: state of play in March 2003
- Manufacture, presentation and sale of tobacco products
- Exposure to environmental tobacco smoke (Proposal)
- Healthy diet for a healthy life
- The future of health care and care for the elderly: guaranteeing accessibility, quality and financial viability
- Community Tobacco Fund: information programmes
- Green Paper on promoting healthy diets and physical activity
- Programme of Community action in the field of public health (2003-2008)
- Environment and health strategy
- Exposure to electromagnetic fields
- Modern, responsive and sustainable health systems
- Green Paper on promoting smoke-free areas in the European Union
- Drinking of alcohol by young people
- Executive Agency for Health and Consumers
- Action against Cancer: European Partnership (2009-2013)
- Informing the general public in the event of a radiological emergency
- Preparing for an influenza pandemic and other health threats
- Preventing HIV/AIDS (Council conclusions of 2005)
- Network for the surveillance and control of communicable diseases
- Women’s health
- Community strategy against antimicrobial resistance
- Antibiotic resistance
- The fight against bioterrorism (communication)
- Rare diseases: Europe’s challenges
Community strategy to reduce alcohol-related harm (Council conclusions - 2001)
Combating stigma and discrimination in relation to mental health
Combating stress and depression-related problems
New Community health strategy
Action plan on Organ Donation and Transplantation
Second programme of Community action in the field of health (2008-2013)
Organ donation and transplantation in the European Union
Scientific Committees for consumer safety, public health and the environment
Suitability of blood donors
Radiological protection for persons undergoing medical examination or treatment
Exposure to electromagnetic fields