Proposal for a Council Decision on the signing, on behalf of the European Union, and provisional application of the Partnership Agreement between the European Union and its Member States, of the one part, and the Common Market of the South, the Argentine Republic, the Federative Republic of Brazil, the Republic of Paraguay and the Oriental Republic of Uruguay, of the other part

SPECIFIC COMMITMENTS OF THE SIGNATORY MERCOSUR STATES
IN CONFORMITY WITH ARTICLES 18.3 AND 18.4

General conditions

1. The specific commitments listed below indicate the services and non-services sectors liberalised pursuant to Articles 18.3(1), 18.4(1), 18.5, 18.8, 18.9, 18.10(1) and 18.10(2) and specifies by means of reservations the market access and national treatment limitations that apply.
2. The specific commitments listed below shall not be interpreted as limitations to domestic regulation or as limitations on the introduction of new regulations with a view to achieving national policy objectives, in accordance with the fourth paragraph of the preamble to the GATS and the main objectives of Part III of this Agreement.
3. The list of specific commitments for individual services sectors and subsectors is elaborated on the basis of a positive list approach and is identified in accordance with the classification list in Document MTN.GNS/W/120 of the WTO and the corresponding numbers in the CPC, as defined in Article 9.3(c).

4. The list of specific commitments for non-services sectors is elaborated on the basis of a positive list approach and identified in accordance with the International Standard Industrial Classification of all Economic Activities as set out in Statistical Office of the United Nations, Statistical Papers, Series M, No. 4, ISIC Rev. 3, 1989, hereinafter referred to as "ISIC – Rev.3", for Argentina, Paraguay and Uruguay. For Brazil, the list of specific commitments for non-services sectors is identified in accordance with the Central Product Classification as set out in Statistical Office of the United Nations, Statistical Papers, Series M, N° 77, CPC, 2008, hereinafter referred to as "CPC – Rev. 2", and covers only non-services sectors or activities (headings 0, 1, 2, 3 and 4).
5. If no reference is made by one or more Signatory MERCOSUR States to a specific sector or subsector, that Signatory MERCOSUR State or those Signatory MERCOSUR States do not make any commitments for that specific sector or subsector.
6. Measures that are inconsistent with both Articles 18.3 and 18.4 are listed in the column relating to Article 18.3. Such listing shall also be considered to provide a condition or qualification to Article 18.4.

Specific conditions

Argentina

7. Argentina reserves the right to use exchange rate regulations which are in conformity with the Articles of Agreement of the International Monetary Fund, done at Bretton Woods, New Hampshire, on July 22, 1944.

Brazil

8. In cases of doubt or divergence between the list of specific commitments made by Brazil for non-services sectors and for services sectors, the latter shall prevail.
9. For the purposes of interpretation of list of specific commitments made by Brazil, the cross-border supply of services through electronic means, including the Internet, shall be limited to Mode 1.

Paraguay and Uruguay

10. The list of specific commitments made by Paraguay and Uruguay are without prejudice to existing bilateral agreements concluded by Paraguay and Uruguay relating to taxes and tax measures or to the capacity of Signatory MERCOSUR States to pursue the objectives of their fiscal policies.

BRAZIL C. TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICES (i) "Telecommunications services" means, for the purposes of the commitments by Brazil on telecommunications services, the transport of electronic magnetic signals, sound, data, image and any combination thereof, excluding broadcasting. (ii) The Federal Constitution of Brazil guarantees all acquired rights of service providers already established in Brazil. The Government of Brazil has the legal prerogative to consider limits to foreign participation in the capital of telecommunication service providers. (iii) All service suppliers need to obtain a licence from Anatel in order to supply a telecommunication service in Brazil. Licences shall be granted only to suppliers duly constituted in accordance with Brazilian law, which requires head office and management to be located in the territory of Brazil, and ownership of the majority of the voting shares by natural persons resident in Brazil or companies duly constituted in accordance with Brazilian law, which requires head office and management: to be located in the territory of Brazil. (iv) No commitment is made for the telecommunications services sector with respect to the activities which have their content transported by a telecommunication service. Those activities are subject to the commitments and reservations for their respective sectors.

Modes of supply: 1) Cross-border supply 2) Consumption abroad 3) Commercial presence 4) Presence of natural persons

Sector or subsector	Limitations on market access	Limitations on national treatment	Additional commitments
(v) Foreign satellites shall be permitted to have market access in Brazil and regulatory decisions on the grant of such access shall be based on a transparent, objective process and taken on a reciprocal basis. Telecommunication service providers shall use Brazilian satellites if they offer technical, operational or commercial conditions equivalent to foreign satellites. (vi) No limits shall be applied to the quantity of licences that can be granted for the supply of telecommunications services, except in cases of technical impossibility, such as issues regarding spectrum availability, or to avoid impairment to the supply of specific public interest services. (vii) Value-added-services are not defined as telecommunications services by Brazilian law. (viii) Suppliers of telecommunications services of collective interest constituted in Brazil in accordance with Brazilian law shall have the right to use the physical facilities (posts, ducts, conducts, servitudes) owned or controlled by other suppliers of telecommunications services or other services of public interest in a non-discriminatory manner and subject to fair and reasonable prices and conditions. The regulatory authority responsible for the facilities to be used shall define the conditions for the adequate fulfilment of this provision. (ix) Authorisations for the supply of telecommunications services of restricted interest can be granted to juridical persons constituted in accordance with Brazilian law and which have their head office and administration in Brazil and to other entities or natural persons that are established or resident in Brazil.

Modes of supply: 1) Cross-border supply 2) Consumption abroad 3) Commercial presence 4) Presence of natural persons

II. SPECIFIC COMMITMENTS FOR SERVICES
Sector or subsector	Limitations on market access	Limitations on national treatment	Additional commitments
BRAZIL Brazil reserves the right to adopt or maintain any prudential measure. Financial service suppliers shall be organised as a "sociedade anônima" (publicly-held company), unless otherwise specified. Financial service suppliers of banking services shall be authorised by Presidential decree in order to be incorporated under Brazilian law. Business sellers, contractual service suppliers and independent professionals are not allowed to supply financial services in Brazil. There are limits provided by law to the acquisition of foreign financial services by Brazilian financial institutions. Financial services supplied by an offshore financial service supplier¹ are not subject to the specific commitments for financial services.

¹ "Offshore financial service supplier" means any financial service supplier, set up in accordance with the laws of a Member State of the Union or of a Signatory MERCOSUR State, which is owned or controlled by juridical persons which are non-residents of Brazil and whose activities are mostly related to such non-residents, and are generally on a scale out of proportion to the size of the economy of the host Member State. These institutions, could otherwise benefit from Part III of this Agreement in a way they would not if their services were supplied from the European Union: country of origin of the owner or controller. <http://www.imf.org/external/pubs/ft/eds/Eng/Guide/file6.pdf>

BRAZIL 7.B. Banking and Other Financial Services (Excluding Insurance) Horizontal Subsector Provisions: For commitments under Mode 3): The establishment of financial institutions, including all types of bank, consumer, real estate or mortgage finance company, credit cooperative or company, leasing company, broker and dealer, as well as increases in the participation of foreign persons (natural or juridical persons) in the capital of financial institutions incorporated under Brazilian law, requires a specific authorisation granted on a case-by-case basis by the Executive Branch, by means of a Presidential decree. The grant of such authorisation may be subject to specific conditions. Institutions authorised to perform financial activities may only perform activities, for which they are authorised, in accordance with Brazilian laws and regulations. Representative offices may not engage in commercial business. Note for transparency purposes regarding domestic regulation: services included in subsector 7.B.1 are those currently under primary responsibility of the Central Bank of Brazil (BACEN – "Banco Central do Brasil"), and those included in subsector 7.B.2 are those under primary responsibility of the Brazilian Securities Commission (CVM – "Comissão de Valores Mobiliários"). Only institutions accredited by those agencies may render activities listed in this subsector.

Securities, for commitments under subsector 7.B.2, are: corporate shares, debentures, secured bonds, founder's shares (extinguished in 2001, with existing shares being grandfathered), coupons of these securities; subscription warrants and rights or receipts; securities certificates of deposit; any type of derivatives, including options, forwards, swaps and futures contracts; commercial paper issued by public companies, with the exception of financial institutions; open or closed-ended mutual funds, including real estate-funds (shares of real estate investment funds); and any type of collective investment instrument offered to the public that creates the right of participation in profits or other type of capital remuneration. All members of senior level management of financial service suppliers must be permanent residents in Brazil. Domicile in Brazil is needed, but this concept is non-discriminatory, as it is currently extendable to non-resident foreigners. In practice, only an address in Brazil is needed to register, with a working address being accepted for these purposes. Note for subsector 7.B.: (1) Note for transparency purposes regarding domestic regulation: the activities listed in this sector are regulated by specific rules enacted by the Brazilian Securities Commission – CVM. Current regulations are available at CVM's website (www.cvm.gov.br). The commitments are specific to the listed activities.

MARITIME TRANSPORT ARGENTINA NOTE TO THE ARGENTINE COMMITMENTS Where road, rail, inland waterways and auxiliary services are not otherwise fully covered by the commitments listed above, a multimodal transport operator shall have the ability to rent or lease trucks, railway carriages or barges, and related equipment to local enterprises for the purpose of inland forwarding of cargoes, or have access to, and use of, these forms of multimodal activities on reasonable and non-discriminatory terms and conditions for the purpose of carrying out multimodal transport operations. "Reasonable and non-discriminatory terms and conditions" means, for the purpose of multimodal transport operations, the ability of the multimodal transport operator to arrange for the conveyance of its merchandise on a timely basis, including priority over other merchandise which has entered the port at a later date. DEFINITIONS 1. Without prejudice to the scope of activities which may be considered as "cabotage" under the relevant national laws and regulations, commitments listed above do not include "maritime cabotage services", which are assumed to cover transportation of passengers or goods, including goods bound for foreign destinations, between a port located in Argentina and another port located in Argentina and traffic originating and terminating in the same port located in Argentina provided that this traffic remains within Argentina's territorial waters.

PARAGUAY – ADDITIONAL COMMITMENTS FOR FINANCIAL SERVICES

EFFECTIVE AND TRANSPARENT REGULATION
IN THE FINANCIAL SERVICES SECTOR

1. Each Party shall publish promptly or, except in emergency situations, at the latest by the time of their entry into force, all relevant measures of general application which pertain to or affect this Annex. Such measures shall be provided:
 - (a) by means of an official publication; or
 - (b) in another written or electronic form.
2. Each Party's appropriate financial authority shall make available to interested persons its requirements for completing applications relating to the supply of financial services.
3. On the request of an applicant, the appropriate financial authority shall inform the applicant of the status of its application. If such authority requires additional information from the applicant, it shall notify the applicant without undue delay.

4. Each Party shall make its best endeavours to ensure that internationally agreed standards for regulation and supervision in the financial services sector are implemented and applied in its territory. Such internationally agreed standards are, among others, the Core Principles for Effective Banking Supervision of the Basel Committee Banking Supervision, the Insurance Core Principles of the International Association of Insurance Supervisors, the Objectives and Principles of Securities Regulation of the International Organisation of Securities Commission and the 40 recommendations of the Financial Action Task Force on Money Laundering.

MUTUAL RECOGNITION OF PRUDENTIAL MEASURES

1. A Party may recognise prudential measures of the other Party in determining how the Party's measures relating to financial services shall be applied. Such recognition, which may be achieved through harmonisation or otherwise, may be based upon an agreement or arrangement or may be accorded autonomously.
2. A Party that is a party to an agreement or arrangement with a third party as referred to in paragraph 1 whether future or existing, shall grant adequate opportunity for the other Party to negotiate its accession to such agreements or arrangements, or to negotiate comparable ones with it, in circumstances in which there would be equivalent regulation, implementation of such regulation, oversight and, if appropriate, procedures concerning the sharing of information between the parties to the agreement or arrangement. If a Party accords recognition autonomously, it shall grant adequate opportunity for the other Party to demonstrate that such circumstances exist.
